HUSKER POWER: A NATIONAL LEADER

Husker Power is a nationally recognized brand and a source of pride for Nebraska Athletics.

NEBRASKA WAS THE FIRST TO:

- Have a paid strength coach
- Lift weights in-season
- Hold a summer conditioning class
- Offer a degree for strength coaching

With 14 staff members, including men's basketball strength coach Kurt Joseph, it is one of the most comprehensive strength and conditioning organizations in the country. Husker basketball student-athletes train in the Hendricks Training Complex, which features a 5,000-square foot weight room. The facility gives Husker student-athletes a technological and strategic advantage by combining state-of-the-art strength training innovation with top-notch coaching and programming.

Joseph is in his fourth season as Director of Men's Basketball Strength & Conditioning after spending the previous two-plus years as an assistant strength coach with the Minnesota Timberwolves in the NBA. Previously, he worked with the Iowa Wolves of the NBA G League, the New York Knicks and Brooklyn Nets.

DRAFTED HUSKERS

The first NBA draft of collegiate players was held following the 1947-48 season, but the league did not begin to keep records of team-by-team draft lists until 1952. Here is a list of the 29 Cornhusker players drafted by the NBA since 1949:

1949	Claude Retherford, St. Louis Bombers
1950	Bus Whitehead, Chicago Stags (7th)
1951	Bob Pierce, Indianapolis Olympians (5th)
1952	Jim Buchanan, Boston Celtics (6th)
1954	Bill Johnson, Boston Celtics (11th)
1960	Herschell Turner, Syracuse Nationals (6th)
1966	Grant Simmons, Washington Bullets (12th)
1967	Willie Campbell, Seattle SuperSonics (15th)
1968	Stuart Lantz, Houston Rockets (3rd) Tom Baack, Detroit Pistons (10th)
1970	Jim Brooks, Houston Rockets (12th)
1971	Marvin Stewart, Philadelphia 76ers (2nd) Leroy Chalk, Boston Celtics (13th)
1972	Chuck Jura, Chicago Bulls (3rd) Mike Peterson, Portland Trail Blazers (16th)
1974	Brendy Lee, Atlanta Hawks (10th)
1976	Jerry Fort, Boston Celtics (3rd)
1979	Carl McPipe, Philadelphia 76ers (5th)
1981	Andre Smith, Cleveland Cavaliers (7th)
1982	Jack Moore, Kansas City Kings (9th)
1985	Curtis Moore, Portland Trailblazers (6th)
1986	Dave Hoppen Atlanta Hawks (3rd)
1991	Rich King, Seattle SuperSonics (1st/14th pick)
1994	Eric Piatkowski Indiana Pacers (1st/15th pick)
1998	Tyronn Lue, Denver Nuggets (1st/23rd pick)
1999	Venson Hamilton, Houston Rockets (2nd/50th pick)
2019	Isaiah Roby, Detroit Pistons (2nd/45th pick)
2021	Dalano Banton, Toronto Raptors (2nd/46th pick)
2022	Bryce McGowens, Charlotte Hornets (2nd/40th pick)

Note: Nate Branch was drafted by the American Basketball Association's Oakland franchise in 1967; Stuart Lantz was drafted by Oakland in 1968; Marvin Stewart was drafted by the New York Nets in 1971; and Chuck Jura was selected by the Utah Stars in 1972.

#42 DAVE HOPPEN

#52 ERIC PIATKOWSKI

#10 TYRONN LUE

#42 - DAVE HOPPEN (1983-86)
Nebraska's all-time leading scorer, Hoppen had his No. 42 jersey retired at the end of Senior Night on Feb. 26, 1986. Hoppen totaled 2,167 points before a knee surgery cut short his senior year Hoppen broke or tied 19 school records as a Husker. A third-round draft pick in 1986, he spent six seasons in the NBA. Hoppen was inducted into the Nebraska Basketball Hall of Fame in 1996 and Nebraska Athletics Hall of Fame in 2017.

#22 - STU LANTZ (1966-68)
Stu Lantz became the second Husker basketball player to have his jersey retired when he was honored on Oct. 17, 1989. A two-time first-team All-Big Eight performer, Lantz totaled 1,269 points and 571 rebounds in his three-year Husker career. He went on to play eight years in the NBA with four teams (San Diego/Houston Rockets, Detroit Pistons, New Orleans Jazz, Los Angeles Lakers). Lantz was a charter member of the Nebraska Basketball Hall of Fame in 1989. The 2024-25 season will be his Lantz's 38th season with the Los Angeles Lakers broadcast team.

#52 - ERIC PIATKOWSKI (1991-94)
Eric Piatkowski became the third Husker to have his jersey retired, as he was honored on Feb. 18, 2006. Piatkowski was a two-time All-Big Eight selection as he totaled 1,934 points in helping NU to four straight NCAA Tournaments during his collegiate career. A first-round draft pick in 1994, he spent 14 seasons in the NBA with the Los Angeles Clippers, Houston Rockets, Chicago Bulls and Phoenix Suns. Piatkowski, who was also inducted into the Nebraska Basketball Hall of Fame in 2006, highlighted the inaugural class of the Nebraska Athletics Hall of Fame in 2015.

#10 - TYRONN LUE (1996-98)
Tyronn Lue became the fourth Husker to have his jersey retired when he was honored on Feb. 2, 2017. Lue, who ranks in the top 10 in 13 categories during his three-year Husker career, earned All-Big 12 honors in 1998 helping Nebraska to the NCAA Tournament. A first-round draft pick in 1998, he spent 11 seasons in the NBA, including a pair of titles with the Los Angeles Lakers. A 2013 Nebraska Basketball Hall of Fame inductee, Lue coached the Cleveland Cavaliers to an NBA title in 2016 and three NBA Finals appearances. He was named head coach of the Los Angeles Clippers in October of 2020 and guided the Clippers to the 2021 Western Conference Finals. He served as an assistant coach for the United States Men's Basketball Team in the 2024 Paris Olympics.

LETTERWINNERS CLUB

N CLUB MISSION STATEMENT

Provide opportunities to letterwinners from all sports for connection, engagement and involvement through events, special reunions and communication while supporting the athletic, academic and career success of Husker student-athletes.

N CLUB PROGRAMMING/EVENTS

Memorial Stadium N Club Gameday Lounge – Located in the southeast corner of Memorial Stadium, letterwinner alums and guests with a gameday ticket can enjoy connecting with fellow Huskers, athletic staff and current student-athletes. Open 90 minutes prior to kickoff through the end of the game, the lounge features snacks, Pepsi products and flat screens to enjoy other games.

Social Events – The N Club hosts several social functions allowing letterwinner alums from all sports the opportunity to come back to campus and reconnect. The letterwinner tunnel walk is also held annually on the Homecoming game.

STUDENT-ATHLETE ENGAGEMENT

Striving to connect the past with the present, letterwinner alumni are invited back to campus to participate in the annual Student-Athlete Career Fair, Networking Night and Inner Circle Leadership group.

CHAMPIONSHIP REUNIONS

Championship teams are invited back to campus every 10 years from the date of the accomplishment.

ALUMNI WEEKEND

The Husker basketball program hosts an alumni wekend, giving the former players a chance to reminisce and meet the current team. Over 50 letterwinners returned for the 2025 event. This year's Alumni Weekend will center around the Northwestern game on Feb. 14, 2026.

ACADEMIC COUNSELING
A team of 13 academic staff members are in place to monitor daily academic progress, promote skill development, receive consistent course feedback, assist with the advising/registration process and monitor eligibility and progress toward graduation.

TUTORIAL SUPPORT
A tremendous resource for all academic abilities, tutorial support is available from day one up to college graduation in all subject areas. Tutorial support is provided both in-person and virtually. Nebraska's tutorial program is certified by the College Reading and Learning Association.

STUDY HALL
Student-athletes attend a supervised study hall within the newly-opened Osborne Legacy Complex that features day, evening and weekend hours. Student-athletes are required to complete a specific number of study hours each week and/or a list of academic tasks as determined by their academic counselor, learning specialist and coach.

MENTORING
Academic staff serve as mentors to all incoming student-athletes and select returning student-athletes. The student-athletes meet with their mentor weekly to develop time management skills, gather and report academic progress information and discuss academic success strategies.

EDUCATIONAL ASSESSMENTS
Assessments are administered upon the request of the student-athlete, academic counselor or coach. A learning specialist is available to administer and score informal assessments, which include a reading comprehension and a writing assessment. When more in-depth assessments are necessary, referrals are made to a neuropsychologist who conducts the assessments. If it is determined a student-athlete has a learning disability or another medical condition that impedes the student from reaching their academic potential, appropriate accommodations are implemented by the Office of Services for Students with Disabilities.

STUDENT-ATHLETE ORIENTATION
Each new student-athlete attends an orientation at the beginning of their academic career. Student-athletes are introduced to staff, faculty, administrators and a variety of resources that help facilitate the transition into college while enhancing awareness of support services in the Athletic Department and across campus.

PERSONAL COUNSELING
Student-athletes will find a supportive and caring environment at Nebraska. Transitional issues, stress management, time management, academic focus and problem resolution are all addressed in a proactive manner throughout the year. If necessary, counseling referrals are also made to designated practitioners.

ATHLETIC MEDICINE

Nebraska features one of the most well-trained and highly skilled athletic medicine staffs in the country. Under the guidance of Associate Athletic Director for Athletic Medicine Brandon Yoder and Men's Basketball Head Athletic Trainer Andrew McCabe (pictured, left), the Nebraska athletic medicine staff consists of 22 full-time athletic trainers, two graduate assistant athletic trainers, as well as a team of primary care, sports medicine and orthopedic physicians. In 2023, Nebraska Athletics entered into an agreement with Nebraska Medicine, the clinical partner of UNMC, for its physicians to provide care to Nebraska Athletics' student-athletes. It allows Husker student-athletes all the medical resources and expertise available to provide the best and most convenient care.

Nebraska's medical facilities have long been among the nation's best, and Nebraska opened the Osborne Legacy Complex in 2023. The facility includes state-of-the-art equipment for the evaluation, diagnosis, treatment and rehabilitation needs of the players. The athletic medicine staff continues to strive for growth with advanced coursework, allowing for innovation and research-based decisions to improve medical outcomes in conjunction with other athletic performance units to help create an all-encompassing health care model.

In addition to the Osborne Legacy Complex, the Tom and Nancy Osborne Athletic Complex, Hawks Field, Bowlin Stadium, Pinnacle Bank Arena, the Bob Devaney Sports Center and the Nebraska Soccer and Tennis Complex all feature athletic medicine facilities.

SPORT PSYCHOLOGY

Continuing its commitment to complete care for all student-athletes, Nebraska has a staff of four in-house mental health providers specializing in performance psychology who work directly with student-athletes, teams and coaches. Under the leadership of Director of Sport Psychology Brianna Ward (above), the Huskers' sport psychology staff provides counseling, psychological services, mental skills training, teambuilding and leadership development services for each of Nebraska's 24 sports and more than 600 Husker student-athletes. The staff works directly with student-athletes to help them develop skills to enhance personal well-being, address mental health and train psychological skills to optimize performance.

LIFE SKILLS

HUSKER HEROES

MATT TALBOT KITCHEN

MADONNA REHABILIATION CENTER

PROACTIVE EDUCATION
The Life Skills staff provides proactive education to all incoming and returning student-athletes designed to promote responsible decision-making, enhance one's personal brand and prepare student-athletes for life after sports. Interactive presentations are delivered during summer bridge sessions, orientations and year-by-year tiered development workshops.

FINANCIAL EDUCATION
Comprehensive financial education is provided to each Nebraska student-athlete based on their year in school through the Big Red Wealth Series. Topics covered in the Big Red Wealth Series include budgeting and building credit, filing taxes, investing, retirement planning, home buying, insurance and evaluating job offers.

INDIVIDUAL MEETINGS
Every Nebraska student-athlete is assigned a Life Skills staff member who will assist with personal and career development. The meetings help each student-athlete identify a career focus and implement a plan to increase career marketability.

CAREER COMMITMENT & NETWORKING
Nebraska Life Skills organizes an annual Student-Athlete Career Fair Networking Night and other career events aimed at connecting Huskers with companies desiring competitive, hard-working, accountable candidates. Athlete Network and UNL's Handshake Link provide opportunities to explore career opportunities across the country. Student-athletes also participate in mock job interviews and receive support to secure career-related internships.

COMMUNITY OUTREACH
Nebraska student-athletes readily accept the role-model challenge, collectively giving more than 2,500 hours annually to impact thousands across the state of Nebraska. Outreach events include but are not limited to hospital visits, mentoring, school assemblies, statewide rallies, Make-A-Wish, School is Cool and Husker Heroes. During the 2024-25 academic year, 433 Husker student-athletes completed at least six service projects earning spots on the coveted Tom Osborne Citizenship Team.

LEADERSHIP
Nebraska Life Skills provides student-athletes with countless opportunities to enhance leadership skills while distinguishing themselves from the competition. Student-athletes can be members of the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee or Lead-N. UNL offers more than 600 recognized student organizations allowing athletes to collaborate with other campus leaders for common goals.

RECOGNITION
In 2024-25, 17 Husker Men's Basketball student-athletes were named to the Tom Osborne Citizenship team for completing a minimum of six service projects in the calendar year. A host of other recognition opportunities at the institutional, Big Ten and NCAA levels that all reflect the high ideals, character and servant leadership nurtured through community involvement also are available.

THE UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA

THE UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA

Chartered in Lincoln by the Nebraska Legislature in 1869, the University of Nebraska was expanded in 1968 into a university system now comprising four campuses under the guidance of a Board of Regents and a central administration. The flagship University of Nebraska–Lincoln is an educational institution of international stature. Nebraska is classified within the Carnegie "R1: Doctoral Universities–Highest Research Activity" category. Nebraska is also a land-grant university and a member of the Association of Public and Land-grant Universities. The university is accredited by the Higher Learning Commission.

BIG TEN ACADEMIC ALLIANCE

As a member of the Big Ten, the University of Nebraska–Lincoln is a member of the Big Ten Academic Alliance (BTAA), which is the academic consortium of the universities in the Big Ten Conference. The BTAA includes all 18 Big Ten Institutions and partners with the University of Chicago. Being in the Big Ten Academic Alliance gives Nebraska several advantages, including: access to library collections across the conference, reduced costs through tech collaborations, lower student costs on course materials through collective purchasing and licensing, and study abroad partnerships and course-sharing agreements — students can take courses across Big Ten institutions.

#-Played at Nebraska in 2022-23 and 2023-24 seasons

Rienk Mast was an All-Big Ten performer in 2024, averaging 12.3 points per game while topping the Huskers in rebounds (7.5) and assists (3.0) per game.

Nebraska enters the 2025-26 season with momentum coming off back-to-back postseason appearances for the first time since 2019. Seventh-year Head Coach Fred Hoiberg has guided Nebraska to consecutive 20-win seasons for the first time in over a quarter century, and NU comes off winning the College Basketball Crown in Las Vegas last April.

The Huskers enter the campaign with an experienced roster, as 11 of the 16 players have played two seasons of Division I basketball. The group includes 11 juniors and seniors, giving Hoiberg a veteran unit to work with. While Nebraska lists five returning letterwinners from a year ago, headlined by Connor Essegian, Berke Büyüktuncel and Sam Hoiberg, two other previous returnees will play a significant part in the Husker fortunes. Rienk Mast and Jamarques Lawrence were starters on NU's 2024 NCAA Tournament team, and both are back this season. Mast, who started 32 of 34 games and a third-team All-Big Ten forward, missed last season following knee surgery. Lawrence, who started 23 games for NU that season, transferred to Rhode Island before returning for his senior season.

When you combine those two with the five letterwinners, NU totals more than 50 percent of its scoring, rebounding, assists, steals and minutes, giving the Huskers their highest returning percentage of production in Hoiberg's Husker tenure. NU also adds an experienced group of transfers in addition to Lawrence. That group includes a trio of seniors in Kendall Blue (St. Thomas), Jared Garcia (Tulsa), Ugnius Jaruševičius (Central Michigan) along with junior Pryce Sandfort (Iowa) and sophomore Will Cooper (Air Force).

"I think having a lot of experience back is important," Hoiberg said. "We are one of the oldest teams in the Big Ten and have a lot of players who have played in his system. This is a team that's learned very quickly, and we've thrown a lot at them. They've been very diligent with their work, and that's the biggest thing I've been impressed with, how they come in every day and competed. We, as all teams at this stage of the game, got a lot to clean up, but I'm really happy with what we've gotten accomplished here this summer."

Nebraska suffered a host of close losses last season, as nine of the 14 losses were in one possession games during the final minute of regulation. Hoiberg attributed that to struggles on the offense end, especially from 3-point range. In conference play, NU dropped from first (9.5 per game) to 13th (7.0 per game) in 3-pointers per game and dipped from third (.378) to 16th (.313) in 3-point percentage.

The Huskers will hope that the additions in the portal will help, as Lawrence Kendall Blue, Will Cooper and Pryce Sandfort all shot at least 37 percent from beyond 3-point range last season. In addition, Mast hit 42 3-pointers on 34 percent shooting in 2023-24.

"You have to be able to knock down your shots and I think we've addressed that with this group," Hoiberg said. "I also think we have more guys who can make play this year."

FRONTCOURT

Nebraska's frontcourt features an intriguing mix of returnees and newcomers keyed by a pair of returning starters in Rienk Mast and Berke Büyüktuncel. Transfers Ugnius Jaruševičius (Central Michigan) and Jared Garcia (Tulsa) and freshman Leo Curtis were added during the offseason to help offset the loss of three seniors, including three-year starter Juwan Gary. Returnees Justin Bolis and Henry Burt add frontcourt depth.

Mast, a third-team All-Big Ten selection in 2023-24, returns after missing all of last season following knee surgery in May of 2024. The seventh-year senior returned to practice in late July and the initial returns were very encouraging. His shooting and playmaking open up dimensions that the Husker offense was missing at times last year. In 2023-24, he averaged 12.3 points per game, pacing the Huskers in both rebounds (7.5 rpg) and assists (3.0 apg). The 6-foot-10 forward ranked in the top 15 in both assists and rebounds per game while his six double-doubles were the most by a Husker since 2007-08. Mast reached double figures 20 times and showed his ability to stretch a defense by hitting 34 percent from 3-point range. His campaign was highlighted by hitting six 3-pointers as part of a career-high 34-point effort in a win over Ohio State. He enters his final college season totaling nearly 1,400 career points and 900 career rebounds, but moreso then his numbers is the leadership and intangibles Mast brings to the court.

Büyüktuncel comes back after playing in 31 games, including 28 starts, in his first season as a Husker. The 6-foot-10 forward played both frontcourt spots and averaged 6.0 points, 5.5 rebounds and 1.4 assists per game. Büyüktuncel, who led the Huskers in rebounding, was playing some of his basketball of the season when he suffered an ankle injury against Ohio State in early February. The injury forced him to miss three games while he struggled to regain his form after a two-week break from injury. In his first 23 games, Büyüktuncel was shooting over 45 percent from the field, including 32 percent from 3-point range. Büyüktuncel reached double figures five times, including a career-high 16 points against Oregon State and 15 points against both Saint Berke Büyüktuncel led Nebraska in rebounding last season at 5.5 rebounds per game. He had a career-high nine rebounds on seven occasions, including three times in the Big Ten action.

Mary's and Ohio State. He also grabbed seven or more rebounds on 10 occasions, including a career-high nine caroms seven times. Büyüktuncel can guard multiple positions and create mismatches with his skill set.

Jarusevicius comes to Nebraska for his senior season after a breakout season at Central Michigan. The 6-foot-11, 245-pound forward earned first-team All-Mid American Conference honors in 2024-25, as he averaged 16.2 points and 7.3 rebounds per game. He ranked in the top-10 of the MAC in scoring (fifth), rebounding (third) and field goal percentage (.537, eighth). He paced the MAC with eight double-doubles, including an 11-point, 14-rebound effort against Marquette. Jarusevicius, who shot over 30 percent from 3-point range, closed the season with 11 straight double-figure scoring games, including a pair of 30-point games and three other 20-point performances. Jarusevicius gives the Huskers versatility, as he can play either frontcourt spot and his shooting and skill level is a fit for the Huskers' scheme.

Garcia provides size and athleticism on the interior after spending the last two seasons at Tulsa. The 6-foot-8, 235-pound forward was slated for a redshirt season last season as he recovered from an off-season knee injury but returned to action in mid-January and averaged 9.2 points and 4.2 rebounds per game in 17 games off the bench. He reached double figures nine times last season, highlighted by a season-high 22 points, including 5-of-6 from 3-point range, against Wichita State and 20 points against Temple in the AAC Tournament. Two years ago, he started all 31 games at Tulsa and ranked among the conference leaders in both blocked shots and rebounds. The sixth-year senior also has shown the ability to space the floor in his career, shooting 33 percent from 3-point range in 2023-24 at Tulsa. Garcia could fill a number of roles for the Huskers this season in the frontcourt.

Curtis, who signed with the Huskers in the spring, may possess the highest upside of any of the Husker frontcourt performers. The 7-foot-2 freshman impressed the coaching staff with his skill level and basketball IQ this summer and followed up with a strong performance at the U20 EuroBasket tournament, where he averaged 14.6 ppg and 2.9 assists per game while ranking in the top five in blocked shots (2.7 per game, first) and rebounding (8.1 rpg, third). He came to the United States last year and played at CATS Academy where he earned National Prep All-American Honorable-Mention honors. He averaged 12.3 points, 10.1 rebounds, 2.1 assists and 2.7 blocks per game in helping CATS Academy to a 28-7 record, a runner-up finish in the New England Preparatory School Athletic Council (NEPSAC) Class AA tournament and a No. 5 national ranking. His playing time could be determined by how quickly he adapts to the physicality to Big Ten basketball.

Bolis is in his second year at Nebraska after redshirting last season. He initially walked on to the team after spending his freshman campaign at Southeast Community College. At 6-foot-8, 225-pounds, Bolis worked with the scout unit as he adjusted to Division I basketball. Two years ago at SCC, Bolis averaged 15.5 points and 8.7 rebounds per game while recording 11 double-doubles. A Lincoln High product, Bolis looks to earn playing time this fall.

Burt returns for his fourth season in the Husker program after walking on to the program. The 6-foot-7, 235-pound junior made four appearances last season, totaling two points in seven minutes of action. An Omaha native, Burt has 11 career appearances while excelling in the classroom during his time as a Husker.

WINGS/BACKCOURT

Despite the losses of All-Big Ten pick Brice Williams and Rollie Worster, the Huskers have plenty of experience returning in 2025-26. Senior Sam Hoiberg started 15 games last season, including all four games in the College Basketball Crown, while Connor Essegian is NU's top returning scorer from a year ago at 10.7 points per game. Junior Cale Jacobsen is a steady veteran who has played 44 games at NU while Jamarques Lawrence returns to NU where he began his college career and started 23 games on NU's 2024 NCAA Tournament team. The Huskers added a trio of veterans in transfers Pryce Sandfort, Kendall Blue and Will Cooper.

Braden Frager returns after a redshirt season and is poised to make a significant impact while freshman Quentin Rhymes brings impressive credentials to the Husker program.

Hoiberg is the veteran of the Husker lineup, as he begins his fifth season in the program. He has played a major role in building the Husker culture during his career and has played every game since being inserted into the Husker lineup during his redshirt freshman year. Hoiberg saw his most extensive action in 2024-25, as he started 15 of the final 16 games of the season. He averaged 3.9 points, 2.4 rebounds, 1.9 assists and a team-high 1.4 steals per game, finishing 11th in the Big Ten in steals. Hoiberg posted a nearly 2-to-1 assist-to-turnover ratio while also shooting 36 percent from the field. Hoiberg led NU in both assists (3.8 apg) and steals (2.0 spg) during the College Basketball Crown, including a career-high seven assists without a turnover in the title game vs. UCF. He posted both of his double-figure efforts in the final five games of the year, including a season-high 12 points in the regular-season finale with Iowa, and can be used on or off the ball.

Essegian's return provides the Huskers with a proven backcourt scorer and reliable 3-point threat. He thrived in the role as Nebraska's sixth man last season, averaging 10.7 points per game after transferring from Wisconsin. Essegian ranked among the Big Ten leaders in both

Sam Hoiberg started 15 of the Huskers' final 16 games in 2024-25 and ranked among the Big Ten leaders in steals per game.

Kendall Blue was a three-year starter at St. Thomas and averaged 12.3 points, 4.4 rebounds and 2.3 assists per game while shooting 42 percent from 3-point range last season.

Jamarques Lawrence returns to Nebraska after starting 31 games at Rhode Island last year. Lawrence averaged 6.9 ppg at NU in 2023-24.

Pryce Sandfort averaged 8.8 points per game while shooting 40 percent from 3-point range at Iowa last season.

3-pointers per game (2.2 per game, 10th) and 3-point percentage (.377, 11th), while his 78 3-pointers were the most by a Husker since 2018-19. Essegian had 17 double-figure efforts on the year, including five 20-point games. He capped his junior year with a 21-point effort against UCF in the College Basketball Crown title game, as he averaged 13.3 ppg during the Crown. He spent part of the summer playing for the Armenian National Team and averaged 16.0 points, 4.5 rebounds and 2.0 steals per game in a two-game sweep of Costa Rica. The 6-foot-4 senior guard needs just 109 points to reach 1,000 career points and has the ability to flourish with a year of experience in the system.

Jacobsen is another returnee who took advantage of opportunities during the postseason and put himself in position for a more expanded role this season. The 6-foot-4 guard played in 24 games last season, primarily as a situational sub and defensive replacement. His versatility was on display during NU's postseason run, as he made the first three starts of his career and averaged more than 26 minutes per game in Las Vegas. During the four-game tournament, he posted career bests in points, rebounds, assists and steals and showed the ability to guard several positions. Jacobsen's biggest strengths are his versatility and basketball IQ, as he has the ability to play nearly every spot in the lineup despite his size.

Lawrence returns to Nebraska after spending the 2024-25 season at Rhode Island. He can play either backcourt spot and is a career 36 percent from beyond the arc for his career. Lawrence has two years of experience in the system and has been a leader in his second stint at NU. Lawrence started all 31 games at Rhode Island last season, averaging nearly 10 points per game while ranking second on the team in both assists (2.5 apg) and steals (0.8 spg) . Lawrence was seventh in the A-10 in 3-point percentage (.391) and totaled 13 double-figure efforts. The 6-foot-3 guard played in all 34 games in helping Nebraska to 23 wins and an NCAA Tournament bid in 2023-24. That year, he averaged 6.9 points, 3.1 rebounds and 2.5 assists per game while starting 23 games for the Huskers. He played some of his best basketball down the stretch, averaging 9.5 ppg on 55 percent shooting, including 52 percent from 3-point range, over NU's final 11 contests.

Blue continues a trend under Hoiberg of bigger guards in the backcourt, as the 6-foot-6, 180-pound guard comes to NU after spending three seasons at St. Thomas. He was a three-year starter for the Tommies, totaling over 1,000 career points and starting 89 games at the school. Last season, Blue averaged 12.3 points, 4.4 rebounds and 2.4 assists per game to help St. Thomas to a 24-10 record and a runner-up finish at the Summit League Tournament. He finished among the Summit League leaders in assists, rebounds and steals while shooting over 50 percent from the field and 42 percent from beyond the arc. Blue had 23 double-figure outings on the year, including four 20-point games. His best game of the season came at Oklahoma State, when he finished with 18 points, including 4-of-7 from 3-point range, and a season-high 11 rebounds. Blue, who has averaged double figures in each of the past two years, is also a 36 percent shooter for his career from 3-point range.

