BIG TEN CONFERENCE

Known as one of intercollegiate sports' most successful undertakings, the Big Ten Conference is home to a lineage of legendary names and an ongoing tradition of developing strong leaders. Even in its infancy, the conference established itself as the preeminent collection of institutions in the nation, where the pursuit of academic excellence prevailed as the definitive goal.

The history of the Big Ten traces back more than 125 years to the Palmer House hotel in Chicago where, on Jan. 11, 1895, Purdue President James H. Smart and leaders from the University of Chicago, Illinois, Michigan, Minnesota, Northwestern and Wisconsin set out to organize and develop principles for the regulation of intercollegiate athletics.

At that meeting, a blueprint for the administration of college athletics under the direction of appointed faculty representatives was outlined. The presidents' first known action "restricted eligibility for athletics to bona fide, full-time students who were not delinquent in their studies." That important legislation, along with other legislation that would follow in the coming years, served as the primary building block for intercollegiate athletics.

On Feb. 8, 1896, one faculty member from each of those seven universities met at the same Palmer House and officially established the fundamentals of the conference, which was officially incorporated as the "Intercollegiate Conference Athletic Association" in 1905.

Indiana and the State University of Iowa became the eighth and ninth members in 1899. In 1908, Michigan briefly withdrew its membership, and in 1912 Ohio State joined the conference, bringing the membership total back to nine. Upon Michigan's return in 1917, the conference was first referred to as the "Big Ten" by media members, a name that was eventually incorporated in 1987.

As the 1900s dawned, faculty representatives established rules for intercollegiate athletics that were novel for the time. As early as 1904, the faculty approved legislation that required eligible athletes to meet entrance requirements and to have completed a full year's work, along with having one year of residence.

In 1901, the first Big Ten Championship event was staged when the outdoor track and field championships were conducted at the University of Chicago. The debut event marked what is now a staple of conference competition. Today, the Big Ten sponsors 28 official sports, 14 for men and 14 for women. Big Ten schools compete in a total of 42 different sports, furthering the conference's commitment to broad-based programming and providing more participation opportunities than any conference in the country.

One of the conference's proudest traditions began in 1902 when Michigan took on Stanford in the Rose Bowl, the nation's first bowl game. Big Ten teams only appeared in Pasadena twice before the conference signed an exclusive contract with the Tournament of Roses in 1946, making it the first bowl game with permanent conference affiliations. But Michigan's appearance in 1902 cultivated a relationship that has endured for more than a century.

Coupling the academic goals set forth by leaders of the charter members of the conference and their steadfast commitment to athletics, the conference instituted the Big Ten Medal of Honor in 1915, the first award to demonstrate support for the educational emphasis placed on intercollegiate athletics. It is awarded annually by each conference institution to one male and one female student of the graduating class who have attained the greatest proficiency in scholarship and athletics. For more than 100 years, it has been the most prestigious honor a Big Ten student-athlete can receive.

In 1922, Major John L. Griffith became the conference's first "Commissioner of Athletics." Griffith was the first of seven men to assume the role of commissioner in the conference's history, followed by Kenneth L. "Tug" Wilson in 1945, Bill Reed in 1961, Wayne Duke in 1971, Jim Delany in 1989, Kevin Warren in 2020, and current commissioner Tony Petitti in 2023.

After nearly 30 years with 10 members, the conference consolidated to nine schools when Chicago formally withdrew its membership in 1946. Michigan State was added to the Big Ten three years later, bringing the number of affiliated conference schools to 10 once again.

In 1955, the Big Ten formulated a revenue-sharing model designed to pool all football television rights of its members and share those proceeds equally. The conference and its members continue to utilize a revenue-sharing model, dividing media rights, bowl payouts and other profits among all institutions.

While academics have always played an integral role in the conference, presidents of the Big Ten member institutions formalized the primacy of academics with the establishment of the Big Ten Academic Alliance (formerly the Committee on Institutional Cooperation) in 1958. The Big Ten Academic Alliance is an academic consortium of all Big Ten universities. Annually, the schools currently constituting the Big Ten Academic Alliance produce over $10 billion in funded research, doubling any other conference.

In one of Duke's first actions as commissioner, he oversaw the adoption of the Big Ten Advisory Commission in 1972, designed to study conference programs and make suggestions which would further Big Ten objectives. The Advisory Commission enlists former students that competed in Big Ten athletics to serve as liaisons to the NCAA's Diversity and Inclusion Department, the Big Ten Student-Athlete Advisory Commission and other organizations.

In 1981, the conference presidents and chancellors endorsed a proposal that enabled universities to affiliate their women's intercollegiate programs with the conference, and the first conference championships for women were staged that fall. The Big Ten was the first conference to voluntarily adopt male and female participation goals after launching its Gender Equity Action Plan in 1992.

In December of 1989, the conference agreed in principle to invite Pennsylvania State University for membership. On June 4, 1990, the Council of Presidents officially voted to integrate Penn State into the conference, giving the Big Ten 11 members.

In 2004, the Big Ten implemented a pilot program of instant replay for college football. Following the season, the conference forwarded replay proposals to the NCAA regarding the future use of the pioneering technology, where it approved country-wide testing in 2005. In 2006, the NCAA approved the use of instant replay for all conferences.

In 2006, Delany announced the creation of the first conference-owned television network, a 20-year agreement with FOX Networks to create the Big Ten Network (BTN). Launched on Aug. 30, 2007, BTN now produces more than 2,200 live events across all platforms each year. The 24/7 network is the ultimate destination for Big Ten fans and alumni across the country and around the world, allowing them to see their favorite teams, regardless of where they live.

On June 11, 2010, the Big Ten Council of Presidents/Chancellors (COP/C) approved a formal membership application by the University of Nebraska, expanding the conference to 12 institutions. Nebraska officially joined the Big Ten on July 1, 2011.

The conference expanded its footprint further in 2012 when the COP/C approved formal membership applications from Maryland and Rutgersy on Nov. 19 and 20, respectively. Maryland and Rutgers became official Big Ten members on July 1, 2014, giving the conference almost 9,500 students participating in intercollegiate athletics and more than 11,000 participation opportunities on 350 teams.

In recent years the Big Ten has worked to meet the educational needs of modern student-athletes to allow them to excel in all areas of their lives. In May of 2020, the conference announced the formation of the Big Ten Mental Health and Wellness Cabinet, featuring representation from all 14 member institutions, as well as sport affiliate members. The goal of the cabinet is to promote optimal mental health for Big Ten student-athletes through a comprehensive, systemic and interdisciplinary approach to establishing mental health programs, while also providing counsel, advice and expertise to the conference office.

In June of 2020 the conference launched the Big Ten Equality Coalition. This group, which features student-athletes, coaches, athletic directors, chancellors, presidents and other members of the Big Ten family from all 14 member institutions, has a stated goal of seeking tangible ways to actively and constructively combat racism and hate around the world, while also empowering student-athletes to express their rights to free speech and peaceful protest. One product of conversations emerging from the coalition was the creation of the Big Ten Voter Registration Initiative. This non-partisan, conference-wide collaboration encourages student-athletes to take part in the electoral process and is led by a Voter Registration Committee that includes representatives from all 14 Big Ten institutions. The Voter Registration Committee has partnered with the National Lawyers' Committee for Civil Rights Under Law to develop educational programming and outreach tools, and to collaborate with other established civic platforms.

On June 30, 2022, the Big Ten Conference furthered its legacy of transformation when the Big Ten Council of Presidents/Chancellors (COP/C) voted unanimously to admit UCLA and USC to the conference effective Aug. 2, 2024. Competition will begin for all conference sports in the 2024-25 academic year.

In July of 2022, the Big Ten traveled a delegation of student-athletes and administrators from its member institutions to Selma and Montgomery, Alabama, for an immersive experience entitled: "Big Life Series: Selma to Montgomery." The pilgrimage to one of the key centers of the civil rights movement was highlighted by a march across the Edmund Pettus Bridge in Selma, which is the site of the 1965 Bloody Sunday attack. The delegation also visited the Montgomery Interpretive Center on the campus of Alabama State University to learn more about the profound impact that students had on the civil rights movement, and the significance of the Knight vs. Alabama landmark trial which ended the segregation of funding in higher education across the State of Alabama.

In April of 2023, the Big Ten announced that Petitti was selected as the conference's seventh commissioner. With nearly four decades of sports, business and media industry acumen, he served as deputy commissioner and chief operating officer of Major League Baseball and president and chief executive officer of MLB Network. A 14-time National Sports Emmy Award winner, Petitti also held senior executive roles at CBS Sports and ABC Sports overseeing rights acquisition deals for a variety of sports leagues and collegiate and professional sports events, including the NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament, regular season men's basketball, college football, NFL, PGA Tour, the Masters, U.S. Open Tennis Championships, and the Little League World Series, as well as leading in the creation of the Bowl Championship Series to determine college football's national champion.

On Aug., 4, 2023, the Big Ten Council of Presidents/Chancellors voted unanimously to admit the University of Oregon and the University of Washington to the conference effective Aug. 2, 2024, with competition to begin in all sports for the 2024-25 academic year. With the schools' admission, Oregon and Washington would also join the Big Ten Academic Alliance (BTAA), a consortium of world-class research institutions dedicated to advancing their academic missions.

More than 125 years after its inception, the Big Ten remains a national leader in intercollegiate athletics on and off the field. Big Ten programs have combined to win more than 450 team and 1,800 individual national championships, consistently taking home individual honors for athletic and academic accomplishments and fulfilling the Big Ten's mission of academic achievement and athletic success.

DEEP HUSKERS BUILD FOR MARCH MADNESS

Britt Prince returns as Nebraska's leader in scoring (13.4 ppg), assists (3.8 apg) and steals (1.7 spg). The sophomore point guard from Omaha, Neb., was a member of the 2025 Big Ten All-Freshman Team and earned honorable-mention All-Big Ten recognition.

Nebraska takes aim at its sixth consecutive trip to postseason play and third straight NCAA Tournament appearance as the Huskers embark on the 2025-26 campaign.

The Huskers worked their way to the first round of the 2025 NCAA Tournament before finishing with a 21-12 overall record that included a 10-8 Big Ten regular-season mark and two more wins at the 2025 Big Ten Tournament in Indianapolis.

The 2025-26 Huskers return many of the same weapons from their successful 2024-25 season, but may have a new feel this year after the graduation of four-time All-Big Ten center Alexis Markowski.

The 6-3 Markowski was a force inside for four seasons and helped Nebraska rank among the Big Ten's best teams on the boards.

Nebraska will need to look in new directions to dominate the glass this season, but the cupboard is far from bare.

Petra Bozan showed flashes of her ability on the offensive end last year while supporting Markowski off the bench. The 6-3 sophomore from Split, Croatia averaged 5.3 points and 2.8 rebounds in just 11 minutes per game.

During the summer of 2025, Bozan was named to the All-Star Five at the FIBA Eurobasket Division B Championships while helping Croatia earn a trip back to the Division A level. She averaged 13.3 points and 6.4 rebounds over seven games at the European Championships.

Jessica Petrie also returns to a starting role for the Huskers after a solid sophomore season. The junior from Gold Coast, Australia, averaged 6.4 points and 4.4 rebounds while making 23 starts at power forward a year ago.

Petrie took over the starting role after 2024 Big Ten Freshman of the Year Natalie Potts was sidelined by a season-ending knee injury in Nebraska's fifth game.

At the time of the injury, the 6-2 Potts was Nebraska's leading scorer (17.5 ppg) and rebounder (8.0 rpg) while shooting nearly 70 percent from the field and 72.7 percent from three-point range through the Big Red's first four games of 2024-25.

Potts averaged 10.2 points and 5.5 rebounds while starting all 35 games for the Huskers as a true freshman.

Potts' recovery and rehabilitation from knee surgery has gone well and she is eager to return to the court for the Huskers after taking a redshirt season in 2024-25. She may not be fully ready for the start of the 2025-26 campaign, but Nebraska is confident she will be a force inside and out again in the near future.

Nebraska also returns Amiah Hargrove at forward for her second season. The 6-2 sophomore averaged 4.7 points and 3.7 rebounds while appearing in all 33 games with two starts as a true freshman last season.

The Big Red added more size and length in the transfer portal with the addition of Eliza Maupin. The 6-3 forward played 98 games at Kansas State the past three seasons, averaging 4.0 points and 2.7 rebounds while hitting 62.3 percent of her field goal attempts. Maupin also provides an athletic defensive presence.

In addition to the loss of Markowski down low, the Huskers also need to replace the experienced leadership of four-year Huskers Kendall Coley and Kendall Moriarty along with part-time starter Alberte Rimdal from a year ago. That senior trio averaged about 13 points and four rebounds per game, in addition to Markowski's 16.3 points and 8.0 boards.

Nebraska's backcourt could be poised for a major step forward in 2025-26.

Big Ten All-Freshman selection Britt Prince will anchor the Big Red backcourt. The sophomore point guard is Nebraska's returning leader in scoring (13.4 ppg), assists (3.8 apg) and steals (1.7 spg) while shooting nearly 40 percent from three-point range and better than 87 percent at the free throw line.

Prince, a two-time Nebraska Gatorade Player of the Year at Elkhorn North High School, started 30 games as a true freshman and showed glimpses of her high-level ability while also playing consistent basketball throughout the year.

Prince will contend for All-Big Ten honors as a sophomore, while senior Callin Hake also provides a steady hand back in the Big Red guard rotation.

Hake joined Prince in starting 30 games a year ago. The 5-8 guard from Victoria, Minn., averaged 6.4 points and 3.0 rebounds while ranking second on the team in assists (3.1 apg) and steals (1.3 spg). The scrappy, tough, spark plug also led the Big Red in charges drawn throughout the season.

Logan Nissley, a 6-0 junior guard from Bismarck, N.D., gives Nebraska three returning starters in the backcourt. Nissley averaged 7.0 points and 2.7 rebounds while playing in 32 games with 26 starts. Nissley, who joined Potts on the 2024 Big Ten All-Freshman Team, is an elite shooter with a high basketball IQ like Prince and Hake. However, Nissley has been limited by foot injuries throughout her college career. Instead of that limiting Nebraska, the Huskers have developed depth in support of Nissley and that will again be the case in 2025-26.

Nebraska fans also hope to get their first look at another Nebraska high school star in Kennadi

VERSATILE BIG RED HOPE TO CLIMB IN BIG TEN

Williams. The daughter of Husker head coach Amy Williams, Kennadi sat out the the 2024-25 basketball season while recovering from a knee injury suffered in March of 2024 during a high school soccer game. The 2022 Lincoln Journal Star Girls High School Athlete of the Year at Lincoln Southwest led her basketball, softball and soccer teams to four consecutive state tournament appearances during her career.

Although Williams did not play basketball, she did appear in 40 games as a freshman for the Nebraska softball team, which advanced to NCAA Super Regional play in 2025.

Big Ten transfers Emily Fisher and Hailey Weaver add experience and versatility to NU's backcourt. Fisher spent her first two seasons at Maryland. The 6-0 guard/forward could play a similar role to Moriarty in the Husker backcourt.

Weaver, a 6-0 guard spent four years at Northwestern before graduating and electing to transfer to Nebraska. Weaver, who was not on Northwestern's roster a year ago, averaged 7.9 points and 3.1 rebounds over 28 games with 14 starts as a junior for the Wildcats in 2023-24. Weaver hit 36 percent (32-89) of her three-point attempts and 83.8 percent (31-37) of her free throws as a junior.

While Weaver and Fisher come to Nebraska with Big Ten credentials, perhaps the most impactful transfer for the Huskers could be sophomore Claire Johnson.

The 5-9 guard from Paducah, Ky., produced a breakout freshman season at Samford in 2024-25. Johnson's production grew throughout her first season, culminating with a spot on the SoCon All-Tournament Team and second-team All-Southern Conference honors.

Johnson averaged 12.2 points, 2.5 rebounds, 2.0 assists and 1.0 steal over 30 games with 14 starts. She also proved herself as a dangerous threat from long range by hitting 40.4 percent (61-151) of her three-pointers and 8.7 percent (64-73) of her free throws.

Johnson also brings a high basketball IQ and the ability to attack and create off the dribble for the Huskers.

Graduate guard Allison Weidner plans to redshirt in 2025-26 after suffering a third season-ending knee injury in January of 2025. Weidner will continue to provide her experience, leadership, knowledge, inspiration and love of Nebraska this season, while working toward a healthy return in a sixth season in 2026-27.

Overall, Nebraska's guards offer the Huskers with outstanding options as shooters from long range while also contributing high level ability to share the ball. In their college careers, Hake, Nissley, Prince and Johnson have combined for more than 300 three-pointers and nearly 500 assists over seven seasons. The quartet has hit a combined 37.5 percent (327-872) of their threes while posting a 1.37 assist-to-turnover ratio (481-350).

In three seasons, Hake has hit 109-of-313 threes (.348) while owning a 187-123 assist-to-turnover ratio (1.52).

In two years, Nissley has knocked down 114-of-300 threes (.380) while carrying a 121-93 assist-to-turnover (1.3).

Prince hit 43-of-108 threes (.398) last year and logged a 113-78 assist-to-turnover (1.45), while Johnson connected on 61-of-151 threes (.404) with a 60-56 assist-to-turnover (1.1).

All of those numbers bode well for a Nebraska team that has produced the top four three-point shooting totals over the last four seasons, including 273 made threes last season and a school-record 292 threes in 2023-24.

Nebraska tips off the festivities surrounding its 2025-26 season with Opening Night presented by Scheels in the Railyard on Sept. 19.

The Huskers will meet members of the press at Big Ten Women's Basketball Media Day in Chicago (Oct. 8).

Nebraska plays its lone public exhibition game of the season against Mount Marty on Friday, Oct. 24 at 8 p.m. at Pinnacle Bank Arena.

The Big Red, which ranked 16th nationally with an average home attendance of 5,638 fans per game a year ago, officially opens the regular season on Monday, Nov. 3, when the Huskers play host to Northwestern State. Tip time with the Lady Demons is set for noon, following Nebraska's annual Sizemore Sportsmanship Pep Rally at Pinnacle Bank Arena.

The Huskers continue home action against Samford (Nov. 8) before a showdown with in-state rival Creighton (Nov. 12). The Big Red then hit the road for the first time by traveling to the Sanford Pentagon in Sioux Falls to face off with North Dakota State (Nov. 16).

The Big Red return to Lincoln to face its fourth 2025 postseason qualifier in its first five games by playing host to Oral Roberts (Nov. 19).

Nebraska then heads to Florida to compete in the Emerald Coast Classic, tipping play with Purdue University Fort Wayne on Monday, Nov. 24 at 5 p.m. The Mastodons won 27 games and advanced to the postseason in 2024-25.

After facing either Virginia or Northwestern State in their second game in Florida (Nov. 25), the Huskers open December at home against Bradley (Dec. 3), before opening Big Ten Conference play at Penn State (Dec. 6).

Home games with Omaha (Dec. 9), Illinois State (Dec. 14) and Cal Baptist (Dec. 21), round out non-conference play, before the Huskers play host to USC on Monday, Dec. 29 at PBA.

