UNITED SOCCER COACHES ALL-AMERICANS

Fourteen Huskers have earned 20 All-America awards from the United Soccer Coaches (formerly the NSCAA) in the past 30 seasons.

Eleanor Dale became Nebraska's most recent All-American after her record setting and program-breaking senior season in 2023. Dale rewrote the record books after tallying 28 goals and earning multiple national and regional honors. Dale was the first Husker first-team member since 2000.

Jaycie Johnson earned third team honors in 2016 as she led the team in goals scored (11), points (24) and game-winning goals (6) during the 2016 campaign.

Midfielder Kari Uppinghouse was Nebraska's first first-team All-American in 1996. Uppinghouse provided a dominant physical presence in the midfield while leading the Huskers to their first NCAA Tournament and a 23-game winning streak as a junior in 1996. Two other Huskers, Lindsay Eddleman – who became Nebraska's first freshman to earn All-America honors – and goalkeeper Rebecca Hornbacher, joined Uppinghouse as All-Americans in 1996.

In 1998, three Huskers earned All-America honors, including Sharolta Nonen, who became the first Nebraska player to become a two-time All-American. Isabelle Morneau and Kim Engesser also added the first honors of their careers.

In 1999, Morneau claimed her second straight second-team award, while Nonen became the first Husker to be a three-time All-American.

Jenny Benson earned first-team All-America honors as a senior defender in 2000, after moving from the midfield in the spring. Midfielder Meghan Anderson also earned first-team honors, while forward Christine Latham, the Big 12 Player of the Year, nabbed second-team honors.

Latham scored a conference-high 46 points on 18 goals and 10 assists to earn third-team honors in 2001. She was also named to the third team in 2002, after scoring 35 points on 16 goals and three assists.

Brittany Timko earned third-team All-America honors in 2004 and 2005. A three-time Big 12 Player of the Year, Timko finished the 2004 season with 15 goals, 13 assists and 43 points. In 2005, Timko set a Big 12-record with 21 assists and added 11 goals for a total of 43 points for the second consecutive season.

In 2010, Morgan Marlborough earned second-team honors after an 18-goal, 12-assist campaign. The two-time Big 12 Offensive Player of the Year ranked second nationally with 48 points.

In 2013, Ari Romero earned second-team accolades as she led the back line to eight shutouts while powering Nebraska to Big Ten regular-season and tournament titles.

HUSKERS IN THE WORLD CUP

Beginning in 1991, the best women's soccer players in the world have battled for the Women's World Cup every four years in front of hundreds of thousands of soccer fans in stadiums across the globe.

Husker Head Coach John Walker made his debut with the Canadian World Cup team as an assistant coach in 1999. He was joined on that team by five of his former NU athletes.

In 2003, seven former and future Huskers made the 20-player roster. The Husker-heavy squad played to the semifinal match, where it was defeated by Sweden, putting it up against the United States in the consolation finals where it lost 3-1. Four Huskers earned roster spots in 2007, while Karina LeBlanc and Brittany Timko returned to the squad in 2011. LeBlanc made her final appearance on the grand stage at the 2015 World Cup in Canada before announcing her retirement. Joining her on the 2015 Canadian squad for the first time was Selenia Iacchelli, a national team member since 2013. LeBlanc served as an analyst for Fox Sports during the 2019 Women's World Cup.

In addition to the rich Husker history rooted in Canadian soil, former defender Ari Romero earned her place on Mexico's World Cup roster for 2015, becoming the first Husker to represent a country other than Canada. In all, 11 former Huskers have played on women's soccer's grandest stage in the Women's World Cup.

2015 Women's World Cup

Former Huskers Karina LeBlanc and Selenia Iacchelli saw action on the pitch as Canada played in the Group A squad with the Republic of China, New Zealand and the Netherlands. The 2015 World Cup marked LeBlanc's fifth consecutive appearance as a part of the Canadian National Team, while Iacchelli made strides in her first World Cup showing. Ari Romero played as a key member of the Mexican National Team's defense, leading Mexico in games against France, England and Colombia in the Group F division. In addition to the former Husker players, ex-Husker star Christine Latham returned to the games as a color analyst for Fox Sports Canada.

2011 Women's World Cup

Brittany Timko and Karina LeBlanc returned to the 2011 World Cup as part of Canada's National Team. The Canadians were put in Group A with France, Nigeria and host-team, Germany. Canada opened with a 2-1 loss to Germany and was then shut out by France, 4-0. The team's final match with Nigeria was scoreless until the 73rd minute when Perpetua Nkwocha scored the only goal of the game to give Nigeria a 1-0 win.

2007 Women's World Cup

Four former NU greats made repeat appearances on the 2007 Canadian National Team. Tanya Dennis saw the most game action, as she appeared in three matches, while Brittany Timko and Amy Walsh each played in one game. Karina LeBlanc rounded out the Huskers to make the squad. Canada failed to advance past pool play, losing 2-1 to Norway to open the World Cup, before rebounding with a 4-0 win over Ghana. Canada scored just 37 seconds into its third match, but Australia rebounded to tie the game at two. The tie provided Australia the one point it needed to advance into the quarterfinals and edge out Canada.

2003 Women's World Cup

Former Huskers Brittany Timko, Tanya Dennis and Sasha Andrews all saw action on the pitch for Canada in its fourth-place finish in the 2003 FIFA Women's World Cup, the Canadian's best finish in history.

Timko played all 540 minutes in six contests of the World Cup and notched one assist in the tournament. Dennis played 450 minutes in the back in the first five games before suffering a concussion.

Former Husker All-American Christine Latham was responsible for three of Canada's 10 goals during the tournament, including two goals in a 3-0 win over Argentina.

Making repeat appearances on the Canada World Cup squad in 2003 were All-America defenders Sharolta Nonen and Isabelle Morneau, and All-America goalkeeper Karina LeBlanc. All-American Breanna Boyd made the original roster, but did not compete because of an injury.

1999 Women's World Cup

All-America defenders Sharolta Nonen and Isabelle Morneau, All-Big 12 midfielder Amy Walsh and All-Big 12 defender Tanya Franck earned spots in Canada's starting lineup, while All-American Karina LeBlanc played a key role as a reserve on a talented Canadian squad. In addition to the Huskers on the field, Nebraska Head Coach John Walker represented the Huskers on the sideline as an assistant coach with the Canadian National Team.