Sandfort gives the Huskers a three-level scorer with size on the wing after transferring from Iowa in the offseason. He understands what it takes to play in the Big Ten after playing nearly every game at Iowa the past two seasons. The Husker coaching staff believes Sandfort has the potential to enjoy a breakout season in 2025-26. The 6-foot-7 wing played in 33 games last season, averaging 8.8 points and 2.9 rebounds per game, as he was one of the Big Ten's top bench scorers.

Junior Cale Jacobsen played in 24 games last season and made his first three career starts at the College Basketball Crown.

Sandfort shot nearly 50 percent from the field, including 40 percent from 3-point range, and was third on the team with 56 3-pointers. He reached double-figures 15 times, including a 22-point game against Southern, and posted his first double-double in the regular-season finale with 16 points and a career-high 11 rebounds at Nebraska. Sandfort is also a solid playmaker, as he averaged more than an assist per game while posting a 3-to-1 assist-to-turnover ratio.

Cooper comes back to his home state after spending his freshman year at Air Force. A 6-foot-6 forward, Cooper averaged 5.3 points per game on 45 percent shooting, including 38 percent from 3-point range. He came off the bench for the Falcons and saw extensive action over his final six games where he averaged 11.8 points per game. His rookie campaign was highlighted by a 21-point effort against Fresno State, including a career-high six 3-pointers, and a 16-point outburst against NCAA Tournament qualifier Utah State. One of six in-state products on the 2025-26 Husker basketball roster, Cooper's ability to space the floor will help improve NU's offensive attack.

After a year of waiting, Frager is poised to be a significant part of the Huskers' rotation. The 6-foot-7, 215-pound forward has been impressive in summer workouts and brings a strong combination of size, physicality and athleticism to the table. Frager, who redshirted after reclassifying into the class of 2024, averaged 18.3 points and 7.0 rebounds per game as a junior at Lincoln Southwest despite playing most of the season with a wrist injury that required surgery when he got to campus. Frager totaled 20-or-more points in six of his final eight contests, including a school-record 39-point performance at Kearney.

Rhymes is the only true freshman in the Huskers' backcourt rotation and brings a combination of size, shot marking and athleticism to the lineup. The 6-foot-6 wing was a top-150 recruit by On3 in the class of 2025 after starring for Hillcrest Prep last season. He averaged 22.4 points per game on 52 percent shooting along with 7.8 rebounds, 4.1 assists and 2.1 steals per game en route to second-team all-state honors. Rhymes also shot 41 percent in helping Hillcrest to a 28-6 mark in 2024-25. He made significant strides during summer workouts and has put himself in position to make a contribution as a true freshman.

GOING FOR THREE STRAIGHT POSTSEASON APPEARANCES

The Huskers will be shooting for a third straight postseason appearance in 2025-26. It would be the first time since a nine-year stretch between 1990-91 and 1998-99 and just the third time in the program history. NU also made five straight postseason appearances between 1982-83 and 1986-87.

BACK-TO-BACK 20 WIN SEASONS

Nebraska finished with 21 wins in 2024-25, a total which tied for seventh on the Huskers' single-season list. It marked the 15th 20-win season in program history and second straight under Fred Hoiberg. NU has 44 wins over the past two seasons, which is the second-highest consecutive two-year total in program history. NU won 45 games spanning the 1990-91 and 1991-92 seasons.

Nebraska posted consecutive 20-win seasons for the third time in school history and the first since the late 1990s. Fred Hoiberg joined Danny Nee (twice) as the only Husker men's basketball coaches in school history to accomplish the feat. Hoiberg would be the first Husker coach to ever accomplish the feat at Nebraska if the Huskers can eclipse the 20-win mark in 2025-26.

ADDING PUNCH IN THE PORTAL

Nebraska has relied on the transfer portal under Fred Hoiberg, getting players such as All-Big Ten performers Derrick Walker (2023) Rienk Mast (2024) and Brice Williams (2025) in his six years at Nebraska. The Huskers' six-member transfer class this season enters 2025-26 with over 200 combined starts and nearly 3,400 points and 1,500 rebounds. Lawrence, who spent two years at Nebraska before starting 31 games at Rhode Island last year, Blue and Jarusevicius all started at their previous insitutions last season.

ESSEGIAN FLORISHES AS HUSKER SIXTH MAN

Nebraska has the luxury of one of the Big Ten's best sixth men in senior Connor Essegian. The 6-foot-4 guard averaged 10.7 points per game while pacing the Big Red with 78 3-pointers. He finished ninth in the Big Ten in 3-pointers per game (2.2/gm) and 11th in 3-point percentage (.377).

• Essegian finished second in Big Ten scoring among reserves, as he was one of three Big Ten players to average double figures while starting 10 or fewer games.

• He finished tied for sixth on NU's single-season 3-point list with 78, the most by a Husker since Glynn Watson Jr. had 82 in 2019.

• Essegian totaled five 20-point games, including a 21-point effort against UCF in the title game of the College Baskeball Crown.

• Essegian scored a career-high 29 points in NU's win over South Dakota on Nov. 27. In that game, he set personal highs in points (29), assists (five) and 3-pointers (six).

HUSKERS MAKING MARK WITH NATIONAL TEAMS

Connor Essegian and Leo Curtis spent part of their summers representing their countries in international action.

Essegian played with the Armenian National Team for the third straight summer. He helped Armenia to a two-game sweep of Costa Rica in June, averaging 16.0 points and 4.5 rebounds and 2.0 steals per game. Essegian had 17 points on 5-of-9 shooting, six boards and three steals in the finale.

Curtis spent part of the summer training with the Iceland U20 team, as they played in the 2025 U20 EuroBasket Championships in Greece. He finished the seven-game tournament leading all players in blocked shots (2.7 per game) and ranking in the top three in both rebounding (8.1 rpg, third), and minutes played (31.6, second). Curtis, who finished in double figures in six of Iceland's seven games, topped Iceland in scoring (14.6 ppg), rebounding, blocked shots and minutes played while dishing out 2.9 assists per game.

HUSKERS RETURN DUO DOUBLE-FIGURE SCORERS

For just the third time in the Big Ten era, Nebraska returns multiple double-figure scoers with Rienk Mast (12.3 ppg in 2023-24) and Connor Essegian (10.7 ppg). In both previous instances (2018-19 and 2024-25), Nebraska has advanced to postseason play.

HOME COURT ADVANTAGE

The Huskers have made Pinnacle Bank Arena a formidable home court in recent seasons under Fred Hoiberg. In 2024-25, NU was 10-6 at home with six wins coming by double figures and is an impressive 39-11 (.780) over the last three seasons.

• Nebraska finished the season ranked 13th nationally in attendance with 14,964 fans per game.

• Including 2024-25, NU has ranked in the top-15 nationally in attendance 10 times since Pinnacle Bank Arena opened in 2013-14.

• NU set a school record with a 20-game home winning streak spanning the 2023-24 and 2024-25 seasons until the streak was broken against Rutgers on Jan. 16, 2025.

QUICK HITTERS

• NU's roster has had an international flavor in recent seasons and that trend continues in 2025-26 with Berke Büyüktuncel (Bursa, Türkiye), Leo Curtis (Iceland), Ugnius Jaruševičius (Lithuania) and Rienk Mast (Groningen, Netherlands) on the Husker roster. During Fred Hoiberg's seven seasons, NU has had players on the roster from 12 international countries, including Australia, Canada, England, France, Iceland, Japan, Lithuania, Mali, Senegal and Slovenia.

• With its 21-14 record in 2024-25, Nebraska is 50-28 dating back to the start of February 2023. NU's .641 winning percentage is fifth among all Big Ten teams in that span. NU went just 33-80 from the start of the 2019-20 season until Feb. 1, 2023.

Best Records in B1G since Feb. 1, 2023

No.	School	Record	Pct.
1.	Purdue	66-22	.750
2.	Michigan State	57-27	.679
3.	Illinois	55-29	.655
4.	Wisconsin	57-31	.648
5.	Nebraska	50-28	.641

• Nebraska went 4-4 against ranked opponents in 2024-25, as the four wins over ranked teams tie a school record done three other times in school history. Nebraska has won multiple games against ranked foes in three of the past four years and is now 9-11 in its last 20 games against ranked teams dating back to March 1, 2022.

• Nebraska finished the season averaging 76.0 points per game, marking the second-highest average since joining the Big Ten in 2011-12. NU's three highest-scoring averages have come in the last four seasons under Fred Hoiberg. During the season, Nebraska is 9-3 when scoring at least 80 points with two of the losses coming in overtime.

• NU went 13-1 when holding opponents to under one point per possession, but 8-13 when opponents are above 1.0 PPP. NU held all four of its opponents in Las Vegas to under 1.05 PPP. Over the last three seasons, NU is 39-3 when holding foes to under 1.00 PPP and 41-5 when holding opponents to under 70 points. Nebraska has improved its KenPom defensive efficiency in each of the past three seasons.

• As a team, Nebraska shot 74.9 percent from the foul line on the season, which tied for the fifth-highest percentage in school history. NU's 541 free throws madein 2024-25 tied for fourth in school history. NU has posted two of the top six free throw percentages in the last two seasons.

• Of Nebraska's 14 losses in 2024-25, nine were one-possession games within the last 45 seconds of regulation. In five of the six home losses this season, NU was within one possession in the final 40 seconds, including four in the final 10 seconds (Rutgers, USC, Michigan and Minnesota).

• Nebraska claimed seven spots on the Winter Academic All-Big team in March of 2025. The group includes Henry Burt, Berke Büyüktuncel, Connor Essegian, Jeffrey Grace III, Sam Hoiberg, Cale Jacobsen and Rienk Mast. Nebraska's seven honorees tied the school record of seven set in 2023-24.

2025-26 (OUTLOOK)

Rienk (pronounced RINK) Mast returns to the court after missing all of last season following knee surgery and his return opens up Nebraska's attack. The 6-foot-10 senior was an All-Big Ten performer in 2023-24, as he averaged 12.3 points per game while topping the Huskers in both rebounds (7.5 rpg) and assists (3.0 apg). Mast, whose six double-doubles were the most by a Husker since 2007-08, shot nearly 35 percent from 3-point range and flourished in NU's five-out attack. Mast also provides intangibles with his leadership and communication skills which helps make his teammates better. After a year of recovery, Mast was cleared for practice in July and will be ready for the 2025-26 season.

2024-25 (REDSHIRT)

Mast missed the entire 2024-25 season following knee surgery in May of 2024.

2023-24 (JUNIOR)

Mast made an immediate impact in his first season at Nebraska, as Nebraska won 23 games and made its first NCAA Tournament appearance since 2014. He made 32 starts, averaging 12.3 points, 7.5 rebounds and 3.0 assists per game, as he topped NU in rebounds and assists and ranked third in scoring. A third-team All-Big Ten selection by the coaches, Mast ranked in the top 15 in the Big Ten in both rebounds (seventh) and assists (15th). His six double-doubles were the most by a Husker since the 2007-08 season, while he also posted four 20 double-figure efforts. Mast's best effort in the postseason was a 15-point effort, including a trio of 3-pointers, against No. 13 Illinois in the Big Ten Tournament.

In Big Ten action, Mast started all 20 games, averaging 11.9 points, 6.8 rebounds and 3.1 assists per game while also shooting 34 percent from 3-point range. He posted a pair of double-doubles in conference action, highlighted by a 34-point, 10-rebound performance in a win over Ohio State. In that game, Mast hit 13-of-17 shots from the field, including a career-high six 3-pointers while also dishing out four assists and blocking a pair of shots. He collected four 20-point games, including 21 points at No. 14 Illinois and 20 points and eight rebounds in the win over No. 6 Wisconsin in Lincoln. Mast shined in the Huskers' upset of No. 1 Purdue with 18 points - including 14 in the first half - four rebounds and three assists while holding two-time National Player of the Year Zach Edey to 15 points. Mast also grabbed 14 rebounds, dished out six assists and had eight points in the win over Michigan State to give NU its first win over the Spartans since 2016. Mast opened the season with seven straight double-figure efforts, including a 20-point, 16-rebound effort against Florida A&M, the first 20-point, 15-rebound game by a Husker since 2008. He also posted double-doubles against Rider (12 points, 13 rebounds) and Oregon State (15 points, 13 rebounds. His best performance in non-conference play was a 19-point, 12-rebound effort in a win at Kansas State. Mast played with the Netherlands National Team for the FIBA Olympic Pre-Qualifying Tournament in the summer of 2023. He played in all three games, averaging 6.0 points, 6.0 rebounds and 1.3 assists per game as he was second on the team in rebounding.

BEFORE NEBRASKA

Mast spent four years at Bradley University, totaling 1,001 points and 657 rebounds in three seasons after redshirting in 2019-20 because of an injury. Last season, Mast earned first-team All-MVC honors, leading Bradley in scoring (13.8 ppg) and rebounding (8.0 rpg) while shooting 51 percent from the floor and 35 percent from 3-point range. He ranked second in the MVC in rebounding, fourth in field goal percentage and 11th in scoring, as he finished third in voting for MVC Player of the Year. Mast, who also averaged 2.4 assists per game, totaled nine double-doubles, including 14 points and 12 rebounds in Bradley's NIT loss to Wisconsin. He had a career-high 30-point effort against Northern Iowa in the MVC Tournament, one of 26 double-figure scoring efforts last season.

Mast earned third-team All-MVC and second-team NABC All-District 16 honors in 2021-22, averaging 11.6 points and 8.4 rebounds per game as he topped the conference and ranked in the top 50 nationally in rebounding. He totaled nine double-doubles and had 18 double-figure contests in 2021-22. Mast had five 20-point games, including a season-high 23 points and 13 rebounds against Evansville and 20 points and 14 rebounds in a win over Indiana State to garner MVC Player of the Week. He was named to the MVC All-Freshman Team in 2020-21, as he played in 28 games and averaged 8.6 points and 5.8 rebounds per game. His year was highlighted by a 24-point, 10-rebound effort against Southern Illinois in the MVC Tournament. In that game he was 10-of-16 from the floor, including four 3-pointers.

Before coming to the United States, Mast earned all-star team honors at the 2017 FIBA European Under-16 Championship after leading the Netherlands to a second-place finish in Division B. He also served as captain a year later at the 2018 European Under-18 Championship, helping Holland to the Division B title. Mast played for Donar in the top division of the Dutch Basketball League and was named the league's Youth Player of the Year and Most Improved Player following the 2018-19 season. While at Donar, he was teammates with former Huskers Lance Jeter and Jason Dourisseau. Mast attended Topsport Talent School before coming to the United State to play collegiately.

Connor Essegian (pronounced eh-SEE-jin) return provides the Huskers with a veteran sharpshooter with extensive Big Ten experience. Essegian was one of the Big Ten's top scoring reserves as a junior, averaging 10.7 points per game while leading the Huskers with 78 3-pointers on nearly 38 percent shooting from beyond the arc. His junior campaign closed with a 21-point effort off the bench in the College Basketball Crown title game against UCF. In that game, he had nine of his 14 second-half points in a 13-0 spurt that gave NU the lead for good. Essegian, who comes into the 2025-26 season needing 109 points to reach 1,000 points for his career, should flourish with a season of experience in the Husker system. For the third straight summer, Essegian played with the Armenian National Team. He helped Armenia to a two-game sweep of Costa Rica, averaging 16.0 points and 4.5 rebounds and 2.0 steals per game. Essegian had 17 points on 5-of-9 shooting, six boards and three steals in the finale.

2024-25 (JUNIOR)

Essegian was one of the Big Ten's top bench performers in his first season at Nebraska, playing in all 35 contests and averaging 10.7 points and 2.8 rebounds per game as the Huskers' sixth man. His scoring average was third among all Big Ten reserves, while he ranked among the Big Ten leaders in both 3-pointers per game (2.2 per game, 10th) and 3-point percentage (.377, 11th). Essegian's 78 3-pointers tied for sixth on NU's single-season list and was the most by a Husker since 2018-19. He reached double figures 17 times, including five 20-point games.

He was a sparkplug for the Huskers at the College Basketball Crown, averaging 13.3 ppg on 53 percent shooting to help NU to a 4-0 mark. Essegian tied for game-high honors with 21 points in the CBC title game against UCF, including nine points in a 13-0 run that put the Huskers ahead for good. He also keyed NU's double-figure comeback against Arizona State in the opener by scoring all 17 of his points after halftime, including 7-of-9 from the field after halftime.

Essegian had nine double-figure efforts in Big Ten play, highlighted by a 20-point night at Penn State when he went 8-of-15 from the field, including our 3-pointers. It was one of two Big Ten contests with four 3-pointers, as he also had four in a win at Washington when he finished with 16 points. He also had 17 points and five rebounds in a loss at No. 20 Purdue and 16-point effort in a double overtime loss to Ohio State.

He was in double figures five times during non-conference play, highlighted by his first 20-point games since the 2022-23 campaign. He came off the bench to score a career-high 29 points, including 6-of-15 from 3-point range, along with a career-high five assists in a win over South Dakota. He followed that up with a 22-point performance against North Florida. In that game, he went 8-of-10 from the field, including 6-of-8 from beyond the arc, while adding four rebounds, two assists and two steals. With those performances, he became just the second player in school history - and first since 2002 - to have at least six 3-pointers in consecutive games. He keyed NU's win at No. 14 Creighton with 15 points off the bench, including six points in a second-half run after Crieghton got within seven. He also topped the Huskers with 15 points in the Diamond Head Classic opener against Murray State, including five 3-pointers.

Essegian played for the Armenian National Team in the summer of 2024, averaging 13.0 points and 5.5 rebounds per game as Armenia won the LA International Cup Title. He tallied 20 points on 7-of-15 shooting along with six rebounds and three steals in the win over Ireland in the title game.

BEFORE NEBRASKA

Essegian spent the first two seasons of his college career at Wisconsin before transferring to Nebraska in April of 2024. He appeared in 68 games in two seasons with the Badgers, helping Wisconsin make a pair of postseason appearances.

He played 33 games for the Badgers in 2023-24, averaging 3.2 points per game, as Wisconsin went 22-14 and reached the NCAA Tournament. Essegian posted a pair of double-figure efforts, a season-high 15-point effort at Rutgers and 12 points, including a season-high four 3-pointers, in a win over the Huskers in Madison.

Essegian was one of the best freshmen in the Big Ten in 2022-23, helping Wisconsin to 20 wins and an NIT semifinal appearance. He was named to the Big Ten All-Freshman team as he played in all 35 games, including 19 starts, and averaged 11.7 points and 3.7 rebounds per game. He was third on the team in scoring and became just the fourth Wisconsin freshman in the last 25 years to average double figures. Essegian set a school record for a freshman with 69 3-pointers while he was 10th in the Big Ten in 3-pointers per game while shooting nearly 36 percent from beyond the arc. He reached double figures 24 times, including a pair of 20-point efforts. Essegian had a season-high 24 points at Michigan after having 23 points, including 9-of-10 from the foul line, in the first matchup with the Wolverines. Essegian recorded his first career double-double at Indiana with 14 points and 11 rebounds and had 17 points against Kansas in the 2022 Battle 4 Atlantis as well as an 18-point effort, with four 3-pointers at Penn State.

Essegian was a prolific scorer during his career at Central Noble High School in Fort Wayne, totaling 2,526 points to finish 10th all-time in the state of Indiana. As a senior, he led Central Noble to the Class 2A state basketball title game, averaging 26.5 points, 6.4 rebounds and 2.3 assists per game, while shooting 43 percent from 3-point range. He was a finalist for Mr. Basketball and an all-state selection as Central Noble went 28-3 as a senior. His 2,526 points broke a school record which had stood for 44 years. During his junior season, he led the Cougars to a 20-1 season averaging 24.0 points, 6.6 rebounds, 3.7 assists and 2.3 steals per game, while shooting better than 41 percent from 3-point range. That season featured a school-record 44 points during an 81-71 victory against Churubusco in the conference tournament quarterfinals. Essegian led Central Noble to its first NECC Tournament title in 50 years during his sophomore season, averaging 24.0 points, 7.9 rebounds and 2.2 steals per game. His 648 points that season was the highest single-season scoring total in Noble county history. He played AAU basketball for Team Focus and Indiana Elite. In the classroom, Essegian finished seventh in his graduating class at Central Noble High School.

PERSONAL

The son of Jody and Rich Essegian, Connor has one younger brother (Sam), who is also a student manager on the basketball team. Connor is studying journalism at Nebraska with an emphasis on digital media. Essegian comes from an athletic family as his grandfather's cousin was Chuck Essegian, who played baseball and football at Stanford before playing in the Major Leagues. Chuck Essegian was just the second player to play in both the Rose Bowl and the World Series. The cousin of Connor's grandfather is Robin Yount, who is in the Baseball Hall of Fame after playing 20 years in the Major Leagues with the Milwaukee Brewers.

2025-26 (OUTLOOK)

Sam Hoiberg enters the 2025-26 season as one of the leaders of the Husker program, as he enters his fifth season in the program. Hoiberg has played a signficant role in helping build the Husker culture during his tenure, as Nebraska has put together consecutive 20-win seasons and postseason berths. While he came off the bench in his first two seasons of action, Hoiberg enjoyed a more extensive role in 2024-25. Hoiberg made 15 starts, including 11 Big Ten games, and topped NU with 48 steals while playing 23.3 minutes per game. His impact belies his numbers, as Hoiberg makes plays on both ends that impact winnning. He had a nearly 2-to-1 assist to tournover ratio while shooting 36 percent from the 3-point line and 86 percent from the foul last season. NU is 34-14 (.708) in his career when he plays at least 20 minutes. Hoiberg has excelled off the court, as he is a three-time Big Ten Distinguished scholar and was inducted into the Chi Sigma Alpha Honor Society in 2025.

Hoiberg played in all 35 contests, including 15 starts, and averaged 3.9 points, 2.4 rebounds, 1.9 assists and a team-high 1.4 steals per game. He ranked 11th in the Big Ten in steals and posted a nearly 1.9-to-1 assist-to-turnover ratio for the year.

He played a major role in NU going 4-0 at the College Basketball Crown, topping the Huskers in both assists (3.8 apg) and steals (2.0 spg). In the title game against UCF, Hoiberg dished out a career high seven assists without a turnover and added a pair of steals in the 77-66 win. He reached double figues for the second time in 2024-25 in the semifinals against Boise State with 10 points, including a pair of 3-pointers, and had four assists and tied career highs with seven reounds and four steals and added seven points in the opening round against Arizona State.

In Big Ten play, Hoiberg started 11 of the Huskers' final 12 contests as he averaged 4.4 points, 1.8 assists and a team-high 1.2 steals in conference play. He closed the regular season by scoring a season-high 12 points, including a pair of 3-pointers, against Iowa. He keyed NU's win over No. 15 UCLA with seven points, three rebounds, two assists and three steals against the Bruins. Hoiberg totaled seven points, four assists, three steals and three boards in NU's win at Washington and also had seven points, four assists and two steals at No. 20 Pudue.

During non-conference play, Hoiberg had nine points on 4-of-6 shooting with three steals in 24 minutes against South Dakota and seven points, three rebounds and a career-high four steals in 15 minutes against North Florida. He closed non-conference action with five assists and had four rebounds in the win over Southern.

2023-24 (SOPHOMORE)

Hoiberg was one of three Huskers to appear in all 34 games in 2023-24, averaging 3.4 points, 2.9 rebounds and 1.7 assists per game. He posted a team-best 2.5-to-1 assist-to-turnover ratio and was second on the team in steals (31). He played in all three of the Huskers' postseason contests, tallying seven points, four rebounds, three assists and a pair of steals against No. 13 Illinois in the Big Ten Tournament. He finished with at least five points on six occasions, including a pair of 3-pointers at Rutgers. Hoiberg led NU in scoring against Lindenwood in the season opener, matching his career high with 15 points, along with five rebounds and two assists before recording a career high four steals in 24 minutes against Florida A&M. He also had a career-high seven rebounds, along with five points and three assists in 16 minutes in the win over South Carolina State.

2022-23 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Hoiberg appeared in 21 games, averaging 4.1 points on 55 percent shooting and 1.8 rebounds per game. Over NU's final 12 contests, he averaged 6.6 points per game while shooting 58 percent from the floor and 47 percent from 3-point range. Hoiberg moved into the rotation following Emmanuel Bandoumel's season-ending injury and made an immediate impact with six points and a team-high six rebounds against Northwestern. Hoiberg then poured in a career-high 15 points on 6-of-8 shooting, including 3-of-3 from 3-point range, at Maryland. He keyed NU's win against Maryland with nine points, six rebounds and two steals, including a steal and basket with 34.9 seconds left in overtime in NU's 70-66 win. He reached double figures for the second time against Minnesota with 11 points, six rebounds and two steals in 23 minutes. Hoiberg had nine points, including a pair of 3-pointers, and drew a key charge in the win at Iowa in the regular-season finale.

2021-22 (REDSHIRT)

Hoiberg redshirted in his first year at Nebraska after walking on to the team.

BEFORE NEBRASKA

Hoiberg played two seasons at Lincoln Pius X High School for Coach Brian Spicka, earning honorable-mention Class A all-state honors in both seasons. Hoiberg helped Pius X to the Class A State Tournament and an 18-4 record as a senior, averaging 14.9 points, 4.2 rebounds, 3.8 assists and 2.0 steals per game. A first-team all-city pick by the Lincoln Journal Star, Hoiberg was an honorable-mention all-state honoree by both the Omaha World-Herald and Journal Star in 2020-21. He made an immediate impact in his first season in 2019-20, averaging 14.5 points, 4.5 rebounds and 3.5 assists per game as the Thunderbolts went 16-8 and reached the district finals. For his efforts, he was a second-team all-city and first-team Heartland Athletic Conference pick. He played his sophomore season at Hinsdale (Ill.) Central and played AAU basketball with Breakaway Basketball before moving to Lincoln. Hoiberg also played golf as a senior, helping the school to a runner-up finish at the 2021 Class A State Championship. He also excelled in the classroom, earning Academic All-State accolades as a junior and senior.

PERSONAL

The son of Carol and Fred Hoiberg, Sam has two brothers (Jack and Charlie) and one sister (Paige). 2025-26 (OUTLOOK)

For senior Jamarques (pronounced juh-MAR-kiss) Lawrence, you can come home again. The 6-foot-3 senior guard returns to Nebraska after spending his junior season at Rhode Island. Lawrence stated all 31 games for the Rams and averaged nearly 10 points per game while ranking second on the team in both assists and steals. Lawrence also set career bests in both 3-point percentage (.391) and free throw percentage (.873) and his return bolsters the Huskers' outside shooting. Lawrence has taken on more of a leadership role in his return and his familiarity with the Husker system will put him in a position for a strong senior campaign. Lawrence started 35 games in his two seasons at Nebraska, including 23 during the 2023-24 season when Nebraska reached the NCAA Tournament.

2024-25 (JUNIOR)

Lawrence spent the 2024-25 season at Rhode Island, where he started all 31 games and averaged 9.9 points, 2.5 assists and 1.8 rebounds per game. Hed paced the Rams with 59 3-pointers and shot 39 percent from 3-point range and 87 percent from the foul line. Lawrance ranked second on the team in assists (76) and steals (23) and minutes per game (28.8). He posted 13 double-figure games, including a career-high 20 points and four steals against Saint Bonaventure and 19 points at Saint Louis, when he connected on 5-of-6 from 3-point range.