After facing the NCAA Elite Eight qualifiers from Southern California, the Huskers head to Iowa for a New Year's Day clash with the Hawkeyes.

A rare three-game home conference stand follows with Purdue (Jan. 4), Indiana (Jan. 8) and NCAA Final Four participant UCLA with All-American Lauren Betts (Jan. 11).

Following road games at Michigan State (Jan. 15) and Wisconsin (Jan. 21), the Huskers close January with back-to-back home games against Illinois (Jan. 24) and Northwestern (Jan. 28).

The Big Red then faces the gauntlet of the Big Ten in February with all nine games coming against 2025 postseason teams, beginning with road games at Ohio State (Feb. 1) and Michigan (Feb. 4), before coming home to meet Maryland (Feb. 7).

A quick midweek road trip to Minnesota (Feb. 12) precedes a Presidents' Day showdown with Iowa at Pinnacle Bank Arena (Feb. 16).

Nebraska then takes a West Coast road trip to Oregon (Feb. 19) and Washington (Feb. 22), before closing the regular season with Senior Day against Rutgers (Feb. 28).

The 2026 Big Ten Tournament returns to Gainbridge Fieldhouse in Indianapolis, March 4-8, ahead of the NCAA Tournament Selection Show on March 15.

Jessica Petrie averaged 8.8 points and 5.2 rebounds over the final six games of 2024-25 to help Nebraska secure its second straight NCAA Tournament bid.

THE UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA

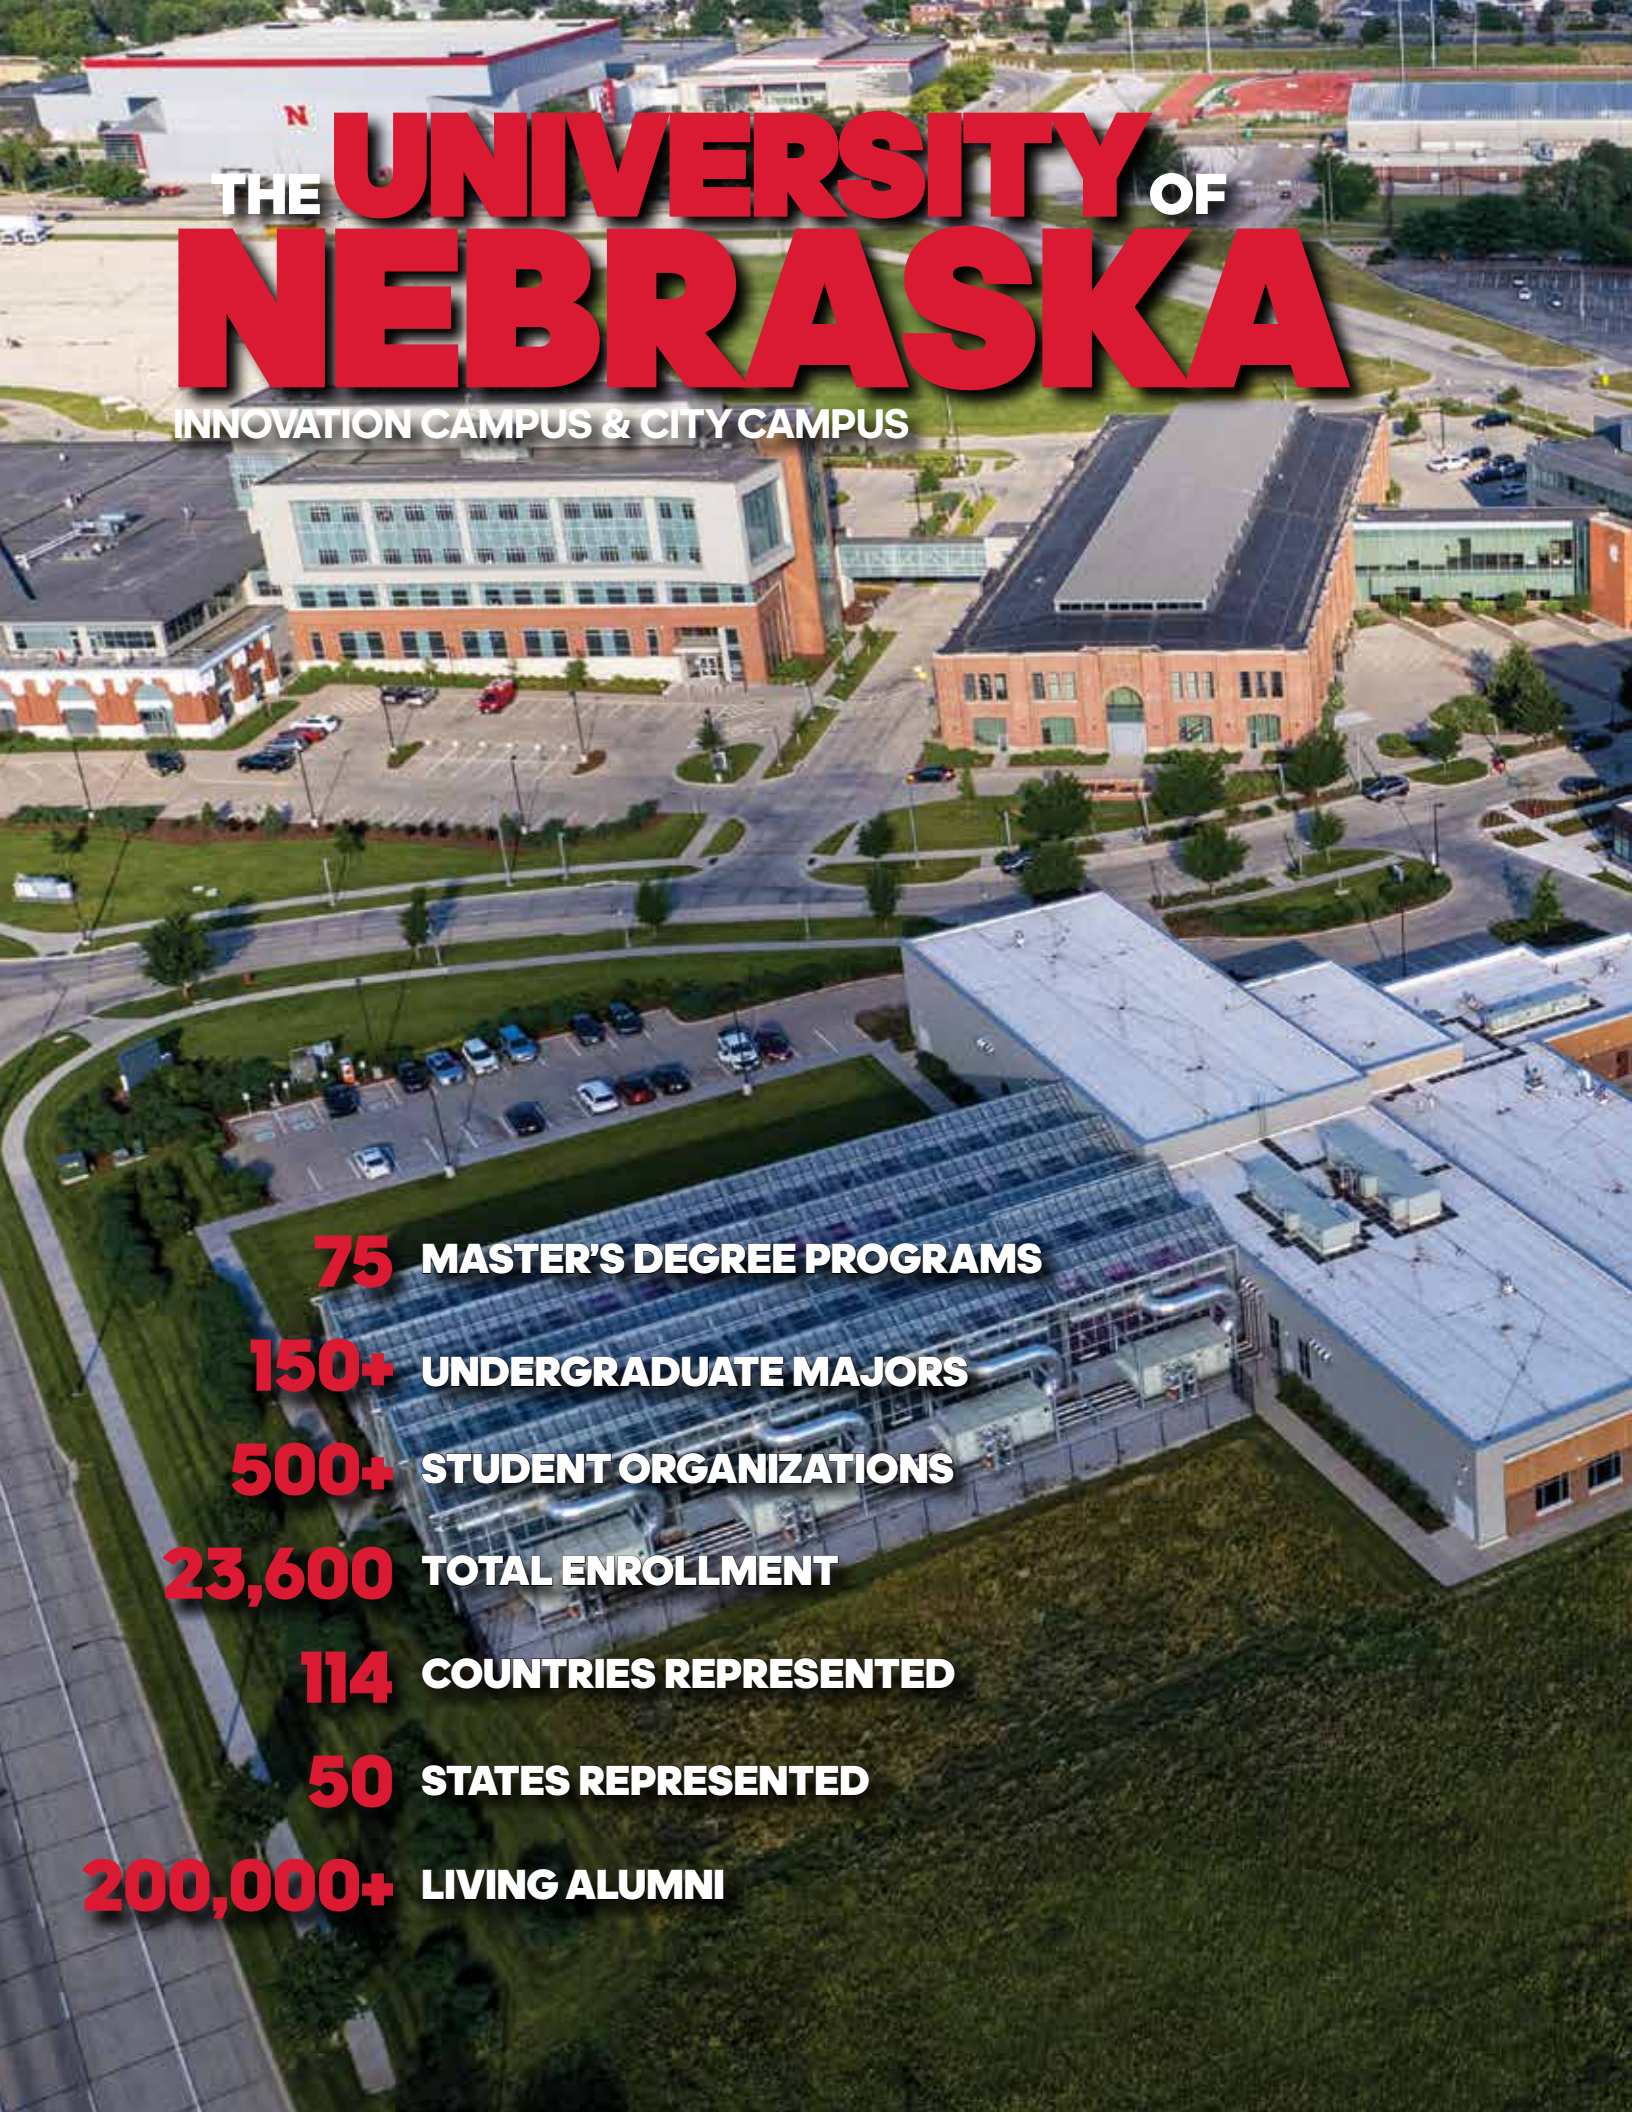

Chartered in Lincoln by the Nebraska Legislature in 1869, the University of Nebraska was expanded in 1968 into a university system now comprising four campuses under the guidance of a Board of Regents and a central administration. The flagship University of Nebraska–Lincoln is an educational institution of international stature. Nebraska is classified within the Carnegie "R1: Doctoral Universities – Highest Research Activity" category. Nebraska is also a land-grant university and a member of the Association of Public and Land-grant Universities. The university is accredited by the Higher Learning Commission.

BIG TEN ACADEMIC ALLIANCE

As a member of the Big Ten, the University of Nebraska–Lincoln is a member of the Big Ten Academic Alliance (BTAA), which is the academic consortium of the universities in the Big Ten Conference. The BTAA includes all 18 Big Ten Institutions and partners with the University of Chicago. Being in the Big Ten Academic Alliance gives Nebraska several advantages, including: access to library collections across the conference, reduced costs through tech collaborations, lower student costs on course materials through collective purchasing and licensing, and study abroad partnerships and course-sharing agreements — students can take courses across Big Ten institutions.

RODNEY BENNETT

University of Nebraska-Lincoln Chancellor Third Season Middle Tennessee State (1990)

Dr. Rodney D. Bennett serves as the 21st Chancellor of the University of Nebraska-Lincoln (UNL), a comprehensive public flagship, land-grant, Research 1 institution of approximately 24,000 students, with robust research and extension services throughout the state. UNL is accredited by the Higher Learning Commission, and its student-athletes compete at the NCAA Division I level in the Big Ten Conference.

Since his arrival on campus in July 2023, Dr. Bennett has led UNL in achieving increases in student enrollment and retention; ongoing growth in sponsored research awards; advancements in national rankings for academic excellence and student success; innovative research and academic program development; enhancements to shared governance processes; significant progress in fundraising and external outreach; investments to improve the quality of student life and the workplace environment for faculty and staff; and the implementation of changes to eliminate a historic budget deficit.

Prior to his tenure at UNL, Dr. Bennett served nearly ten years as President of The University of Southern Mississippi (USM), a comprehensive public research institution of approximately 14,000 students with campuses in South Mississippi and along the Mississippi Gulf Coast. Under his leadership, USM achieved R1 status; reached significant fundraising milestones; increased its annual economic impact; expanded operations along the Mississippi Gulf Coast; supported innovations in healthcare; invested in new faculty positions, student success programming, and capital improvements; and increased access to quality education and research programs. USM became one of only fourteen R1 institutions in the nation that compete at the NCAA Division I level and maintain accreditation in all four major areas of the Arts.

Dr. Bennett previously served more than a decade in senior level positions at the University of Georgia in Athens, where he chaired the institution's NCAA certification review and self-study process; completed more than $150 million in facilities projects; re-established the Dean of Students office after more than two decades; enhanced on-campus student health and counseling services; and managed oversight of robust student programs and support services for an enrollment of more than 34,000.

Throughout his career, Dr. Bennett has demonstrated a strong commitment to community leadership and service, including board membership for the Lincoln Chamber of Commerce; Nebraska Innovation Campus; Mississippi Aquarium; The First Bank (Hattiesburg); the Classic Center Cultural Foundation and Authority Board (Athens); the Northeast Georgia Girl Scouts of America; Catholic Health East (Philadelphia); and St. Mary's Health Care System (Athens). As USM President, Dr. Bennett chaired the athletic conference board and served as a founding member of the Board of Managers for the College Football Playoff national championship. He is a member of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, Inc., and Past Sire Archon for Sigma Pi Phi Fraternity, The Boulé.

TROY DANNEN

Athletic Director Second Season Northern Iowa (1989)

An experienced leader in collegiate athletics with a strong Midwestern background, Troy Dannen is in his second year as Nebraska's Director of Athletics. Dannen guides Nebraska's 24-sport athletic department that ranks among the nation's most successful programs both athletically and academically.

Nebraska Athletics has enjoyed success since Dannen arrived in Lincoln in March of 2024. During the 2024-25 athletic year, five Husker teams finished in the top four nationally, including volleyball, wrestling, men's gymnastics and bowling. The volleyball program reached the Final Four, while the wrestling team posted its highest finish in school history with a national runner-up showing and had multiple national champions for the first time since 1984. The softball program won its first NCAA regional since 2014 while baseball repeated as Big Ten Tournament champions. Overall, Nebraska finished 21st in the final 2024-25 NACDA Director's Cup, the program's highest finish since 2010.

In the spring of 2024, the Husker baseball team won its first Big Ten tournament title, and the men's track team won the Big Ten Outdoor Championships. The men also had their best NCAA Championship showing since 2016 with a 13th-place finish. The women's track team posted their second straight top-10 NCAA finish and placed ninth at the national meet.

Dannen has long been a leader in charting the course for the future of college athletics and that continues at Nebraska. In May of 2025, Dannen was appointed to the College Football Playoff Selection Committee, continuing his impact on the national level. He served from 2021 to 2023 as a member of the NCAA Constitution Committee and the Division I Transformation Committee. He also previously served as chair of the NCAA Football Competition Committee and was an Executive Committee member of the Football Oversight Committee. In total, Dannen has served on seven NCAA committees. In 2022, Dannen was a finalist for Sports Business Journal's Athletic Director of the Year award, and he received the Distinguished American Award from the Sugar Bowl Chapter of the National Football Foundation.

Dannen came to Lincoln after serving as Director of Athletics at the University of Washington. He helped guide the Huskies' transition to the Big Ten Conference and oversaw a football program that reached the College Football Playoff National Championship Game in January of 2024.

He arrived at Washington in the fall of 2023 after serving as Director of Athletics at Tulane University since 2015. While at Tulane, Green Wave student-athletes earned 49 All-America honors, a national championship, 21 conference championships and 41 postseason appearances.

In 2022-23, Tulane football won its first American Athletic Conference football championship and won the Cotton Bowl over USC, which was ranked ninth in the nation at that time. The men's basketball program won 20 regular-season games for the first time in two decades. Additionally, men's tennis advanced to its sixth NCAA Tournament in seven years, both bowling and beach volleyball finished ranked in the top 20, and baseball won the conference championship.

Tulane's football program participated in an unprecedented three consecutive bowl games from 2018 to 2020, winning back-to-back bowl games for the first time in 128 years of football at the University. In the classroom, Tulane student-athletes excelled at a high-level. At the end of the 2022-23 academic year, over 68 percent of Green Wave student-athletes earned a 3.0 GPA or better, with a 93 percent Graduation Success Rate and a record-setting department Academic Progress Report of 992, with seven teams earning a perfect 1000 APR score.