2023-24 (SOPHOMORE)

Lawrence played in all 34 games in 2023-24, averaging 6.9 points, 3.1 rebounds and 2.5 assists per game as Nebraska reached the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2014. Lawrence started the first 23 games at point guard before moving to the bench for the final stretch of the season. He flourished in his new role, averaging 9.5 points per game while shooting 55 percent from the field and 52 percent from 3-point range over his last 11 games. He totaled nine points, two assists and a pair of steals vs. No. 13 Illinois in the Big Ten Tournament semifinals and had 15 points on 5-of-6 shooting against Indiana in the Big Ten Tournament. Lawrance had seven double-figure efforts in Big Ten play, including four times after moving to the bench. His best game as a Husker came at Indiana, when he had a season-high 19 points, including a school-record 5-of-5 from 3-point range, six rebounds and five assists. He tied for team-high honors with 14 points on 5-of-7 shooting and a team-high five assists at Ohio State and finished with 16 points and seven rebounds against Minnesota. He also had double figures in both matchups with Northwestern, including 12 points in Evanston and 10 points, five rebounds and three assists in the home win over the Wildcats.

In non-conference play, Lawrence finished with 14 points and three assists in the win over North Dakota and 11 points and a career-high six assists in the win over Cal State Fullerton.

2022-23 (FRESHMAN)

Lawrence emerged as a significant contributor as a true freshman. He appeared in 28 games, including 12 starts, and averaged 5.0 points, 2.2 rebounds and 1.0 assists per game. After a season-ending injury to Emmanuel Bandoumel in mid-January, Lawrence moved into the lineup and flourished, averaging 9.0 points, 3.5 rebounds and 1.9 assists per game while shooting 39 percent from 3-point range. He had all seven of his double-figure efforts in that stretch, including 15-point games vs. Michigan State and at Iowa.

His most extensive action in non-conference action came at Kansas State when he tallied nine points and five rebounds in 18 minutes off the bench. Lawrence, who played more than 15 minutes once in NU's first 17 games, had six points in 22 minutes at No. 4 Purdue and five points, including a go-ahead 3-pointer, and four boards in 19 minutes in a win over Ohio State. Lawrence made his first career start against Northwestern on Jan. 25, and had 12 points, including four 3-pointers, and three assists in 33 minutes. He nearly posted a double-double in the win over Penn State on Feb. 5 with 11 points, nine rebounds and three assists. He closed the year playing his best basketball with four straight double-figure games and averaging 13.3 points on 53 percent shooting, including 46 percent from 3-point range, along with 4.3 rebounds and 2.3 assists per game. The stretch featured a pair of 15-point games against Michigan State and Iowa when he earned Big Ten Freshman-of-the-Week accolades. Against MSU, he hit 7-of-10 shots from the field, while he sank a career-high five 3-pointers and added a season-best four assists in the win at Iowa.

BEFORE NEBRASKA

A consensus three-star prospect, Lawrence spent his final two seasons at perennial power Roselle Catholic High School playing for Coach Dave Boff. The program went 29-2 on the year en route to winning the NJSIAA Tournament of Champions title. Roselle Catholic finished in the top 10 by both Max Preps (fourth) and USA Today (sixth).

Lawrence was ranked as high as No. 145 nationally by Rivals and was among the top 250 seniors by 247Sports. As a senior in 2021-22, he earned first-team all-state honors by averaging 15.9 points, 5.0 rebounds, 3.5 assists and 1.8 steals per game for the top-ranked team in New Jersey while averaging nearly two 3-pointers per contest. He reached double figures 22 times as a senior, including eight games of at least 20 points, including a season-high 26-point effort against The Patrick School. He had 21 points and 10 rebounds against Trenton Catholic in the state title game and 18 points and 10 rebounds in the Tournament of Champions semifinal.

As a junior, he averaged 13.6 points, 2.8 rebounds, 2.7 assists and 1.5 steals per game, as Roselle Catholic posted a 15-3 mark in a shortened season. He finished in double figures in 10 of 15 contests, including a 23-point effort against The Patrick School. Lawrence had four-or-more 3-pointers five times, including one game with six 3-pointers.

Lawrence, who spent his first two seasons at Plainfield High School, averaged 20.3 ppg as a sophomore, including 81 3-pointers. In his four-year high school career, he totaled 1,447 points, including over 200 3-pointers, as well as 280 rebounds and 250 assists in 91 contests. Lawrence played AAU hoops for the NY Jayhawks and Coach Jay David. Lawrence chose Nebraska over a host of schools including Wake Forest, DePaul, Virginia Tech, Cal and Wichita State.

Berke Büyüktuncel (pronounced BEAR-keh buh-YOOK-toon-jell) showed his ability to impact the game at both ends of the court last season, and his return provides a boost to the Husker frontcourt. Büyüktuncel played in 31 games, including 28 starts, and averaged 6.0 points and a team-high 5.5 rebounds per game. The 6-foot-10 forward suffered an ankle injury in the final minute of Nebraka's win over Ohio State which hindered his abilities over the final two months of the season. That performance against OSU was the highlight of his year, as he finished with 15 points, including 3-of-6 from 3-point range, six rebounds and three assists in NU's 79-71 win. Büyüktuncel, who represented Turkey in international competitions in both 2023 and 2024, stayed in Lincoln all summer and enters his junior season in the best shape of his career and played at a high level for the Huskers in the summer. One of the Huskers' top frontcourt defenders, he possesses a high basketball IQ and his passing and shooting ability give the Huskers the ability to stretch the court. He can play either spot in the frontcourt and could flourish with the return of All-Big Ten performer Rienk Mast beside him.

2024-25 (SOPHOMORE)

Büyüktuncel moved into the starting lineup in his first season at Nebraska, averaging 6.0 points, 5.5 rebounds and 1.4 assists per game. He led the Huskers in rebounds per game and was second in blocked shots, as he played in 31 contests, including 28 starts. He was averaging 7.2 points and 5.9 rebounds per game when he suffered an ankle injury in the final minute of Nebraska's win over Ohio State on Feb. 9. The injury forced him to miss three games and limited him the rest of the season.

Büyüktuncel reached double figures five times, most recently against Ohio State on Feb. 9 when he had 15 points, including 3-of-6 from 3-point range, along with six rebounds and three assists. He grabbed seven or more rebounds on 10 occasions, including a career-high nine caroms seven times. He accomplished the feat three times in Big Ten play, including in back-to-back games at No. 16 Oregon and at Washington and also against No. 15 UCLA. He also had eight points, seven rebounds and three assists against Iowa in the regular-season finale.

During non-conference action, he reached double figures four times, including a career-high 16-point effort against Oregon State. In that game, he was 6-of-8 from the field, including 3-of-4 from 3-point range, while grabbing six rebounds. He earned a spot on the all-tournament team, as he averaged 8.0 rebounds per game in Honolulu, as he tied his career high with nine rebounds in wins over Murray State and at Hawai'i. He had 12 points, seven rebounds and three assists against FDU before putting together two of his best performances of the year against eventual NCAA Tournament qualifiers Saint Mary's and Creighton. He scored a then-career-high 15 points on 5-of-7 shooting while adding five rebounds, three steals and a career-high three blocked against the Gaels/ He was the first Husker to have at least 15 points, three blocks and three steals in a game since Aleks Maric in 2007. Büyüktuncel keyed NU's win at No. 14 Creighton with 12 points and nine boards in the 74-63 win. He was on his way to his first career double-double with six points and six rebounds in 12 minutes against South Dakota before going down with a groin injury which limited him over the next two weeks.

Büyüktuncel played in the 2024 European U20 Championships, averaging 12.0 points, 7.7 rebounds, 1.3 blocks and 1.3 steals per game. He shot 51 percent from the field, including 54 percent from 3-point range and 90 percent from the line. He posted two double-doubles in the tournament, including 15 points and 14 rebounds in the finale against Iceland, and went 5-of-5 from 3-point range against Israel.

BEFORE NEBRASKA

Büyüktuncel spent the 2023-24 season at UCLA. He played in 26 games, including eight starts for the Bruins. Büyüktuncel averaged 4.9 points and 2.7 rebounds in 24 games in 2023-24, as he missed the first three games of the year awaiting clearance from the NCAA while also missing time with a pair of injuries. He averaged 17.5 minutes per game while making seven of his eight starts in Pac-12 play. His lone non-conference start came in his college debut against Marquette in the Maui Invitational. He posted a pair of double-figure efforts – a season-high 13 points against Stanford and 12 points at Oregon. He had a season-high five rebounds on three occasions, once against Maryland and in both regular-season contests against Washington. In the first matchup, he added nine points and a pair of assists in 32 minutes of work against the Huskies. Büyüktuncel was rated the No. 36 player in the class of 2023 by 24/7 Sports, while he was rated by ESPN.com as the No. 2 international player to enter college basketball in 2023-24.

He is well known in international circles, as Büyüktuncel made his Turkish senior national team debut at age 18 at the 2023 World Cup qualifier and has represented Turkey in numerous international youth events. In the summer of 2023, he led Türkiye to a third-place finish at the FIBA U19 World Cup, including an 84-70 win over the United States in the third-place game. In that contest, he had 19 points, four rebounds, five assists and two steals. He was named to the "All-Star Five" at the event, as he averaged 11.4 points, 8.3 rebounds and 3.7 assists per game in seven games, including 34.8 percent from 3-point range and 86.7 percent from the free throw line. He was also chosen to the "All-Star Five" at the 2022 U18 European Championships after helping Turkey to a runner-up finish, as he averaged 12.3 points on 46.8 percent shooting, 7.4 rebounds, 2.1 assists and 2.1 steals in seven contests. Büyüktuncel also represented Türkiye in the 2023 U20 European Championships, averaging 11.4 points and 4.6 rebounds per game as one of the youngest players on the roster. He also competed for Turkey's youth national teams in 2021 at the FIBA U18 European Challengers and at the FIBA U19 Basketball World Cup. Büyüktuncel played for Tofas Bursa in Türkiye for four years, making 33 appearances for the club in his final season, including the Turkish Leage and the Basketball Champions League, averaging 5.6 points and 2.9 rebounds per game.

PERSONAL

The son of Sebile and Durmus Büyüktuncel, Berke has one older sister (Ezgi). He has not declared a major at Nebraska. Büyüktuncel is the first Husker basketball player from Türkiye.

2025-26 (OUTLOOK)

Cale Jacobsen is a great example of taking advantage when an opportunity comes your way. An injury to Rollie Worster prior to the College Basketball Crown gave the junior a chance to break into the rotation in the tournament opener, and Jacobsen took advantage. He saw the most extensive action of his career at the CBC and averaged 5.0 points on 53 percent shooting, 4.3 rebounds, 3.3 assists and 1.8 steals per contest. He was among the team leaders in rebounds, steals and assists and made the first three starts of his career in Las Vegas. Jacobson earned the trust of the coaching staff with his extensive knowledge of the system, and has seen action in either the backcourt or frontcourt. Jacobsen, who wants to go into coaching following his playing career, has focued on becoming more of a ball hander in hopes of finding a more expanded role this season.

2024-25 (SOPHOMORE)

Jacobsen showed his ability to play several positions in the Husker lineup in 2024-25, playing in 24 games, including the first three starts of his career. While he was primarily used as a situational replacement and averaged just 1.2 points, 1.2 rebounds and 0.9 assists per game, his value was shown during the College Basketball Crown.

Jacobson played extensively in the CBC, averaging 5.0 points per game on 53 percent shooting along with 4.3 rebounds, 3.3 assists and 1.8 steals per game. He ranked second among Huskers in steals and third in both assists and rebounds. He totaled five points and six rebounds in 25 minutes vs. UCF in the title game and had six points - including a pair of 3-pointers - three rebounds and three assists vs. Boise State. Jacobsen made his first career start in the second round against Georgetown, setting or tying career bests in points (seven), rebounds (six), steals (three), blocks (two) and minutes (36). His run started in the opener against Arizona State when he helped key NU's comeback with personal bests in assists (five) and steals (four) in 23 minutes off the bench. During the regular season, Jacobsen played in 20 games, usually in spot situations. He was impactful vs. North Florida with three points, three assists, two steals and two blocked shots in 16 minutes. He also totaled two points, four rebounds and two assists in seven minutes against FDU. He had three points in nine minutes off the bench against Michigan State in his most extensive action in Big Ten play as he played in 12 conference tilts.

2023-24 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Jacobsen provided depth in the Husker backcourt, as he played in 20 contests, totaling 14 points, three rebounds and five assists in 55 minutes. He saw action in two of the Huskers' three postseason contests, hitting a 3-pointer against Indiana in the Big Ten Tournament and played against Texas A&M in the NCAA Tournament. Jacobson, who was used primarily as a defensive sub, saw his most extensive action of the season against South Carolina State, setting season highs in points (four), rebounds (two), assists (one) and minutes (13). He also finished with three points and an assist in five minutes against Florida A&M and had two points in wins over Oregon State and Penn State. Jacobson played in all three games on the Huskers' trip to Spain, averaging 12.7 points and team highs in rebounds (8.3 rpg), assists (4.3 apg) and steals (2.3 spg).

2022-23 (REDSHIRT)

Jacobsen redshirted in his first season at Nebraska. He was named to the NU Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll in the fall of 2022 and the spring of 2023.

BEFORE NEBRASKA

Jacobsen starred at Ashland-Greenwood High School for Coach Jacob Mohs. As a senior, he garnered first-team All-Nebraska honors from the Omaha World-Herald and second-team Super State accolades from the Lincoln Journal Star after leading AGHS to a 27-1 record and a Class C-1 title – the first in school history. He averaged 17.9 points, 5.8 rebounds, 6.1 assists and 3.6 steals per game. Jacobsen set the Class C-1 state tournament record with a 43-point performance in a win over Kearney Catholic and was tabbed to the all-tournament team covering all six classes. He finished his four-year varsity career with 1,481 career points, despite suffering a torn ACL in his first game of his junior season. He added 544 rebounds, 340 assists and 261 steals during his high school career. Jacobsen turned down basketball scholarships from North Dakota and Holy Cross to walk on to the Husker program. In addition to his basketball exploits, he played three seasons of football, playing quarterback as a freshman and junior while hauling in 23 passes for 486 yards and nine scores as a sophomore. In the classroom, he was a member of the National Honor Society and an honor roll student at AGHS. He played AAU basketball with the Nebraska Supreme and Coach Brad Jacobsen.

PERSONAL

The son of Brad and Staci Jacobsen, Cale has three brothers (Tyler, Dane and Tate). Jacobsen majors in business administration at Nebraska.

- UNL Silver Academic Medallion (2025)
- UNL Bronze Academic Medallion (2024)

2025-26 (OUTLOOK)

Henry Burt returns for his fourth season on the Husker roster. The 6-foot-7 forward has seen action in 11 games during his Husker career after originally walking on to the program. Burt has been a valuable member of the scout team and will continue that role in 2025-26, while providing frontcourt depth. Off the court, Burt has excelled as he is a two-time Academic All-Big Ten selection and has made the Tom Osborne Citizenship team in each of his first three seasons at Nebraska.

2024-25 (SOPHOMORE)

Burt played in four games, totaling two points in seven minutes of action in non-conference play. He recorded his only basket against FDU on Feb. 13.

2023-24 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Burt saw action in seven games as a redshirt freshman and served on the Husker scout team. He tallied two points and three rebounds in 10 minutes of work on the season. He scored his first career basket against Florida A&M and grabbed rebounds against Florida A&M, Stony Brook and Michigan. He saw action in three Big Ten games but did not score. Burt played in the Huskers' final two games in Spain in the summer of 2023, including three steals in 17 minutes of work in the finale.

2022-23 (REDSHIRT)

Burt walked on to the Husker program and redshirted in his first season at Nebraska.

BEFORE NEBRASKA

Burt joined the Husker program after helping Elkhorn South High School to a 16-9 record and the school's first-ever Class A state tournament appearance in 2022. Burt earned honorable-mention Class A all-state honors from the Omaha World-Herald and Lincoln Journal Star after averaging 12.6 points and 6.1 rebounds per game for Coach Nolan Reilly. He reached double figures 17 times, including a season-high 22 against Bellevue West, and totaled four double-doubles as a senior. A two-year letterwinner at Elkhorn South, Burt played AAU basketball with the Omaha Sports Academy and Coach Jon Burt. He also was a member of the honor roll at Elkhorn South.

PERSONAL

The son of Tom and Ashley Burt, Henry has an older sister (Maddie) and two half brothers (Wynston and Wesley). Burt majors in business administration at Nebraska.

FORWARD | 6-7 | 215 | R-FRESHMAN

HOMETOWN: LINCOLN, NEB.
PREVIOUS SCHOOL: SOUTHWEST HIGH SCHOOL

- Two-time Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll (Fall 2024; Spring 2025)
- Tom Osborne Citizenship Team (2025)

2025-26 (OUTLOOK)

After a year of waiting, Braden Frager pronounced FRAY-gurr) comes into the season looking to earn significant playing time. After reclassifying into the class of 2024 and undergoing wrist surgery shortly after arriving on campus, Frager worked on adding strength and refining his body to prepare for the rigors of the Big Ten. The 6-foot-7 forward proved to be a quick study and continued his development during a redshirt season. After a strong summer Frager will challenge for a spot in the Huskers' rotation oon the wing. An athletic three-level scorer, Frager plays with a swagger and is not afraid to mix it up on the defensive end. He will look to add his name to a string of Lincoln natives, such as Sam Griesel, Josiah Allick and Sam Hoiberg who have helped put the Husker program on the upswing in recent years.

2024-25 (REDSHIRT)

Frager redshirted in his first season of Nebraska, has he adjusted to Division I basketball. He worked with the scout team during the season helping the starters prepare for games.

BEFORE NEBRASKA

Frager was a three-year performer at Lincoln Southwest High School under Coach Alex Bahe before reclassifying into the class of 2024. A three-star recruit by On3, 247Sports and Rivals, Frager was ranked among the top-200 players in the country before he reclassified to the class of 2024. A two-time honorable-mention all-state performer by the Lincoln Journal Star, he averaged 18.3 points, 7.0 rebounds, 1.2 assists and 1.2 steals per game in 2023-24, as the Silver Hawks went 15-8 and lost in the district finals. A first-team Heartland Athletic Conference pick, he closed the year with a flourish, totaling at least 20 points in six of the final eight contests, including a school-record 39-point performance at Kearney. It was one of three 30-point games that Frager had in 2023-24, as he also recorded four double-doubles in his final season at the school. Frager earned honorable-mention all-state honors as a sophomore in 2022-23, averaging 11.4 points and 7.0 rebounds per game as Lincoln Southwest went 15-9 and reached the district finals. Frager shot 48 percent from the field, including 42 percent from 3-point range. He helped Lincoln Southwest to three straight district finals appearances during his high school career. In the classroom, he was a three-year member of the honor roll at Lincoln Southwest. Frager played for the ETG Midwest AAU program for Coach Ryan Reeder, averaging 15.0 ppg during his final season of AAU basketball. Frager selected Nebraska over Creighton and Iowa State.

PERSONAL

The son of Jodi Frager and Rick and Jean Frager, Braden has an older sister (Izzy), a younger brother (Brecken) and two stepsisters (Sydney and Anna). He has not declared a major at Nebraska.

JUSTIN BOLIS

FORWARD | 6-8 | 225 | SOPHOMORE

PREVIOUS SCHOOL: SOUTHEAST COMMUNITY COLLEGE

2025-26 (OUTLOOK)

Justin Bolis enters his second season at Nebraska after redshirting in 2024-25. The 6-foot-8 forward was a mainstay on the scout team as he adjusted to the size and physicality of the Division I level. Bolis had walked on to the program after spending the 2023-24 season at Southeast Community College in Lincoln. A Lincoln High product, Bolis averaged 15.5 points and 8.7 rebounds per game in his season at SCC, while shooting 38 percent from 3-point range. Bolis made significant strides during his redshirt year and will help add depth to an experienced Husker frontcourt.

2024-25 (REDSHIRT)

Bolis redshirted in his first season of Nebraska, has he adjusted to playing Division I basketball. He worked with the scout team during the season helping the starters prepare for games and traveled to every game.

BEFORE NEBRASKA

Bolis played one season at Southeast Community College for Coach Joel Wooton, where he started all 31 games for the Bobcats. He averaged 15.5 points per game on 52 percent shooting, 8.7 rebounds, 1.4 assists and 1.2 blocks per game. Bolis, who was named to the Nebraska Community College Athletic All-Conference Team, shot 37.5 percent from 3-point range. He reached double figures 26 times, including each of the final 17 contests, and had seven 20-point efforts. He totaled 11 double-doubles, including a 21-point, 15-rebound effort against North Iowa Area CC. Bolis had 25 points against Central Community College-Columbus, and had 24 points on 10-of-14 shooting, including 4-of-5 from 3-point range along with 10 rebounds in the Region IX title game. He had 15 points and 13 against United Tribes Tech in the North District Tournament. Bolis played at Lincoln High School for Coach Dan Noble, as he averaged nine points and six rebounds per game as a senior. He was named to the Heartland Athletic Conference All-Tournament team and was an academic all-conference pick as he carried a 3.6 GPA. Bolis missed his entire junior season with an Achillies tear. He played AAU basketball with the Lincoln Supreme and Coach Zach Tharanet.

PERSONAL

The son of Betty Lado and Zakaria Liyango, Justin is majoring in business administration at Nebraska.

GUARD | 6-6 | 200 | SENIOR

HOMETOWN: WOODBURY, MINN.
PREVIOUS SCHOOL: ST. THOMAS

2025-26 (OUTLOOK)

One of the biggest needs for the Huskers was size and shooting in the backcourt, and senior Kendall Blue checks both boxes. A 6-foot-6, 200-pound guard, Blue comes to Lincoln after being a three-year starter at St. Thomas, where he helped the Tommies to 44 wins over the past two seasons. Blue comes off a junior season where he averaged 12.3 points per game while shooting over 50 percent from the field and nearly 42 percent from 3-point range. Blue is in the mold of bigger lead guards the Huskers have used in recent seasons, including Dalano Banton, Sam Griesel and Rollie Worster, where they can post up and look over smaller defenders. The Woodbury, Minn., native is a second-generation Big Ten basketball player, as his mother, Lisa, played at Minnesota for a season in the 1970s.

FORWARD | 6-6 | 215 | SOPHOMORE

HOMETOWN: OMAHA, NEB.
PREVIOUS SCHOOL: AIR FORCE ACADEMY

2025-26 (OUTLOOK)

Will Cooper, a 6-foot-6, 215-pound forward, returns to his homestate for his sophomore season, as he played at the Air Force Academy in 2024-25. Cooper played in 21 games for the Air Force Academy last season, averaging 5.3 points per game while shooting 37 percent from 3-point range. Cooper earned extensive playing time down the stretch for Air Force, averaging 11.8 ppg over the final six contests, highlighted by a 21-point effort against Fresno State and a 16-point outburst against NCAA Tournament qualifier Utah State. One of six in-state products on the 2025-26 Husker basketball roster, Cooper is a high-level shooter who will help the Huskers space the floor.

BEFORE NEBRASKA

Cooper came off the bench for Air Force last season as a true freshman in 2024-25, averaging 5.3 points and 1.8 rebounds per game in 15.1 minutes per game. He shot 38 percent from 3-point range and 82 pecent from the foul line while appearing in 21 contests. Cooper saw the majority of his action during Mountain West Conference play, where he averaged 6.2 ppg while shooting 48 percent from the field and 46 percent from 3-point range. Over his final six contests, he averaged 11.8 ppg on 52 percent shooting for the Falcons and Coach Joe Scott, including 14-of-30 from 3-point range. He totaled four games in double figures, highlighted by a season-high 21-point effort in a win over Fresno State, where he connected on six 3-pointers. He also posted double-figure games against Utah State (16), New Mexico (14) and San Jose State (10). In the performances against Utah State and New Mexico, he went a combined 7-of-9 from 3-point range.

Cooper played at Millard South High School for Coach Tim Leuschen for four seasons. He averaged 16.2 ppg and 7.2 rpg as a senior but played just five games because of an injury and just eight games as a junior. During his sophomore season, he averaged 10.7 ppg, while hitting 53 3-pointers and was a 39 percent shooter from 3-point range as a freshman, helping Millard South advance to the 2021 Class A State Tournament at Pinnacle Bank Arena. He was a member of the honor roll all four years at Millard South. Cooper played AAU basketball with both ETG Midwest for Coach Alvin Mitchell and the Factory for Coach Braxton Murphy.

JARED GARCIA

FORWARD | 6-8 | 235 | SENIOR

HOMETOWN: HOUSTON, TEXAS
PREVIOUS SCHOOL: TULSA

2025-26 (OUTLOOK)

Senior Jared Garcia comes to Lincoln after spending the last two years at Tulsa. Garcia, 6-foot-8, 235-pound forward, was originally planning to redshirt the 2024-25 season at Tulsa following knee surgery, but an NCAA ruling in December of 2024 that gave junior college players an additional year of eligibility gave him a chance to return to the court earlier than expected. Despite missing all of non-conference play and returning to the lineup in mid January, Garcia averaged a career-high 9.6 points and 4.2 rebounds per game in 18 games. He totaled nine double-figure games, including a pair of 20-point outings, as he played more than 25 minutes just once all season. Two years ago, Garcia led Tulsa in rebounding (6.0 rpg) and blocked shots (1.4 bpg), ranking sixth in the American Athletic Conference in blocks per game. Garcia has a knack for getting extra possessions on the offensive end and has can stretch the floor, as he averaged more than a 3-pointer per game in 2023-24 at Tulsa. The sixth-year senior was a teammate of All-Big Ten guard Brice Williams at Charlotte for two seasons, and the Husker coaches hope that Garcia can make a significant impact in his lone year as a Husker.

BEFORE NEBRASKA

Garcia spent the last two seasons at Tulsa playing for coach Eric Konkol. Garcia missed Tulsa's first 16 games of the 2024-25 season after an injury but returned to the lineup in mid-January and averaged 9.6 points and 4.2 rebounds per game in 17 contests. He reached double figures in nine of his 17 games off the bench, highlighted by a season-high 22 points, including 5-of-6 from 3-point range, in 21 minutes against Wichita State and 20 points on 7-of-10 shooting in a win over Temple in the AAC Tournament. He grabbed a season-high 11 rebounds in 19 minutes against Rice, one of five games with at least five caroms on the year.

Garcia started all 31 games in his first season at Tulsa, averaging 9.4 points and a team-best 6.0 rebounds per game. He was sixth in the AAC with 1.4 blocks per game and was 14th in the conference in rebounding. He also showed his ability to step out to 3-point range, shooting 33 percent from beyond the arc while averaging more than one 3-pointer per game. He totaled 12 double-figure efforts, including a career-high 24 points and five boards against Charlotte. In that game, he went 10-of-11 from the field, including 4-of-4 from 3-point range. He grabbed a season-high 10 rebounds against both Central Arkansas and UAB, as he had eight or more rebounds on nine occasions. He also tallied 13 points, eight rebounds and a career-high five blocked shots at Rice.

He spent a season at Salt Lake Community College, where he averaged 11.8 points and 6.8 rebounds per game while helping SLCC to a 29-5 record and a berth in the national tournament. He shot 56 percent from the field, 43 percent from 3-point range and 87 percent from the foul line. He posted season-highs of 25 points and six 3-pointers against Snow College.

Garcia began his career at Charlotte, where he spent two seasons with the 49ers and was a teammate of former NU All-Big Ten guard Brice Williams. He played in 19 games as a sophomore, including a season-high nine points against Arkansas, as he battled a knee injury for part of the season. He appeared in 21 games as a true freshman in 2020-21, averaging 3.5 points and 2.6 rebounds per game. His best performance came against Marshall, when he had 14 points and 11 rebounds for his first career double-double.

He played at St. Thomas More School in Connecticut, where he was ranked No. 15 in the New England Top 100 for the Class of 2020 by the New England Recruiting Report. He totaled 1,276 points and 656 rebounds in his prep career playing for Coach Jere Quinn. Garcia was a second-team All-New England Prep School Athletic Conference selection in each of his final two seasons, averaging 17 points, seven rebounds and five assists per game. He played AAU basketball for the New York Jayhawks and coach Jay David, helping his team reach the semifinals of the Adidas Summer Championships in 2019.

PERSONAL

Jared is the son of Frances Lacayo and Steven Garcia and has one younger sister, Jessica. Jared earned his undergraduate degree in organizational studies at Tulsa in May of 2025 and is currently in NU's master's degree program where he hopes to study strategic innovation and entrepreneurship. His mother, Frances, played basketball and volleyball collegiately at Dominican University. Jared has a daughter, Xéla Garcia-Hayes.

HOMETOWN: ALYTUS, LITHUANIA
PREVIOUS SCHOOL: CENTRAL MICHIGAN

2025-26 (OUTLOOK)

Over the years, the Huskers have used the international ranks to bolster their roster and senior Ugnius Jarusevicius (pronounced OOOG-niss YARE-rue-SHEHH-vih-CHUSS) continues that trend in 2025-26. Jarusevicius is from Lithuania but has spent the last three seasons playing college basketball. Last year, the 6-foot-11 forward garnered first team All-Mid American Conference honors at Central Michigan, averaging 16.2 points and 7.3 rebounds per game. He ranked in the top five of the MAC in both scoring and rebounding and finished the season by averaging 21.1 points and 8.6 rebounds per game over his final 11 contests. Jarusevicius uses his size well, as he has a deft touch around the basket and can draw contact and is comfortable stepping out to 3-point range. After making just eight 3-pointers in his first two seasons, he nearly tripled that number while shooting 31 percent beyond the arc. His skillset blends well with the other bigs on NU's roster, and Jarusevicius can play either spot in the Husker frontcourt.

BEFORE NEBRASKA

Jarusevicius spent the 2024-25 season at Central Michigan after beginning his career at Cal State Bakerfield. He was one of the breakout performers in the Mid-American Conference for Central Michigan, earning first-team All-MAC honors in his lone season playing for Coach Tony Barbee and the Chippewas. In 2024-25, Jarusevicius led the Chippewas in many offensive categories, including scoring (16.2 ppg), rebounding (7.3 rpg) and field goal percentage (.537) while averaging 26.7 minutes per game. He ranked in the top 10 of the MAC in scoring (fifth), rebounding (third) and field goal percentage (eighth) while recording a conference-high eight double-doubles. Jarusevicius showed his versatility, shooting 31 percent from 3-point range, while also shooting 71 percent from the foul line on 171 free throw attempts. He reached double figures 23 times, including eight games with at least 20 points. His season was highlighted by a 32-point, 10-rebound effort against both Akron and Kent State. He also had 17 points against Minnesota and 11 points and a career-high 14 rebounds against Marquette. He closed the season with 11 straight double-figure scoring games, including both 30-point games and three other 20-point performances.

He began his college career at Cal State Bakersfield, spending his first two seasons with the Roadrunner program. He averaged 5.5 points and 2.2 rebounds per game, highlighted by a 16-point effort against South Dakota, while going 8-of-12 from the field. He played in 15 games as a freshman before suffering a season-ending ankle injury in mid-January. In the two games prior to his ankle injury, he had set back-to-back season highs including 16 points and seven boards against UC San Diego.

A 2022 graduate of Kaunas "Varpas" Gimnazija in Lithuania, Jarusevicius was a member of the Lithuanian National Team youth system for four years, helping Lithuania to a runner-up finish at the FIBA Under-20 European Championship in 2022. He averaged 5.6 points, 4.0 rebounds and 1.1 block per game as Lithuania fell to Spain in the title game. He also played for Lithuania at the Under-18 FIBA European Challengers in 2019, the Under-16 European Championship in 2016, and the Under-16 European Championship in 2019. When not playing for his National Team, he spent two seasons as an amateur in the NKL, Lithuania's second-tier of professional basketball. He averaged 6.8 points, 3.9 rebounds, and 0.8 blocks per contest in 2021-22 for BC Zalgris-2 and earned a call up to the country's top league, the LKL, where he played six games with Nevezis.

- CSC Academic All-District (2025)
- Academic All-Big Ten (2025)

2025-26 (OUTLOOK)

For the Husker coaching staff, the second time was the charm as Nebraska added Pryce Sandfort in the transfer portal. NU originally recruited Sandfort out of high school, but he spent two years at Iowa before joining the Huskers this season. The 6-foot-7 forward gives the Huskers a proven, experienced wing, as NU looks to replace All-Big Ten performer Brice Williams. Sandfort played in 33 games last season and averaged 8.8 points per game while shooting nearly 50 percent from the field and 40 percent from 3-point range. He reached double figures 15 times, including a career-high 22 points against Southern and 16 points against both Michigan and against NU in Lincoln. While his biggest strength is his shooting, Sandfort is also a good decision maker with the ball, as he has a career 3-to-1 assist-to-turnover ratio. He made a significant jump from his freshman to sophomore seasons, and the coaching staff believes he can continue that growth in the 2025-26 season.

BEFORE NEBRASKA

Pryce Sandfort spent the first two seasons of his career playing at Iowa for Coach Fran McCaffery, where he played in 65 contests for the Hawkeyes. As a sophomore in 2024-25, he averaged 8.8 points per game on nearly 49 percent shooting, including 40 percent from 3-point range and 2.9 rebounds per game. His 56 3-pointers ranked third on the team, as he had multiple 3-pointers in 18 of his 33 appearances. Sandfort had 15 games in double figures, highlighted by a career-high 22 points, including 6-of-8 from 3-point range, against Southern. He also had 16 points apiece at both Michigan and Nebraska. In the game in Lincoln, Sandfort also grabbed a career-high 11 rebounds for his first career double-double. He closed the year with four straight double-figure efforts, averaging 12.3 points on 57 percent shooting and 6.0 rebounds per game in that span. As a freshman, he played in 32 games off the bench averaging 2.3 points and 1.1 rebounds per game while shooting nearly 35 percent from 3-point range. He had a season-high 12 points, including a trio of 3-pointers, against Western Illinois.

Sandfort was Iowa Mr. Basketball in 2023, as he averaged 24.9 points, 11.0 rebounds, 2.8 assists, 2.7 blocks and 1.7 steals per game while leading Waukee Northwest to a berth in the Class 4A State Championship game. The first-team all-state performer led Class 4A in points, blocks, field goals made, 3-pointers made, free throws made and defensive rebounds and ranked second in total rebounds as a senior for Coach Brett Watson. Sandfort led his team as a team captain to 20 victories and the state quarterfinals as a junior, averaging 26.2 ppg, 10.3 rpg, 2.8 apg and 2.9 bpg, earning first-team all-state honors. He helped Waukee High School to a state title as a sophomore and a state runner-up finish as a freshman. In all, he totaled 1,695 career points during his four-year high school career. He also played golf for two seasons in high school. Sandfort played AAU ball for D1 Minnesota's AAU team, averaging 16.2 points, 6.2 rebounds, and two assists per game in his final season for Coach Al Harris. In the classroom, Sandfort was a three-time academic all-state pick and National Honor Society member at Waukee Northwest.

LEO CURTIS

#33

FORWARD | 7-2 | 245 | FRESHMAN

HOMETOWN: REYKJAVIK, ICELAND
PREVIOUS SCHOOL: CATS (MASS.) ACADEMY

2025-26 (OUTLOOK)

Leo Curtis (pronounced LAY-o) was the biggest and final piece of Nebraska's 2025 recruiting class. The 7-foot-2 forward signed with the Huskers in May and quickly turned heads with his blend of size and athleticism when he arrived on campus in June. Curtis spent part of the summer playing for the Iceland at the U20 European Championships and led the tournament in blocked shots and ranked in the top three in rebounding and minutes played. Curtis, who didn't play basketball competitively until he was a teenager, came to the states last year for prep school and finished the season as one of the top-100 players in the senior class. He provides the Huskers with a rim protector and could become a significant performer as he continues to add size and strength and adapts to the Big Ten.

SUMMER 2025

Curtis spent part of the summer training with the Iceland U20 team, as they played in the 2025 U20 EuroBasket Championships in Greece. He finished the seven-game tournament leading all players in blocked shots (2.7 per game) and placing in the top three in both rebounding (8.1 rpg, third), and minutes played (31.6, second). Curtis, who finished in double figures in six of Iceland's seven games, topped Iceland in scoring (14.6 ppg), rebounding, blocked shots and minutes played while also dishing out 2.9 assists per game. He had a tournament-high 22 points against the Ukraine and added 20 points in a win over Slovenia, when he also had 11 rebounds, six blocked shots and four assists. Curtis also had six blocked shots in the tournament finale against Germany.

BEFORE NEBRASKA

Curtis spent his postgraduate season at Cambridge Arts, Technology and Science (CATS Academy) in Braintree, Mass., where he earned National Prep All-American Honorable-Mention honors after moving to the United States in the fall of 2024. Playing for coach Cary Herer, Curtis averaged 12.3 points, 10.1 rebounds, 2.1 assists and 2.7 blocks per game. His effort helped CATS Academy to a 28-7 record, a runner-up finish in the New England Preparatory School Athletic Council (NEPSAC) Class AA tournament and a No. 5 national ranking. For his efforts, he was a first-team All-NEPSAC Class AA honoree. At the 2025 National Prep Championships, Curtis averaged 12.5 points, 8.0 rebounds, 3.5 assists and 2.0 blocks per game in games against Sunrise (Kan.) Christian and Vermont Academy to help CATS Academy to a quarterfinal appearance.

Curtis, who didn't play basketball competitively until he was a teenager, was ranked No. 84 nationally in the class of 2025 by On3, which also has Curtis as the No. 11 center in the 2025 class. He was also ranked in the top 150 nationally by 247 Sports and a four-star prospect. Curtis played for IR Reykjavik in the Iceland Subway League in 2023-24 and averaged 15.4 points per game on 58 percent shooting, including 42 percent from 3-point range, along with 8.9 rebounds and 1.7 blocks per game. He totaled 10 double-doubles in 31 games in 2023-24, highlighted by a 35-point, 13-rebound effort. He was also a member of the Iceland National team pipeline, as he averaged 5.3 points, 4.1 rebounds and 1.1 blocks per game the 2024 U20 European Championships and averaged 8.6 points, 7.0 rebounds and 1.9 blocks per game at the 2023 U18 European Championships. Curtis looked at a host of schools during the recruiting process and took visits to Arizona State, Indiana and West Virginia as well as Nebraska.

PERSONAL

Curtis, whose full name is Frithrik Leo Curtis, is the son of Thor and Rut. He has two brothers, Alexander and Matthias, and one sister, Natalia. A business administration major, Curtis will be the second player from Iceland to play at Nebraska, as Thorir Thorbjarnarson was a two-year starter for the Huskers in 2019-20 and 2020-21 under Fred Hoiberg. Curtis was also teammates with Matej Kavas, who played at Nebraska during the 2019-20 season, on IR Reykjavik.

QUENTIN RHYMES

#11

GUARD | 6-6 | 192 | FRESHMAN

HOMETOWN: PHOENIX, ARIZ.
PREVIOUS SCHOOL: HILLCREST PREP

2025-26 (OUTLOOK)

Quentin Rhymes is one of two top-150 freshmen in the Huskers' 2025 recruiting class. A 6-foot-6, 195-pound guard, was a stat stuffer at national power Hillcrest Prep in Arizona, averaging 22.4 points, 7.8 rebounds, 4.1 assists and 2.1 steals per game in helping the school to a 28-6 record. Rhymes' combination of positional size and athleticism allows him to guard several positions and make an impact on both ends of the court. He has been compared to former Husker Brice Williams with his ability to create his own shot and score at all three levels. Rhymes made steady improvements during the summer and has put himself in a position to compete for minutes as a true freshman, as he adapts to the speed and physicality of Big Ten basketball.

BEFORE NEBRASKA

Rhymes played at Hillcrest (Ariz.) Prep for Coach Marcus Gantt, helping the school to a 28-6 record in 2024-25. He averaged 22.4 points per game as a senior on 52 percent shooting along with 7.8 rebounds, 4.1 assists and 2.1 steals per game. He also shot 41 percent from 3-point en route to second-team all-state honors. Rhymes was the No. 108 player nationally in the 247Sports Composite ranking and the No. 5 player in the state of Arizona while On3 had him ranked No. 118 nationally and the sixth-ranked prospect in the state in 2025. He also earned a spot on the honor roll at Hillcrest. He played his first three seasons of high school at Bishop Gorman in Las Vegas before spending his senior year at Bella Vista (Ariz.) College Prep. Rhymes, who played in the 2023 Pangos All-American Camp, selected Nebraska over New Mexico, Boise State, TCU, UNLV, and UC Santa Barbara.

Rymes played for Coach Lamar Bigby with the Las Vegas Knicks on the PRO16/NXT League circuit, averaging 17.5 points, six rebounds and five assists per game, highlighted by a 40-point effort.

PERSONAL

Quentin is the son of Wayne and Maria Rhymes, and has a younger brother, Davion. Wayne Rhymes played college basketball at Portland State and Colorado-Colorado Springs before playing professionally overseas. Quentin majors in business administration at Nebraska.

HOIBERG

FRED HOIBERG

HEAD COACH | SEVENTH SEASON

ALMA MATER (YEAR): IOWA STATE (1995)
NCAA RECORD: 199-164 (11 SEASONS)

Fred Hoiberg's career has revolved around the sport of basketball. The grandson of a professional basketball player and collegiate coach, Hoiberg has followed a similar path, spending three decades as a player, coach or executive in Division I basketball and the National Basketball Association.

Hoiberg is in his seventh season as Nebraska's men's basketball coach in 2024-25. Hoiberg, who was born in Lincoln, is the 28th coach in program history, a fraternity that includes his grandfather, Jerry Bush, who guided the Husker program for nine seasons from 1955 to 1963. Hoiberg's ties run deep to Nebraska as his other grandfather, Otto Hoiberg, was a history professor at the University, while his father, Eric, received his doctorate degree from Nebraska.

Hoiberg has experienced immense success at the collegiate level. He won more games than any other player during his time as a Cyclone guard and then returned to post the top winning percentage of any coach in Iowa State history. He won four NCAA Tournament games at Iowa State – a program record – and developed four players who eventually became NBA Draft picks and four All-Americans in his five seasons. At Nebraska, he has steadily built the Husker program, guiding the Huskers to an NCAA Tournament berth in 2023-24 and the first-ever College Basketball Crown title last season. Over the last two years, NU has won 44 games, the second-best two-year win total in program history.

Nebraska enjoyed a successful season in 2024-25, matching a school record with four wins over ranked opponents before culminating the year with 21 wins and the first-ever College Basketball Crown title. The CBC championship marked the second trophy of the season, as the Huskers won the 2024 Diamond Head Invitational, picking up its first neutral-site MTE title in nearly a quarter century. Brice Williams put together one of the best seasons in school history, setting a single-season school record with 713 points on his way to becoming the first Husker since 2018 to earn first-team All-Big Ten honors.

Hoiberg earned Big Ten and National Coach-of-the-Year honors after guiding Nebraska to a 23-11 record and an NCAA Tournament berth in 2024.

In 2023-24 Nebraska went 23-11, the second-highest win total in school history, and reached the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2014. The Huskers tied for third in the Big Ten, marking the program's best conference finish in more than 30 years. Nebraska averaged 77.7 points per game, a total which was the program's highest average since 1995-96, while leading the Big Ten with 9.5 3-pointers per game. NU's season was highlighted by a pair of top-10 wins, including an 88-72 win over No. 1 Purdue, which was NU's first win over a No. 1 team since 1982. That was another full circle moment for Hoiberg, as his grandfather, Jerry Bush was the architect behind the Huskers' first-ever win over a No. 1 team back in 1958.

For Nebraska's efforts, Hoiberg shared Big Ten Coach of the Year honors by both the coaches and media, while Keisei Tominaga (second team) and Rienk Mast (third team) were all-conference honorees. Hoiberg also was honored as the Jim Phalen National Coach of the Year and was tabbed as the NABC District VII Coach of the Year.

The 2022-23 season saw Nebraska make significant steps by winning 16 games and posting a 9-11 mark in Big Ten play. The nine conference wins were NU's highest total since 2017-18, despite having a pair of starters suffer season-ending injuries. Behind All-Big Ten performers Derrick Walker and Keisei Tominaga, the Huskers won six of their last eight regular-season games. NU also posted its second top-10 road win in as many years with a victory at No. 7 Creighton in non-conference action, the first top-10 non-conference road win in school history.

In 2021-22, Nebraska averaged 73.3 points per game, a total which was fourth in the Big Ten. Freshman Bryce McGowens was named Big Ten Newcomer of the Year by the Associated Press and a third-team all-conference pick, while Alonzo Verge Jr. led the Big Ten with 5.5 assists per game. The Huskers had an NBA Draft pick for the second straight year, as Bryce McGowens was the No. 40 pick in the 2022 NBA Draft, the highest drafted Nebraska player since 1998. McGowens became the 12th Hoiberg-coached player to reach the NBA.

The 2020-21 season saw the Huskers climb to 40th nationally in defensive efficiency, despite a lineup which featured four new starters. NU ranked second in school history with 8.44 3-pointers per game while facing a top-10 schedule for the second straight season. Dalano Banton was a second-round pick by the Toronto Raptors in the 2021 NBA Draft after leading the Huskers in both assists and rebounds.

In his first season, the Huskers began to adapt to Hoiberg's system, ranking in the top three of the Big Ten in both 3-pointers per game (third) and turnover margin (second). NU which had one returning letterwinner, posted wins over Purdue and Iowa.

CHICAGO BULLS HEAD COACH

Hoiberg was named an NBA head coach just five years into his coaching career. He led Chicago to immediate success, as the Bulls finished with a 42-40 record in his first year in 2015-16, when Hoiberg became just the fifth coach in franchise history to have a winning record in his debut season. The next season, Hoiberg took Chicago to the Eastern Conference Playoffs. The No. 8 seed Bulls went on the road and won the first two games of a first-round series against the top-seed Boston Celtics, becoming the first No. 8 seed to take a 2-0 lead against a No. 1 seed since 1993. Hoiberg became the fifth coach in NBA history to have each of his first two career playoff victories come on the road. The 2017 playoffs also marked the first time Chicago had won the first two games of a playoff series on the road since the 1993 NBA Finals. Overall, Chicago won more than 40 games in two of Hoiberg's three full seasons.

IOWA STATE HEAD COACH

Hoiberg led a resurgence at his alma mater, leaving a lasting legacy in five seasons. He guided Iowa State to a 115-56 record – including a 99-40 mark in his final four seasons – to post the top winning percentage (.673) in Cyclone history. Hoiberg led Iowa State to a program-record four consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances, while tying the school record with four NCAA Tournament coaching victories. Hoiberg also posted the top conference winning percentage (.557) in ISU history and guided Iowa State to back-to-back Big 12 Tournament titles in 2014 and 2015.

Hoiberg inherited a Cyclone program that had not made the NCAA Tournament or had a winning conference record in five years. But after just one rebuilding year, Hoiberg guided the Cyclones to four consecutive NCAA Tournaments before leaving for the NBA. His 115 wins were the most by any coach in a five-year span in Iowa State history.

After a 16-16 debut season, Hoiberg led the Cyclones to a 23-11 record and the third round of the 2012 NCAA Tournament. ISU went 12-6 in Big 12 play in Hoiberg's second season, winning nine more conference games than the previous season to post the biggest one-year turnaround in Big 12 history. Hoiberg was named the Big 12 Co-Coach of the Year for his efforts.

Hoiberg guided the Cyclones to another 23-win season in his third year, when Iowa State advanced to the third round of the NCAA Tournament for the second straight year. In his fourth season, the Cyclones finished 28-8, won the 2014 Big 12 Tournament and advanced to the Sweet 16. In Hoiberg's final season, Iowa State defended its Big 12 Tournament title and earned a No. 3 seed for the NCAA Tournament.

Hoiberg oversaw one of the nation's top offenses during his tenure at Iowa State. The Cyclones led the Big 12 with an average of 77.9 points per game in Hoiberg's final four seasons, ranking in the top 10 nationally in scoring twice in those four seasons. His Cyclones led the Big 12 in 3-pointers in four of his five seasons and in his final season at ISU, his team led the conference in scoring offense (77.8), field goal percentage (.476) assists per game (16.1), turnovers per game (11.0) and 3-pointers per game (7.7).

Hoiberg also excelled at player development at Iowa State, producing four players who were selected in the NBA Draft. He also coached four All-Americans and 12 All-Big 12 players, including 2014 Big 12 Player of the Year Melvin Ejim, in his Iowa State tenure.

MINNESOTA TIMBERWOLVES FRONT OFFICE

After spending the final two seasons of his 10-year NBA career in Minnesota, Hoiberg transitioned into the Timberwolves' front office. Hoiberg served as the team's vice president of basketball operations in his final season, overseeing the day-to-day operations of basketball programs including college and pro scouting, salary cap management and NBA Draft preparations. He served as the Timberwolves' assistant

FORMER NBA COACHES AT DIVISION I SCHOOLS

Fred Hoiberg is one of six active NCAA coaches to have coached in the NBA, as he spent three-plus seasons with the Chicago Bulls from 2015 to 2018. Hoiberg's 270 regular-season NBA games rank second among the six former NBA coaches in the collegiate ranks.

Fred Hoiberg led the Chicago Bulls for three-plus seasons, as he won 42 games in his first season and reached the NBA Playoffs the following campaign.

HEAD COACH FRED HOIBERG

Hoiberg guided Iowa State to back-to-back Big 12 Tournament titles in 2014 and 2015, and helped the Cyclones make four straight NCAA Tournament appearances.

general manager in his first three seasons in the front office, where he helped Minnesota orchestrate a draft-day trade for five-time all-star Kevin Love in 2008.

NBA PLAYING CAREER

Hoiberg was a 10-year NBA veteran, playing for the Indiana Pacers (four seasons), Chicago Bulls (four seasons) and Minnesota Timberwolves (two seasons). Hoiberg played in 541 games in his NBA career and was a member of three playoff teams, including a Timberwolves team that reached the 2004 Western Conference Finals. Hoiberg scored 2,944 points in his NBA career, and he was a 40 percent career 3-point shooter. Hoiberg led the NBA in 3-point shooting percentage in his final season in 2004-05 (48.3 percent) and was fourth in 2003-04 (44.2 percent). His pro career ended abruptly at the age of 33 after undergoing open-heart surgery to repair an aneurysm in his aortic root. Hoiberg was a second-round pick in the 1995 NBA Draft, when the Indiana Pacers chose him with the 54th overall selection.

IOWA STATE AND HIGH SCHOOL PLAYING CAREER

Hoiberg was a four-year starter at Iowa State from 1991 to 1995. He is a member of the ISU Hall of Fame and his No. 32 jersey was retired in 1997. Hoiberg is also a member of the CoSIDA Academic All-America Hall of Fame. Hoiberg was a two-time academic All-America selection as a player, including a first-team honoree as a senior. On the court, Hoiberg was recognized as a two-time All-Big Eight selection in addition to being named the 1992 Associated Press Big Eight Freshman of the Year and the 1995 Co-Big Eight Male Athlete of the Year. Hoiberg was also named a third-team All-American as a senior, averaging 19.9 points per game to help the Cyclones win a then-school-record 23 games.

Hoiberg started 123 of his 126 games as a Cyclone with career averages of 15.8 points, 6.9 rebounds, 2.8 assists and 1.6 steals per game. The Iowa State record holder for consecutive made free throws (34) and steals in a game (7), Hoiberg currently ranks fourth on the Cyclones' all-time scoring chart (1,993 points) and is in the top 10 in five other categories. He made 183 3-pointers in his career and won 78 games, both of which were the most in school history at the time of his graduation.

Hoiberg was a standout athlete for Ames High School before remaining in his hometown to attend Iowa State. As a senior, Hoiberg was Iowa's Mr. Basketball and he was also the Iowa Gatorade Player of the Year in football. On the basketball court, Hoiberg averaged 38.1 points per game in six tournament games while leading Ames to a state championship as a senior. On the gridiron, Hoiberg turned down a football scholarship offer from Nebraska head coach Tom Osborne to play basketball at Iowa State.

PERSONAL

The son of an Iowa State professor, Hoiberg earned his degree in finance from Iowa State in 1995. He was born in Lincoln on Oct. 15, 1972, and his grandfather, Jerry Bush, was Nebraska's men's basketball head coach for nine seasons from 1955 to 1963. Fred and his wife, Carol, have four children: one daughter, Paige; and three sons, Jack and twins Sam and Charlie.

Hoiberg spent 10 years in the NBA and ranked in the top five of the NBA in 3-point shooting in his final two seasons in the league. In 2004-05, he shot 48.3 percent from 3-point range to lead the NBA.

Fred Hoiberg talks with his son, Sam, during a game. The younger Hoiberg played in all 35 games last season, including 15 starts.

Fred Hoiberg talks with his son, Jack, following the 2020 Nebraska-Michigan State game in Lincoln. Jack played collegiately at Michigan State and UT-Arlington and now works for the San Antonio Spurs.

HOIBERG BY THE NUMBERS

1 - Monte Morris led the NCAA in assist-to-turnover ratio in each of Hoiberg's final two seasons at Iowa State, and is the NCAA record holder for the best season and career assist-to-turnover ratios.

2 - Nebraska has two triple doubles in Hoiberg's five seasons at Nebraska (Cam Mack, 2019-20; Dalano Banton, 2020-21). Prior to Hoiberg's arrival in 2019, Nebraska never had a player post a triple double.

3 - ISU ranked in the top 15 nationally in assist-to-turnover ratio in each of Hoiberg's final three seasons, including leading the nation in that category in 2013-14.

6 - Six Cyclone players won individual conference honors during Hoiberg's time in Ames, including 2014 Big 12 Player of the Year Melvin Ejim.

5 - Hoiberg-coached teams have led their conferences in 3-pointers per game five times in 11 years. In 2023-24, Nebraska led the Big Ten with 9.5 3-pointers per game.

12 - During his 11 seasons at the college level, Hoiberg recruited or coached 12 players who played in the NBA, including Dalano Banton and Bryce McGowens at Nebraska.

16 - Royce White was the No. 16 overall pick in the 2012 NBA Draft. He is one of six Hoiberg-coached players who were NBA Draft picks, including Bryce McGowens in 2022.

18 - Hoiberg guided Nebraska to a school-record 18 home wins in 2023-24, as Nebraska went 18-1, including a perfect 10-0 in Big Ten play.

20 - Number of players who earned all-conference honors in his 10 seasons in the NCAA ranks, including four players (Royce White, Melvin Ejim, DeAndre Kane and Georges Niang) who garnered first-team honors.

32 - Hoiberg has 32 career wins over ranked opponents, including 11 over top-10 teams. NU tied a school record with four wins over ranked opponents in 2024-25.

Hoiberg's grandfather is former Husker basketball coach Jerry Bush. Known as the "Big Bear of the Coliseum," Bush guided NU from 1955 to 1963, and directed two of the greatest upsets ever – a 43-41 victory over No. 4 Kansas and Wilt Chamberlain, and a 55-48 victory over No. 1 Kansas State and Olympian Bob Boozer during the 1957-58 campaign.