Dannen spearheaded fundraising efforts and numerous capital projects at Tulane. He helped secure the largest unrestricted gift in Tulane Athletics history, an endowment gift that funded the operation of a new sport (sailing), and a $10 million lead gift for capital renovations, which was the second-largest gift in department history. In addition, marketing and licensing revenue grew four-fold, and in 2022-23, Tulane football, basketball and volleyball set ticket sales and revenue records. Under Dannen's leadership, the Green Wave Club Annual Fund grew by 40 percent in terms of donors, and 45 percent in terms of dollars.

Increases in fundraising and major gift donors positively impacted capital project development and completion. A $13 million renovation to the Reilly Natatorium, home of the swimming and diving program, as well as $8 million in renovations to locker rooms and the sports medicine area inside the Wilson Center were completed in 2023. Dannen also oversaw construction of a new dining facility, weight room, basketball and volleyball locker rooms. Tulane also completed a $2.4 million academic center renovation and a $5 million television and digital production center.

Dannen came to Tulane after serving eight years as the Director of Athletics at the University of Northern Iowa (UNI) from 2008 to 2015. During his tenure, the Panthers enjoyed success at both the conference and national levels, highlighted by an NCAA Sweet 16 appearance in 2010 by the UNI men's basketball team. During his eight-year tenure, UNI was recognized with 39 All-Americans, 13 Coaches of the Year and nine Missouri Valley Conference (MVC) Players of the Year. UNI football, men's basketball, women's basketball, volleyball and softball combined to reach 15 NCAA tournaments and 20 postseason berths during that stretch. For his efforts, Dannen was recognized as NACDA's FCS Athletic Director of the Year in 2014.

Prior to his time at UNI, Dannen served as the Iowa Girls High School Athletic Union's Executive Director for seven years, overseeing 400 high schools and 10 sports.

Dannen grew up on a farm just outside Marshalltown, Iowa, and graduated from UNI in 1989 with a degree in communications. He is married to Amy and has four children: Elizabeth, William, Emily and Holly.

A proven program builder, Amy Williams enters her 10th season as Nebraska's head coach in 2025-26, after guiding the Huskers to their second straight NCAA Tournament appearance and third in the last four years, while making their fifth consecutive postseason appearance.

The 2024-25 Huskers closed their second straight 20-win season with a 21-12 record and a 10-8 Big Ten mark. The Big Red added a pair of Big Ten Tournament wins on its way to an NCAA Tournament first-round game with Louisville in Fort Worth, Texas. Lincoln native Alexis Markowski wrapped up her Nebraska career as the first Husker to be a four-time first- or second-team all-conference selection. NU's career double-doubles leader (53), Markowski earned first-team All-Big Ten honors for the second straight season and finished No. 2 at Nebraska in career rebounds (1,220) and No. 7 in career points (1,902).

Britt Prince also emerged as one of the nation's best young point guards. The Omaha native earned Big Ten All-Freshman recognition while adding honorable-mention all-conference accolades. She averaged 13.4 points, 4.0 rebounds and team bests of 3.8 assists and 1.7 steals. Prince, who earned USBWA National Freshman-of-the-Week honors after leading the Huskers to a road win at Iowa (Jan. 16), was Nebraska's Female Freshman Athlete of the Year across all sports.

Nebraska's 2024-25 success came despite an early season injury to 2024 Big Ten Freshman of the Year Natalie Potts, who played in just five games before suffering the injury in a win over North Alabama (Nov. 16). Through the Big Red's first four games, Potts was Nebraska's leading scorer (17.0 ppg) and rebounder (8.0 rpg).

The Huskers suffered a second major setback with the loss of Allison Weidner to injury in early January, just days after she led the Big Red to an 85-80 home win over No. 20 Michigan State (Jan. 8).

Despite the challenges, the Huskers notched five wins over 2025 NCAA Tournament teams during the season, including a resounding 91-71 road win at No. 17 Maryland (Feb. 13). Nebraska also continued to be one of the top attractions in women's college basketball, averaging 5,638 fans per game to rank 16th nationally in home attendance at Pinnacle Bank Arena. It was the 15th straight season NU ranked in the top 25 in average home attendance.

Nebraska also continued to feature a 100 percent Graduation Success Rate in women's basketball.

Nebraska's accomplishments in 2024-25 followed its best season in a decade in 2023-24. The Big Red claimed a first-round NCAA Tournament win over Texas A&M after earning a No. 6 seed in March Madness. The victory followed NU's run to its first Big Ten Championship Game appearance since 2014.

The tough Huskers secured a win over Purdue before notching double-digit wins over NCAA Tournament-bound Michigan State and Maryland to set up a third showdown with No. 3 Iowa in the title game. The Huskers controlled the action in much of the contest and took the Hawkeyes to overtime before falling 94-89 in the championship.

Nebraska finished with a 23-12 record that included an 11-7 Big Ten mark to take fifth in the conference standings. NU's season featured an 82-79 win over then-No. 2 Iowa in front of a sellout crowd of more than 15,000 at Pinnacle Bank Arena (Feb. 11). The victory over the Hawkeyes matched the highest-ranked team the Huskers had ever defeated. It was one of five wins over NCAA Tournament teams the Huskers notched from Feb. 6 through the end of the season, as Nebraska went 9-4 down the stretch with road losses to No. 2 Ohio State and No. 12 Oregon State, along with a loss to No. 3 Iowa in Minneapolis.

During Nebraska's late-season surge, the Huskers completed a sweep of NCAA Tournament-bound Michigan (Feb. 6) and their first-ever sweep of NCAA-bound Maryland (March 9) in the Big Ten Tournament. The Huskers also locked up a season sweep of NCAA qualifier Michigan State (March 8), and a three-game season sweep of WNIT Great Eight participant Purdue (Feb. 17, March 7). The Big Red added a 19-point home win over WNIT semifinalist Minnesota (Feb. 24).

The Huskers finished No. 25 in the NET rankings with 17 of their 23 wins coming against postseason qualifiers (8 NCAA, 3 WBIT, 6 WNIT).

Nebraska's success in 2023-24 came despite losing projected starting guard Allison Weidner to a season-ending injury in mid-October, and an injury to returning starter and graduate guard Maddie Krull prior to the start of the season. Krull's injury not only kept her out of the first three games, it limited her contributions throughout the season.

Nebraska continued to improve throughout the season behind the consistency of first-team All-Big Ten center Alexis Markowski and the leadership of second-team All-Big Ten guard Jaz Shelley. Two of the top players in the nation, Markowski and Shelley both claimed All-Big Ten honors for the third consecutive seasons before earning spots on the Big Ten All-Tournament Team. Shelley went on to be the No. 29 pick in the WNBA Draft by the Phoenix Mercury.

Nebraska's most experienced players also got help from a pair of award-winning freshmen. Natalie Potts emerged as the Big Ten Freshman of the Year while being joined on the Big Ten All-Freshman Team by Logan Nissley.

In addition to the individual awards won by the Huskers, Nebraska's success showed in the record book, including a school-record 292 made threes while ranking second in NU history with a plus-7.8 rebound margin. The 2023-24 Huskers also ranked fifth in school history with 2,533 points, fourth in rebounds (1,431) and third in assists (580).

Nebraska ranked 15th nationally with 6,088 fans per game. Every game in the 2024 Big Ten Tournament drew more than 18,000 fans at the Target Center in Minneapolis, while NU's Big Ten Tournament Championship Game appearance attracted 4.77 million viewers on CBS - the highest ratings for a women's basketball game on CBS in two decades.

Williams, who earned a contract extension through the 2028-29 season, also led Nebraska to the Big Dance in 2022, after the Huskers ran to a 24-9 record that included a final No. 23 NET ranking and a trip to the 2022 Big Ten Tournament semifinals. In 2022-23, the Huskers overcame multiple season-ending injuries to starting guards to advance to the WNIT Super 16 and finish with an 18-15 overall record.

Shelley earned first-team All-Big Ten honors, while Markowski captured second-team All-Big Ten accolades for the second straight year in 2023. Three-time honorable-mention All-Big Ten forward Isabelle Bourne also helped Nebraska meet its challenges head on before embarking on her professional career in Australia.

In 2021-22, the Huskers put one of their most complete teams on the floor, ranking 10th nationally in scoring (77.8 ppg), 13th in assists (17.4 apg), 18th in scoring margin (+13.5 ppg), while leading the Big Ten, setting a school record and ranking 21st nationally in three-pointers made per game (8.5). NU also led the Big Ten and ranked 23rd in the nation in rebounding (41.8 rpg), while leading the Big Ten in field goal percentage defense (.385).

Nebraska fans showed up in droves to watch their beloved Big Red despite continued challenges caused by the COVID pandemic. The Huskers ranked 14th nationally in total attendance (76,317) and 18th in average home attendance (4,489) in 2021-22.

The Husker faithful went home happy, as Nebraska tied a school record with 16 home victories, including a trio of home wins over 2022 NCAA Sweet Sixteen qualifiers (Indiana, Michigan, Creighton). Overall, Nebraska notched four wins against Sweet Sixteen teams, including a victory over Michigan in the Big Ten Tournament quarterfinals.

Nebraska's three wins over top-10 teams (No. 8 Michigan, 79-58, Jan. 4; No. 5 Indiana, 72-55, Feb. 14; No. 10 Michigan, 76-73, March 4) marked the second time in school history the Big Red posted multiple wins over top-10 teams in a season. NU's 21-point home win over the Wolverines matched the largest margin in NU history over a top-10 foe, while the 17-point win over the Hoosiers was Nebraska's largest margin ever against a top-five opponent.

Four Huskers earned All-Big Ten honors in 2021-22, led by newcomers Shelley (Second Team/All-Defensive) and Markowski (Second Team/Big Ten Freshman of the Year) and captains Sam Haiby and Isabelle Bourne, who were both honorable mention.

Williams, who proved herself as a winner and a program builder in her first nine seasons as a collegiate head coach, returned to her alma mater to lead a new stage in the Husker program when she was hired as Nebraska's head coach on April 11, 2016.

In her second season with the Big Red, Williams showed she could get a program moving in a hurry, leading the nation's top turnaround on her way to 2018 Big Ten Coach-of-the-Year honors. The Huskers earned a bid to the 2018 NCAA Tournament and finished with a 21-11 record - a nation-leading 14-game turnaround in the win column over 2016-17. Nebraska was plus-eight in the win column in Big Ten play, finishing with an 11-5 mark and claiming the No. 3 seed in the Big Ten Tournament. In 2019-20, Williams led the Huskers back to postseason eligibility with a 17-13 record before the season was ended by COVID-19.

Nebraska, which revamped its roster in 2020-21, was anchored by 6-5 center Kate Cain who earned honorable-mention All-Big Ten recognition. Nebraska's career leader in blocked shots (352), Cain claimed her third spot on the Big Ten All-Defensive Team. She was a three-time Lisa Leslie Award candidate and one of 15 finalists for Naismith National Defensive Player of the Year.

Cain, who completed her fourth season on the court at Nebraska following her early graduation in the summer of 2020, signed a free agent training camp contract with the WNBA's Las Vegas Aces in 2021 before playing professionally overseas.

Sam Haiby and Isabelle Bourne added All-Big Ten honors in 2020-21. NU's MVP, Haiby earned second-team recognition as the only player to rank among the Big Ten's top 15 in scoring (11th, 16.8 ppg), rebounding (15th, 6.8 rpg) and assists (8th, 4.4 apg).

Bourne, a 6-2 forward from Canberra, Australia, added honorable-mention All-Big Ten recognition by averaging 13.6 points, 7.5 rebounds and 2.5 assists as one of the Big Ten's most versatile players. Bourne, Haiby and Cain powered Nebraska to five wins over top-25 Big Ten teams during the season.

NU also tied the school record with 16 home victories on the year.

The 2021-22 Huskers featured Big Ten Freshman of the Year Alexis Markowski, who joined fellow newcomer Shelley in earning second-team All-Big Ten honors. Nebraska added honorable-mention All-Big Ten awards for captains Haiby and Bourne - the second all-league honors of their careers.

Mays was also a key part of Nebraska's 2017-18 NCAA Tournament team that posted the nation's top turnaround with 14 more wins than 2016-17. The Big Red advanced to the Big Ten Tournament semifinals after finishing third in the conference regular-season standings. The 2017-18 team featured freshmen Kate Cain and Taylor Kissinger, who gave Nebraska a top-25 recruiting class by ESPN. The Huskers added another ESPN top-25 recruiting class in 2018-19 and an ESPN top-25 class again heading into 2021-22.

Cain closed her four-year career at Nebraska with 1,085 points, 780 rebounds and a school-record 352 blocked shots, which ranked No. 6 in Big Ten history. A three-time member of the Big Ten All-Defensive Team, Cain was one of 15 candidates for the Naismith National Defensive Player of the Year Award in 2021. A two-time All-Big Ten choice and a member of the Big Ten All-Freshman Team, Cain signed a WNBA Training Camp contract with the Las Vegas Aces after her graduation from Nebraska.

Nebraska's top-25 class that entered 2018-19 as freshmen, included Haiby. The 5-9 guard from Moorhead, Minn., captured second-team all-conference honors in 2020-21 as the only player in the Big Ten to rank among the top 15 players in the league in scoring (11th, 16.8 ppg), rebounding (15th, 6.8 rpg) and assists (8th, 4.4 apg). She also led the Huskers in steals. Haiby finished her Nebraska career in 2022-23 as the only Husker to achieve the combined career milestones of 1,000 points (1,618), 500 rebounds (642) and 400 assists (477).

After an impressive run to the 2018 NCAA Tournament, the Huskers were postseason eligible again in 2020 before COVID-19 ended the season. A totally revamped Husker roster advanced to the round of 16 in the 2021 Postseason WNIT.

Before joining Williams at Nebraska, Mays spent two seasons as a full-time assistant with her at South Dakota. - Graduate Assistant, Nebraska (2023-25)
- Assistant Coach, MSU-Billings (2019-20)
- Assistant Coach, Carroll College (2020-23)

Taylor Edwards is in her first season as an assistant coach and the assistant director of scouting and operations at Nebraska in 2025-26.

Edwards is in her third season overall in Lincoln after spending the past two years as a graduate assistant manager for the Huskers.

During her first two years with the Huskers, Edwards helped the Big Red to back-to-back NCAA Tournament appearances in 2024 and 2025.

Edwards was part of a 2023-24 Nebraska team that secured a first-round NCAA Tournament victory over Texas A&M and made a four-game run to the Big Ten Championship Game - both firsts for the program since 2014.

Nebraska finished with a 23-12 overall record that included 17 wins over postseason tournament qualifiers (8 NCAA, 3 WBIT, 6 WNIT). The Huskers also notched a regular-season win over No. 2 Iowa - matching the highest ranked opponent the Huskers had ever defeated. The victory came in front of the first sellout crowd for a women's basketball game in the history at Pinnacle Bank Arena with well over 15,000 on hand to watch Nebraska complete a 14-point fourth-quarter comeback for an 82-79 win over the eventual NCAA runner-up Hawkeyes.

Nebraska's 2023-24 roster featured first-team All-Big Ten center Alexis Markowski and second-team All-Big Ten guard Jaz Shelley, who went on to be the No. 29 overall pick in the 2024 WNBA Draft. The Huskers also showcased 2024 Big Ten Freshman of the Year Natalie Potts at forward and Big Ten All-Freshman selection Logan Nissley at guard.

Edwards helped the Huskers to a second straight NCAA bid in 2024-25, as Nebraska finished with a 21-12 overall record that included a 10-8 Big Ten mark. The Huskers also won two more games in the Big Ten Tournament to secure their NCAA berth.

Markowski captured first-team All-Big Ten honors for the second straight season, while becoming Nebraska's career leader with 53 double-doubles. Markowski also finished No. 2 all-time at Nebraska with 1,220 rebounds while finishing No. 7 in career points (1,902).

The Huskers returned to the NCAA Tournament despite the loss of Shelley to graduation and professional basketball, while Potts was injured in the fifth game of the 2024-25 campaign. Nissley also battled injuries in 2024-25, as did former starting guard Allison Weidner.

However, Nebraska's toughness, togetherness and determination showed throughout the season. Fueled by the emergence of Big Ten All-Freshman pick Britt Prince, who averaged 13.4 points, 4.0 rebounds, 3.8 assists and 1.7 steals at point guard, Nebraska knocked off No. 17 Maryland on the road and No. 20 Michigan State during the season. The Huskers also got a crucial overtime win at Iowa and late-season wins over NCAA Tournament-bound Oregon and Illinois to book their tickets to the Big Dance.

Prince, who added honorable-mention All-Big Ten accolades, went on to be named Nebraska's Female Freshman Athlete of the Year across all sports.

A four-year contributor at Montana State-Billings from 2015-16 through 2018-19, Edwards spent one season as an assistant at MSU-Billings in 2019-20, before spending three seasons at Carroll College as an assistant coach.

In 2022-23, Carroll College finished with a 27-6 record as one of the top NAIA teams in the nation. It followed a 27-8 campaign for the Fighting Saints in 2021-22. The Helena, Mont., school also advanced to the 2021 NAIA Tournament with a 21-3 record in 2020-21.

Edwards earned her bachelor's degree as a health and human performance major at MSU-Billings in 2019. A graduate of Charles M. Russell High School in Great Falls, Mont., Edwards was a three-time Academic All-Great Northwest Athletic Conference selection at Montana State-Billings. The 5-9 guard played in 92 games during her college career, despite missing much of her sophomore season with an injury. She started her first 11 games as a sophomore before the injury and made nine starts as a senior.

As a junior in 2017-18, Edwards helped MSUB to the NCAA Division II Elite Eight after helping the Yellowjackets capture the West Regional championship. She also helped Montana State-Billings to the 2018 Great Northwest Athletic Conference Tournament title.

- Eight-Time Nebraska State Track & Field Champion

OUTLOOK (2025-26)

Allison Weidner (pronounced WIDE-ner) returns for her fifth season as a Husker after enduring her third season-ending knee injury midway through the 2024-25 campaign. She plans to redshirt in 2025-26 in hopes of returning healthy for 2026-27 while also completing her master's degree in educational psychology.

The graduate student from the small Northeast Nebraska town of Humphrey (pop. 832) earned her bachelor's degree in child, youth and family studies in December 2024. A Big Ten Distinguished Scholar in 2025, she is a three-time Academic All-Big Ten selection.

Weidner had outstanding rehabs on both her left and right knees heading into 2024-25, before suffering a right knee injury in practice (Jan. 11, 2025) prior to Nebraska's road game at Rutgers. She underwent surgery on Jan. 28, 2025, and has had another excellent rehab.

The 5-10 guard averaged 10.2 points, 6.2 rebounds and 2.4 assists while starting Nebraska's first 13 games in 2022-23, before suffering a left ACL tear against No. 20 Kansas (Dec. 21, 2022). She was ready for the start of practice before the 2023-24 season, but suffered a right ACL tear in practice on Oct. 13, 2023.

Nebraska's Lifter of the Year in 2023-24, Weidner is one of the best all-around athletes in state history as a seven-time all-state selection in basketball (4) and volleyball (3) and an eight-time state champion in track and field.