32 - Hoiberg's No. 32 jersey was retired by Iowa State in 1997. He was a two-time All-Big Eight selection, the 1992 AP Big Eight Freshman of the Year, the 1995 Co-Big Eight Male Athlete of the Year, a 1995 third-team All-American and two-time Academic All-American for the Cyclones before embarking on a 10-year NBA career.

77.7 - Points per game Nebraska averaged in 2023-24, which was the Huskers' highest season average since the 1995-96 season.

1,993 - Points that Hoiberg scored in his four seasons at Iowa State, a total which ranks fourth in school history. He helped the Cyclones to three NCAA Tournament appearances as a player and earned All-America honors as a senior when ISU went 23-11 and reached the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

2,453 - The Hoiberg family has combined for 2,453 career points at the college level, as Jack (Michigan State and UTSA) and Sam (Nebraska).

Hoiberg, being guarded by Eric Piatkowski, was a third-team All-American as a senior at Iowa State in 1994-95, averaging 19.9 points per game to help the Cyclones win a then-school-record 23 games.

NATE LOENSER

ASSISTANT COACH | FIFTH SEASON

YEARS AS NCAA ASSISTANT COACH: EIGHT

Nate Loenser (pronounced Lenzer) is in his fifth season with the Husker coaching staff.

A former NBA assistant, Loenser plays an extensive role in nearly every facet of the program, including leading the Huskers' individual skill development programs, opponent scouting, game planning and recruiting. He has helped five players earn All-Big Ten honors in his tenure, including Brice Williams (2025), Keisei Tominaga (2023-24), Rienk Mast (2024), Derrick Walker (2023) and Bryce McGowens (2022). Williams earned first-team All-Big Ten honors, becoming the first Husker to earn that recognition since 2018. McGowens was a third-team All-Big Ten pick as a freshman and became NU's highest draft pick since 1998 when he was picked No. 40 overall in the 2022 NBA Draft.

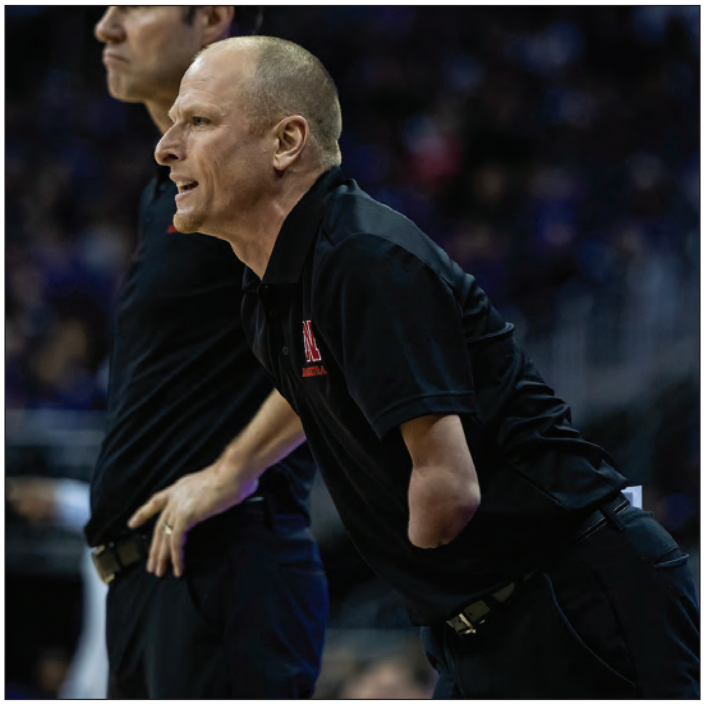
Loenser worked with head coach Fred Hoiberg at both Iowa State (2013-15) and with the Chicago Bulls (2015-18). Loenser came to Lincoln after spending five seasons with the Bulls, including three seasons as an assistant coach for Hoiberg and Jim Boylen. His coaching emphasis was on the offensive end, while he also handled opponent scouting for select teams and worked extensively in player development. He helped develop two-time NBA all-star Zach Lavine as well as Kris Dunn, Ryan Arcidiacono, Justin Holiday, Chandler Hutchison, David Nwaba, Denzel Valentine and Timothé Luwawu-Cabarrot during his tenure with the Bulls. Loenser also served as the Bulls' NBA Summer League coach in 2019, a roster which featured NBA Lottery pick Coby White and ran the Bulls' predraft workouts for three seasons.



Prior to joining the Bulls coaching staff, he was the head coach of the Windy City Bulls D-League team in 2016-17. He guided the expansion franchise to a 23-27 record, which was the best of the three expansion franchises that season. He developed players such as Spencer Dinwiddie, Jake Layman, Bobby Portis, Cristiano Felício, Jerian Grant, Cameron Payne, Denzel Valentine, Paul Zipser, Alfonzo McKinnie and R.J. Hunter.

Loenser spent two years on Hoiberg's Iowa State staff and was a key component in helping the Cyclones to a pair of Big 12 Tournament titles. He was the Cyclones' Director of Player Development in 2014-15, as ISU went 25-9 and tied for second in the Big 12. That season, Georges Niang earned All-America honors, while Niang, Monté Morris and Jameel McKay were recognized on the All-Big 12 teams. McKay was the Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year.

In his first season, Loenser served as graduate assistant as the program enjoyed one of its best seasons in program history. The Cyclones finished with 28 wins, won the Big 12 Tournament title and reached the NCAA Sweet 16. ISU ranked in the top three nationally in scoring offense, assists per game and assist-to-turnover ratio. Melvin Ejim and DeAndre Kane both earned All-America accolades for their efforts.

After one season at Northern University High School in Cedar Falls, Loenser began his collegiate coaching career at Southern Mississippi. He served on Larry Eustachy's staff for six seasons, helping the Golden Eagles post a pair of 20-win seasons and reach the CIT in 2010. He handled recruiting, opponent scouting and on-court coaching during his tenure at USM. Loenser returned to Iowa to coach high school basketball, serving as the head coach at Spirit Lake High School before joining the Iowa State staff in 2013.

A native of Cedar Falls, Iowa, Loenser was a 2002 graduate of Iowa State, where he played baseball for the Cyclones in 2001. He was a four-sport athlete (baseball, basketball, football, and golf) at Northern University High School, as he fell two tackles shy of the school's single-season record of tackles held by College Football Hall of Famer Trev Alberts.

He and his wife Jackie have three daughters, Delaney, Logan and Hadley.

ERNIE ZEIGLER

ASSISTANT COACH | FOURTH SEASON

ALMA MATER (YEAR): CLEARY COLLGE (1994)
YEARS AS NCAA HEAD OR ASSISTANT COACH: 24

Veteran college basketball coach Ernie Zeigler is his fourth season on the Nebraska men's basketball coaching staff. Zeigler played a major role in the recruitment and development of Brice Williams, who earned first-team All-Big Ten honors in 2024-25 and became the first Husker to earn first-team all-conference honors since 2018. Williams set the NU single-season and single-game scoring records while leading the Big Ten in scoring in conference play as a senior. Zeigler also played a major role in the development of Derrick Walker, who earned second-team All Big Ten honors and led NU in scoring, rebounding and assists in 2022-23.

Zeigler possesses more than two decades of Division I experience, including six seasons at Central Michigan as a head coach. Before joining the Husker staff in August of 2022, he spent seven years at Mississippi State, helping the Bulldogs to four postseason appearances between 2018 and 2022 under Ben Howland. Zeigler also served as an assistant coach at Kansas State, Bowling Green, Pitt, UCLA and Detroit and has made nine postseason appearances as an assistant coach, including five NCAA Tournament trips. The 2005-06 UCLA team was the NCAA runner-up, while the 2001-02 and 2002-03 Pitt squads secured NCAA Sweet 16 appearances. He also played a role in a trio of regular season conference championships and a pair of conference tournament titles.

During his tenure at Mississippi State, the Bulldogs recorded at least 18 wins in each of his final five seasons at the school. MSU captured four consecutive bids to postseason play when postseason tournaments were played, sparked by a 2019 NCAA Tournament trip and 2021 NIT runner-up finish. In 2020, the Bulldogs tied for fourth with an 11-7 mark, their best SEC finish since 2010-11. Zeigler was a driving force in Mississippi State's frontcourt development with the recruitment of Abdul Ado, an ESPN top 100 player. Ado, a 2020-21 All-SEC Defensive Team pick, finished his MSU career tied for second place on the program's blocks list. Zeigler helped the Bulldogs recruit three classes in the top 25 nationally by 247Sports, including the nation's No. 10 class in 2016. During his MSU tenure, five players, Reggie Perry, Craig Sword, Quinndary Weatherspoon, Robert Woodard II and Quinten Post, reached the NBA.

Before spending two seasons at Detroit under Ray McCallum, Zeigler was the head coach at Central Michigan. He spent six seasons with the Chippewas and led the program to two MAC (Mid-American Conference) Western Division crowns and a pair of Michigan MAC trophies which is given to the school who has the best head-to-head record among in-state schools.

Central Michigan reached the MAC Tournament quarterfinals in four of his six seasons and logged top three MAC division finishes during five of his six seasons with Zeigler at the helm. His recruiting classes to Mount Pleasant were ranked atop the conference four times overall, ignited by three straight seasons from 2009 to 2011 by HoopScoopOnline.com. Zeigler mentored eight players to All-MAC selections highlighted by six players who went on to play professionally.

Zeigler spent five seasons at Pitt and UCLA under Howland's tutelage from 2002 to 2006. The 2001-02 Pitt team amassed a program single-season record with 29 victories, while the 2005-06 UCLA squad equaled a program single-season mark of 32 wins set by the 1995-96 national champions.

The Panthers claimed a share of the 2002 and 2003 Big East regular season titles and won the 2003 Big East Tournament crown. Pitt climbed as high as No. 2 for four weeks in both the Associated Press (AP) and USA Today/Coaches Top 25 polls before closing the season at No. 4 by the AP in 2002-03.

When Howland headed west to UCLA, Zeigler helped build the program back into a national title contender. In 2005-06, the Bruins swept the Pac-10 regular season and tournament titles and advanced to the NCAA Final Four as the No. 2 seed before falling to Florida in the 2006 NCAA Championship Game. UCLA posted a top 15 recruiting class each season and inked three McDonalds All-Americans with Zeigler on the staff. The 2004 class was ranked as high as No. 4 by Rivals.com whereas the 2006 class checked in at No. 6 by FOXSports.com.

Zeigler had one-year stints at Kansas State and Bowling Green prior to teaming up with Howland. He began his coaching career under his former prep coach, Robert Menefee, at his alma mater, Detroit Cody High School.

From 1990-96, the Detroit Cody program dialed up a top 10 ranking in the state of Michigan during four of his six seasons. The team reached the state quarterfinals in 1992 and won the Detroit Public School League West Division championship in 1993. Zeigler also led Team Detroit in the AAU ranks from 1992 to 1997. He guided all six squads to the Michigan AAU Final Four, and the 1994 team reached the national AAU quarterfinals. In 1995 and 1997, Team Detroit advanced to the Adidas Big Time Tournament quarterfinals.

Zeigler made the move overseas where he gained three seasons of head coaching experience from 1997 to 1999. He led the Henan Wildcats from 1996-97 and was tabbed the Chinese National Basketball Alliance International Coach of the Year in 1997. The Wildcats came away with the franchise's first winning season and first playoff berth in club history.

Then, Zeigler guided Al-Hilal Sports Club to the Arab Championship Games Final Four and the Saudi Arabian Basketball Federation Playoffs in 1998 coupled with the championship of the Saudi Arabian Basketball Federation Playoffs in 1999.

Zeigler received a bachelor's degree in business management from Cleary College in 1994. He played collegiately for Schoolcraft College in Livonia, Mich., from 1984 to 1986 before moving on to Armstrong Atlantic State University in 1986-87 and Northwood University in 1987-88.

Zeigler and his wife, Seantelle, have two children, Trey and Skylar. Trey is an assistant coach at Creighton University.

PAT MONAGHAN

ASSISTANT COACH I FIRST SEASON

ALMA MATER (YEAR): LEWIS (2006)
YEARS AS NCAA ASSISTANT COACH: 14

Pat Monaghan begins his first season at Nebraska after joining the staff in April of 2025.

Monaghan, who has 19 years of experience in the college ranks to Lincoln, spent the 2024-25 season at Wyoming under Head Coach Sundance Wicks. Monaghan helped retool a Cowboy roster which had just two players who had played at the school when he arrived in May of 2024. Monaghan helped recruit Obi Agbim, who was the Mountain West Newcomer of the Year and third-team all-MW selection. In all, the Cowboys were competitive despite a 12-20 record with 13 of the losses coming by single digits.

He has been recognized for his efforts, as he was selected to attend the Top Connect Basketball Symposium in Las Vegas, Nev., in 2024 and the Jay Bilas Coaches Leadership Program in 2022. Both programs are designed to identify and develop up-and-coming assistants who have the potential to be Division I College Head Coaches.

PLAYING EXPERIENCE

- Lewis, 2014-06
- Harper Junior College, 2003-04

Monaghan worked under Wicks at Green Bay, leading one of the biggest turnarounds in the country in 2023-24. In his lone season in Green Bay, he helped the Phoenix win 18 games, the most regular-season wins since 2016-17. Green Bay also achieved Horizon League success, winning 13 HL games for the first time since the 2013-14 season. The Phoenix went 18-14 in 2023-24 after a 3-29 season in 2022-24, as the 15-game turnaround is tied for 10th-best turnaround in NCAA DI history.

Monaghan also helped guide numerous players to award-winning seasons. Noah Reynolds was named the Horizon League Newcomer of the Year, All-Horizon League First Team, and NABC District 12 All-Region First Team after in 2023-24. Green Bay also had two freshmen named to the Horizon League All-Freshman Team with Horizon League Freshman of the Year David Douglas Jr. and Marcus Hall.

Success has followed Monaghan throughout his coaching career. Before Green Bay, he spent four years at Southern Illinois, helping the Salukis to a 67-55 record. His final season at SIU, the Salukis won 23 games, which was the most by the program since 2006-07.

Monaghan was influential in the recruitment and development of Marcus Domask, who was a three-time All-Missouri Valley Conference honoree before he finished his career at Illinois. Domask, who was one of two players in program history to record 1,600 points, 500 rebounds and 300 assists. In his first season, Domask swept the MVC Freshman and Newcomer-of-the-Year honors and was a Freshman All-American by College Insider.

Monaghan was also instrumental in signing one of the best recruiting classes in school history. Troy D'Amico and Scottie Ebube were both ranked as top-10 players in the state of Illinois, and D'Amico was the highest-rated in-state recruit to sign with SIU since 2008. Foster Wonders, the runner-up for Michigan Mr. Basketball in 2021 and the No. 5 ranked player in the state of Michigan, also signed with SIU.

Prior to Southern Illinois, Monaghan spent two seasons (2017-19) at Milwaukee. The Panthers were among just a handful of teams to beat nationally ranked Loyola-Chicago in 2017-18, topping the eventual Final Four-bound Ramblers by 17 points in non-conference play.

Before his stop at Milwaukee, Monaghan was an assistant for six seasons at Division II powerhouse Minnesota State University (2011-17), where he helped the Mavericks to four NCAA Tournament appearances and a pair of Northern Sun Intercollegiate Conference titles. He was also the recruiting coordinator for the Mavericks, and 13 players earned All-NSIC honors during his tenure. The Mavericks won 28 games in 2012-13 and topped that with a 30-5 mark in 2013-14. The Mavs won 20 or more games in each of his final five campaigns.

He served as the director of basketball operations at Loyola Chicago (2010-11) and two years as an assistant at Coffeyville Community College (2008-2010), where he helped guide the Ravens to a 46-20 record, including a Jayhawk East Conference Championship in 2009. He began his coaching career at Wayne State (2006-08), serving as a graduate assistant for two seasons while earning his master's degree.

Monaghan played collegiately at Lewis (Ill.) University and led the Flyers in scoring at 14.0 points per game as a senior in 2005-06. Prior to Lewis, he played two seasons at Harper Junior College and was named Third-Team NJCAA All-American in 2004.

Borders was one of NU's assistant coaches on staff during the Huskers' run to the College Basketball Crown tournament in 2025. He assists in many day-to-day aspects in the program, including game planning, opponent scouting and skill development. As the Huskers' recruiting coordinator, Borders works with the operations staff in coordinating on-campus visits and works with the general manager in managing the recruiting landscape for the Huskers with a focus on the NCAA transfer portal, including implementing and managing NU's recruiting database and assisting with recruiting research.

Borders took part in the 2024 NCAA Basketball Coaches Academy, as he was one of 50 men's and women's basketball coaches nationally to be invited to this prestigious event.

Before joining the staff in a full-time capacity, he served as a graduate manager in 2022-23, where he helped the coaching staff with day-to-day operations, including practices, film breakdown and other on-campus duties. A Broken Bow, Neb., native, Borders served as one of the Huskers' team managers for the 2021-22 season, where he helped in day-to-day operations of the program.

Borders played collegiately at both Central Community College and Peru State before transferring to Nebraska for his final two years of college. At Peru State, he was a Daktronics NAIA Scholar-Athlete in 2020. He received his degree in business administration from Nebraska in 2022 and his master's degree in educational administration from Nebraska in May of 2024.

BASKETBALL SUPPORT STAFF

LUCA VIRGILIO

GENERAL MANAGER

Luca Virgilio is in his seventh year on the Nebraska men's basketball staff and first as General Manager after being named to the position in May of 2025. In his role, Virgilio oversees and manages the composition of the roster and player acquisition, including high school and international players and transfer portal recruiting, as well as player evaluation and retention. He serves as the liaison between the coaching staff and athletic administration in the NIL space and with the 1890 Collective.

The longest-tenured Husker coaching staff member under Coach Fred Hoiberg, Virgilio is also responsible for all men's basketball operations overseeing budget, scheduling and on-campus recruiting. He also serves as the primary day-to-day administrator within the basketball office, coordinating team travel and serving as a liaison to administrative units that worked with the basketball program.

Virgilio came to Nebraska after spending five seasons at St. John's, most recently as a management analyst for the Red Storm basketball program for two seasons. He was responsible for devising and delivering strategies to improve basketball operations by using advanced knowledge of research methods, information management and quantitative methods to analyze all areas of the program. Virgilio assisted the coaching staff by preparing analytical reports, delivering recommendations and overseeing the implementation of these strategies for practice and training, style of play, scouting, scheduling and recruiting.

During his time as assistant to head coach Chris Mullin, Virgilio provided support for a variety of daily operations within the program. His responsibilities included managing the team's schedule, organizing travel and supervising student-athlete development activities. Virgilio also assisted with the coordination of on-campus recruiting activities, maintaining NCAA compliance-related records and other duties as assigned by the head coach.

He began his tenure as a graduate assistant for two years, where he helped in daily operations, including the team calendar and overseeing the team's managers. Virgilio also aided both the assistant to the head coach and director of basketball operations with administrative responsibilities and team operations.

Virgilio graduated from St. John's in May 2016, earning a master's degree in sport management with a concentration in international dimension of sport. Hailing from Italy, Virgilio earned a bachelor's degree in economics and business administration at Universita degli Studi di Roma Tre in 2012 and a master's of science in business administration at Tor Vergata School of Economics in 2014.

He and his wife, Caterina, have a son, Giulio.

SHERYL BURBACH

ASST. DIRECTOR OF BASKETBALL OPERATIONS

Sheryl Burbach is in her 11th season with the Husker basketball program and eighth as assistant director of basketball operations.

Burbach handles many of the business and operational functions for the coaching staff, including staff travel, expense managements and budgeting. She coordinates events around the Husker basketball program, including Alunmi Weekend and Senior Night. She also assists in team travel, the coordination of the Fred Hoiberg Basketball Camps and Clinics, as well as day-to-day office operations. Burbach also manages speaking and charitable requests for Coach Hoiberg.

Prior to joining the Huskers, Burbach worked for Nebraska's 4-H Office and Nebraska Extension.

Burbach is originally from Sumner, Neb., and moved to Lincoln during high school. She and her husband, Melvin, have four sons, John, Grant, Matthew and Christopher.

KURT JOSEPH

DIRECTOR OF MEN'S BASKETBALL STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

Kurt Joseph is in his fifth season as Director of Men's Basketball Strength & Conditioning after joining the Husker program in 2021. In his role, he oversees the year-round training for the Husker basketball team and played a major role in the development of NBA Draft pick Bryce McGowens as well as All-Big Ten performers Brice Williams, Derrick Walker, Keisei Tominaga and Rienk Mast.

Joseph was one of six presenters at the Performance-4 Clinic in San Antonio in April of 2025, speaking to over 100 collegiate coaches, brand partners and NBA personnel in conjunction with the men's Final Four. The conference highlights best practices in the sports performance field, as all six presenters are among the nation's finest in their respective fields.

Joseph came to Lincoln after spending two-plus seasons as an assistant strength coach with the Minnesota Timberwolves. In that role, he assisted with the development and implementation of the strength and conditioning program for the NBA franchise.

Before joining the Timberwolves, Joseph was the Head Strength & Conditioning Coach of the Iowa Wolves, Minnesota's NBA G League affiliate. In that role, he developed and implemented strength & conditioning programs.

Joseph also worked as a weight room assistant with the New York Knicks, where his duties consisted of aiding in team practice, implementing the strength and conditioning program, implementing all prehab and corrective exercise protocols as directed. He also worked as a strength coach intern for the Brooklyn Nets in 2012.

He began his career as a strength coach volunteer at Long Island University Brooklyn while working on his master's degree. In his tenure at LIU Brooklyn, he facilitated all strength and conditioning workouts for the men's basketball team and developed and implemented strength and conditioning programs for the volleyball, men's and women's soccer programs.

A native of Brooklyn, N.Y., Joseph attended LIU Brooklyn, where he was a member of the men's basketball team and helped the school make consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances. Joseph's 2010-11 LIU Blackbirds were inducted into the school's Hall of Fame in 2024, as that team went 27-6 and won the Northeast Conference regular-season and tournament titles. Joseph received his Bachelor's in Sport Science and his Master's in Exercise Science in 2013.

EMMANUEL TOMMY

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Emmanuel Tommy is in his fourth season as Nebraska's Director of Player Development since joining the staff in July of 2022. In his role, Tommy assists with all facets in the day-to-day operation of the Husker program, including on-court coaching and individual player development, and helps create educational programming for basketball student-athletes.

During his tenure, the Huskers have won 20-plus games and reached postseason play in each of the past two seasons, winning both the Diamond Head Classic and College Basketball Crown during the 2024-25 season. Off the court, Nebraska has had every student athlete make the Tom Osborne Citizenship Team for their work in the community during his three years on staff. In 2022-23, the basketball program was a finalist for the Herman Men's GPA Award, which recognizes the highest team GPA on campus.

Tommy came to Nebraska from Alabama A&M, where he served as an assistant coach during the 2021-22 campaign. He helped the Bulldogs jump from four conference wins to a 10-8 mark and a fifth-place finish in 2021-22. Tommy assisted in the development of Jalen Johnson, who earned first-team All-SWAC honors in 2022.

Prior to joining the Bulldogs' staff, he worked on the administrative side in the Division I ranks at both McNeese State (2020-21) and South Alabama (2019-20). At McNeese, he was the Director of Basketball Operations, where he was responsible for daily operations, including road trip logistics, while assisting in opponent scouting and player personnel reports and overseeing the academic component of the program. At South Alabama, he served as the director of recruiting and assistant director of operations where he coordinated official and unofficial recruit visits and had a hand in scouting and player personnel reports and travel operations. He helped South Alabama recruit the best class in the Sun Belt Conference while helping USA go 20-11, the first 20-win season for the program since 2008-09.

Before moving up to the Division I level, Tommy worked at the high school, junior college and Division III ranks. In 2018-19, he was an assistant at Centre College, helping the Division III program to a 23-8 record and a Southern Athletic Association regular-season title in 2019. He was an assistant at Godwin Heights (Mich.) High School for six seasons, as the program went 158-12 in that time, winning seven conference, five district and four regional titles in addition to a 2015 Michigan Class B State Championship. While there he coached four AP and six Basketball Coaches Association of Michigan (BCAM) All-State selections, 20 all-conference honorees and a pair of Grand Rapids area Player of the Year choices. He also served a year as an assistant at Grand Rapids Community College, helping the school to an 18-11 and a Region VIIII Championship Game in 2014-15.

Tommy began his coaching career at Western Michigan as a graduate assistant and was part of back-to-back Mid-American Conference (MAC) West Division Champions in 2007-08 and 2008-09. While there he was responsible for day-to-day operations, assisting with on-court workouts, practices, scouting and video. He also helped in the development of future MAC Player of the Decade David Kool. Tommy also worked with several high-profile high school camps, including the John Calipari Basketball Camp (2017-18) and John Thompson III Basketball Camp (2016). Additionally, he worked at the AAU level with the Grand Rapid Storm (Mich.) from 2010-14 and had the opportunity to coach players such as current Phoenix Suns star Devin Booker.

Tommy earned his undergraduate degree in public relations in 2008 from Western Michigan and his master's in physical education & sports studies from WMU in 2010. He and his wife, Rachel, have a son, Jethro, and a daughter, Carmela.

MICHAEL BANIA

VIDEO COORDINATOR

Michael Bania is in his eighth year with Nebraska basketball and third as video coordinator after being promoted to the position in 2023. In his role, he oversees film breakdown and exchanges for the coaching staff, oversees opponent scouting, coordinates the program's digital catalog and is in charge of the Husker managers.

Bania was a student manager throughout his undergraduate career under Tim Miles and Fred Hoiberg before serving as a graduate manager in 2022-23. Bania, who was NU's head student manager for two years, worked with the video staff in game and practice video breakdowns, opponent scouting and coordinating NU's student managers.

The Issaquah, Wash., native received his degree in mathematics from Nebraska in 2022 and a master's degree in educational administration from Nebraska in 2024.

Michael and his wife, Danielle, reside in Lincoln.

JUSTIN MOORE

ANALYTICS COORDINATOR

Justin Moore is in his fifth year on the Husker basketball staff and first as analytics coordinator, as he was promoted to the position in June of 2025. In his role, Moore assists in the advanced scouting of opponents, including player and play summaries, creating and maintaining team playbooks, serving as the main contact for the NOAH shooting system and charting analytics in game. Moore works with General Manager Luca Virgilio in analyzing prospects, both at the high school level and in the transfer portal.

Moore served as a graduate manager for two seasons (2023-25), where he assisted the coaching staff with breaking down video, helping with practice, coordinating individual workouts, overseeing the student manager staff, assisting with on-campus visits and other day-to-day operations within the basketball program. Moore served as a team manager at Nebraska for two seasons (2021-23), helping in the day-to-day operations of the program, including practices and individual workouts.

The Englewood, Colo., native received his master's degree in educational administration in May of 2025 after earning an undergraduate degree in business administration from Nebraska in 2023.

BRADEN GRANT

GRADUATE MANAGER

Braden Grant is in his first season as a graduate manager for the Husker basketball program. Grant comes to Lincoln after playing collegiately at Wright State and Cedarville (Ohio). He spent his final two seasons at Wright State after joining the Raider program. He played four games in his final season in 2024-25, including against Kentucky in the season opener. His first season at Wright State was limited to just three games before suffering a season-ending injury. Grant also played two seasons at Cedarville University in Ohio.

Grant was a member of the NABC Honors Court in 2024 and graduated with a degree in financial services from Wright State in 2025. He is pursuing his master's degree in applied sciences at Nebraska. His father, Bob, was a longtime college administrator who served as Athletic Director at Wright State for 16 years.

CHARLIE HOIBERG

GRADUATE MANAGER

Charlie Hoiberg is in his first season as a graduate manager for the Husker basketball program. Hoiberg joined the staff after serving as a student manager at TCU under Head Coach Jamie Dixon for the past two years. In that role, he assisted the coaching staff with practice planning, game preparations, and film breakdown while also helping coordinate practice and game setup for the basketball program, as the Horned Frogs reached the 2024 NCAA Tournament. Hoiberg also served an internship with the Husker basketball program in the summer of 2024.

The twin brother of Husker redshirt senior Sam Hoiberg, Charlie Hoiberg was a Magna Cum Laude graduate of TCU in 2025, earning his degree in communication studies. He is working on a degree in educational administration/higher education at Nebraska. Charlie's older brother, Jack, currently works for the San Antonio Spurs organization.

SATCHEL STERN

GRADUATE MANAGER

Satchel Stern is in his second season as a graduate manager after joining the Nebraska men's basketball staff in January of 2025. Stern came to Lincoln after spending three-plus years working for Drew Hanlen's Pure Sweat, where he worked with Hanlen in training NBA players such as Zach Lavine, Jayson Tatum, Joel Embiid and Bradley Beal. Stern also conducted research on analytical models for company clients. Stern was also a trainee in the NBA League Office during the 2023-24 season, where he learned under NBA staff in the various components of the basketball operations staff and worked with events such as the NBA Combine and the NBA All-Star Game. He also previously served internships with the Detroit Pistons scouting department and with the Chicago Bulls.

He served as a student manager at Butler for four seasons, where he helped with various day-to-day operations, including assisting at practices, filming and coding and assisting the program's recruiting coordinator helping to analyze potential student athletes.

Stern graduated from Butler University with a degree in sports management in 2022 and is pursuing a masters's degree in applied science at Nebraska.

KEITH ZIMMER

EXECUTIVE ASSOCIATE AD - LIFE SKILLS

Keith Zimmer is in his 39th year at Nebraska, where he directs the Life Skills Department, serves as a Sport Administrator, and is a member of the Senior Leadership Team. Zimmer provides direct sport oversight and supervision to men's basketball and softball. He has represented Nebraska on various campus, conference, and NCAA committees.

After starting his Nebraska career in academic support, Zimmer pioneered Nebraska's award-winning Life Skills program which focuses on the total person development of all Husker student-athletes. Nebraska's comprehensive Life Skills program provides required life skills education from day one through graduation, career development, leadership, and community service opportunities, ultimately preparing student-athletes for life after graduation.

Nebraska Life Skills offers multiple leadership groups in which more than 100 student-athletes are selected annually to advance leadership skills, ensure student-athlete welfare, and improve marketability. Every Husker team has representation on the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC) which serves as the voice of the entire student-athlete population.

Community service continues to be a pillar of the Husker Life Skills department. In addition to team service projects and individual community requests, Life Skills directs Heroes, Link-N-Leaders, area hospital visits, extensive school outreach campaigns, and holiday outreach. In the spring of 2025, a record 433 Husker student-athletes earned a spot on the coveted Tom Osborne Citizenship Team recognizing their dedicated service.

During his Nebraska tenure, Zimmer has been selected as the Life Skills Administrator of-the-Year, Team Jack Teammate-of-the-Year, and a recipient of the Chancellor's Award for Exemplary Service. Zimmer is an honorary member of both Golden Key National Honor Society and Mortar board.

Zimmer earned his bachelor's degree from Wayne State College and master's in education from Springfield College (Mass.). He and his wife Michelle, have two sons, Logan and Caden.

Peterson leads a compliance staff of five members that ensure the conduct and operations of Nebraska's 24 athletic teams are in compliance with NCAA and Big Ten Conference rules and regulations. She also serves as the sport administrator for bowling and the secondary administrator for men's basketball.

A native of Omaha and a graduate of Burke High School, Peterson earned her bachelor's degree from the University of Nebraska-Lincoln in 2003. She continued her education by earning her juris doctorate from the Nebraska College of Law in 2006. She lives in Lincoln with her dog, Charlie.

ANDREW MCCABE

MEN'S BASKETBALL HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER

Andrew McCabe is in his third season as Nebraska's men's basketball athletic trainer. In his role, McCabe provides preventive care at practices and games as well as rehabilitation for injured student-athletes.

He came to Lincoln in 2023 after spending five seasons at Santa Clara University, including the final two years as Assistant Athletic Director of Sports Medicine. McCabe worked primarily with the men's basketball program and assisted the sports medicine department with both internal and external operations. McCabe also spent a stint at San José State University where he was responsible for the evaluation, care, and rehabilitation of athletic injuries for the football team.

McCabe brings a wealth of sports medicine experience across a diverse range of clinical settings. His work has included serving in roles as an exercise specialist with Olympic Physical Therapy in Bellevue, Wash. and as an athletic trainer/teacher at the high school level in the state of Texas. He has worked directly as the clinical coordinator with the team physician for the Texas Tech Red Raiders.

After his time in Texas, he moved to the Bay Area and joined Stanford Children's Orthopedic and Sports Medicine. While at Stanford, he provided patient care and collaborated on research projects. He co-authored an article entitled The Lower Extremity Grading System (LEGS) to Evaluate Baseline Lower Extremity Performance in High School Athletes, which was published in the International Journal of Sports Physical Therapy (Volume 13, Number 3, June 2018).

He earned his bachelor's degree in kinesiology from Trinity Western in 2007. As an undergraduate he was an athletic trainer for the men's soccer team. McCabe went on to earn a master's degree in athletic training from the Texas Tech University Health Sciences Center in 2011. While at Texas Tech he was an athletic training intern for the track & field and cross-country teams. He also completed internships with Sundown (Texas) High School, Monterey High School, the Seattle Mariners Minor League club, and Lubbock Sports Rehab.

A native of Maple Valley, Wash., he and his wife, Laura, have a son, August.

PAT NORRIS

EQUIPMENT MANAGER

Pat Norris is in his 22nd season as the equipment manager for the Husker men's basketball program and serves as the equipment manager for the Bob Devaney Sports Center and Hendricks Training Complex.

A member of the Athletic Equipment Managers Association, Norris is responsible for overseeing the day-to-day operations for equipment checkout and upkeep for five Husker athletic squads, including the men's basketball team. He worked in a similar position as a student from 1997 to 1999.

Before joining the Husker staff, Norris worked five years in Chicago. He was an installations billing coordinator at Hub Group Distribution Services and an account manager at SCR Companies.

Norris has three children Parker, Charlie and Maisy, and resides in Lincoln.

JAKE BLATTNER

PERFORMANCE NUTRITION COORDINATOR

Jake Blattner is in his eighth season as an Associate Registered Dietitian/Nutritionist for the Husker program and works extensively with the Nebraska men's basketball, men's & women's golf and women's bowling.

Prior to joining the Nebraska staff, he served as a Sports Dietitian at Florida State University for three years. At the school, he provided personalized medical and performance nutritional therapy and managed individual athlete cases. Blattner also developed individual nutritional performance plans, which educated athletes and optimized performance based on specific goals. He oversaw daily operations in FSU's Sports Nutrition unit.

Previously, Blattner served internships at Princeton University and BiPro-Agropur Ingredients and worked with the La Crosse Loggers in the Summer Collegiate Baseball League. Blattner earned his bachelor's degree in community and medical dietetics from Viterbo (Wis.) University in 2015 and his master's degree in exercise physiology in 2018.

MATT THOME

NAPL DIRECTOR

Matt Thome, MS, CSCS, is in his fourth year as Director of the Nebraska Athletic Performance Laboratory (NAPL) and fifth year in the Nebraska Athletic Department. In his role at Nebraska, Thome oversees the direction of the Applied Sport Science Team by working with coaching and performance staff members on the integration of sport technologies, training strategies and return-to-play processes to promote athlete development and health with the goal of optimizing performance.

Prior to joining the NAPL, he worked as a Sport Scientist for Olympic-level sprinters at ALTIS Training in Phoenix, Ariz. He was responsible for the organization of a monitoring framework for elite track and field sprinters. Thome managed daily monitoring data, conducting research in an applied sport setting as well as programing and coaching strength training in the 100-meters and 110-meter hurdles.

Thome worked as a Head Strength & Conditioning Coach and Lecturer at Michigan Tech from 2012 to 2018. He directed strength and conditioning programs for all 14 sports while also teaching within the Kinesiology and Integrative Physiology Department. He began his coaching career as an Assistant Strength & Conditioning Coach at the University of Richmond from 2011-12.

Thome earned a bachelor's degree in exercise science from Grand Valley State University in 2008, followed by a master's degree in exercise physiology from Indiana University in 2011. RODNEY BENNETT

UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA CHANCELLOR

Dr. Rodney D. Bennett serves as the 21st Chancellor of the University of Nebraska-Lincoln (UNL), a comprehensive public flagship, land-grant, Research 1 institution of approximately 24,000 students, with robust research and extension services throughout the state. UNL is accredited by the Higher Learning Commission, and its student-athletes compete at the NCAA Division I level in the Big Ten Conference.

Since his arrival on campus in July 2023, Dr. Bennett has led UNL in achieving increases in student enrollment and retention; ongoing growth in sponsored research awards; advancements in national rankings for academic excellence and student success; innovative research and academic program development; enhancements to shared governance processes; significant progress in fundraising and external outreach; investments to improve the quality of student life and the workplace environment for faculty and staff; and the implementation of changes to eliminate a historic budget deficit.

Prior to his tenure at UNL, Dr. Bennett served nearly ten years as President of The University of Southern Mississippi (USM), a comprehensive public research institution of approximately 14,000 students with campuses in South Mississippi and along the Mississippi Gulf Coast. Under his leadership, USM achieved R1 status; reached significant fundraising milestones; increased its annual economic impact; expanded operations along the Mississippi Gulf Coast; supported innovations in healthcare; invested in new faculty positions, student success programming, and capital improvements; and increased access to quality education and research programs. USM became one of only fourteen R1 institutions in the nation that compete at the NCAA Division I level and maintain accreditation in all four major areas of the Arts.

Dr. Bennett previously served more than a decade in senior level positions at the University of Georgia in Athens, where he chaired the institution's NCAA certification review and self-study process; completed more than $150 million in facilities projects; re-established the Dean of Students office after more than two decades; enhanced on-campus student health and counseling services; and managed oversight of robust student programs and support services for an enrollment of more than 34,000.

Throughout his career, Dr. Bennett has demonstrated a strong commitment to community leadership and service, including board membership for the Lincoln Chamber of Commerce; Nebraska Innovation Campus; Mississippi Aquarium; The First Bank (Hattiesburg); the Classic Center Cultural Foundation and Authority Board (Athens); the Northeast Georgia Girl Scouts of America; Catholic Health East (Philadelphia); and St. Mary's Health Care System (Athens). As USM President, Dr. Bennett chaired the athletic conference board and served as a founding member of the Board of Managers for the College Football Playoff national championship. He is a member of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, Inc., and Past Sire Archon for Sigma Pi Phi Fraternity, The Boulé.

Dr. Bennett holds a Doctor of Education in Educational Administration from Tennessee State University and specialist, master's, and bachelor's degrees from Middle Tennessee State University.

Dr. Bennett's wife, Temple, is a member of The Links, Inc., an international women's social and public service organization founded on the principles of friendship and service, and Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. She holds a Master of Business Education and a Bachelor of Business Administration from Middle Tennessee State University. The couple has two adult daughters, Colby and Logan.

* Interim Chancellor

The Board of Regents consists of eight voting members elected by district for six-year terms, and four non-voting student Regents, one from each campus, who serve during their tenure as student body president. The board supervises the general operations of the university, and the control and direction of all expenditures. The board also includes a corporation secretary who manages all records including agendas, minutes, notices, policies and bylaws. Those documents can be found on the web at nebraska.edu/board/.

The board meets regularly, primarily in Lincoln but also in Omaha and greater Nebraska. Persons wishing to provide information to the board or to appear before it should contact: Corporation Secretary, University of Nebraska, Varner Hall, 3835 Holdrege, Lincoln, NE 68583.

TROY DANNEN

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

An experienced leader in collegiate athletics with a strong Midwestern background, Troy Dannen is in his second year as Nebraska's Director of Athletics. Dannen guides Nebraska's 24-sport athletic department that ranks among the nation's most successful programs both athletically and academically.

Nebraska Athletics has enjoyed success since Dannen arrived in Lincoln in March of 2024. During the 2024-25 athletic year, five Husker teams finished in the top four nationally, including volleyball, wrestling, men's gymnastics and bowling. The volleyball program reached the Final Four, while the wrestling team posted its highest finish in school history with a national runner-up showing and had multiple national champions for the first time since 1984. The softball program won its first NCAA regional since 2014 while baseball repeated as Big Ten Tournament champions. Overall, Nebraska finished 21st in the final 2024-25 Learfield Director's Cup, the program's highest finish since 2010.

*-Interim Co-Directors

In the spring of 2024, the Husker baseball team won its first Big Ten tournament title, and the men's track team won the Big Ten Outdoor Championships. The men also had their best NCAA Championship showing since 2016 with a 13th-place finish. The women's track team posted their second straight top-10 NCAA finish and placed ninth at the national meet.

Dannen has long been a leader in charting the course for the future of college athletics and that continues at Nebraska. In May of 2025, Dannen was appointed to the College Football Playoff Selection Committee, continuing his impact on the national level. He served from 2021 to 2023 as a member of the NCAA Constitution Committee and the Division I Transformation Committee. He also previously served as chair of the NCAA Football Competition Committee and was an Executive Committee member of the Football Oversight Committee. In total, Dannen has served on seven NCAA committees. In 2022, Dannen was a finalist for Sports Business Journal's Athletic Director of the Year award, and he received the Distinguished American Award from the Sugar Bowl Chapter of the National Football Foundation.

Dannen came to Lincoln after serving as Director of Athletics at the University of Washington. He helped guide the Huskies' transition to the Big Ten Conference and oversaw a football program that reached the College Football Playoff National Championship Game in January of 2024.

He arrived at Washington in the fall of 2023 after serving as Director of Athletics at Tulane University since 2015. While at Tulane, Green Wave student-athletes earned 49 All-America honors, a national championship, 21 conference championships and 41 postseason appearances.

In 2022-23, Tulane football won its first American Athletic Conference football championship and won the Cotton Bowl over USC, which was ranked ninth in the nation at that time. The men's basketball program won 20 regular-season games for the first time in two decades. Additionally, men's tennis advanced to its sixth NCAA Tournament in seven years, both bowling and beach volleyball finished ranked in the top 20, and baseball won the conference championship.

Tulane's football program participated in an unprecedented three consecutive bowl games from 2018 to 2020, winning back-to-back bowl games for the first time in 128 years of football at the University. In the classroom, Tulane student-athletes excelled at a high-level. At the end of the 2022-23 academic year, over 68 percent of Green Wave student-athletes earned a 3.0 GPA or better, with a 93 percent Graduation Success Rate and a record-setting department Academic Progress Report of 992, with seven teams earning a perfect 1000 APR score.

Dannen spearheaded fundraising efforts and numerous capital projects at Tulane. He helped secure the largest unrestricted gift in Tulane Athletics history, an endowment gift that funded the operation of a new sport (sailing), and a $10 million lead gift for capital renovations, which was the second-largest gift in department history. In addition, marketing and licensing revenue grew four-fold, and in 2022-23, Tulane football, basketball and volleyball set ticket sales and revenue records. Under Dannen's leadership, the Green Wave Club Annual Fund grew by 40 percent in terms of donors, and 45 percent in terms of dollars.

Increases in fundraising and major gift donors positively impacted capital project development and completion. A $13 million renovation to the Reilly Natatorium, home of the swimming and diving program, as well as $8 million in renovations to locker rooms and the sports medicine area inside the Wilson Center were completed in 2023. Dannen also oversaw construction of a new dining facility, weight room, basketball and volleyball locker rooms. Tulane also completed a $2.4 million academic center renovation and a $5 million television and digital production center.

Dannen came to Tulane after serving eight years as the Director of Athletics at the University of Northern Iowa (UNI) from 2008 to 2015. During his tenure, the Panthers enjoyed success at both the conference and national levels, highlighted by an NCAA Sweet 16 appearance in 2010 by the UNI men's basketball team. During his eight-year tenure, UNI was recognized with 39 All-Americans, 13 Coaches of the Year and nine Missouri Valley Conference (MVC) Players of the Year. UNI football, men's basketball, women's basketball, volleyball and softball combined to reach 15 NCAA tournaments and 20 postseason berths during that stretch. For his efforts, Dannen was recognized as NACDA's FCS Athletic Director of the Year in 2014.

Prior to his time at UNI, Dannen served as the Iowa Girls High School Athletic Union's Executive Director for seven years, overseeing 400 high schools and 10 sports.

Dannen grew up on a farm just outside Marshalltown, Iowa, and graduated from UNI in 1989 with a degree in communications. He is married to Amy and has four children: Elizabeth, William, Emily and Holly.

THE BIG TEN CONFERENCE

Known as one of intercollegiate sports' most successful undertakings, the Big Ten Conference is home to a lineage of legendary names and an ongoing tradition of developing strong leaders. Even in its infancy, the conference established itself as the preeminent collection of institutions in the nation, where the pursuit of academic excellence prevailed as the definitive goal.

The history of the Big Ten traces back more than 125 years to the Palmer House hotel in Chicago where, on January 11, 1895, Purdue President James H. Smart and leaders from the University of Chicago, University of Illinois, University of Michigan, University of Minnesota, Northwestern University and University of Wisconsin set out to organize and develop principles for the regulation of intercollegiate athletics.

At that meeting, a blueprint for the administration of college athletics under the direction of appointed faculty representatives was outlined. The presidents' first known action "restricted eligibility for athletics to bona fide, full-time students who were not delinquent in their studies." That important legislation, along with other legislation that would follow in the coming years, served as the primary building block for intercollegiate athletics.

On February 8, 1896, one faculty member from each of those seven universities met at the same Palmer House and officially established the fundamentals of the conference, which was officially incorporated as the "Intercollegiate Conference Athletic Association" in 1905.

Indiana University and the State University of Iowa became the eighth and ninth members in 1899. In 1908, Michigan briefly withdrew its membership, and in 1912 Ohio State University joined the conference, bringing the membership total back to nine. Upon Michigan's return in 1917, the conference was first referred to as the "Big Ten" by media members, a name that was eventually incorporated in 1987.

As the 1900s dawned, faculty representatives established rules for intercollegiate athletics that were novel for the time. As early as 1904, the faculty approved legislation that required eligible athletes to meet entrance requirements and to have completed a full year's work, along with having one year of residence.

In 1901, the first Big Ten Championship event was staged when the outdoor track and field championships were conducted at the University of Chicago. The debut event marked what is now a staple of conference competition. Today, the Big Ten sponsors 28 official sports, 14 for men and 14 for women. Big Ten schools compete in a total of 42 different sports, furthering the conference's commitment to broad-based programming and providing more participation opportunities than any conference in the country.

One of the conference's proudest traditions began in 1902 when Michigan took on Stanford in the Rose Bowl, the nation's first bowl game. Big Ten teams only appeared in Pasadena twice before the conference signed an exclusive contract with the Tournament of Roses in 1946, making it the first bowl game with permanent conference affiliations. But Michigan's appearance in 1902 cultivated a relationship that has endured for more than a century.

Coupling the academic goals set forth by leaders of the charter members of the conference and their steadfast commitment to athletics, the conference instituted the Big Ten Medal of Honor in 1915, the first award to demonstrate support for the educational emphasis placed on intercollegiate athletics. It is awarded annually by each conference institution to one male and one female student of the graduating class who have attained the greatest proficiency in scholarship and athletics. For more than 100 years, it has been the most prestigious honor a Big Ten student-athlete can receive.

In 1922, Major John L. Griffith became the conference's first "Commissioner of Athletics." Griffith was the first of seven men to assume the role of commissioner in the conference's history, followed by Kenneth L. "Tug" Wilson in 1945, Bill Reed in 1961, Wayne Duke in 1971, Jim Delany in 1989, Kevin Warren in 2020, and current commissioner Tony Petitti in 2023.

After nearly 30 years with 10 members, the conference consolidated to nine schools when the University of Chicago formally withdrew its membership in 1946. Michigan State College (now Michigan State University) was added to the Big Ten three years later, bringing the number of affiliated conference schools to 10 once again.

In 1955, the Big Ten formulated a revenue-sharing model designed to pool all football television rights of its members and share those proceeds equally. The conference and its members continue to utilize a revenue-sharing model, dividing media rights, bowl payouts and other profits among all institutions.

While academics have always played an integral role in the conference, presidents of the Big Ten member institutions formalized the primacy of academics with the establishment of the Big Ten Academic Alliance (formerly the Committee on Institutional Cooperation) in 1958. The Big Ten Academic Alliance is an academic consortium of all Big Ten universities. Annually, the schools currently constituting the Big Ten Academic Alliance produce over $10 billion in funded research, doubling any other conference.

In one of Duke's first actions as commissioner, he oversaw the adoption of the Big Ten Advisory Commission in 1972, designed to study conference programs and make suggestions which would further Big Ten objectives. The Advisory Commission enlists former students that competed in Big Ten athletics to serve as liaisons to the NCAA's Diversity and Inclusion Department, the Big Ten Student-Athlete Advisory Commission and other organizations.

In 1981, the conference presidents and chancellors endorsed a proposal that enabled universities to affiliate their women's intercollegiate programs with the conference, and the first conference championships for women were staged that fall. The Big Ten was the first conference to voluntarily adopt male and female participation goals after launching its Gender Equity Action Plan in 1992.

In December of 1989, the conference agreed in principle to invite Pennsylvania State University for membership. On June 4, 1990, the Council of Presidents officially voted to integrate Penn State into the conference, giving the Big Ten 11 members.

In 2004, the Big Ten implemented a pilot program of instant replay for college football. Following the season, the conference forwarded replay proposals to the NCAA regarding the future use of the pioneering technology, where it approved country-wide testing in 2005. In 2006, the NCAA approved the use of instant replay for all conferences.

In 2006, Delany announced the creation of the first conference-owned television network, a 20-year agreement with FOX Networks to create the Big Ten Network (BTN). Launched on Aug. 30, 2007, BTN now produces more than 2,200 live events across all platforms each year. The 24/7 network is the ultimate destination for Big Ten fans and alumni across the country and around the world, allowing them to see their favorite teams, regardless of where they live.

On June 11, 2010, the Big Ten Council of Presidents/Chancellors (COP/C) approved a formal membership application by the University of Nebraska, expanding the conference to 12 institutions. Nebraska officially joined the Big Ten on July 1, 2011.

The conference expanded its footprint further in 2012 when the COP/C approved formal membership applications from the University of Maryland and Rutgers University on November 19 and 20, respectively. Maryland and Rutgers became official Big Ten members on July 1, 2014, giving the conference almost 9,500 students participating in intercollegiate athletics and more than 11,000 participation opportunities on 350 teams.

In recent years the Big Ten has worked to meet the educational needs of modern student-athletes to allow them to excel in all areas of their lives. In May of 2020, the conference announced the formation of the Big Ten Mental Health and Wellness Cabinet, featuring representation from all 14 member institutions, as well as sport affiliate members. The goal of the cabinet is to promote optimal mental health for Big Ten student-athletes through a comprehensive, systemic and interdisciplinary approach to establishing mental health programs, while also providing counsel, advice and expertise to the conference office.

In June of 2020 the conference launched the Big Ten Equality Coalition. This group, which features student-athletes, coaches, athletic directors, chancellors, presidents and other members of the Big Ten family from all 14 member institutions, has a stated goal of seeking tangible ways to actively and constructively combat racism and hate around the world, while also empowering student-athletes to express their rights to free speech and peaceful protest. One product of conversations emerging from the coalition was the creation of the Big Ten Voter Registration Initiative. This non-partisan, conference-wide collaboration encourages student-athletes to take part in the electoral process and is led by a Voter Registration Committee that includes representatives from all 18 Big Ten institutions. The Voter Registration Committee has partnered with the National Lawyers' Committee for Civil Rights Under Law to develop educational programming and outreach tools, and to collaborate with other established civic platforms.

On June 30, 2022, the Big Ten Conference furthered its legacy of transformation when the Big Ten Council of Presidents/Chancellors (COP/C) voted unanimously to admit the University of California, Los Angeles and the University of Southern California to the conference effective August 2, 2024. With the schools' admission, UCLA and USC also joined the Big Ten Academic Alliance (BTAA), a consortium of world-class research institutions dedicated to advancing their academic missions.

In July of 2022, the Big Ten traveled a delegation of student-athletes and administrators from its member institutions to Selma and Montgomery, Alabama, for an immersive experience entitled: "Big Life Series: Selma to Montgomery." The pilgrimage to one of the key centers of the civil rights movement was highlighted by a march across the Edmund Pettus Bridge in Selma, which is the site of the 1965 Bloody Sunday attack. The delegation also visited the Montgomery Interpretive Center on the campus of Alabama State University to learn more about the profound impact that students had on the civil rights movement, and the significance of the Knight vs. Alabama landmark trial which ended the segregation of funding in higher education across the State of Alabama. The experience was so transformational for all involved that the Big Ten returned to Selma and Montgomery in 2023 and 2024.

In April of 2023, the Big Ten announced that Petitti was selected as the conference's seventh commissioner. With nearly four decades of sports, business and media industry acumen, he served as deputy commissioner and chief operating officer of Major League Baseball and president and chief executive officer of MLB Network. A 14-time National Sports Emmy Award winner, Petitti also held senior executive roles at CBS Sports and ABC Sports overseeing rights acquisition deals for a variety of sports leagues and collegiate and professional sports events, including the NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament, regular season men's basketball, college football, NFL, PGA Tour, the Masters, U.S. Open Tennis Championships, and the Little League World Series, as well as leading in the creation of the Bowl Championship Series to determine college football's national champion.

On August 4, 2023, the Big Ten The Big Ten Council of Presidents/Chancellors voted unanimously to admit the University of Oregon and the University of Washington to the conference effective August 2, 2024. Competition began in all sports for the 2024-25 academic year. With the schools' admission, Oregon and Washington joined the Big Ten Academic Alliance (BTAA), a consortium of world-class research institutions dedicated to advancing their academic missions.

SERIES RESULTS VS. NON-CONFERENCE OPPONENTS

Jason Dourisseau was a two-year starter for the Huskers and helped the Huskers to a pair of NIT appearances during his career.

Walter Pitchford helped the Huskers to 19 wins and a berth in the 2014 NCAA Tournament, the school's first since 1998.

Isaac Copeland helped Nebraska to consecutive postseason appearances in 2018 and 2019.

Ryan Anderson became the first Husker to score 1,000 points, grab 500 rebounds and hit 150 3-pointers in his collegiate career.

Mikki Moore ranks second in school history with 236 blocked shots. Moore also has three of the top-eight single-season totals in school history.

Shavon Shields was a two-time All-Big Ten selection in his career and finished fifth on NU's career scoring chart.

Bruce Chubick is one of only two players in school history to play in four straight NCAA Tournaments as a Husker.

WILLIAMS

Behind "King of the Crown" Juwan Gary, Nebraka won the first-ever College Basketball Crown, defeating Arizona State, Georgetown, Boise State and UCF in Las Vegas.

HUSKERS ARE KINGS OF THE CROWN

The Nebraska men's basketball program capped a 21-win campaign by winning the inaugural College Basketball Crown in Las Vegas. The Huskers completed a 4-0 performance with a 77-66 win over UCF in the title game on April 6, 2025.