In 10 career Big Ten starts as a freshman (8) and sophomore (2), Weidner helped Nebraska to a 7-3 record including a pair of wins over top-20 teams (No. 10 Michigan, No. 20 Maryland) away from Pinnacle Bank Arena. In those 10 starts, Weidner averaged 10.8 points, 4.4 rebounds and 3.6 assists.

REDSHIRT JUNIOR (2024-25)

Weidner made her return to Nebraska's starting lineup with 11 points in a season-opening win over Omaha (Nov. 4). Weidner, who missed nearly two years with back-to-back knee injuries, added three rebounds, two steals and an assist in a team-high 24 minutes of action against the Mavs.

She matched her season highs with 11 points and six assists off the bench in Nebraska's win over No. 20 Michigan State (Jan. 8).

Weidner was averaging 3.8 points, 3.0 rebounds, 2.1 assists and 1.0 steal over 15 games before suffering a season-ending right knee injury in practice (Jan. 11). She underwent surgery on Jan. 28.

She had five points, three rebounds and two steals in a win over Chattanooga (Dec. 15). She grabbed a season-high seven rebounds in the win over Tarleton State (Dec. 11).

REDSHIRT (2023-24)

Weidner was on track to return to Nebraska's starting lineup as a junior in 2023-24 before suffering a right knee injury in practice on Oct. 13. She underwent surgery on Oct. 25, and was with the Huskers on the sideline while redshirting in 2023-24.

Her recovery and rehab after surgery went well on her left knee before suffering her right knee injury just three weeks before the start of the 2023-24 regular season.

OUTLOOK (2025-26)

Callin Hake (pronounced CAL-in HAKE) will continue to be counted on to provide leadership and stability in Nebraska's backcourt in her fourth season as a Husker in 2025-26.

The 5-8 junior from Victoria, Minn., played in all 33 games with 30 starts for the Huskers a year ago while helping Nebraska to a second consecutive NCAA Tournament appearance.

Hake also played a leading role in Nebraska's 2024 NCAA Tournament bid that included a trip to the second round after appearing in the 2024 Big Ten Championship Game.

An outstanding all-around player who provides both a high basketball IQ and high energy to the Big Red backcourt, Hake owns more than 100 career threes while shooting nearly 35 percent from long range over her first three seasons.

Hake is also one of the Big Ten Conference's top student-athlete leaders. The chair of the Big Ten Student-Athlete Issues Commission in 2025-26, she also represented Nebraska on the Big Ten SAIC in 2024-25 while serving as the President of the Nebraska Student-Athlete Advisory Committee. Her leadership off the court and her outstanding academic performance earned her recognition as Nebraska's Big Ten Outstanding Sportsmanship Award winner across all of its female sports in 2024-25.

"Callin is a versatile guard who can bring a lot of things to our team on the basketball court," Nebraska Coach Amy Williams said. "I love that she is committed to playing hard at both ends of the court. Not only is Callin the perfect fit for us on the court, but she fits our family. She is not afraid to work and understands how to be a great teammate."

HIGH SCHOOL

A four-time first-team All-Metro West Conference selection for the Storm, Hake was also a four-time Chanhassen team most valuable player. She captured Metro West Player-of-the-Year honors as a senior in 2021-22 after averaging 22.2 points per game. She became Chanhassen's first career 2,000-point scorer after a 26-point, 12-rebound performance against Cooper on Jan. 31, 2022. That performance followed a then-career-high and Chanhassen-record 37 points in a win over Waconia (Jan. 30). She topped that mark with 38 points in a win over New Prague (Feb. 18).

A McDonald's All-America Midwest nominee, Hake earned honorable-mention All-Metro accolades from the Minneapolis Star-Tribune as a senior. She was also named to the Metro West Conference All-Defensive Team before capping her high school career by playing in the Minnesota Girls Basketball Coaches Association All-Star Series. She claimed the MGBCA Three-Point Championship by draining 14 three-pointers in 45 seconds.

As a junior in a COVID-shortened 2020-21 season, Hake averaged 21.5 points per game. She averaged 22.2 points per game as a sophomore and 20.4 points per contest as a freshman at Class 4A Chanhassen.

She entered her junior season with high school career totals of 1,633 points, 442 rebounds, 147 steals and 120 assists. She added 599 points as a senior to finish with 2,232 career points.

Hake spent six years competing for the UAA Minnesota Fury, helping the team to a national runner-up finish. She was a first-team Minnesota AAU all-state selection in 2021.

She also earned three letters in track and field at Chanhassen. She was also involved as the DECA President and won the DECA Outstanding Student Award in 2021-22. She was also a two-year National Honor Society member and a four-year Key Club member.

PERSONAL

The daughter of Chad and Jill Hake, Callin was born in Waconia, Minn. She has an older brother, Carson, who was a senior infielder for the North Dakota State baseball team in 2024.

A double-major in management and marketing at Nebraska, Callin was a College Sports Communicators Academic All-District VII selection in both 2024 and 2025. A 2025 Big Ten Distinguished Scholar, she claimed Academic All-Big Ten honors in both 2024 and 2025. She was also a member of the Chi Alpha Sigma Honor Society in 2025.

Hake has earned six spots on the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll and is a three-time member of the Tom Osborne Citizenship Team. She also captured a prestigious Sam Foltz 27 Hero Leadership Award in 2024. In 2025, Hake was Nebraska's Big Ten Outstanding Sportsmanship Award winner across all of its female sports, after being named the Nebraska women's basketball Big Ten Sportsmanship honoree.

The President of Nebraska's Student-Athlete Advisory Committee in 2024-25 and 2025-26, Hake is the chair of the Big Ten Conference Student-Athlete Issues Commission in 2025-26.

"I chose Nebraska because of the endless opportunities the University has to offer, the coaching staff and their visions and goals, and the tight bond the girls have on and off the court," Hake said. "Also, getting to play in the best conference and go out and battle every single night is something I have always wanted to do."

OUTLOOK (2025-26)

Nebraska added size, experience and athleticism with the signing of Eliza Maupin to its 2025-26 women's basketball roster, Husker Head Coach Amy Williams announced on Monday, April 14.

Maupin, a 6-3 forward from Webster Groves, Mo., joins the Huskers after playing in 33 games with two starts for Kansas State as a junior in 2024-25. Maupin hit 63.2 percent (55-87) of her shots from the field while averaging 3.9 points and 2.8 rebounds per game. She also dished out a career-high 29 assists and blocked a career-best 17 shots for the Wildcats.

"We are so excited to welcome Eliza to the Husker women's basketball family," Williams said. "She has a winning mindset and strong desire to develop, which fits perfectly in our culture. Her length, athleticism, skillset and experience make her primed to excel on both sides of the ball within our system."

In three seasons at KSU, Maupin played in 98 games with three starts while converting 62.3 percent (157-252) of her field goal attempts. She totaled 390 points, 263 rebounds, 47 assists, 38 blocks and 49 steals. She averaged 4.0 points and 2.7 rebounds in 11.7 minutes per game as a Wildcat.

OUTLOOK (2025-26)

One of the Big Ten's most consistent long-range shooters, Logan Nissley returns for her third season as a Husker ready to help lead an experienced Big Red backcourt.

A member of the 2024 Big Ten All-Freshman team, Nissley has drained 38 percent of her three-point attempts over her first two seasons in Lincoln, while averaging 57 made threes per year.

Last year, Nissley was a primary starter in the Husker backcourt despite being limited by foot injuries. She averaged 7.0 points, 2.7 rebounds and 2.6 assists. While her scoring and rebounding numbers were similar to her freshman season, Nissley more than doubled her production in assists, steals and blocks.

Her all-around play and high basketball IQ make her a versatile weapon in the Husker arsenal.

A member of the Big Ten All-Freshman Team by both the coaches and the media in 2024, Nissley was a regular starter in the Nebraska backcourt as a sophomore in 2024-25. The 6-0 guard from Bismarck, N.D., averaged 7.0 points, 2.7 rebounds, 2.6 assists and 1.1 steals over 32 games with 26 starts.

Nissley closed the season with nine points on a trio of three-pointers to go with three assists and two steals against Louisville in the NCAA Tournament (March 21).

She averaged 7.0 points, 4.0 rebounds, 2.3 assists and 2.0 steals in the Big Ten Tournament, scoring eight points and tying a career high with seven rebounds in a win over Illinois (March 6).

She produced her eighth double-figure scoring effort with a season-high 16 points on a career-high five threes in a win over Oregon (Feb. 19). She also tied a career high with seven boards against the Ducks, while adding a season-high five assists to go with two steals.

She averaged 7.0 points, 2.1 rebounds and 1.1 assists while sinking the second-most three-pointers by a freshman (59) in Nebraska history. The only Husker to hit more threes as a freshman than Nissley was first-team All-American and 2014 Big Ten Player of the Year Jordan Hooper with 67 in 2010-11.

Nissley played a major role in Nebraska's first-round NCAA Tournament win over Texas A&M by matching Alexis Markowski with a team-high 16 points. Nissley buried 4-of-6 threes against the Aggies, while adding three rebounds and two steals in the 61-59 victory. Her two free throws with 17 seconds left gave the Huskers a 60-59 lead.

Her four threes against Texas A&M tied her season high for the fifth time, including a 4-for-10 effort from long range in the Big Ten Championship Game against No. 3 Iowa, when she finished with 13 points and five assists in a season-high 34 minutes. She also went 4-for-6 from long range on her way to 12 points and a career-high six assists in a win over Northwestern (Feb. 20), after going 4-for-5 from beyond the arc in a win over Southern (Dec. 17). Nissley established her season best by hitting 4-of-6 threes on her way to a career-high 18 points in a win over UNCW (Dec. 5).

The three-time North Dakota Gatorade High School Player of the Year matched her career scoring high with 18 points in a road win at Purdue (Feb. 17) in her first career start. Nissley helped Nebraska rally from a 10-point first-quarter deficit by scoring 11 first-half points and NU's first six points of the second half.

Nissley averaged 9.2 points, 2.3 rebounds and 1.9 assists while hitting 42.9 percent (21-49) of her three-pointers in 10 games as a starter.

She also erupted for one of her best efforts of the season with 15 points and a career-high seven rebounds in 24 minutes in Nebraska's 82-79 upset of No. 2 Iowa (Feb. 11), just two games prior to making her starting debut.

PERSONAL

The daughter of Brad and Ashley Nissley, Logan was born in Bismarck, N.D. She has a younger brother, Garrett. A child, youth and family studies major, Logan was an Academic All-District VII selection by the College Sports Communicators in 2025. She was also a Big Ten Distinguished Scholar and an Academic All-Big Ten choice following her sophomore season.

A three-time Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll selection, Nissley was also a member of the Tom Osborne Citizenship Team in 2024 and 2025.

She selected Nebraska over Gonzaga, Minnesota, Utah and Iowa.

"I chose Nebraska because of the family culture the girls brought to me when I visited," Nissley said. "The program itself and the facilities are amazing, but it felt like my second home and I knew it was meant for me. The coaches were unmatched and were by far my favorite because they cared about me as a person not just an athlete."

OUTLOOK (2025-26)

Natalie Potts hopes to return to the Nebraska lineup in her third season as a Husker in 2025-26. The 6-2 redshirt sophomore from O'Fallon, Mo., took a redshirt season after suffering a season-ending knee injury in Nebraska's fifth game of 2024-25.

Through the first four games last season, the 2024 Big Ten Freshman of the Year was performing at an all-conference level, averaging team bests of 17.5 points and 8.0 rebounds while shooting nearly 70 percent from the field, including 72.7 percent from three-point range.

She suffered her knee injury midway through the second quarter of Nebraska's win over North Alabama (Nov. 19) and was lost for the season. She underwent surgery Dec. 4.

Potts was replaced in the Husker lineup by classmate Jessica Petrie, and Potts continued to play an integral role in Nebraska's season. Not only did she help keep the Huskers focused on their run to the NCAA Tournament from the sideline, she focused herself on a diligent rehab after surgery.

"Natalie is a great fit for us both on and off the basketball court," Nebraska Coach Amy Williams said. "She has an incredible motor, and her competitive spirit matches the values we have for our team. She is versatile and a proven winner from one of the most successful high school programs in the country."

Potts was the only Husker to score in double figures in each of NU's first four games of 2024-25, before being sidelined by a season-ending knee injury against North Alabama in Nebraska's fifth game (Nov. 19).

She tied her career high with 22 points on 8-of-10 shooting to go with seven rebounds in just 23 minutes in a record-setting win over South Dakota (Nov. 16).

It followed her sixth career double-double with 17 points and a game-high 12 rebounds in a win over Southern (Nov. 12). Potts also put up 17 points to go with seven rebounds on a career-best 4-of-5 three-point shooting in a win over Southeastern Louisiana (Nov. 9).

OUTLOOK (2025-26)

Kennadi Williams hopes to see her first action as a Husker women's basketball player in her second year with the program in 2025-26. The daughter of Nebraska Head Coach Amy Williams, Kennadi sat out her true freshman basketball season at Nebraska while continuing to rehabilitate a knee injury suffered following her high school basketball senior season.

Although Williams did not gain game experience on the court as a freshman, she did play in 44 games with one start for the Nebraska softball team in the spring of 2025, helping the Big Red to an NCAA Super Regional appearance.

An accomplished three-sport star at Lincoln Southwest High School, Williams was the 2022 Lincoln Journal Star High School Female Athlete of the Year as a sophomore. The Southwest basketball, softball and soccer teams earned state tournament trips each of her four seasons on the teams.

"Kennadi has been passionate about this program since we came to Lincoln, and it is her dream to represent the Huskers and help push this program to national prominence," Williams said. "She is a tough competitor, a gifted athlete, and an amazing teammate who will do whatever it takes to help her team win. I am really looking forward to sharing this experience with her."

REDSHIRT (2024-25)

Williams took a basketball redshirt season while continuing to recover from a knee injury suffered as a high school soccer player on March 23, 2024.

Her rehabilitation allowed her to compete in 44 games with the Nebraska softball team. She scored 19 runs and went 4-for-5 on stolen base attempts to help Coach Rhonda Revelle's Huskers advance to an NCAA Super Regional.

HIGH SCHOOL

A four-year varsity letter winner in basketball, softball and soccer at Lincoln Southwest, Williams was a Class A all-state selection and a member of the Class A All-Tournament Team while leading the Silver Hawks to a runner-up finish at the Nebraska girls basketball tournament in 2022. She was also an honorable-mention all-state choice in 2023, despite missing 80 percent of the season.

As a senior, Williams averaged team bests of 16.5 points, 3.2 assists and 3.8 steals in leading Southwest to a 22-4 record and a berth in the Class A state semifinals. As a junior, Williams played in Southwest's final five games after returning from a knee injury suffered during summer basketball in June of 2022. She averaged 10.6, 1.0 rebound and 1.6 steals over those five games to help the 14-11 Silver Hawks to a state tournament berth in 2023.

As a sophomore, Williams averaged 11.9 points, 3.2 assists and 3.0 steals to earn second-team Super-State and All-Nebraska honors. She was also the 2022 Lincoln Journal Star Girls Basketball Player of the Year. She helped the Silver Hawks to a state runner-up finish by scoring 24 points in a quarterfinal win Omaha Central. Southwest finished with a 21-6 record that included a semifinal victory over Millard South, before suffering a loss to Fremont in the state championship game.

Williams sparked an upstart Southwest team as a freshman, averaging 8.9 points, 1.9 assists and 2.6 steals in helping the Silver Hawks to a 19-3 record and a berth in the Class A state tournament first round. Williams earned honorable-mention Class A all-state accolades from both the Lincoln Journal Star and Omaha World-Herald in 2021.

She led Southwest to a Class A state semifinal appearance as a senior softball player in the fall of 2023, leading Class A with 18 runs scored while batting .450 with 18 RBIs and 17 stolen bases. She earned first-team All-Nebraska and Super-State recognition along with first-team Class A all-state honors as a senior.

She missed her junior softball season in the fall of 2022 after suffering a knee injury in summer basketball. As a sophomore, Williams batted .362 with six home runs, seven doubles and 29 RBIs as a shortstop and center fielder to help the Silver Hawks to a Class A state championship in the fall of 2021. She was an honorable-mention Class A all-state choice as a sophomore.

She was a member of Lincoln Southwest's soccer program that advanced to the Class A state soccer tournament in the spring of 2021, 2022, 2023 and 2024.

California high school star Alanna Neale signed with Nebraska on April 16, 2025, before joining the Huskers in June ahead of the 2025-26 season.

The 5-10 guard out of national power Ontario Christian averaged 12.1 points, 6.8 rebounds, 1.8 assists and 2.2 steals over 32 games as a senior in 2024-25 to earn All-California Interscholastic Federation Southern Section honors.

"We are beyond excited to make things official with the signing of Alanna Neale," Nebraska Coach Amy Williams said. "She joins us from one of the winningest and most successful high school programs in the country and is coming off a stellar senior season. We have seen Alanna use her skillset to impact the game on both sides of the ball and as a rebounding guard. There is so much excitement knowing that her best basketball is still in front of her. We can't wait to get her to Lincoln."

Neale is the first player from the Los Angeles area to sign with the Huskers since Tear'a Laudermill (Moreno Valley/Canyon Springs High School) in 2011. Laudermill was a two-time All-Big Ten selection and ranks among the top-25 players in scoring all-time at Nebraska. She was a member of four NCAA Tournament teams and part of the most successful four-year span in school history.

HIGH SCHOOL

Neale averaged 12.1 points, 6.8 rebounds, 1.8 assists and 2.2 steals over 32 games as a senior for Ontario Christian, which entered California's Open Division state championship ranked No. 1 nationally, before falling in the semifinal to the nation's No. 6 team. The Lady Knights finished the season with a 30-2 overall record. She earned All-CIF Southern Section honors.

SEASON REVIEW

BIG RED RETURNS TO MARCH MADNESS

From left: Britt Prince, Amiah Hargrove, Natalie Potts, Alberte Rimdal, Callin Hake, Logan Nissley, Kendall Coley, Allison Weidner, Kendall Moriarty, Jessica Petrie, Alexis Markowski and Petra Bozan faced adversity together and fought their way to a 21-12 season that included a trip to March Madness.

Nebraska showed its toughness, togetherness and true grit in earning its second straight NCAA Tournament appearance to cap a successful 2024-25 season.

The Huskers, who earned a No. 10 seed in March Madness, fell to No. 7 seed Louisville, 63-58, in the first round in Fort Worth, Texas (March 21), ending their second consecutive 20-win season with a 21-12 overall record that included a 10-8 Big Ten regular-season mark. Nebraska, which tied for eighth in the final 18-team conference standings, also advanced to the Big Ten Tournament quarterfinals with a 2-1 record in the 15-team tournament.

During the season, Nebraska recorded six wins over NCAA NET Top 50 teams (Michigan State, at Iowa, at Maryland, Minnesota, vs. Illinois, Oregon), while all 12 of the Husker losses came at the hands of top-50 foes.

The Huskers earned their 17th all-time NCAA Tournament bid, including their 11th trip since 2007 (19 seasons). The Big Red also recorded its 20th 20-win campaign in program history including the third in the past four seasons under Head Coach Amy Williams.

Nebraska earned its third NCAA Tournament bid in the last four years despite playing the final 28 games without 2024 Big Ten Freshman-of-the-Year Natalie Potts, who suffered a season-ending knee injury against North Alabama (Nov. 19).

Potts was averaging team bests of 17.5 points and 8.0 rebounds through the first four games prior to her injury. The Huskers also played the final 17 games without fourth-year guard Allison Weidner, who was a starter as a freshman on Nebraska's 2022 NCAA Tournament team and at the start of her sophomore season in 2022-23.

The Huskers were led by four-time All-Big Ten selection Alexis Markowski, who finished with team-best averages of 16.3 points and 8.0 rebounds. The 6-3 center from Lincoln closed her career with her school-record 53rd double-double (13th of the season) with 12 points and 10 rebounds against Louisville (March 21). The two-time first-team All-Big Ten choice (2024, 2025) closed as Nebraska's No. 7 all-time scorer (1,902 points) and No. 2 rebounder (1,220 rebounds).

Markowski averaged 19.9 points, 8.8 rebounds and 1.5 blocks over her final 11 games while hitting 16-of-32 three-pointers (.500). She produced a career-high 35 points and a season-high 15 rebounds in a win over Oregon (Feb. 19). She added 30 points at Northwestern (March 2), after going for then-career highs of 28 points in NU's 85-80 win over No. 20 Michigan State (Jan. 8) and at Illinois (Feb. 16).

Britt Prince closed one of the best freshman seasons in school history by leading Nebraska with 14 points and six assists against Louisville in the NCAA Tournament. The 5-11 guard from Omaha averaged 13.4 points, 4.0 rebounds and team bests of 3.8 assists and 1.7 steals on her way to Big Ten All-Freshman honors. She also claimed honorable-mention All-Big Ten accolades. She led NU with 17.0 points and 5.3 assists in three Big Ten Tournament games.

Prince, who was the USBWA National Freshman of the Week (Jan. 21), was the most recent of four 2024-25 Huskers to earn Big Ten All-Freshman honors, including Markowski (2022 Freshman of the Year), Potts (2024 Freshman of the Year) and Logan Nissley (2024).

In 16 games away from Pinnacle Bank Arena in 2024-25, Prince averaged 15.8 points, 3.9 rebounds, 4.6 assists and 1.6 steals. All six of her 20-point performances came on the road, while two of her three career-high eight-rebound efforts and both of her career-best eight-assist performances happened away from PBA.

Behind the award-winning performances of Markowski and Prince, the Huskers dedicated their work in 2024-25 to Weidner and Potts, who suffered season-ending knee injuries.

Nebraska's five-game winning streak (Jan. 5-20) was made more significant after Weidner suffered her season-ending right leg injury in practice on Jan. 11. It was her third season-ending injury.

A 5-10 guard from Humphrey, Neb., Weidner was coming off her best game of the year with 11 points and six assists in NU's 85-80 win over No. 20 Michigan State (Jan. 8). Despite the injury occurring just hours before the Huskers traveled to Rutgers, the Big Red responded with its first win in Piscataway since 2018. The Huskers added their first win in Iowa City since 2018 and a 31-point home win over Wisconsin (Jan. 20).

Prince came up clutch in the road wins at Rutgers and Iowa. The freshman scored 10 of her then-career-high 24 points in the fourth quarter to push the Huskers to a 69-62 win over the Scarlet Knights. The next time out, Prince scored 22 points to go with seven rebounds, five assists and a career-high six steals to lead Nebraska back from an 11-point fourth-quarter deficit to an 87-84 win in front of a sold out crowd at Carver-Hawkeye Arena.

The win over the Hawkeyes also showed a glimpse of the emergence of young forwards Jessica Petrie and Amiah Hargrove.

Petrie, who took over the starting role at power forward in place of Potts, produced 13 points and six rebounds at Iowa. Petrie's huge offensive rebound on a missed Husker free throw with 15 seconds left helped NU secure the victory after she scored five big points during NU's fourth-quarter rally. During the season, Petrie provided the most production in place of Potts. The 6-2 forward from Gold Coast, Australia, started 23 games and ranked second on the team in Big Ten rebounding (5.4 rpg) and fourth in scoring (7.4 ppg).

HUSKERS UNITE TO OVERCOME INJURIES

A month after her effort at Iowa, Petrie posted her first career double-double with 10 points and 10 rebounds against Washington (Feb. 23), before going for 11 points, eight rebounds and a career-high seven assists in a win at Northwestern (March 2). She added 11 points, five rebounds and two blocks in Nebraska's second-round Big Ten Tournament win over Illinois (March 6), when she led a Husker comeback with nine fourth-quarter points.

Hargrove, a 6-2 forward from Christopher, Ill., added her first career double-double alongside Petrie at the power forward spot against the Hawkeyes. Hargrove finished with 10 points and a team-high 11 rebounds.

Hargrove scored in double figures eight times after the injury to Potts, including 11 points at Indiana (Feb. 2). She also tied her career high with 13 points in Nebraska's Big Ten Tournament win over Rutgers (March 5). Hargrove capped her first season as a Husker with 10 points and nine rebounds in 17 minutes off the bench in the NCAA Tournament first round against Louisville (March 21).

Fellow freshman Petra Bozan added some big efforts inside to help ease the loss of Potts while providing a glimpse of the future following the graduation of Markowski.

The 6-3 forward from Split, Croatia, averaged 5.2 points and 2.7 rebounds in conference play, including Big Ten double-figure scoring efforts at Indiana (12) and a win over Wisconsin (10). She also provided significant production over Northwestern (9 points, 6 rebounds), Minnesota (9 points, 5 rebounds), Rutgers (9 points, 3 rebounds and 8 points, 4 rebounds) and Penn State (8 points, 6 rebounds). She added her sixth double-figure scoring effort of the season with 11 points in a Big Ten Tournament win over Illinois (March 6).

While young players emerged inside in support of Potts, Nebraska's young guards also played steady basketball at both ends throughout the season.

The Huskers finished the year at No. 11 nationally in assists per game (18.0), while ranking 12th in NCAA Division I in three-point field goal percentage (.373).

Behind the strong backcourt play of Prince, Callin Hake and Logan Nissley, the Big Red also ranked No. 21 nationally in assist-to-turnover ratio (1.23), while ranking 28th in three-pointers made per game (8.3).

Hake, a 5-8 junior guard from Victoria, Minn., showed her leadership on and off the court on a daily basis to help the Huskers grow. The President of Nebraska's Student-Athlete Advisory Committee, Hake was also Nebraska's Lifter of the Year for the second time in her career. She also led the Big Red in charges drawn during the season. Hake, who averaged 6.4 points, 3.0 rebounds and 3.1 assists, also held a team-best 2.0 assist-to-turnover ratio (102-51). She also went on to be named Nebraska's Big Ten Outstanding Sportsmanship Award winner across all female sports.

Nissley continued to grow as a full-time starter in her sophomore season. The 6-0 guard from Bismarck, N.D., averaged 7.0 points, 2.7 rebounds and 2.6 assists while shooting 36.2 percent from three-point range.

In the Husker win at Iowa, Nissley buried back-to-back threes in a 40-second span after Nebraska trailed 63-52 with six minutes left. She also sank a pair of free throws with 10 seconds left in overtime to seal the 87-84 OT win.

Nissley also erupted for season highs of 16 points, seven rebounds and five assists in NU's huge home win over Oregon in late February. Nissley also sank a career-high five three-pointers against the Ducks.

Nissley, who made 26 starts, scored in double figures eight times despite continuing to battle foot injuries throughout the season.

Senior transfer Alberte Rimdal also played a crucial role for the Huskers in her lone season at Nebraska. The 5-9 guard from Koge, Denmark, shot a sizzling 44.2 percent (34-77) from three on her way to averaging 7.9 points and 2.4 assists per game. Rimdal scored in double figures 12 times for the Big Red, including a season-high 20 points against Iowa (Feb. 10).

Down the stretch, Rimdal averaged 11.7 points and 4.0 assists while hitting 9-of-17 threes over a six-game span to help the Huskers to their second straight NCAA bid.

Seniors Kendall Coley and Kendall Moriarty also provided a steady heartbeat to the Huskers to finish their careers alongside Markowski and Rimdal. Their love of Nebraska and their teammates fueled the Husker push to the postseason.

Behind the play of four-time All-Big Ten center Alexis Markowski and Big Ten All-Freshman point guard Britt Prince, Nebraska overcame season-ending injuries to Natalie Potts and Allison Weidner to make its second consecutive trip to the NCAA Tournament in 2025.

Carnegie finished with 20 points and eight rebounds off the bench, while Wright closed with 15 points. Kara Dunn also gave Georgia Tech big production with 16 points and 14 rebounds. Nebraska turned the tables in the second half, hitting 5-of-11 threes after halftime, while holding the Yellow Jackets to 0-for-7 shooting from long range. Nebraska was able to cut the Georgia Tech lead to eight points on multiple occasions, but could not get closer, as the Yellow Jackets improved to 13-0 with the victory.

points against Alcorn State (Nov. 14). She also had five points against Florida Atlantic (Nov. 29). She pitched in four points, three rebounds and two assists in a win over UNCW (Dec. 5).

Moriarty played a greater role for the Huskers in her second season, more than doubling her points (111-45), knocking down more than six times as many threes (19-3), snagging more than seven times the steals (22-3) and grabbing more than four times the rebounds (54-12) in 2022-23 than she did as a freshman.

She played in all 33 of Nebraska's games as a sophomore, making her first career start in Nebraska's WNIT Super 16 appearance at Kansas (March 23). Moriarty produced the second double-digit scoring performance of her career with 10 points on 4-of-6 shooting, including a pair of threes, against the eventual WNIT champion Jayhawks at Allen Fieldhouse. She added two steals while playing a career-high 28 minutes.

Moriarty ended her sophomore season by averaging 3.4 points and 1.6 rebounds, while adding 27 total assists and 22 steals on the season.

She produced the best week of her career by averaging 10.0 points, 2.5 rebounds and 1.5 assists in 24 minutes per game off the bench in wins over Wisconsin (Dec. 7) and Samford (Dec. 10). She hit 5-of-8 threes in the two games, including a career-best 3-for-3 from beyond the arc in the second half to finish with a career-high 11 points in the win over Samford. It followed a then-career-high nine points in the win over Wisconsin.

Moriarty added eight big points off the bench in Nebraska's road rally to a 71-64 win at Purdue (Jan. 18). She also scored eight big points while adding a career-high five rebounds in NU's overtime win over eventual NCAA Tournament qualifier Mississippi State in Puerto Rico (Nov. 26). She also had eight points in Nebraska's win over Tarleton (Nov. 22) helping ease the loss of starter Allison Weidner, who suffered an eye injury in the opening minute and did not return.

Moriarty also provided one of the most memorable moments of the 2022-23 season for the Huskers when she drained an unlikely, running half-a-hook shot from beyond half court on a baseline inbounds play as the shot clock expired in the closing seconds of Nebraska's win over Penn State (Jan. 11). The shot provided Moriarty with her only points of the night, while earning recognition as Scott Van Pelt's "Best Thing I Saw Today" on ESPN.

Moriarty's efforts helped Nebraska overcome the absences of starters Isabelle Bourne, Sam Haiby, Trinity Brady and Weidner at different points in 2022-23. In three Postseason WNIT games, Moriarty averaged 6.7 points, 1.3 rebounds and 2.3 steals, while hitting 8-of-11 field goal attempts, including 4-of-7 three-point tries.

PERSONAL

The daughter of Margaret Moriarty and Sean Moriarty, Kendall has an older brother, Peyton, and an older sister, Lexi. An advertising and public relations/sports media and communication dual major, Kendall earned her bachelor's degree from Nebraska in May 2025. She claimed Academic All-Big Ten honors in 2023, 2024 and 2025. She was a seven-time Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll selection and a four-time member of the Tom Osborne Citizenship Team.

She chose Nebraska over Iowa, Wisconsin, Penn State, Illinois, Marquette, Vanderbilt, Northwestern and DePaul.

"I chose Nebraska because of the family atmosphere and the culture the coaches and players create," Moriarty said. "Nebraska has amazing fan support for their athletic programs, which I love. All of the coaches are great people who will push me to become a great player and even a better person. Visiting Nebraska just made me feel at home."

Alberte Rimdal (pronounced al-BER-tee RIM-doll) joined the Nebraska program on April 13, 2024, after spending her first three seasons at Florida. A member of the Danish National Team, the 5-9 guard bolstered a backcourt that lost a trio of graduate students (Jaz Shelley, Maddie Krull, Darian White) who helped the Huskers to the 2024 NCAA second round.

Rimdal averaged 9.7 points and 4.7 assists per game at the Big Ten Tournament, including 12 points and a career-high-tying eight assists in a first-round win over Rutgers (March 5). She added 10 points and six assists against No. 4 UCLA (March 7).

Rimdal erupted for a season-high 20 points against Iowa (Feb. 10). It was her first 20-point game as a Husker and second of her career.

She followed with a big 15-point effort in just 21 minutes in Nebraska's upset at No. 17 Maryland (Feb. 13). Rimdal added 15 points and five assists to help the Huskers to a win over Oregon (Feb. 19), before closing the regular season with 17 points on 5-of-6 three-point shooting in a win at Northwestern (March 2).

Rimdal notched her 12th double-figure scoring effort of the season and sixth in NU's last nine games with 10 points and six assists against No. 4 UCLA (March 7).

Rimdal had 11 points and a season-high three steals in a Big Ten road win at Purdue (Jan. 30). She opened Big Ten play with 12 points and a then-career-high six assists in a win over Minnesota (Dec. 8).

She had 15 points and a season-high five rebounds in a win over Kansas City (Nov. 26).

Rimdal also had 13 points, five rebounds, three assists and two steals in a win over North Alabama (Nov. 19).

Rimdal, who set her career high with eight assists in a win over Wisconsin (Jan. 20), averaged 7.9 points, 1.5 rebounds and 2.4 assists over 33 games with six starts. She shot 48.1 percent from the field, including 44.2 percent (34-77) from three-point range.

She closed her career with five points and three rebounds in the NCAA Tournament first round against Louisville (March 21).

Rimdal had a strong nine-point, three-assist effort in an overtime win at Iowa (Jan. 16).

She made her first Husker start in place of an injured Britt Prince in a win over Southeastern Louisiana (Nov. 9). Rimdal had 14 points, including a trio of threes, to go with three assists and two steals against the Lady Lions.

Rimdal starred off the bench with Prince's return in a win over Southern (Nov. 12), scoring 13 points on 5-of-7 shooting while adding three rebounds. Rimdal was back in the starting five in a record-setting win over South Dakota (Nov. 16), when she had seven points, five rebounds and two assists.

Nebraska drew its first sellout crowd for women's basketball with 13,595 fans at the Devaney Center on Feb. 27, 2010. The Huskers, who drew 10 straight crowds of more than 10,000 fans to close 2010, defeated Missouri 67-51.

HUSKERS CELEBRATED FINAL SEASON AT DEVANEY IN 2012-13

NEBRASKA FACED UTAH AT DEVANEY ON NOV. 23, 2014

For 37 seasons (1976-2013) the Nebraska women's basketball team called the Bob Devaney Sports Center home. In 2013-14, the Huskers made a successful move into Pinnacle Bank Arena, tying the school record with 16 home victories while ranking No. 8 nationally in total attendance (110,892). Nebraska made its regular-season debut at the 15,000-seat Pinnacle Bank Arena with a resounding 77-49 victory over Pac-12 power UCLA on Nov. 8, 2013.

Little more than a year later, the Huskers returned to their old home court to face another Pac-12 foe, when Nebraska defeated Utah, 66-43, at the Devaney Center on Nov. 23, 2014. The game against the Utes was the first played by the Huskers on their old home court since the Devaney Center was completely renovated for volleyball prior to the 2013 season.

In Nebraska's final season of women's basketball at the Devaney Center (2012-13), the building featured a seating capacity of 13,595. The nearly $20 million in renovations at the Devaney Center reduced capacity to 7,907 with standing room approaching nearly 8,500. The Husker volleyball program led the nation in home attendance in 2013 with 8,175 fans per match.

The renovations to the Devaney Center continued with significant upgrades to the outside of the building in 2014. Inside, ceiling trusses have been added to provide an historic feel, while five luxurious suites and large new 10MM video screens have been installed to help create an electric atmosphere.

Although the Huskers no longer compete at the Devaney Center as their permanent home, the team's impressive practice facility, the Hendricks Training Complex, is attached to the Devaney Center. Not only do the Huskers continue to utilize the Devaney Center for summer camps, the building also serves as a host site, along with Pinnacle Bank Arena, for the Nebraska Boys and Girls State Basketball Tournaments.

Named after Nebraska Hall of Fame football coach and athletic director Bob Devaney (1962-93), the Devaney Center opened in the fall of 1976 and is located on NU's Innovation Campus (formerly the Nebraska State Fairgrounds). The building currently houses Nebraska's volleyball, track, swimming, wrestling and gymnastics teams.

In 2009-10, Nebraska ranked seventh nationally with a school-record average home attendance of 7,390 fans per game. The Huskers also led the Big 12 in league games only by averaging 11,383 fans per contest, including seven consecutive crowds of more than 10,000 fans to close the season. NU sold out the Devaney Center for women's basketball with 13,595 on hand for a win over Missouri on Feb. 27, 2010. The Huskers have regularly ranked among the top 30 teams in average attendance, including 16th in 2012-13.

TRADITION

HUSKERS GROW TRADITION WITH WILLIAMS

By Mike Babcock & Jeff Griesch

"This team of Huskers likes to practice. And they say practice makes perfect. And now they are. Perfect regular season! Perfect regular season! Nebraska finishes the regular season perfect - 29-0!"

As those words boomed from the voice of Husker play-by-play announcer Matt Coatney, the Huskers completed the first unbeaten regular season by a Big 12 men's or women's basketball team in history in 2009-10.

Nebraska's win came with more than 2,000 Big Red fans on hand at Bramlage Coliseum in Manhattan, Kan., on a day that All-American Kelsey Griffin erupted for a career-high 36 points on 15-of-19 shooting from the field in an 82-72 win over the Wildcats on March 6, 2010.

For Griffin and the Huskers, it was another step in a history-making season that left the Nebraska record book in turmoil and the Husker Nation in a fan frenzy.

The win over Kansas State also capped a perfect 16-0 conference campaign that gave the Huskers their first-ever Big 12 crown. Nebraska clinched that title at the Lloyd Noble Center in Norman, Okla., as the No. 3 Huskers ran past No. 11 and defending Big 12 champion Oklahoma, 80-64 on Feb. 24.

Griffin, the 2010 Big 12 Player of the Year, dominated the Sooners as well, pouring in 30 points while pulling down 13 rebounds, as NU improved to 13-0 in league play.

Nebraska returned home to power past Missouri, 67-51, as Griffin led the Huskers with 19 points and career highs of 17 rebounds and five blocked shots.

Following the game, the first-ever sellout crowd of 13,595 fans at the Devaney Center stayed to witness the presentation of the Big 12 regular-season trophy and a net-cutting ceremony on the Huskers' homecourt.