Nebraska went 21-14 on the season, reaching the 20-win mark for the second straight season. It marked the first time Nebraska had won 20-or-more games in consecutive seasons since 1997-98 and 1998-99, as Nebraska's 44 wins over the last two seasons marked the second-highest two-year total in program history.

The Huskers showed their resolve in the title game vs. UCF battling back from a 14-point deficit with just under 15 minutes remaining. Juwan Gary led the comeback, scoring nine of his 20 points in an 11-0 spurt to pull the Huskers within 49-46 with 12:19 left. Trailing 52-46, Nebraska regained the lead for good with 13 unanswered points, including a trio of 3-pointers from Connor Essegian, to stake the Huskers to a 59-52 lead with just under 7:30 remaining. The Huskers held UCF to 35 percent shooting in the second half, including just 7-of-27 over the last 14:30 of the contest.

Brice Williams and Essegian led the Huskers with 21 points apiece in the title game, while Gary added 20 points and eight rebounds, as Nebraska had three players finish with 20-plus points in a game for the first time since 2019. The Huskers shot 54 percent from the field in the second half and totaled 20 assists, including a career-high seven from Sam Hoiberg.

Gary was selected as "King of the Crown" as he averaged 19.0 points and 8.0 rebounds per game, as the senior had two 20-point games as well as a double-double in the win over Georgetown. Williams averaged a team-high 23.3 ppg on 50 percent shooting, including 30 points against Arizona State, to join Gary on the all-tournament team.

HUSKERS POST BACK-TO-BACK 20-WIN SEASONS

• Nebraska finished with 21 wins on the season, a total which tied for seventh on the Huskers' single-season list. It marked the 15th 20-win season in program history and second straight under Fred Hoiberg.

• Nebraska has now posted consecutive 20-win seasons for the third time in school history and the first since the late 1990s. Fred Hoiberg joins Danny Nee (2x) as the only Husker men's basketball coaches in school history to accomplish the feat.

• NU has 44 wins over the past two seasons, which is the second-highest consecutive two-year total in program history. NU won 45 games spanning the 1990-91 and 1991-92 seasons.

• With a 21-14 record, Nebraska finished with a .500 or better record for the third straight season. It would mark the first time that has happened at Nebraska since a six-year stretch spanning the 2003-04 to 2008-09 seasons.

WILLIAMS IS HUSKERS' SCORING SENSATION

Brice Williams put together one of the best senior seasons in school history in 2024-25. The 6-foot-7 senior became the first Husker since 2018 to be a first-team All-Big Ten pick and earn first-team all-district honors and closed his career with Nebraska's single-season scoring mark.

Nebraska's Diamond Head Classic title was the Huskers' first MTE event title since 2000. Nebraska downed Oregon State, 78-66, behind 25 points and seven rebounds from Brice Williams in the title game.

• Williams finished with 713 points, breaking the record of 708 set by James Palmer in 2018-19. Williams took the scoring crown with a 21-point effort against UCF in the title game of the College Basketball Crown.

• Williams totaled four 30-point games, highlighted by a school-record 43-point effort at Ohio State on March 4, were the most by a Husker since Dave Hoppen in 1984-85. WIlliams' 43-point effort against Ohio State was the highest-scoring effort in the Big Ten in 2024-25 and the second-highest total by any power conference player during the 2024-25 season.

• Williams finished the year with 20 games of at least 20 points, a total which led the Big Ten Conference and was the most by a Husker since Dave Hoppen set the school mark with 21 in 1984-85.

• Williams' 20.4 ppg marked just the eighth time in program history a player averaged at least 20.0 points per game and the first since Tyronn Lue (21.2) in 1997-97.

• His 20.4 ppg average is the highest by any player in Fred Hoiberg's 11-year college coaching career.

• During his two-year Husker career, Williams totaled 1,168 points to finish 22nd on NU's career scoring list. He is one of just four Huskers to reach the 1,000-point mark in two seasons, joining Dave Hoppen, Terran Petteway and James Palmer Jr.

WILLIAMS CLAIMS BIG TEN SCORING CROWN

In addition to his marks on Nebraska's record books, Williams also made his mark in the Big Ten, a conference which saw eight teams reach the NCAA Tournament and 10 teams advance to postseason play.

• Williams averaged 20.7 ppg in Big Ten play, becoming the first Husker since the 2014-15 season to lead the Big Ten in scoring. It was the highest average by a Husker in conference play since Tyronn Lue averaged 21.8 ppg in 1997-98.

• His 414 points in Big Ten play was the most by a Husker in conference play. The previous mark was 372 by James Palmer Jr. in 2018-19.

• He became the sixth Husker to lead the conference in scoring in conference play going back to the 1912-13 season.

Juwan Gary averaged 19.0 points and 8.0 rebounds per game in the College Basketball Crown.

Brice Williams had four 30-point games in 2024-25, including a school-record 43 points at Ohio State.

GARY'S CROWNING MOMENT

For Juwan Gary, the College Basketball Crown MVP honor was fitting for the senior's performance down the stretch. Gary averaged a career-best 14.6 points per game while adding 5.1 rebounds and 1.2 steals per game during his senior year. He also enjoyed career bests from 3-point range (.339) and from the foul line (.800).

• He led NU in blocked shots, finished second on the team in scoring, rebounding and steals.

• Gary was named "King of the Crown" as he averaged 19.0 points on 52 percent shooting and 8.0 rebounds per game in four games. Gary had four 20-point efforts with 21 points and nine rebounds in the semifinal win over Boise State and 20 points and eight caroms against UCF in the title game. He also added a double-double with 17 point and 10 rebounds against Georgetown.

• Gary averaged 18.1 ppg on nearly 50 percent shooting over the Huskers' final 14 games. More impressively, he shot 44 percent from 3-point range in that stretch, including a 4-of-4 effort vs. Boise State.

• He closed his career with seven straight double-figure efforts, including five of his 13 career 20-point games. He finished his Husker career with 996 points to rank 33rd on NU's career chart.

ESSEGIAN FLOURISHES AS SIXTH MAN

Connor Essegian has proved to be an impact transfer for the Huskers. The 6-foot-4 guard averaged 10.7 points per game on 41 percent shooting while pacing the Huskers with 78 3-pointers.

• Essegian was second in the Big Ten among reserves, as he was one of three Big Ten players to average double figures while starting 10 or fewer games.

• He finished ninth in the Big Ten in 3-pointers per game (2.2/gm) and 11th in 3-point percentage (.377).

• Essegian finished tied for sixth on NU's single-season 3-point list with 78, the most by a Husker since Glynn Watson Jr. had 82 in 2019.

• His fifth 20-point game of the season came in the title game of the College Basketball Crown against UCF, when he had 21 points, including nine points in a 13-0 second-half run. He also shined in the win over Arizona State, scoring all 17 of his points on 7-of-7 shooting in the second half.

• Essegian scored a career-high 29 points off the bench in NU's win over South Dakota on Nov. 27. In that game, he set personal highs in points (29), assists (five) and 3-pointers (six).

• His 29-point performance was the highest-scoring effort by a Husker reserve in the last 50+ seasons. Over the last 30 years, only two Husker reserves (Jamel White vs. Missouri, 1/28/06; Erick Strickland vs. Missouri, 1/30/93) had scored 28 points off the bench.

NOTING THE 2024-25 SEASON

• Nebraska went 4-4 against ranked opponents in 2024-25, as the four wins over ranked teams tied a school record done three other times in school history.

• Nebraska finished the season averaging 76.0 points per game, marking the second-highest average since joining the Big Ten in 2011-12. NU's three highest-scoring averages have come in the last four seasons under Fred Hoiberg.

• Nebraska posted four double-figure comebacks during the 2024-25 season, which is the most by a Husker team in at least 30 seasons. During the College Basketball Crown, NU overcame an 11-point deficit against Arizona State in the opener and a 14-point second-half deficit against UCF in the title game. Earlier this year, NU overcame a 20-point second-half deficit to win at Northwestern on Feb. 16.

• Nebraska has had eight games this season with multiple 20-point scorers, including a trio of 20-point scorers in the CBC title game against UCF. In that game, Brice Williams and Connor Essegian had 21 points apiece, while Juwan Gary added 20 markers.

• As a team, Nebraska shot 74.9 percent from the foul line on the season, which tied for the fifth-highest percentage in school history. NU's 541 free throws made this season tied for fourth in school history.

• Nebraska's 2024 Diamond Head Classic title marked the program's first MTE event title since the 2000 San Juan Shootout. With the win, Nebraska Coach Fred Hoiberg became the first coach to win multiple Diamond Head Classic titles, as he coached Iowa State to the 2013 championship.

• NU went 10-1 in non-conference action, only the seventh time since WWII that NU finished its non-con slate with one loss.

CAREER RECAP

Juwan Gary was a three-year starter for the Huskers, helping Nebraska to consecutive 20-win seasons and postseason appearances in both 2023-24 and 2024-25. The 6-foot-6 forward enjoyed a strong senior season, averaging a career-best 14.6 points and 5.1 rebounds per game. He topped the Huskers in blocked shots and finished second on the team in scoring, rebounding and steals per game, while setting career bests in 3-point percentage and free throw percentage. Gary closed his college career by being named the College Basketball Crown MVP, as he averaged 19.0 points and 8.0 rebounds to lead Nebraska to the CBC title. He had a pair of 20-point efforts in the event, including 21 points and nine rebounds in the semifinal win over Boise State and 20 points and eight caroms against UCF in the title game. In all, Gary had 10 games of at least 20 points as a senior, including a career-high 27-point outing against USC. As a junior, he was instrumental in helping Nebraska to 23 wins and the school's first NCAA appearance since 2014, as he averaged 11.6 points and 6.1 rebounds per game. He had five double-doubles that season, including a 13-point, 18-rebound effort in a win at Kansas State. Gary, who started 17 games before suffering a season-ending shoulder injury in 2022-23, totaled 996 points and 460 rebounds in three seasons as a Husker and totaled 1,299 career points which included two seasons at Alabama.

CAREER RECAP

Brice Williams spent two seasons as a Husker guiding Nebraska to consecutive postseason appearances in 2024-25. Last season, Williams put together one of the best seasons in program history in 2024-25, as he averaged 20.4 points, 4.1 rebounds and 2.9 assists per game in leading Nebraska to a 21-14 record and the first-ever College Basketball Crown championship. A first-team All-Big Ten and all-district honoree, Williams' 20.4 points per game was the highest average by a Husker since Tyronn Lue in 1997-98 and just the eighth time in school history a Husker had averaged 20 points per game. Williams had four 30-point games, including a school-record 43-point performance at Ohio State. His 713 points broke NU's single-season scoring mark, while he also finished in the top five on single-season charts in free throws made (189, second), free throw percentage (.883, fourth), free throw attempts (214, fifth) and minutes played (1,192, fourth). In 2023-24, he helped the Huskers to their first NCAA Tournament appearance since 2014, averaging 13.4 points 5.5 rebounds and 2.5 assists per game. He finished his two-year Husker career with 1,168 points and totaled 1,969 career points including his three seasons at Charlotte.

Opened on Aug. 29, 2013, Pinnacle Bank Arena is the home of the Nebraska men's and women's basketball programs. Located in the Haymarket District in downtown Lincoln, Pinnacle Bank Arena has a basketball capacity of 15,000 and has become one of the premier concert destinations in the Midwest. Since its opening, it has hosted concerts ranging from Jay-Z, Paul McCartney, Morgan Wallen, Kendrick Lamar, Elton John, Jason Aldean, Katy Perry, The Eagles, George Strait, Zach Bryan, P!NK, and Michael Bublé.

Pinnacle Bank Arena was a nominee for best New Major Concert Venue by Pollstar Magazine, one of five facilities in the world chosen for the honor. In April of 2014, the facility was chosen as the Best Arena in College Basketball by Athletic Business, a magazine source for athletic, fitness and recreation professionals.

The 470,400-square feet arena was created with basketball in mind. The facility features a split upper concourse, allowing fans to be closer to the floor than in a typical arena. Pinnacle Bank Arena also features expansive premium seating with 36 suites, 20 loge boxes and over 800 club seats in addition to courtside seating. Other arena amenities include free wi-fi, Mitsubishi video board which is 32 feet tall and 37 1/2 feet wide, 900 feet of ribbon boards around the arena bowl and retractable seating to allow an intimate environment on game days as well as over 160 concession points of sale. The arena also features an expansive student section with 1,000 seats on the 100 Level, including behind both team benches.

The $179-million dollar arena is easily accessible in downtown Lincoln as nearly 5,100 parking stalls are within walking distance of the facility, including three parking garages and the Festival Space to the north of Pinnacle Bank Arena. Pinnacle Bank Arena is part of a $344 million project in the Haymarket District in downtown Lincoln which also includes a 200-room hotel, 100,000 square feet of retail space, another 100,000 square feet of office space and 100 residential units.

Mikki Moore led Nebraska to the 1996 NIT championship game, where the Huskers defeated St. Joseph's, 60-56, to earn their first-ever basketball title on the national level.

Cookie Belcher shares the school record with six steals in a postseason game. He accomplished the feat on three occasions as a Husker.

HISTORY OF NEBRASKA BASKETBALL

By Mike Babcock

As near as anyone can determine, the University of Nebraska was first represented by a men's basketball team on Feb. 2, 1897, just six years after Dr. James A. Naismith set down the rules of the game at the International YMCA Training School in Springfield, Mass.

A team from the Lincoln YMCA was the opponent, and Nebraska posted an 11-8 victory at Grant Memorial Hall, the home of the Huskers for all but two seasons until the Coliseum opened in 1926. The same teams played in Grant Hall three weeks later with a similar result, as NU won 23-14. Nebraska had to rally in the second game. The Hesperian, a student newspaper, reported: "At the end of the first half the score stood 9 to 6 in favor of the visitors but during the second half our boys took a brace and some excellent work was done.''

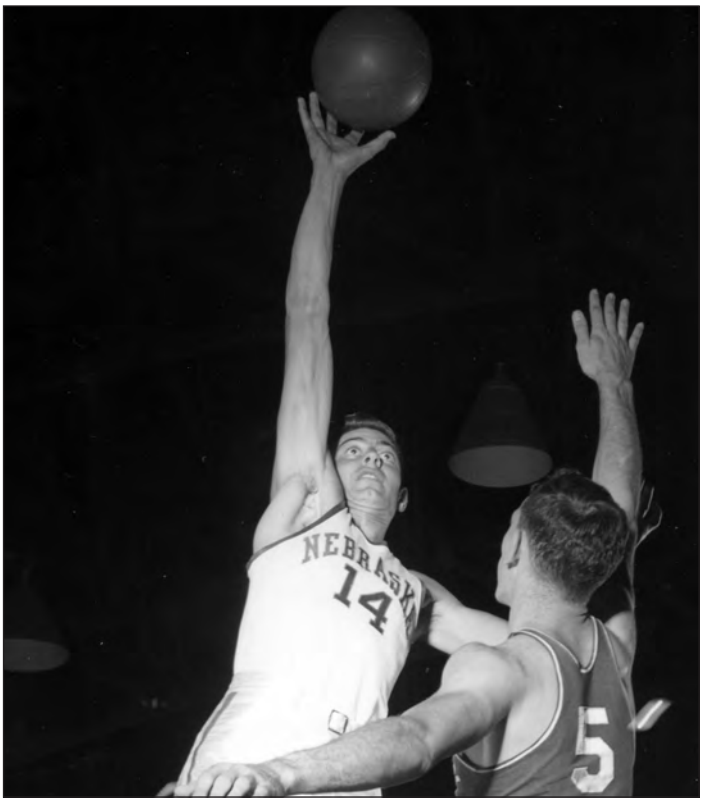
Such was the modest beginning of a program that has enjoyed its greatest success since 1980. In that span, NU has earned a 684-569 record and 22 postseason appearances, including seven NCAA Tournaments, while adding a Phillips 66 Big Eight Tournament title in 1994 and the 1996 National Invitation Tournament championship.

Nebraska doubled its schedule in 1898, losing twice to the Lincoln YMCA and splitting two games with the Omaha YMCA. A 16-12 loss against the Omaha YMCA provided evidence as to why Nebraska finished 1-3 that season. According to The Hesperian account: "The great difficulty of the University team was mere recklessness. Our boys have been playing with a loose interpretation of the rules. The officials were strict and of course the resulting advantage was in favor of Omaha.'' Then as now, overly aggressive play had its drawbacks.

Nebraska played teams from other universities for the first time in 1899, winning two games against Nebraska Wesleyan and one against Doane en route to the unofficial state championship. The next season, Nebraska played an out-of-state opponent for the first time, defeating the University of Kansas, 48-8, at Lincoln. That game still ranks as the worst loss for a Jayhawk team and was the first for either school against a present-day NCAA Division I school.

The Kansas team was coached by Dr. Naismith. The Nebraska student yearbook, Sombrero, wrote: "A closely contested game was looked for. The Jayhawkers were, however, completely outclassed, the score being 48-8.'' Based on the victory against Kansas and four other similarly decisive victories, "the basketball team for this year was undoubtedly superior to any in the west,'' the Sombrero concluded. It would be several years before such a claim could be made again.

Nebraska hired its first full-time coach in 1911. E.O. "Jumbo'' Stiehm, who scored 24 points against Nebraska as a Wisconsin basketball player in 1908, coached both football and basketball. His first Husker basketball team won 14 of 15 games, its only loss coming at Minnesota, 40-15. The student newspaper, The Daily Nebraskan, blamed the loss on Nebraska's inability to adjust to the Gophers' "100-foot floor.''



Bus Whitehead was a two-time All-Big Seven selection in 1949 and 1950. The court at the Hendricks Training Complex is named after Whitehead, who passed away in 2010.

A Daily Nebraskan account of Nebraska's 29-28 season-ending victory against Kansas at Lincoln in 1912 provides evidence that some fans' behavior hasn't changed much over the years.

"The game as a whole was entirely unsatisfactory, being marred by rough tactics of the visitors, incompetent work on the part of the referee and interruptions by the audience, which were in part justifiable.''

Nebraska shared the Missouri Valley Conference championship with Kansas in 1912 and 1914 and won the title outright in 1913 under Stiehm's leadership. The 1913-14 team was "so fast it took a movie camera to catch 'em,'' according to the Cornhusker student yearbook. It was described as a "point-a-minute'' team, which wasn't quite accurate. Typically, games lasted 40 minutes (though that wasn't always the case), and Nebraska averaged 30 points per game. Guard Sam Carrier became Nebraska's first All-America basketball player in 1913. He and Carl Underwood led the Huskers to 17 victories in 19 games. Underwood was the Missouri Valley Conference scoring leader with 66 points in 10 conference games.

Nebraska won another conference title outright in 1916, after Sam Waugh replaced Stiehm as the Cornhuskers' coach for one season. Stiehm, who coached the first game of the season before giving way to Waugh, had planned to remain at Nebraska through the basketball season before leaving to become coach and athletic director at Wisconsin. But the Nebraska Athletic Board decided to replace him.

Waugh was succeeded by E.J. "Doc'' Stewart, whose three Cornhusker teams had a combined record of 29-23. Nebraska was 22-2 in 1919-20 and 11-3 in 1920-21 under Coach P.J. Schissler. After the 1919-20 season, Schissler challenged the University of Chicago to a game, but to no avail. The Cornhuskers also were invited to a postseason AAU tournament in Atlanta but didn't go.

Schissler's teams played as independents. Nebraska lost its affiliation with the Missouri Valley Conference because of a decision to play a football game against Oklahoma in Omaha in 1919. Conference rules prohibited such games (Oklahoma had not yet joined the Missouri Valley Conference). Nebraska returned to the Missouri Valley Conference in 1921, and Owen Frank replaced Schissler as basketball coach. The remainder of the Roaring 1920s was, for the most part, undistinguished.

Basketball was rough and tumble. There was a center jump after every basket and no requirement to cross mid-court in 10 seconds or less. The ball was a lot different, too, more like a medicine ball, which contributed to some dull games.

The most significant event during the 1920s was the building of the Coliseum, which was dedicated on Feb. 6, 1926. The Cornhuskers dropped a 25-14 decision to Kansas in the first game at their new home, which was built at a cost of $445,000 and seated 8,000 for basketball. Prior to that, Nebraska played most of its home games in Grant Hall, which seated about a fourth as many fans as the Coliseum and was located just to the north of where the Sheldon Art Gallery now stands.

Athletic Director Fred Leuhring arranged for Nebraska to play its home basketball games at the State Fairgrounds Coliseum in 1921, in order to accommodate more spectators. The Cornhuskers played two seasons at the Fairgrounds Coliseum, which had a wider court than Grant Hall.

The first game there was played on Jan. 14, 1921. Nebraska defeated conference opponent Grinnell 31-10 before an audience of 1,500, according to newspaper estimates. After two seasons, the Cornhuskers returned to Grant Hall, which had been remodeled, and continued to play home games there until the NU Coliseum opened.

Nebraska ended the decade with an 11-5 season under Charles T. Black, a former Kansas All-American in 1928-29. In the next 19 seasons, the Huskers had just two winning records, back-to-back campaigns under Coach W.H. Browne in 1935-36 and 1936-37. The 1937 team tied Kansas for the Big Six championship, after finishing second to the Jayhawks in 1936.

The 1930s produced four more Cornhusker All-Americans: center Don Maclay in 1931, guard Steve Hokuf in 1933, guard George Wahlquist in 1936 and guard Robert Parsons in 1937. Maclay was the Big Six scoring leader in 1930, scoring 112 points in 10 league games.

Harry Good was hired as head coach in 1946 and after two losing seasons, turned Nebraska's fortunes around. In 1948-49, Good's Huskers went 16-10, tied Oklahoma for the Big Seven regular-season championship and defeated the Sooners, 57-56, in a conference playoff to qualify for an NCAA playoff game. The NCAA Tournament was structured differently then, and the Cornhuskers needed to win that playoff to advance into the NCAA field. They lost to Oklahoma A&M, the Missouri Valley Conference champion, 52-35, at Kansas City, Mo. Coach Henry P. Iba's Aggies went on to finish second to Kentucky, coached by Adolph Rupp, in the NCAA Tournament.

In 1949-50, Nebraska again won 16 games and shared the Big Seven crown with Kansas and Kansas State. That marks the last time the conference had a three-way tie at the top. "We were King in our day,'' Claude Retherford once told a newspaper reporter. "They were firing football coaches left and right, but we packed 'em in. Oh, people were interested in football, but basketball was THE game on the Nebraska campus when we played.'' Retherford earned All-Big Seven recognition in 1949 after leading the conference in scoring with a 12.4 points-per-game average.

Claude Retherford was the leading scorer on NU's 1949 Big Seven Championship team.

The Cornhuskers had another first-team All-Big Seven performer in 1949, Milton "Bus'' Whitehead. The 6-10 center from Scottsbluff, Neb., also earned all-conference honors in 1950, when he averaged a then-school-record 15.7 points per game. Whitehead was named to the District V All-America team by Collier's Magazine. Whitehead also was the first Cornhusker selected to play in the East-West All-Star Game in New York City's Madison Square Garden. When he graduated, Whitehead held nine school scoring records.

Nebraska basketball experienced another drought beginning in 1950-51, with 15 consecutive losing seasons. Despite playing for a team that finished last in the Big Seven in 1952, Husker guard Jim Buchanan earned All-America and all-conference honors. And even though the late Jerry Bush, dubbed the "Big Bear of the Coliseum,'' never produced a winning team in his nine seasons as head coach at Nebraska, his colorful personality and uncanny ability to fashion upsets kept Cornhusker fans entertained.

The most dramatic upset during Bush's tenure as coach came on Feb. 22, 1958, against Kansas. The Jayhawks featured 7-foot center Wilt Chamberlain and were ranked fourth in the nation when they came to Lincoln. Earlier in the season, the Jayhawks had defeated the Huskers, 102-46, at Lawrence, Kan., with Chamberlain matching Nebraska by scoring 46 points. Nebraska scored a 43-41 victory in the rematch, when 5-9 guard Jim Kubacki hit a 15-foot jump shot with two seconds remaining.

But that's only part of the drama. Kubacki, a senior from Toledo, Ohio, spent all but the final 6:53 of the game sitting on the bench in street clothes, forced there by a knee injury and the kind of fate from which legends are built. When the Cornhuskers' captain, Gary Reimers, left the game with leg cramps, Kubacki convinced Bush to let him suit up. Four minutes and seven seconds later, Kubacki went into the game. Two minutes and 44 seconds after that, he hit the winning shot.

Bush also had the distinction of coaching the school's first 1,000-point scorer, guard Herschell Turner, who came from Indianapolis, Ind., where he was rated the second-best high school player in the state as a senior, behind only crosstown-rival Oscar Robertson. Turner earned All-America honors in 1959 and followed with All-Big Eight honors in 1960 and ended his Cornhusker career with 1,056 points.

Following the 1962-63 season, Bush was replaced as head coach by Joe Cipriano, who brought the nickname "Slippery Joe'' and up-tempo basketball to the Coliseum. His teams pressed full-court and ran a fast-break offense, which led the Big Eight in scoring average in 1966, 1967 and 1968.

Cipriano's first two teams had a combined record of 17-33. But his third team, in 1965-66, was one of the most successful in school history, finishing 20-5 and second to Kansas in the Big Eight. All-Big Eight guard Grant Simmons, the first Cornhusker to earn academic All-Big Eight honors, was the team's leader.

The 1966-67 team finished 16-9 and made the school's first appearance in the 16-team National Invitation Tournament, played at New York City's Madison Square Garden. Guard Stu Lantz was a two-time All-Big Eight pick and led the Cornhuskers in scoring and rebounding in both 1966-67 and 1967-68.

Guard Marvin Stewart and center Chuck Jura earned All-Big Eight honors for Cipriano in 1971 and 1972, respectively. Guard Jerry Fort, who finished his career with a then-school-record 1,882 points, was the first Nebraska player chosen first-team all-conference three times, from 1974 through 1976. With Fort's leadership, Nebraska began a string of 14 winning seasons.

In the fall of 1976, Cornhusker basketball moved out of the Coliseum and into the state-of-the-art Bob Devaney Sports Center. Located on the State Fairgrounds, the $13 million athletic complex was financed by a special cigarette tax.

Cipriano coached Nebraska to another 20-victory season in 1977-78. The Cornhuskers, led by All-Big Eight guard Brian Banks, finished with a 22-8 record and advanced to the second round of the NIT. Despite failing health – a battle against cancer that he finally lost – Cipriano shared coaching duties with his assistant, Moe Iba, in 1979-80, and took Nebraska to the NIT again. For their efforts, the duo shared United Press International Big Eight Coach-of-the-Year honors.

Cipriano brought Nebraska into the modern era, coaching 17 seasons and 450 games. His record was 253-197, and those 253 victories represent nearly one-sixth of Nebraska's all-time total. Following Cipriano's death, Iba was named head coach, and he continued Cipriano's winning ways. In Iba's six seasons on the bench, Nebraska was 106-71 and advanced to postseason play four times.

Center Andre Smith was the 1981 Big Eight MVP and twice earned All-Big Eight honors. However, it was the late Jack Moore, a 5-10 playmaker from Muncie, Ind., who captured the hearts of Nebraska fans from 1980 through 1982. Moore earned All-Big Eight honors in 1982, when he won the Naismith Award, given annually to the nation's top player under 6-feet tall. The first three-time academic All-Big Eight pick in Nebraska history, Moore scored 1,204 points and hit .901 from the free throw line during his career.