After the ceremony, Griffin and the Huskers signed autographs for nearly 1,000 fans until almost midnight in the hallway near the locker room.

"We were sorry to keep them waiting so long, and we just couldn't stop signing," Griffin said. "Our fans have been awesome and it was an amazing night. We wanted to celebrate with them and send them home happy."

Griffin and the 2010 Huskers sent the fans home happy one more time on Senior Night with a 77-52 win over Kansas to complete a perfect 16-0 home campaign. Griffin and fellow first-team All-Big 12 selections Cory Montgomery and Yvonne Turner, along with seniors Kala Kuhlmann, Nicole Neals and Nikki Bober were honored as the largest and most successful senior class in school history.

More than 12,000 fans were on hand for their finale, the seventh consecutive crowd exceeding 10,000 to end the season - matching the total number of crowds of greater than 10,000 in the previous 35 seasons of Nebraska women's basketball.

The Huskers stretched their school-record winning streak to 30 games before falling in the Big 12 Tournament semifinals to No. 11 Texas A&M.

At 30-1, the Huskers earned the first No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament in school history, before beating Northern Iowa and UCLA at Williams Arena in Minneapolis to advance to the program's first NCAA Sweet 16.

Nebraska's breakthrough 32-2 season ended with a loss to No. 19 Kentucky at the Sprint Center in Kansas City. But the loss did not define the 2010 Huskers or their impact on Nebraska women's basketball.

In the locker room in the moments following the loss, Coach Connie Yori focused on the history and memories her team made.

"In the years to come when we look back on this year, we are going to remember everything that we accomplished," Yori said. "But you all know I've said this all along, when you look back on your time at Nebraska, you won't remember the wins and losses. You are going to remember all the great times you had with your teammates on and off the court."

Nebraska's focus on team chemistry, love and respect for one another, character, effort and mental toughness, allowed the Huskers to succeed at the highest levels of any team in school history.

Nebraska's first winner of the Senior CLASS Award in any sport, Griffin produced one of the best senior seasons in school history by averaging 20.1 points and 10.4 rebounds per game. She led an unprecedented hardware haul by Husker players by being named a first-team All-American by the WBCA, AP, USBWA and the Wooden Award.

Amy Williams, who led Nebraska to NCAA bids in 2018, 2022, 2024 and 2025, was named Nebraska's 10th women's basketball coach on April 11, 2016. A four-year Husker letterwinner (Amy Gusso, 1995-98), Williams was the 2018 Big Ten Coach of the Year and the Summit League Coach of the Year at South Dakota (2015, 2016).

A Wade and Naismith Trophy and Wooden Award finalist, Griffin was a three-time first-team All-Big 12 selection. She was joined by Montgomery and Turner on the first team, while Dominique Kelley earned honorable-mention accolades and Lindsey Moore was named to the Big 12 All-Freshman Team.

Griffin and Turner were both named to the league's five-player All-Defensive Team, while Turner was named the Big 12 Co-Defensive Player of the Year.

The Huskers continued to make history after the season ended, as Griffin was chosen as the No. 3 overall pick in the 2010 WNBA Draft. Selected by the Minnesota Lynx and then traded to the Connecticut Sun, Griffin became the highest Husker draft pick in history.

A little more than one hour later, Montgomery joined Griffin as the first pick of the third round with the No. 25 overall pick to the New York Liberty.

"It was truly a special season - a season that we will all remember for the rest of our lives," Yori said. "This was the hardest working team and the best practicing team I have ever coached, and the results were obvious. This team deserved every win and every award it received."

Yori was named the WBCA, AP, USBWA, Naismith and Kay Yow National Coach of the Year. She also earned Big 12 Coach of the Year honors. She added Big Ten Coach-of-the-Year honors in 2013 and 2014.

In 2014, Nebraska captured its first-ever conference tournament title by winning the Big Ten crown at Bankers Life Fieldhouse in Indianapolis. Jordan Hooper, who replaced Griffin in Nebraska's starting lineup, earned Big Ten Player-of-the-Year honors and first-team WBCA All-America accolades - just like her predecessor.

Hooper, a 6-2 forward from Alliance, Neb., tied Griffin's school record with 40 double-doubles and was named a first-team Senior CLASS All-American. A tremendous outside shooter, Hooper also smashed NU's three-point record with 295 in her career. She averaged 20.4 points and 9.1 rebounds per game to lead the Huskers to the second round of the NCAA Tournament. In 2013, Hooper helped the Big Red to their second NCAA Sweet 16, after leading NU to an NCAA Tournament bid in 2012. In her final three seasons, Hooper's Husker teams averaged 25 wins per season, the best three-year stretch in Nebraska history. Hooper went on to be the No. 13 overall pick in the 2014 WNBA Draft by the Tulsa Shock.

Hooper's selection, which followed Lindsey Moore's No. 12 pick by the 2013 WNBA champion Minnesota Lynx, gave the Huskers three top-15 WNBA picks and six All-America awards claimed by the Huskers from 2010 to 2014.

Like the 2010 team, the 2014 Huskers featured All-Big Ten players from top-to-bottom in their starting five. Rachel Theriot earned honorable-mention All-America accolades after being named the Big Ten Tournament MVP and a first-team All-Big Ten choice. Emily Cady and Tear'a Laudermill added second-team All-Big Ten awards, while Hailie Sample claimed a spot on the Big Ten All-Defensive Team.

Although the Huskers lost Hooper to graduation and Theriot to injury 21 games into the 2014-15 campaign, Nebraska's senior class of Cady, Laudermill, Sample and Brandi Jeffery continued the Huskers' NCAA Tournament tradition. The four seniors became the most successful class in history by becoming the first group of Huskers to advance to four consecutive NCAA tournaments. They also became the first class to produce four straight 20-win seasons on their way to a four-year program record 96 wins.

In 2015-16, Yori's 14 seasons at Nebraska came to an end with an 18-13 record that included a trip to the Postseason WNIT. She finished as the winningest coach in Nebraska women's basketball history with 280 victories, averaging 20 wins per season.

Yori had come to Nebraska on June 24, 2002. She took over following back-to-back losing seasons under Coach Paul Sanderford, and struggled to an 8-20 mark with only a handful of scholarship players in 2002-03. In her second season, Nebraska improved to 18-12 overall and made its first of seven straight postseason tournament appearances.

The Huskers added a postseason trip in 2004-05, despite featuring four first-time starters. Sophomore Kiera Hardy earned first-team All-Big 12 honors, while Jelena Spiric claimed Big 12 Newcomer-of-the-Year accolades. NU was also back in the top 25 in the national attendance rankings, averaging more than 4,000 fans per game.

The Huskers also produced the biggest win in school history with a 103-99 triple overtime victory over eventual national champion Baylor at Devaney on Jan. 12.

Nebraska made a third straight Postseason WNIT trip in 2005-06, again featuring Hardy as a first-team All-Big 12 guard, while adding Big 12 All-Freshman selection Kelsey Griffin at forward.

Hardy and Griffin helped the Huskers to a 19-13 mark in 2005-06, but still came up a win or two short of their goal of getting Nebraska back to the Big Dance.

BIG RED BUILD TITLE TRADITION IN BIG TEN

That mission was accomplished in 2007, as Hardy earned first-team All-Big 12 honors for the third straight season while shattering NU's career three-point record. Griffin joined Hardy with first-team All-Big 12 accolades, and the Huskers finished with a 22-10 overall record and a trip to the 2007 NCAA Tournament in Raleigh, N.C.

The Huskers fell in the first round to Temple, but it set up a repeat trip to the Big Dance in 2008. This time around, the 21-12 Huskers, again led by first-team All-Big 12 forward Griffin, knocked off Xavier in the first round.

After picking up just the third NCAA Tournament win in school history, the Huskers battled top-seeded Maryland down to the wire on the Terps' homecourt.

Griffin was the only returning starter on the 2008 team, as she was joined by senior Danielle Page, sophomore Yvonne Turner, junior college transfer Tay Hester and freshman Dominique Kelley in the Husker starting five.

The Huskers entered 2008-09 with high hopes, but those aspirations were tempered by a preseason foot injury to Griffin. Her injury required a pair of surgeries and she was forced to redshirt. Nebraska's inside depth was further challenged by a season-ending knee injury to Nikki Bober near the end of non-conference play. Starting forward Cory Montgomery played the entire season, but battled multiple injuries that limited her practice time early in the year. Turner also played through a shoulder injury, while Kaitlyn Burke, a part-time starter at shooting guard, struggled with a broken finger on her shooting hand.

Despite starting conference play 1-8, the Huskers refused to surrender and closed the Big 12 campaign as one of the league's hottest teams. NU finished the regular season with a 15-14 mark and a 6-10 Big 12 record to secure a seventh straight postseason trip.

Griffin, Turner, Montgomery and Kelley all returned to the starting lineup in 2009-10, and added Moore, the 2009 Washington High School Player of the Year at the point guard spot. The starting five, along with experienced senior reserves Kala Kuhlmann and Nicole Neals, and juniors Catheryn Redmon and Jessica Periago gave the Huskers the talent and depth to contend on the national level.

After injuries and graduation left the Huskers short-handed in 2010-11, a young Nebraska squad began a new building process in 2011-12. In the Huskers' first-ever Big Ten Conference season, a roster that featured six freshmen among just 10 active players rolled to the fourth-highest victory total in school history with a 24-9 record. After posting a 10-6 Big Ten regular-season mark, the Huskers stormed to the Big Ten Tournament Championship Game before falling in two overtimes to Purdue.

The young Huskers advanced to the school's 10th NCAA Tournament after posting nine wins over 2012 NCAA Tournament teams. Not only did the Huskers have to overcome their own inexperience, all five starters overcame injuries to start every game during the season.

Hooper became the first sophomore in school history to reach 1,000 career points, while becoming the first NU sophomore to produce 600 points and 300 rebounds in a season. Nebraska's first-ever first-team All-Big Ten selection, Hooper also claimed honorable-mention All-America honors from the AP and the WBCA.

A candidate for the Wade and Naismith National Player-of-the-Year awards, Hooper was joined on the Naismith watch list by Moore. The 5-9 junior was also one of eight finalists for the Nancy Lieberman Award as the nation's top point guard. A second-team All-Big Ten pick, Moore joined Hooper on the Big Ten All-Tournament Team and in Nebraska's 1,000-point club.

Cady earned a spot on the Big Ten All-Freshman team after producing one of the best rookie seasons in school history. The 6-2 forward from Seward, Neb., joined Sample in becoming the first freshmen in school history to start every game together during their rookie seasons.

The duo went on to join Hooper in the starting five for 100 consecutive games in Nebraska's first three seasons of Big Ten play.

That trio, along with Nebraska's career assist leader and 2013 honorable-mention All-American Moore, fueled the Huskers to their second NCAA Sweet 16. NU's four returning starters were joined by another Big Ten All-Freshman selection, Rachel Theriot, in powering the Huskers to a 25-9 record and a 12-4 Big Ten mark.

All-American Kelsey Griffin earned Big 12 Player-of-the-Year honors while leading the Huskers to 30 straight wins and a No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament. She had her jersey retired on Jan. 29, 2014.

The Huskers played for a share of the Big Ten regular-season title in the final home game at the Devaney Center. Although they came up short, the Huskers went on to defeat Chattanooga, 73-59 in the first round of the NCAA Tournament at College Station, Texas. Two nights later, the sixth-seeded Huskers pulled one of the biggest upsets of the tournament, knocking off SEC Tournament champion and No. 9 ranked Texas A&M, 74-63, on the Aggies' homecourt at Reed Arena.

Moore closed her amazing career with her fifth double-double, producing 20 points and 10 assists. Sample made a triumphant return to her home state with 10 points and 11 rebounds to add her first career double-double.

Moore, who led NU to three NCAA tournaments including a pair of Sweet 16 bids, started more games (132) and played more minutes (4,360) than any player in school history. She also set the school record with 699 career assists, while adding 1,673 points.

Hooper was the lone senior on NU's 2013-14 squad, but she was joined by juniors Cady, Sample and Laudermill, and sophomore honorable-mention All-America point guard Theriot in the starting five.

The 2014 Huskers finished with a 26-7 overall record for the second-best winning percentage in school history, while adding a 12-4 Big Ten mark. NU played for a share of the Big Ten regular-season title again on the final day of the season, but came up short at Purdue.

After having a nine-game conference winning streak snapped in West Lafayette, the Huskers rallied for three straight convincing wins over Minnesota, No. 19 Michigan State and No. 23 Iowa at the Big Ten Tournament.

After earning their first-ever NCAA Tournament automatic bid, the Huskers claimed a No. 4 seed and defeated Fresno State, 74-55, at Pauley Pavilion in Los Angeles. NU moved one game away from a chance to compete as a host in the NCAA Sweet 16 in its new Pinnacle Bank Arena, but came up short in an 80-74 loss to BYU.

The Cougars joined 2014 NCAA champion Connecticut, Texas A&M and DePaul for the NCAA Lincoln Regional in 2014 - the first NCAA Tournament basketball games in Lincoln since 1993.

Nearly 17,000 fans watched the three games in Lincoln, leading UConn Coach Geno Auriemma to acknowledge and praise the rise of women's basketball at Nebraska.

"Everybody's heard about the crowds here, the facilities here. Everything that's going on here. Every day's been great. The people are phenomenal. The building is spectacular. This is really, really, really nice. There's no doubt in my mind there will be another regional here, no question. Most places are fans of their team, not necessarily fans of the game. Here I think they take tremendous pride in their team, their school and the community, and they showed it."

The move into the new Pinnacle Bank Arena in downtown Lincoln brought even more excitement to Husker basketball. The $179 million arena held a school-record-tying 16 home wins in 2013-14, along with the 11th-highest average home attendance (6,161) in NCAA women's basketball. Nebraska's total attendance of more than 110,000 ranked eighth nationally and was the second-best total in school history, trailing only the 2010 season.

The Big Red attracted more than 6,000 fans per game to Pinnacle Bank Arena again in 2014-15, and ranked among the top 10 nationally in total attendance in each of the Huskers' first three seasons in the new building.

The current atmosphere is a far cry from its humble beginnings on the UNL campus. In March of 1898, a university women's team played a game against an outside opponent for the first time. The opposition was provided by a team from Council Bluffs, Iowa. The contest was played at the Nebraska armory, Grant Memorial Hall.

Among the matters to be resolved before the game was whether men's rules or those of Smith College should apply. In 1894, only three years after Dr. James Naismith established the rules for basketball, Senda Berenson, director of physical education at Smith College in Massachusetts, modified Naismith's game for women.

In contrast to the Nebraska team, the captain of which was graduate student Louise Pound, the team from Council Bluffs had been playing by the more physical men's rules. A compromise was reached. The first half would by played by men's rules, the second by Smith College rules. The teams played six on a side: two centers, two guards and two forwards. Pound played center.

Another issue was whether men should be allowed to attend. Administrators decided that any "gentleman'' accompanied by a "lady'' would be admitted, but single men might be prohibited lest the game attract the wrong kind of audience. The unflattering bloomers women wore in gym classes were regarded as inappropriate dress for mixed company, regardless of the circumstances. As a result, intramural track and field competition involving women was held indoors until 1904.

Early basketball games involving the university women were well-attended, and there was "always a goodly surplus in the treasury,'' according to the Nebraska State Journal. The gymnasium was filled well in advance of the game's start.

The Council Bluffs team, made up of girls who were "slighter of build and younger,'' proved to be no match for Pound and her university teammates. Pound, who also was the first all-university tennis champion, accounted for three field goals and five free throws in a 15-7 win.

The play of Nebraska's Harriet Cooke and Marie Beach drew mention in newspaper accounts. Cooke, like Pound, played center and accounted for Nebraska's other points. Beach was a guard, along with Marie Kennedy. The Council Bluffs forwards were much shorter and had difficulty passing the ball over Beach and Kennedy to their centers, who were responsible for scoring goals. Bertha du Teil and Helen Welch were Nebraska's forwards. Rose Long was a substitute.

Basketball was introduced in the university's physical education classes for sophomore women in 1896. As was the case with male students, class teams competed against each other. The first all-university women's team was organized in 1896, according to the Nebraska State Journal. It included the best players regardless of their class, among them Welch, the only player from that first team who participated in the contest against the Council Bluffs team in March of 1898. Welch and her five teammates were "trained'' by Anne Louise Barr and played other inter-class teams.

The first women's game played before an audience was part of NU's sixth annual gymnasium exhibition in the spring of 1897, according to Phyllis Kay Wilke's "Physical Education for Women at Nebraska University, 1879-1923,'' published in the spring 1975 issue of Nebraska History.

Pound was the driving force in women's basketball at the university, organizing as well as playing on the earliest teams. She was a member of the team in the 1898-99 school year. It didn't play any opponents from outside of the university and very few intramural opponents, for that matter, because a large pipe organ donated by an alumni group was stored in the gym.

In April of 1901, the university sponsored a women's state tournament under Pound's direction at Grant Hall. Nebraska was represented by a first and second team in a field that included teams from the Omaha YWCA, Lincoln High and Wahoo High. The university's first team, led by captain Eleanore Miller, won the two-day competition.

Karen Jennings earned the 1993 Wade Trophy and was Nebraska's first first-team All-American. Jennings was a two-time Academic All-American of the Year for women's basketball and was inducted into the Academic All-America Hall of Fame in 2008.

In November of 1901, Nebraska played a team from the University of Missouri at Grant Hall, "the first intercollegiate match for girls ever played in the west,'' according to the Nebraska State Journal. Missouri was no match for its experienced opponent. Miller, who was still on the varsity team, had been succeeded as captain by Hannah Pillsbury. Nebraska won 31-4. The varsity team had yet to lose in its brief history.

Nebraska's varsity team didn't play against outside competition again until 1903, when it defeated the Omaha YWCA in Omaha 18-9 and a team from the Haskell Indian School in Lawrence, Kan., 42-8. The University second team also played that day, defeating Baker University, 22-1.

Efforts were being made to encourage intercollegiate competition for women, according to the Nebraska student yearbook for 1902, The Sombrero. The next university yearbook, published two years later, noted that women's basketball was experiencing dramatic growth.

In 1904, Nebraska suffered its first defeat, losing to the University of Minnesota at Minneapolis after opening an abbreviated schedule by shutting out the Lincoln YWCA 16-0. NU avenged the loss two weeks later in Lincoln.

Nebraska was 3-0 in 1905, against the Haskell Indian School, Missouri and the Omaha YWCA, the last two games on the road. The season was short but successful, the student yearbook noted: "Owing to an inability to schedule games with desirable teams, only three games were played.'' In 1907, no women's varsity team was picked.

In March of 1908, Nebraska played games against Minnesota, home-and-home, two weeks apart. Nebraska lost them both, 9-3 and 28-22, after a five-minute overtime. Earlier, NU had defeated a team from Nebraska Wesleyan to finish its final season with a 1-2 record.

Despite their remarkable success, the university women were allowed to play basketball only in physical education classes after April 24, 1908. In response to the concerns of faculty members, who considered such activity inappropriate, the Board of Regents abolished intercollegiate athletics for women. More than 60 years passed before the University sponsored women's teams.

Women's club teams were formed beginning in 1970. In 1974-75, such a team coached by Jan Callahan won nine of 16 games. Only three of the games were against opponents from outside the state. The team played on the small court in Mabel Lee Hall, which was named for the women's physical education director from 1924 to 1952. A typical audience might be 30, mostly friends and relatives of the players.

The modern era of women's basketball at Nebraska more accurately dates from 1975, with the arrival of Aleen Swofford as women's athletic director and the offering of scholarships. The total budget for women's athletics was less than $40,000.

George Nicodemus, an Iowa native who had directed John F. Kennedy College in Wahoo, Neb., to a pair of AAU women's national titles, succeeded Callahan as volunteer coach of NU's fledgling program in 1975. With seven scholarships and Jan Crouch, his tallest starter at 5-foot-11, Nicodemus produced a 22-9 record in his first season. The Huskers finished third in the Big Eight Tournament in Manhattan, Kan., in February of 1976. They won the state collegiate tournament held at Midland College in Fremont, Neb.; lost in the second round of an Association of Intercollegiate Athletics for Women (AIAW) regional tournament in Fargo, N.D.; and finished by winning two consolation games at the National Women's Invitational Tournament at Amarillo, Texas.

"We are only a couple of tall girls away from winning a national championship,'' Nicodemus said after his first year. Nicodemus, whose duties also included the softball program, became a paid coach his second season at Nebraska, receiving an annual salary of $12,000. The Huskers finished 20-14 and took second to Kansas State at the league tournament in Boulder, Colo. Nebraska's season ended with a 74-54 loss at Nebraska-Omaha in the first round of the state tournament.

The UNO game was Nicodemus' last as NU's coach. Dr. June Davis, who had served for two years as women's sports information director at the university, succeeded Swofford as women's athletic director and set about replacing Nicodemus. He passed away on Sept. 3, 2016, at the age of 92.

Davis hired Marcia Walker, who had spent two years at Dakota Wesleyan. Walker announced she would resign with about a third of a 12-14 season remaining. The team would have four more coaches in the next nine years, including Lorrie Gallagher, Colleen Matsuhara, Kelly Hill and Angela Beck, who finally brought stability to the program in 1986.

Gallagher followed Walker and coached two 20-win seasons, both of which earned the Huskers AIAW regional tournament berths. The first of Matsuhara's three teams advanced to an AIAW regional, making it three in a row. NU would have only one winning season in the next five.

The Huskers lost nearly twice as often as they won during the next two years, which preceded the promotion of Dr. Barbara Hibner to women's athletic director and Beck's arrival from Bradley.

Among the dominant Nebraska players of the late 1970s and early 1980s were 1,000-point career-scorers Jan Crouch, Diane DelVigna, Janet Smith, Kathy Hagerstrom, Cathy Owen, Debra Powell, Stacy Imming and Angie Miller. Powell finished her four-year career in 1984-85 with 1,843 points.

Powell was the first Husker to earn first-team All-Big Eight honors, earning the award as a junior. DelVigna was the most prolific of the eight scorers, averaging 19.1 points per game during her two seasons at NU. Smith, who played on the three consecutive AIAW regional qualifiers coached by Gallagher and Matsuhara, pulled down a school-record 1,280 rebounds and scored 1,284 points.

The 29-year-old Beck, a native of Decatur, Ill., had been an All-American at Millikan, an NCAA Division III school in her hometown. Beck inherited two players who helped the Huskers make history by capturing their first Big Eight regular-season title, the best record in school history and the first NCAA Tournament bid in 1988.

The two players, both Nebraskans, were Maurtice Ivy and Amy Stephens. The 5-foot-9 Ivy joined the Huskers in 1984, after a remarkable career at Omaha Central. She was a three-time Super-State basketball player and was chosen by the Lincoln Journal Star as the state's outstanding female high school athlete for 1984. Stephens arrived a year later from Alliance, Neb., where she enjoyed a high school career as much publicized as that of Ivy. Both were prolific scorers.

Ivy was the first player to score 2,000 career points at Nebraska. She reached that total, appropriately enough, at the Bob Devaney Sports Center on "Maurtice Ivy Night" in February of 1988. Mayor Bernie Simon had declared Feb. 17, "Maurtice Ivy Day" in Omaha. A proclamation to that effect was read before the game against Kansas. Ivy received a plaque from Omaha's Lewis and Clark Junior High, and her high school coach announced that her No. 22 jersey was being retired by Omaha Central.

Proving her sense of the dramatic was as keen as her shooting eye, Ivy hit a free throw with 23 seconds left for point No. 2,001. That point also secured what would be a 76-72 victory. Ivy hit three more free throws before game's end. The win was crucial to Nebraska winning the conference crown and earning an at-large bid in the NCAA Tournament. The season and Ivy's Nebraska career ended at 22-7 with a 100-82 loss at USC in the first round of the regional at Los Angeles. Ivy was chosen as the 1988 Big Eight Player of the Year. Beck was the conference coach of the year, and Kim Harris, a transfer from Bradley, earned Big Eight Newcomer-of-the-Year honors.

Ivy, whose career point total reached 2,131, was named to the Big Eight's all-decade women's basketball team for the 1980s. Stephens, who finished just 24 points shy of 2,000, received honorable mention on the all-decade team.

Karen Jennings was recruited from Persia, Iowa, in 1989, after playing six-on-six, half-court basketball at Tri-Center High School in Neola, Iowa, where she averaged an astonishing 59 points per game as a senior. Jennings adapted quickly to five-on-five basketball, leading the Huskers to back-to-back 20-win seasons as a junior and senior. She was voted the Big Eight Player of the Year both seasons, and in 1992-93, after Nebraska earned an NCAA regional bid, was chosen a first-team WBCA All-American.

Nebraska finished second in the Big Eight, then lost to Kansas 64-60 in the conference championship game at Jordan Hooper earned first-team WBCA All-America honors after being named the 2014 Big Ten Player of the Year. Hooper was a starter on the USA Basketball World University Games Team that won gold in Russia in 2013.

Salina, Kan., to enter NCAA play with a 22-7 record. The Huskers defeated San Diego in Lincoln, 81-58, before losing to USC, 78-60, in Los Angeles.

During a ceremony at halftime of a victory against Iowa State at the Bob Devaney Sports Center in January of 1995, Karen Jennings' No. 51 jersey was retired. Jennings was the first woman basketball player in the history of the University of Nebraska to be so honored.

Given Jennings' accomplishments in four seasons as a Husker, the honor was a slam dunk. She was the first woman in school history to be chosen as a first-team basketball All-American. She was awarded the Margaret Wade Trophy after her senior season. Wade was the first women's coach to be inducted into the National Basketball Hall of Fame in Springfield, Mass. The trophy named in her honor is presented annually by the WBCA to the women's collegiate player voted to be the nation's best.

Jennings twice was honored as the Big Eight Conference Player of the Year. She finished as Nebraska's career scoring leader and the second-leading scorer in conference history. She was first-team all-conference three times, and she led the Huskers to the NCAA Tournament in 1993.

Jennings distinguished herself in the classroom as well. She was a three-time Academic All-American. She earned Big Eight and NCAA post-graduate scholarships, and her academic success, combined with her athletic accomplishments, earned her recognition as the Big Eight Female Athlete of the Year in 1993.

Jennings continued to thrive following her tremendous athletic and academic accomplishments at Nebraska. After a successful career as a physical therapist, she changed gears and thrived in the real estate business in Omaha. Along the way, she contributed thousands of hours of community service and began to raise a family. For her success as a collegiate student-athlete and her accomplishments after her career, Jennings was honored with induction into the Academic All-America Hall of Fame in the summer of 2008.

Described as "the best of the best of the best" by longtime Academic All-America Hall of Fame spokesman and award-winning broadcaster Dick Enberg, fewer than 300 student-athletes all-time, across all-sports have been honored with Hall of Fame induction.

She also was selected to the inaugural class of the University of Nebraska Athletics Hall of Fame in 2015.

Beck, who added a freshman walk-on from Spearfish, S.D., named Amy Gusso to her 1994-95 roster, coached Nebraska to the 1996 NCAA Tournament before leaving for the fledgling (and now defunct) American Basketball League after the 1996-97 season. Beck was replaced by Paul Sanderford, who had taken Western Kentucky to the NCAA Tournament 12 times in 15 years as a coach. His Hilltoppers advanced to the semifinals three times and lost in the 1992 title game.

The 1997-98 squad led by Anna DeForge included fellow senior Gusso and tied then-school records for wins (23) and conference victories (11) and advanced to an NCAA sub-regional at Norfolk, Va., where it defeated New Mexico before bowing out against perennial power Old Dominion.

In 1998-99, the Nicole Kubik-led Huskers finished 21-12 and advanced to the NCAA Tournament, losing to Kentucky 98-92. In 1999-2000, the Huskers achieved another school first by advancing to their third consecutive NCAA Tournament, while Kubik capped her career by finishing as the school's No. 7 all-time scorer while ranking in the top 25 in NCAA Division I history with 418 career steals.

Kubik joined fellow seniors Brooke Schwartz and Charlie Rogers in becoming the first Nebraska natives from the same recruiting class to all score 1,000 points. Keeping the best of Nebraska's players at home has continued.

Yvonne Turner, the 2006 Nebraska High School Player of the Year, finished her NU career with 1,101 points, while becoming just the sixth guard in Husker history with more than 1,000 points, 200 assists and 200 steals. Dominique Kelley, the 2007 Nebraska High School Player of the Year, joined Turner in the 1,000-point club one year later.

Jordan Hooper was the 2008 and 2010 Nebraska High School Player of the Year, and finished her Husker career No. 2 in points (2,357) and rebounds (1,110). Emily Cady became the 13th native Nebraskan in NU's 1,000-point club and closed her outstanding four-year career with 1,461 points, 1,114 rebounds and 305 assists as one of the most versatile players in school history.

The Huskers began a new chapter in their women's basketball history with the return of Coach Amy (Gusso) Williams in 2016-17. A hard-working former Husker who earned back-to-back Summit League Coach-of-the-Year honors at South Dakota (2015, 2016), Williams began a substantial rebuilding project in 2016-17.

In her second season at Nebraska, Williams captured Big Ten Coach-of-the-Year honors by leading the nation's top turnaround while guiding the Huskers to the NCAA Tournament in 2018.

Nebraska was postseason eligible again in 2020 before the COVID-19 pandemic ended seasons around the world. NU rebuilt again to earn a trip to the 2021 WNIT, before advancing to the 2022 NCAA Tournament. The Huskers earned WNIT trip again in 2023 before running to the second round of the 2024 NCAA Tournament. NU's 2024 trip to March Madness followed a push to the Big Ten Championship Game. The Big Red added a third NCAA Tournament appearance in four years in 2025. The Huskers finished with the 20th 20-win season in school history and their 17th NCAA Tournament bid.

Alexis Markowski became the first four-time first- or second-team all-conference player in school history in 2025, while setting the school career record with 53 double-doubles.

Britt Prince added honorable-mention All-Big Ten accolades while becoming the fourth Husker freshman in four years to earn a spot on the five-player Big Ten All-Freshman Team, joining Big Ten Freshmen of the Year Markowski (2022) and Potts (2024) along with All-Freshman pick Logan Nissley (2024).

As the popularity of women's basketball at Nebraska continues to grow, the Huskers are confident that the best in the growing tradition of Big Red basketball is yet to come.

The most decorated women's basketball player in school history, Karen Jennings earned the Margaret Wade Trophy as the nation's outstanding player and WBCA/Kodak First-Team All-America honors in 1993. The 6-2 forward from Persia, Iowa, was a four-year starter and led Nebraska to the second round of the 1993 NCAA Tournament. The first Husker to have her jersey retired, Jennings' No. 51 was retired in 1994 and formally put on display at the Devaney Center in 2006. A giant banner displaying her name and No. 51 are now on permanent display alongside Maurtice Ivy's No. 30, Kelsey Griffin's No. 23 and Jordan Hooper's No. 35 at Pinnacle Bank Arena.

In March of 2015, she was named to the inaugural class of the University of Nebraska Athletics Hall of Fame - one of 22 athletes across all sports.

Jennings was one of the top student-athletes in NU history. She captured College Sports Communicators Academic All-American-of-the-Year honors in 1992 and 1993, while claiming CSC First-Team Academic All-America honors three times (1991, 1992, 1993). A two-time Big Eight Conference Player of the Year (1992, 1993) and a three-time first-team all-conference pick, Jennings was the Big Eight Newcomer of the Year in 1990.

The captain of Nebraska's All-Century Team announced in February of 2000, Jennings closed her career as the first player in school history to score more than 2,000 points and record 1,000 rebounds.

Jennings was also chosen as one of 25 Women of Distinction honored during the Nebraska Athletic Department's Silver Anniversary celebration of 25 years of women's athletics at NU in 1999-2000.

Jennings averaged 20.2 points and 8.4 rebounds per game in her career, while ranking first in points (2,405). She also ranks sixth in career rebounds (1,000), first in field goals made (981), second in field-goal percentage (.568), third in field goals attempted (1,726), tied for fourth in free throws attempted (570) and fifth in free throws made (426).

Jennings' 810 points and 25.3 points per game average in 1991-92 rank as the top single-season totals in school history, while her 10.0 rebounds per game allowed her to average a double-double as a junior. She also owns NU's single-game scoring mark with 48 points in an 87-82 win at Kansas State on Jan. 21, 1992.

In her freshman season, the Huskers struggled to a 10-18 overall record, but with Jennings as a nucleus, NU improved to 17-11 the next season. She set the Husker sophomore record for scoring average at 20.5 points per game (574 points).

NU continued to improve in Jennings' record-setting junior campaign, posting a 21-11 mark and advancing to the National Women's Invitational Tournament.

In her final season, Jennings helped Nebraska to its first NCAA Tournament win in history with 14 points and eight rebounds in an 81-58 win over San Diego at the Bob Devaney Sports Center on March 17, 1993.

Jennings added 16 points and 13 rebounds in a 78-60 loss at Southern California in the tournament's second round. NU finished with a 23-8 record and a second-place finish with a 10-4 mark in the Big Eight.

Jennings also claimed a spot on the Big Eight All-Tournament team after leading the Huskers to the tournament championship game.

Following a career in physical therapy, Jennings became a highly successful real estate agent in Omaha. Jennings was also the first Nebraska female student-athlete to be inducted into the College Sports Communicators Academic All-America Hall of Fame in 2008.

The most athletic forward in Nebraska women's basketball history, Jordan Hooper finished No. 2 at NU in points (2,357) and fourth in rebounds (1,110) while smashing the Husker record with 295 threes.

She became the fourth Husker in history to be honored with a jersey retirement, when her No. 35 was raised on Jan. 7, 2024, at Pinnacle Bank Arena alongside Karen Jennings (51), Maurtice Evy (30) and Kelsey Griffin (23).

The 6-2 forward from Alliance, Neb., was not only one of the top three-point shooters in Big Ten Conference history, she was also one of only three players in Big Ten history to achieve the combined milestones of 2,300 points and 1,100 rebounds. She was the first Husker to ever accomplish that feat.

Hooper, who tied Kelsey Griffin's then-school record with 40 career double-doubles, became NU's first Big Ten Player of the Year in 2014, joining Griffin (Big 12, 2010), Karen Jennings (Big Eight, 1993) and Maurtice Ivy (Big Eight, 1988) as the only Huskers to claim conference player-of-the-year awards.

As a senior, Hooper became the third first-team All-American in Nebraska history, joining fellow 2,000-point scorers Jennings (1993) and Griffin (2010). A standout on the court, in the classroom and in the community, Hooper was one of five Senior CLASS Award first-team All-Americans. She was a second-team All-American by the Associated Press before being selected by Tulsa with the No. 13 pick in the WNBA Draft.

Hooper led the Big Red to the most successful three-year stretch in school history. NU finished with a 26-7 overall record during Hooper's senior season. The Huskers played for a share of the regular-season Big Ten title in the final game of the year for the second straight season before settling for third with a 12-4 league mark in 2013-14.

NU played for a share of the regular-season crown, going 25-9 overall and 12-4 in the Big Ten in 2012-13.

As a sophomore, Hooper helped the Huskers to a 24-9 mark and a trip to the Big Ten Tournament title game. After coming up short in those first three championship game appearances, Hooper and the Huskers claimed Nebraska's first-ever conference tournament title with a 72-65 win over Iowa on March 9, 2014, in Indianapolis.

Hooper also led the Big Red to three straight NCAA appearances from 2012 through 2014, including the school's second NCAA Sweet 16 bid in 2013. The 2013 and 2014 Huskers also became the first teams in NU history to win NCAA Tournament games in consecutive seasons. Overall, Nebraska averaged 25 wins per season in Hooper's last three years. Prior to her arrival as a two-time Nebraska Gatorade High School Player of the Year (2008, 2010), only one Husker team had ever won more than 23 games in a season.

A three-time All-American by both the WBCA and the Associated Press, Hooper was a three-time Wade and Naismith trophy candidate. She was a finalist for the Wade and Wooden awards in 2014. She was a three-time first-team All-Big Ten and a two-time Big Ten All-Tournament choice. Hooper was also a three-time academic All-Big Ten selection and NU's Big Ten Sportsmanship Award winner in 2014.

As a senior, Hooper averaged 20.4 points and 9.1 rebounds to push her career averages to 18.0 points and 8.5 boards per game. She started all 131 games of her career to rank third in NU history, as one of just three Huskers to play 4,000 career minutes.

The first pick of the second round of the 2014 WNBA Draft by Tulsa, Hooper averaged 5.8 points and 2.4 rebounds per game as a rookie, before helping the Shock to the playoffs in her second WNBA season. She played for the Dallas Wings in 2016, before splitting time with Connecticut, Atlanta and Chicago in 2017.

In addition to her four seasons in the WNBA, Hooper was a professional overseas for nine years. She played for Besiktas (Turkey) in 2014-15, averaging 13.1 points and 6.0 rebounds per game.

Hooper played 15 games for Atenienses de Manat in Puerto Rico before starring for Southeast Queensland in Australia's WNBL in 2015-16. She ranked third in scoring (18.5 ppg) and seventh in rebounding (8.6 rpg) in the league.

She went back to Turkey to play for the University of Istanbul Club in 2016-17, averaging 12.5 points and 6.2 rebounds over 25 games, before returning to the WNBL to average 11.8 points and 5.0 rebounds for the Canberra Capitals in 2017-18.

She spent four of her last five seasons in Israel, including Elitzur Holon (18.1 ppg, 8.6 rpg, 2018-19), and A.S. Ramat Hasharon (13.0 ppg, 9.7 rpg, 2019-20), before spending 2020-21 with BK Tsmoki-Minsk in the Belarus Premier League (15.3 ppg, 8.8 rpg). She returned to Israel for Hapoel Petka Tikva (15.7 ppg, 9.0 rpg, 2021-22) and Hapoel Rishon Le-Zion (13.4 ppg, 8.6 rpg, 2022-23).

Hooper earned her bachelor's degree in psychology from Nebraska in May of 2014.

One of the most athletic players in Nebraska history, Maurtice Ivy was the first player in Husker history to surpass the 2,000-point barrier.

Ivy, who became the second Husker to have her jersey retired (Jan. 16, 2011), joins fellow 2,000-point scorers Karen Jennings (No. 51, 1994), Kelsey Griffin (No. 23, 2014) and Jordan Hooper (No. 35, 2024) in being honored with giant banners featuring their names and numbers on display at Pinnacle Bank Arena.

Ivy also became the second women's basketball player inducted into the Nebraska Athletics Hall of Fame in 2020.

Ivy was one of five players chosen to Nebraska's All-Century Team in February of 2000, and one of the "25 Women of Distinction" selected in 1999-2000 as part of the school's silver anniversary of women's athletics.

The athletic wing player from Omaha Central High School was the first Husker to earn Big Eight Player-of-the-Year honors after leading Nebraska to the Big Eight title in 1988. Ivy also earned a spot on the Big Eight All-Tournament team in 1986-87 and 1987-88.

A three-time first-team All-Big Eight pick, Ivy's 19.2 points per game rank second on Nebraska's career charts, while her 778 career rebounds rank 10th on the Huskers' all-time list. She is also tied for ninth in Husker history with 21 career double-doubles, including 10 as a sophomore in 1985-86.

Although Ivy was only 5-9, her outstanding leaping ability and court awareness made her a fierce shot blocker, as she ranks seventh on NU's all-time list with 104 blocked shots. Ivy also ranks, second in career field goals made (847) and attempted (1,799), third in free throws made (431), tied for fourth in free throws attempted (570) and eighth in career steals (215).

Ivy's 23.6 points per game average in 1986-87 rank as the second-best single-season scoring average in school history, and her 683 points as a junior rank as the fourth-highest total at Nebraska. Her 153 made free throws and 196 free throws attempted in 1986-87 were single-season Nebraska records until Kelsey Griffin and Dominique Kelley both eclipsed those marks in 2009-10.

Ivy produced one of the greatest performances in Husker history when she erupted for 46 points in Nebraska's 100-87 loss to Illinois at Maples Pavilion in Stanford, Calif., on Dec. 30, 1986.

It was one of eight 30-point scoring efforts in Ivy's career, including a pair of 35-point performances against Oklahoma and Kansas in 1987.

She added the 12th-best rebound total in school history with 19 boards to go along with 23 points in a 104-63 win over Brigham Young at the Illinois Invitational in Champaign, Ill., on Dec. 14, 1985. She also had 29 points and 14 rebounds at Iowa State on Feb. 22, 1986.

Along with leading the Huskers to their first conference title, Ivy guided Nebraska to its first NCAA Tournament appearance in 1988.

Ivy led the Huskers in the 100-82 loss at USC with a team-high 22 points to go along with nine rebounds, four assists, one blocked shot and one steal in her final game in a Nebraska uniform. Ivy served as an assistant coach at Nebraska-Omaha from the summer of 2004 through the end of the 2006-07 season, before becoming the head coach at Peru State College in the summer of 2007. She coached for six seasons at Peru State. She currently lives in Omaha.

One of the most decorated players in Nebraska history, Kelsey Griffin joins Karen Jennings (51), Maurtice Ivy (30) and Jordan Hooper (35) with Husker retired jerseys. Griffin's No. 23 was put on permanent display at Pinnacle Bank Arena on Jan. 29, 2014.

Griffin also joined Jennings and Ivy with induction into the Nebraska Athletics Hall of Fame in 2021.

Griffin produced one of the best senior seasons in school history on her way to first-team All-America honors in 2009-10. The 6-2 forward from Eagle River, Alaska, averaged 20.1 points and 10.4 rebounds per game while leading Nebraska to its best season in school history. The 2010 Big 12 Player of the Year, Griffin earned first-team All-America honors from the WBCA, Associated Press, U.S. Basketball Writers Association and the Wooden Award while powering Nebraska to its first NCAA Sweet 16 and its first Big 12 regular-season title.

Along the way, Griffin was named a finalist for every major national player-of-the-year award (Wade, Naismith, Wooden, Honda) and was Nebraska's first Senior CLASS Award winner in any sport. She was also a finalist for the V Foundation Comeback Award and the National Consortium on Academics and Sports Giant Steps Courageous Student-Athlete Award.

Griffin, who led Nebraska to its highest national rankings and first NCAA Tournament No. 1 seed, closed her career with a then-school-record 127 starts. She ranks fourth in school history with 2,033 points and fifth with 1,019 rebounds. She joins 1993 Wade Trophy winner Karen Jennings and 2014 first-team All-American Jordan Hooper as the only Huskers in history with 2,000 points and 1,000 boards. Griffin and Hooper also share the NU career record of 40 double-doubles with current Husker star Alexis Markowski. Griffin produced a single-season record 20 double-doubles as a senior in 2009-10.

A three-time first-team All-Big 12 pick, Griffin earned a spot on the Big 12 All-Defensive Team as a senior with single-season career bests of 60 steals, 26 blocks and a remarkable 29 charges drawn.

Griffin erupted for a career-high 36 points at Kansas State on March 6 to carry NU to the first perfect season in Big 12 history, helping the Huskers improve to 29-0 overall and 16-0 in the league. She hit 15-of-19 shots against the Wildcats. It was Griffin's fifth career 30-point effort, including her fourth as a senior (31 points, 11 rebounds vs. Creighton; 30/14 vs. No. 5 LSU; 30/13 at No. 11 Oklahoma).

Griffin earned six Big 12 Player-of-the-Week awards as a senior, including four straight to end the season. She finished with 104 career double-figure scoring efforts, including each of Nebraska's three games in the 2010 NCAA Tournament, when she averaged 18.3 points and 11.7 rebounds per game.

After a sensational start as a freshman, Griffin battled illness down the stretch, limiting her playing time during the last half of the 2006 Big 12 season.

In 2006-07, she was challenged by a breathing condition with effects similar to asthma. In 2007-08, Griffin played the entire year with a protective vest after cracking a rib in an exhibition game.

The rib injury and breathing condition could not stop Griffin from averaging 16.8 points and 8.2 rebounds. They also couldn't stop her from carrying NU to its first NCAA Tournament win since 1998.

Griffin erupted for 26 points going head-to-head with Xavier's post duo of 6-6 Ta'Shia Phillips and 6-5 Amber Harris to guide NU to a win over the Musketeers in College Park, Md.

However, in 2008-09 Griffin was forced to miss the entire season with a foot injury that required a pair of surgeries. She returned to full health before the start of the 2009-10 campaign.

Following her collegiate career, Griffin was the No. 3 overall pick in the WNBA Draft by the Minnesota Lynx. She was traded to the Connecticut Sun, where she earned one of five spots on the 2010 WNBA All-Rookie Team. Griffin spent her fifth and final WNBA season with the Sun in 2014. In 2013, Griffin started all 34 games while averaging 8.7 points and 5.0 rebounds. She played 133 WNBA games with 61 starts in her first four seasons, while averaging 5.0 points and 3.9 boards per game in her career.

Griffin has continued to be one of the top professionals in the world as a three-time WNBL champion (2013, 2014, 2019) and a three-time WNBL Grand Final MVP (2013, 2014, 2019). The 2019 WNBL MVP, she is a three-time first-team All-WNBL choice (2015, 2016, 2019) and earned second-team honors in 2022. She was voted the WNBL Defensive Player of the Year in 2015.

Griffin played in Hungary in 2010-11 and Israel in 2011-12, before joining the Bendigo Spirit in Australia's WNBL in 2012-13. She led Bendigo to the WNBL title and was named MVP of the championship series in 2013 and 2014. Griffin was a member of the WNBL All-Star Five and the league's Defensive Player of the Year in 2014-15, averaging 16.0 points and 9.2 rebounds. She played alongside former Husker teammate and Canadian Olympian Chelsea Aubry in Bendigo for three seasons (2012-13 to 2014-15).

In 2015-16, Griffin ranked fourth in the WNBL in scoring (17.9 ppg), third in rebounding (10.0 rpg), fourth in steals (41) and ninth in blocks (20) despite battling a hamstring injury. In 2016-17, she averaged 15.1 points and 7.7 rebounds, before spending her sixth season in Bendigo in 2017-18.

In 2018-19, Griffin was the WNBL MVP after leading the Canberra Capitals to the title. She led the WNBL in scoring (19.7 ppg) and rebounding (12.3 rpg) while ranking fifth in steals (1.7 spg) and eighth in blocks (1.0 bpg). She had 29 points and 15 rebounds in the championship game win over Adelaide, hitting five three-pointers. She was the MVP of the Grand Final, averaging 25.0 points and 16.7 rebounds in the series.

In 2020, the WNBL season was just six weeks (COVID-19), and Griffin appeared in 12 games, averaging 12 points and 8.1 rebounds for Canberra.

As a co-captain for the Capitals in 2021-22, Griffin earned second-team All-WNBL honors with 15.1 points, 8.1 rebounds and 2.2 assists. She returned to Bendigo in 2022-23, averaging 15.3 points, 7.4 rebounds, 2.3 assists and 2.6 steals. She averaged 15.9 points and 7.7 rebounds for Bendigo in 2023-24, before leading the Spirit to the WNBL title by averaging 12.7 points, 10.0 rebounds and 2.4 assists in her 15th professional season in 2024-25. It was her 13th season in Australia and her fifth WNBL title.

She claimed her permanent citizenship in Australia in 2015, and earned MVP honors at the 2017 Asia Cup in her first Australian National Team appearance. She also competed for the Opals at the Commonwealth Games in 2018. She was scheduled to represent Australia in the first FIBA 3x3 Olympic Qualifying Tournament in India (March 18-22, 2020) before it was canceled by the coronavirus outbreak.

1,976 Points (5)

One of the greatest three-point shooters in Nebraska history, Amy Stephens connected on 129 of 323 long-range attempts (.399) in just two seasons with the three-point shot at her disposal.

The 5-6 guard from Alliance, Neb., is tied for second on Nebraska's single-season list with 85 made threes in 216 attempts as a senior in 1988-89, when she produced the third-highest scoring average (21.9 ppg) and 10th-highest point total (612) in school history. She claimed a spot on Nebraska's All-Century Team when it was announced in February of 2000.

Amy Stephens was chosen to Nebraska's All-Century Team, joining Karen Jennings, Maurtice Ivy, Nicole Kubik and Anna DeForge.

Along with being a tremendous scorer with 1,976 career points, Stephens was a gifted passer, ranking ninth all-time with 444 assists. She was also a strong defensive player, ranking third at Nebraska with 280 career steals. She started 113 games and posted the third-best free throw percentage (.837) in NU history.

2004-07
5-6, Guard
Kansas City, Mo.
(O'Hara)
1,930 Points (6)

Perhaps the most explosive player and creative shot-maker in Nebraska history, Kiera Hardy closed her career as one of the most prolific three-point shooters in Husker history.

Hardy, who earned WBCA Region 5 All-America honors as a senior, ranks sixth on Nebraska's all-time scoring list with 1,930 points. She also held NU's career three-point mark with 267 until Jordan Hooper hit 295 from 2011 to 2014. Hardy, Hooper, Hannah Whitish and Jaz Shelley are the only Huskers with more than 200 career threes.

A three-time first-team All-Big 12 pick, Kiera Hardy was one of the most explosive players in the Big 12 Conference in her three years as a starter.

Hardy tied Amy Stephens for second on the school single-season three-point list with 85 as a sophomore in 2004-05. Hardy added the junior single-season record with 81 in 2005-06.

A three-time first-team All-Big 12 selection for the Huskers, Hardy joins Hooper, Karen Jennings, Maurtice Ivy and Kelsey Griffin as the only three-time first-team all-conference selections in NU history. She also joined Chelsea Aubry as the first two Huskers to earn four straight postseason tournament bids.

Before Hardy's arrival on campus, the Huskers had failed to advance to postseason play for three consecutive seasons.

As a freshman, Hardy came off the bench to average 9.1 points per game in 27 contests. She helped NU to the postseason after the Huskers went 8-20 the year before she arrived in Lincoln. As a sophomore, Hardy made a splash on the Big 12 and national scene by averaging 19 points per game. She grabbed national headlines with her 37-point eruption against eventual national champion Baylor, as the Huskers knocked off the then-No. 2 Lady Bears, 103-99 in triple overtime, on Jan. 12, 2005.

Hardy's effort against Baylor marked a career high and was one of four 30-point performances in her career. She capped her sophomore season by tying a then-school record with seven threes against Iowa in the Postseason WNIT.

After leading NU to a third straight WNIT trip as a junior, Hardy guided the Huskers to their first NCAA Tournament berth since 2000 as a senior. She produced the third-highest scoring total by a Husker in the NCAA Tournament with 23 points in a loss to Temple. Hardy was a third-round pick of the Connecticut Sun in the 2007 WNBA Draft.

Hardy played professionally for Haukar in Iceland before playing for Strakonice in the Czech Republic in 2009-10. She also played for the Kansas City Queenz in the WBCBL in 2010. She was an assistant coach at Texas-Pan American in 2012-13. She earned her master's degree from Grand Canyon in 2019. One of the most prolific passers in Nebraska history, Meggan Yedsena dished out 696 assists during her career for a record 5.8 assists per game. Yedsena owns four of the top 14 season assist totals in the Nebraska record books, including 195 in 1991-92, which stood as a school record until 2013-14.

Meggan Yedsena started all 120 games of her career, dishing out 696 assists, while scoring 1,116 points.

Nebraska's all-time leading scorer Karen Jennings and 1,000-point club member Nafeesah Brown were the two major beneficiaries of Yedsena's passing proficiency.

Yedsena's 696 assists stood as an NU career record from 1993-94 until 2012-13, when Lindsey Moore totaled 699.

Yedsena's skill helped her earn Big Eight Newcomer-of-the-Year honors in 1990-91. She was a three-time second-team All-Big Eight pick, after earning honorable-mention all-league accolades as a freshman. Yedsena was also first-team academic All-Big Eight in 1991-92 and 1992-93.

The 5-8 point guard started 120 straight games, averaging 9.3 points to finish with 1,116 points to rank 26th on Nebraska's all-time list. Her 297 steals were a Husker career mark until 1998-99. Yedsena set a career best with 12 assists in a 95-67 win over Oklahoma at the Bob Devaney Sports Center on Jan. 26, 1991, and tied that mark in an 87-60 win at Arizona State on Jan. 4, 1994. Both totals are tied for 10th all time on the Nebraska single-game charts. Amazingly, Yedsena never scored 20 points in a single game, recording a career high 19 points in Nebraska's 76-67 win over Kansas State on Feb. 11, 1994. Yedsena helped the Huskers to the first NCAA Tournament victory in school history with six points, seven assists and four rebounds in an 81-58 win over San Diego in Lincoln on March 17, 1993.

The Gatorade Pennsylvania Player of the Year and a third-team Parade All-American in 1990, she finished her career at Mahanoy Area High School with 2,751 points, including a 1,000-point season. 1,107 Points (28)

A four-year starter, Dominique Kelley was an outstanding all-around player who had her senior season cut short by knee injuries. The 2007 Nebraska High School Player of the Year at Lincoln Northeast, Kelley finished with 1,107 points despite missing nearly all of NU's final 20 games of the 2010-11 season.

Dominique Kelley started the first 109 games of her career. She was one of the top free throw shooters in school history.

As a starter in Nebraska's first 11 games as a senior, Kelley averaged 15.0 points, 5.0 rebounds and 3.5 assists. She was on pace to finish among the top 15 players in school history in scoring, while also smashing the school record for career starts. However, a knee injury kept her off the floor for all but eight minutes in the Big 12 opener against Oklahoma on Jan. 8. She also earned a start on Senior Night against Colorado, when she played eight seconds.

Kelley is one of only eight freshmen in NU history to start every game. As a rookie in 2007-08, she made 33 starts and averaged 6.4 points and 2.9 rebounds while helping the Huskers to the second round of the 2008 NCAA Tournament. Kelley showed improvement as a sophomore, increasing her averages to 9.7 points and 3.3 rebounds per game, while helping an injury-ravaged NU team to the second round of the 2009 Postseason WNIT.

An honorable-mention All-Big 12 choice as a junior, Kelley started every game and helped the Huskers to the best year in school history. She increased her averages to 12.6 points and 3.9 rebounds, while continuing her lock-down defense. In the 2010 NCAA Tournament, Kelley helped NU to its first Sweet 16 with 22 points against No. 22 UCLA. In the round of 16, she added 22 points against No. 19 Kentucky. In three 2010 NCAA Tournament games, Kelley averaged 18.3 points, 3.3 rebounds, 2.7 assists and 1.0 steal. She hit 18-of-30 shots, including 3-of-4 threes. She also went 16-of-22 at the free throw line.

One of the top free throw shooters in NU history, Kelley's 90.7 percent (68-75) shooting as a senior ranks third in the Husker record book. She ranks 10th in career free throws made (383) and attempted (490).

Kelley earned her bachelor's degree in broadcasting from Nebraska in 2012. She earned her master's degree in education administration in 2014, after spending the 2012-13 and 2013-14 seasons as an NU graduate assistant. She was the coordinator of basketball operations at Drake in 2014-15, before being promoted to assistant coach in 2015-16. She returned to Lincoln in 2016. She and her husband, Clyde Johnson, have two children. She was the head coach at Lincoln High School for five seasons, leading the Links to a Class A runner-up finish as the 2023 Nebraska State Coach of the Year. She was named the CEO of the Boys & Girls Club of Lincoln in October 2023.

CHARLIE ROGERS

1997-2000
6-2, Center
South Sioux City, Neb.
(South Sioux City)
1,001 Points (38)

One of the top shot blockers and rebounders in Nebraska history, Charlie Rogers earned a place among the elite scorers in the Husker record book in her final game in a Nebraska uniform. Rogers scored 13 points on a 5-for-5 performance from the field and a 3-for-3 effort from the free throw line against Boston College on March 17, 2000, in the first round of the NCAA Tournament. Rogers' two free throws with 34 seconds left pushed her over the 1,000-point barrier making her, Brooke Schwartz and Nicole Kubik the first three members of the same Nebraska recruiting class to achieve the 1,000-point mark.

Charlie Rogers scored 13 points in her final game to become the 20th player in school history to reach the 1,000-point plateau.

Rogers, a Nebraska native and a prep product of national high school power South Sioux City, ranks No. 5 at Nebraska with 126 blocked shots, while ranking in the top 15 on Nebraska's career rebounding list with 659 boards. As a senior, she led the Huskers with 7.9 rebounds per game, while averaging 9.8 points per contest.

She pulled down 20 rebounds against Drake on Dec. 2, 1999, and posted a career-high 20 points against Arizona on Dec. 7, 1997. Her five blocked shots in her final home game against Kansas State were also a career high. Rogers earned a spot on the Time Warner Cable Classic All-Tournament team in 1996, 1998 and 1999. Along with her accomplishments on the court, Rogers was a four-time first-team academic All-Big 12 selection and earned second-team Academic All-District recognition as a senior in 1999-2000.

Rogers lives in Lincoln.