The cornerstone of Iba's teams from 1983 through 1986 was Omaha, Neb., native Dave Hoppen, a three-time All-Big Eight center and the first Nebraska basketball player to have his jersey number (42) retired by the school. In 1982-83, Hoppen's freshman season, the Cornhuskers were 22-10 and won three games in the NIT before losing to DePaul in the semifinals at Madison Square Garden. The Cornhuskers returned to the NIT each of the next two seasons, advancing to the second round both times.

Hoppen's college career, though, was ended by a knee injury he sustained in a game at Colorado on Feb. 1, 1986. He finished as the school's all-time scoring leader with 2,167 points and broke or tied 19 school records during his four-year stay. After Hoppen's injury,

Andre Smith was the Big Eight Player of the Year for Nebraska in 1981.

Iba's team regrouped and went on to earn the school's first-ever "official'' NCAA Tournament berth. Nebraska lost to Western Kentucky in the first round of the Southeast Regional, 67-59. Following the game, Iba announced his resignation.

On March 27, 1986, Danny Nee was officially introduced as Nebraska's 24th basketball coach. During a news conference to announce his hiring, Nee said a "new era" in Cornhusker basketball was beginning.

Nee's 14 teams appeared in postseason play 11 times and topped the 20-victory mark in seven seasons. In his first season, Nebraska was 21-12 and finished third in the NIT.

After a 13-18 record in his second season, the Cornhuskers got back over the .500 mark with a 17-16 record in 1988-89 and advanced to the second round of the NIT.

Nebraska missed the school single-season record for losses by one in 1989-90 (10-18), then won a school-record 26 games, with only eight losses, in 1990-91. The Cornhuskers reached the Big Eight Tournament championship game for the first time and advanced to the NCAA Tournament, losing to Xavier 89-84 in the first round of the regionals at Minneapolis, Minn.

The 1990-91 team included two first-round NBA draft picks, senior Rich King and redshirt freshman Eric Piatkowski. The 7-2 King was the tallest player in Cornhusker history.

Piatkowski, Nebraska's sixth-man in 1990-91, went on to win first-team all-conference honors twice. He ranks second on the Cornhuskers' career-scoring list with 1,934 points, and he is the only Nebraska player to finish with at least 1,900 points, 600 rebounds (669) and 300 assists (322). In 2006, Piatkowski became the third Husker, joining Hoppen and Stu Lantz (No. 22), to have his jersey number (52) retired.

Three more NCAA Tournament appearances followed the record-shattering 1991 season. In 1992-93, the Huskers registered their highest league finish under Nee by tying for second in the Big Eight.

In addition to reaching the NCAA Tournament for a fourth consecutive season and recording back-to-back 20-victory seasons for the first time in school history, Nee's 1993-94 team made history by winning the school's first Phillips 66 Big Eight Tournament title. The Cornhuskers defeated Oklahoma, Missouri and Oklahoma State, in that order, to earn the tournament championship.

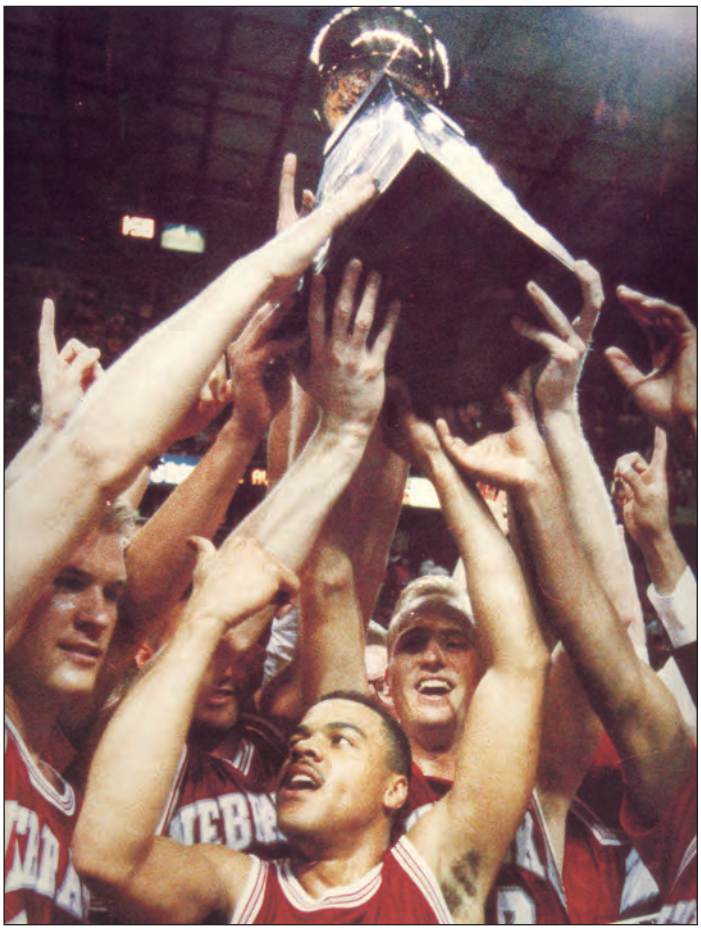
Nebraska's NCAA Tournament run ended at four in 1994-95, but the Huskers kept their postseason streak alive with an NIT berth, advancing to the second round. The 1995-96 team struggled down the stretch but was back in the NIT and capped its season with a run to the tournament title.

The Huskers won two games on the road and scored more than 80 points in four of their five postseason games. They finished with a 60-56 victory against St. Joseph's at Madison Square Garden.

"The NIT run was incredible when you look at the teams we beat and how we beat them," Nee said after the remarkable run. "I don't care what anybody says, it was domination."

The 1996 NIT championship team was one of the most talented in school history. Two future NBA players, Erick Strickland and 1998 first-round draft pick Tyronn Lue, were in the backcourt. And two other players on the team scored 1,000 career points, Jaron Boone and freshman Venson Hamilton, who would finish his career in 1999 as the school's all-time leading rebounder and shot-blocker.

Nebraska won the 1996 NIT title at Madison Square Garden. It was the third time since 1980 that the Huskers reached at least the NIT semifinals.



Nebraska won its only Big Eight Tournament title during the 1994 season as the Huskers won three straight over Oklahoma, No. 3 Missouri and No. 23 Oklahoma State.

Lue's contributions as a freshman to the NIT championship team were only a preview of what was to come. The lightning-quick, 6-0 point guard finished his career as the seventh-leading scorer in school history, and he ranked in the top 10 in 12 other career categories. His leadership carried the 1996-97 Cornhusker team, the first to play in the Big 12, to another NIT appearance.

Behind a late-season run, which included Nebraska's longest conference winning streak in 20 years, Nee's 12th team finished fourth in the Big 12 and returned to the NCAA Tournament. The bid was the Cornhuskers' fifth during the 1990s and extended the school-record postseason run to eight.

The streak reached nine in 1999, as the Cornhuskers just missed an NCAA Tournament bid and advanced to the second round of the NIT. In the process, NU reached the 20-victory mark for a second consecutive season, and Hamilton was named Big 12 Player of the Year.

The optimism that preceded the 1999-2000 season, Nee's last, quickly faded with the loss of guard Cookie Belcher, who was sidelined by a wrist injury and forced to take a medical redshirt. The Cornhuskers were off-balance almost from the beginning of the season and fell far short of expectations.

Even though Nee became the winningest coach in school history in 1999-2000, getting victory No. 254 to pass Joe Cipriano in the Cornhuskers' final home game against Colorado, his final team finished with an 11-19 record. The 19 losses tied for the most in school history.

With then-Director of Athletics Bill Byrne setting his sites on bringing NU basketball back to national prominence, he hired Barry Collier as the Cornhuskers' new coach on April 5, 2000. In Collier's first season with the Huskers, Nebraska finished with a 14-16 mark as Belcher returned to the lineup and earned second-team All-Big 12 Conference honors while finishing third in NCAA history for career steals with 353.

In Collier's fourth season, Nebraska ran to an 18-13 record and its first postseason bid in five years. Nebraska won its first two games in the 2004 NIT, including an exhilarating 71-70 road victory over in-state foe Creighton in the opening round. After a home-court victory over Niagara, the Huskers' season came to an end three days later in a valiant effort at Hawaii when NU came back from 17 points down at halftime to tie the game at the first media timeout of Venson Hamilton was the second Husker to be named conference player of the year when he earned the award in 1999.

Aleks Maric finished his career ranked fifth all-time in scoring and second in rebounding, becoming only the third player in Big 12 history to record at least 1,600 points and 1,000 rebounds in a career.

the second period before eventually falling by a point.

Nebraska struggled the following season but an influx of young talent helped the Huskers move forward. Aleks Maric made an immediate impact as he broke the NU freshman rebounds record and ranked in the rookie top 10 for blocked shots. Maric was a force in the paint as he tied the school freshman record for double-doubles. It was a sign of good things to come as he finished his four-year career ranked fifth all-time in scoring and was only the second Husker ever to record at least 1,000 career rebounds.

NU made its second postseason appearance in three years in 2006 before finishing with a 19-14 record. It was the most wins under Collier and the first time his Huskers won a game at the Big 12 Championship as NU reached the semifinals of the conference tourney for the first time since winning the Big Eight Tournament title in 1994.

Collier looked to have a solid base in place for 2006-07 before abruptly resigning in early August to take the position of athletic director at his alma mater, Butler University, ending his career at Nebraska with an 89-91 overall record.

The late opening posed little challenge for Nebraska as one week later, on Aug. 8, 2006, Kenneth 'Doc' Sadler was introduced as the 26th head coach in program history.

Nebraska finished first in the Big 12 and 18th nationally in scoring defense in 2007-08, allowing just 60.7 points per game. Sadler's specialty was highlighted again in 2008-09 as the Huskers proved it was no fluke, claiming another first-place defense in the league while ranking 22nd nationally by giving up just 60.4 points per contest. It was the second-lowest total in the Husker record book since 1951, giving Sadler-coached squads three of the top four Husker scoring defenses in the past half century.

The Huskers' 20-13 record in 2007-08 included a 7-9 record in league play, after starting the Big 12 campaign with an 0-4 mark. In 2008-09, Sadler helped Nebraska continue its upward trend with eight league victories, marking NU's first .500 record in conference play in a decade. The 2010-11 season was highlighted by three wins over ranked teams, including No. 3 Texas.

The 2011-12 season began a new era for Nebraska basketball, as the Huskers joined the Big Ten Conference. That season also marked the opening of the Hendricks Training Complex, an 84,000-foot facility for the Husker basketball program which includes practice courts, locker room, team lounge, offices as well as strength and nutrition areas, giving Nebraska one of the best facilities in the nation.

In March of 2012, Nebraska moved in a different direction as then-Athletic Director Tom Osborne chose Tim Miles to run the basketball program. It look Miles only two years to turn the fortunes of the Huskers around.

The 2013-14 season was a rebirth for the Husker program. Nebraska moved into the $179 million dollar Pinnacle Bank Arena in August of 2013 and presold the entire season six months before the opener. The Huskers went 15-1 in its inaugural season in PBA, culminating with a win over ninth-ranked Wisconsin in front of a record crowd of 15,998. Terran Petteway earned consensus All-Big Ten honors while Miles was named Big Ten and National Coach of the Year after leading the Huskers to the NCAAs following a 1-5 start in Big Ten play.

Since the opening of Pinnacle Bank Arena, Husker fans have been coming out in record numbers, as Nebraska has ranked in the top 25 nationally in attendance every year Pinnacle Bank Arena has been open.

In 2017-18, the Huskers exceeded expectations, winning 22 games, including a pair of wins against ranked Big Ten teams, and finished fourth in the conference with a 13-5 mark. The 13 conference wins was a school record while the 22 wins were the most since 1990-91. Newcomers James Palmer Jr. and Isaac Copeland both earned All-Big Ten honors, as Palmer garnered first-team accolades by averaging 17.2 points per game to rank fifth in the Big Ten.

The Huskers returned to postseason play in 2018-19, going 19-17 and earning another berth in the NIT. Nebraska, which was ranked in the top-25 earlier in the season, battled through a trio of season-ending injuries and with its 80-76 win over Butler in the first round of the NIT, won its first postseason game in 11 years. Another streak was snapped in June of 2019, when Isaiah Roby was drafted in the second round of the NBA Draft, becoming the first Husker taken in 20 years. Miles ended his Husker tenure on March 26, 2019, after guiding NU to three postseason appearances in seven seasons at the helm of the program.

On March 30, 2019, Fred Hoiberg was named the 28th head coach in school history. Hoiberg brought a distinguished resume to Lincoln that includes four years as an NBA front office executive, four years as an NBA head coach and five years at Iowa State, where he guided the school to four straight NCAA Tournament appearances. Hoiberg joined the Husker men's basketball coaching fraternity, a group that includes his grandfather, Jerry Bush, who guided the Husker program for nine seasons from 1955 to 1963.

The Huskers made steady improvement under Hoiberg until a breakthrough 2023-24 campaign saw the Huskers return to the NCAA Tournament for the first time in a decade. Keisei Tominaga and Rienk Mast both earned All-Big Ten accolades as Nebraska went 23-11 and tied for third in the Big Ten with a 12-8 mark. It marked Nebraska's best conference finish in over three decades. Nebraska posted a pair of top-10 wins, including a 16-point victory over a a top-ranked Purdue team that featured two-time National Player of the Year Zach Edey and would eventually earn NCAA runner-up honors. For his efforts, Hoiberg shared Big Ten Coach-of-the-Year honors while also earning National Coach of the Year.

The Huskers reached postseason play for the second straight year in 2024-25, being one of 16 teams in the inaugural College Basketball Crown in Las Vegas. Behind King of the Crown Juwan Gary, Nebraska went 4-0 in the event, including a 77-66 win over UCF in the title game. Gary was joined by All-Big Ten guard Brice Williams, who set a single-season scoring record with 713 points and became the first Husker since Tyronn Lue in 1998 to average at least 20 points in a season.

Josiah Allick (middle) celebrates with the fans who stormed the court following Nebraska's win over No. 1 Purdue in 2024. It was the fourth win over a No. 1 team in program history and first since 1982.

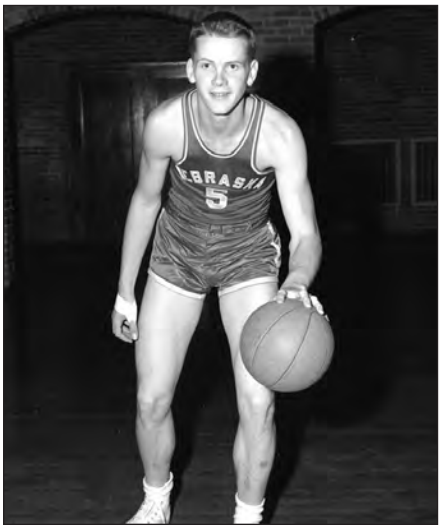
After earning all-league honors as a junior, Tyronn Lue was a first-round NBA selection in 1998. During his collegiate career, he helped Nebraska to three postseason appearances and finished eighth in school history in scoring.



Bill Johnson won a gold medal for the United States at the 1954 FIBA World Championships (now called the FIBA World Cup) in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil. Johnson averaged 9.5 rebounds per game during his three-year career at Nebraska.

Danny Nee is the winningest coach in Nebraska history with 254 career victories over 14 seasons. A 2009 Nebraska Basketball Hall of Fame inductee, Nee was the Big Eight Coach of the Year in 1991 after leading NU to a school-record 26 victories.

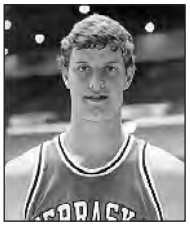
HUSKER 1,000-POINT SCORERS

1. DAVE HOPPEN – 2,167 POINTS



6-11, 235, C, 1983-86, Omaha, Neb. (Benson)

Three-time All-Big Eight center Dave Hoppen finished his career as Nebraska's all-time leading scorer with 2,167 points. Hoppen, whose four-year collegiate career was cut short by a knee injury in a game at Colorado, Feb. 1, 1986, broke or tied 19 Nebraska records and five Big Eight marks during his standout career. A native of Omaha, Neb., Hoppen was the first player in Husker basketball history to have his jersey number (42) retired. Originally drafted by the NBA's Atlanta Hawks in the third round of the 1986 draft, he played with both Charlotte and Philadelphia, and a stint in the CBA. Hoppen was inducted into the Nebraska Basketball Hall of Fame in 1996 and Nebraska Athletics Hall of Fame in 2017.

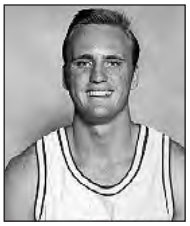
2. ERIC PIATKOWSKI – 1,934 POINTS



6-7, 215, F, 1991-94, Rapid City, S.D. (Stevens)

One of only two players in school history to play on four consecutive NCAA Tournament teams, Eric Piatkowski finished his career as the second-leading scorer in school history with 1,934 points. The Most Valuable Player in the 1994 Phillips 66 Big Eight Tournament, Piatkowski had a school and tournament-record 42-point outburst in Nebraska's first-round victory over Oklahoma. A two-time, first-team All-Big Eight pick, Piatkowski averaged 21.5 points in his final season as a Husker, and became the first player in school history to score 1,900 points (1,934), grab 600 rebounds (669) and dish out 300 assists (322). A first-round draft pick of the NBA's Indiana Pacers, Piatkowski's draft rights were then traded to the Los Angeles Clippers, who he played with for eight seasons. He also played with the Houston Rockets, Chicago Bulls and Phoenix Suns. Piatkowski's No. 52 jersey was retired by the Huskers in 2006, the same year he was inducted into the Nebraska Basketball Hall of Fame.

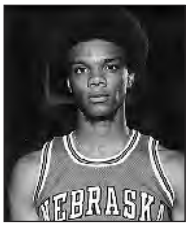
3. JERRY FORT – 1,882 POINTS



6-3, 170, G, 1973-76, Chicago, Ill. (Franciscan)

The first Husker basketball player to earn All-Big Eight honors for three straight seasons, Jerry Fort finished his career with 1,882 points – a record that stood for nine seasons, until Dave Hoppen broke it on Dec. 15, 1985. Fort was a third-round draft pick of the Boston Celtics following his senior season. He scored a then-school-record 40 points against Missouri as a junior. Fort was inducted into the Nebraska Basketball Hall of Fame in 1991.

4. ANDRE SMITH – 1,717 POINTS

6-7, 215, C/F, 1978-81, Chicago, Ill. (Kennedy)

Andre Smith closed his brilliant four-year career in 1980-81 when he led the Big Eight Conference in scoring with a 19.5 average in league-only games. Smith was named the conference's player of the year for his efforts – the only Husker to earn that honor in the Big Eight era. Smith was also a two-time all-conference selection. He scored 1,717 points and grabbed 753 rebounds during his Husker career and was chosen in the seventh round of the 1981 NBA Draft by the Cleveland Cavaliers. He was inducted into the Nebraska Basketball Hall of Fame in 1994. He passed away in March of 2023.

T5. ALEKS MARIC – 1,630 POINTS

6-11, 275, C, 2005-08, Sydney, Australia
(Life Center (N.J.)/Australian Institute for Sport)

Aleks Maric was one of the most dominant big men in the first 12 years of the Big 12 era. The Aussie was a first-team All-Big 12 selection by the Associated Press as a senior and a two-time second-team pick by the coaches. During his senior year, he became only the third player in league history to record at least 1,500 points and 1,000 rebounds in a career. Maric tied the school single-season record with 335 boards as a senior in 2007-08. Maric led NU and ranked in the top seven in the league in scoring, rebounding, field-goal percentage and blocked shots as a senior. He finished his career tying or breaking 19 Nebraska and Big 12 Conference records. After declaring for the NBA Draft following his sophomore season, Maric withdrew and returned to Nebraska where he became just the ninth player in program history to reach 1,000 points before the start of his senior campaign. He played overseas following his Husker career for nearly a decade and was an All-Euroleague first-team selection in 2010. In 2011, he helped Panathinaikos win a Euroleague title and represented Australia in the 2012 Olympics.

T5. SHAVON SHIELDS – 1,630 POINTS

6-7, 225, G/F, 2013-16, Olathe, Kan. (Northwest)

One of the most accomplished student-athletes in program history, Shavon Shields left his mark in the Husker program. One of five players in school history with 1,500 points and 600 rebounds, Shields finished his career in the top 10 in six categories, including points, field goals and free throws made. As a senior, he earned second-team All-Big Ten honors, averaging 16.8 points, 5.1 rebounds and 2.7 assists per game. A two-time All-Big Ten performer, Shields is third in school history with 112 starts. In the classroom, Shields was a two-time first-team Academic All-American (2015-16) and was chosen as Nebraska's Male Student-Athlete of the Year in 2016. He has spent the past five seasons at Olimpia Milano, earning second-team All-Euroleague honors in 2022. He also helped Baskonia to the 2020 ACB Spanish League title.

9. TYRONN LUE – 1,577 POINTS

6-0, 175, G, 1996-98, Mexico, Mo. (Raytown)

Tyronn Lue became one of the few Huskers to eclipse the 1,000-point mark by early in his junior season. He finished his career with 1,577 points before turning pro a year early. Lue was a first-round NBA draft pick of the Denver Nuggets before being traded on draft night to the Los Angeles Lakers where he won a pair of NBA titles. He also played for the Washington Wizards, Orlando Magic, Houston Rockets, Atlanta Hawks, Dallas Mavericks and Milwaukee Bucks. Lue ranks in the top 10 in 13 Husker career categories, including assists (fourth, 432), 3-pointers (10th, 145) and steals (eighth, 154). Lue started 96 of 99 games in his Husker career and led NU to three straight postseason appearances, including an NCAA berth in 1998. A 2013 inductee into the Nebraska Basketball Hall of Fame, Lue was named head coach of the Cleveland Cavaliers on Jan. 22, 2016. In his first season, he guided the Cavs to the first NBA title in franchise history, as Cleveland overcame a 3-1 deficit against Golden State in the NBA Finals. Lue, who coached the Cavs to three NBA Finals appearances in his tenure, is one of only 14 individuals in NBA history to win a title as both a player and head coach. He became the fourth Husker to have his jersey retired when he was honored on Feb. 2, 2017. He guided the Los Angeles Clippers to the 2021 Western Conference Finals in his first season with the franchise and served as an assistant coach for Team USA at the 2023 FIBA World Cup and 2024 Paris Olympics.

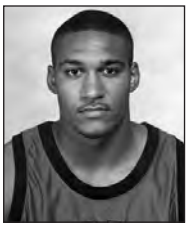
10. COOKIE BELCHER – 1,552 POINTS

6-4, 205, G, 1997-2001, Mexico, Mo. (Mexico)



During the 1999 season, Cookie Belcher became the 21st player in school history to join the Huskers' 1,000-point club. With another stellar campaign in 2001, he moved into the Huskers' all-time top 10, finishing his career with 1,552 points. He was just the eighth player in NU history to reach 1,000 points before the start of his senior season. Belcher made a strong mark on the Husker record books in other areas. He owns the Nebraska game, season and career records for steals and is fifth in NCAA history with 353 steals. He also ranks in the top 10 on NU's career 3-point (ninth, 146) and assist lists (second, 477) and owns the school records for most career starts (129) in school history. He enjoyed a successful professional career in Italy, Israel and Greece and joined the coaching staff of the Los Angeles Clippers in 2021 and promoted to assistant coach in 2023.

11. GLYNN WATSON JR. – 1,532 POINTS

G, 2016-2019, Bellwood, Ill. (Westchester St. Joseph)

A four-year starter in the Husker backcourt, Watson went over 1,000 career points late in the 2018-19 season and guided Nebraska to consecutive postseason appearances in 2018 and 2019. The Bellwood, Ill., native was Nebraska's all-time leader in games played with 134 and finished in the top-10 in starts (113, second), 3-pointers (184, fourth), steals (177, fourth) and assists (382, seventh). He enjoyed a stellar senior season, setting career highs in scoring, rebounding and 3-point percentage as the Huskers won 19 games and advanced to the second round of the NIT. As a junior, Watson helped Nebraska to a 22-11 record and a school-record 13 Big Ten wins, as the Huskers finished tied for fourth in the conference standings. During his sophomore campaign, Watson averaged 13.0 points per game, including a career-high 34 point performance in a win over Iowa. He is currently playing in France after stints in Greece, Iceland, Poland, Lithuania and Germany.

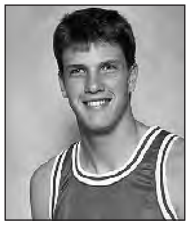
12. RICH KING – 1,475 POINTS

7-2, 260, C, 1988-91, Omaha, Neb. (Burke)



The tallest player in Nebraska history at 7-2, Rich King finished his career with 1,475 points and then-school records for blocked shots (183) and games played (124). King had a big hand in the Huskers' record-breaking 26-8 campaign in 1990-91, as he led the team in scoring (15.5 ppg) and rebounding (8.1 rpg) en route to honorable-mention All-America honors from both AP and UPI. A first-round draft pick of the Seattle SuperSonics in the 1991 NBA Draft, King tied Jerry Fort's then-school single-game scoring record with a 40-point outburst against Northern Illinois, Feb. 18, 1991. He was inducted into the Nebraska Basketball Hall of Fame in 2001.

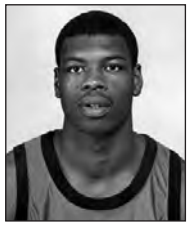
13. VENSON HAMILTON – 1,416 POINTS

6-10, 240, C, 1996-99, Forest City, N.C. (Oak Hill Academy)



One of two Huskers to reach the 1,000-point plateau in 1998-99, Venson Hamilton was a four-year standout for Coach Danny Nee. Hamilton finished his career with 1,416 points and ranks 12th on NU's all-time scoring list. His senior season was one of the finest campaigns in school history. For his efforts, Hamilton earned Big 12 Player-of-the-Year honors, the first Husker since 1981 to capture the league honor. Hamilton still owns NU records for rebounds (1,080) and blocked shots (241) and is fourth in games played (129). Hamilton was just the fourth player all-time among Big 12 schools to score 1,000 points, grab 1,000 rebounds and block 200 shots in his collegiate career. He was a second-round draft pick of the Houston Rockets in 1999, and enjoyed a successful professional career in Europe and Morocco.

Larry Florence was a four-year starter who helped Nebraska to three postseason appearances during his Husker career. Florence's 105 starts at Nebraska ranks fourth in school history.

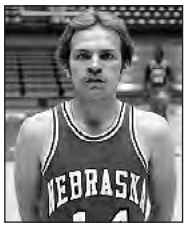
20. JACK MOORE – 1,204 POINTS

5-9, 165, G, 1979-82, Muncie, Ind. (Central)



Jack Moore will long be remembered by Husker faithful for his gutty play on the basketball court. He was honored with the 1982 Francis Pomeroy-Naismith Award, which was presented annually to the nation's top player under 6-feet tall until 2014. During his four-year career, Moore scored 1,204 points, and shot .901 from the free-throw line – among the all-time best career marks in NCAA Division I history. Moore's .901 free-throw percentage broke the Big Eight record for career marksmanship, which had been held by his coach, Moe Iba. A consensus All-Big Eight selection as a senior, Moore was the first Husker cager to earn first-team academic All-Big Eight honors for three straight seasons, and his 382 career assists ties for seventh on NU's all-time chart. Nebraska's MVP Award is named in honor of Moore, who was killed in a March 1984 plane crash. Moore was inducted into the Nebraska Basketball Hall of Fame in 1993.

22. BRICE WILLIAMS - 1168 POINTS

6-7, 214, G, 2024-25, Huntersville, N.C.

Brice Williams became Nebraska's most recent 1,000-point scorer, reaching the milestone during a record-breaking 2024-25 season. Williams helped Nebraska to consecutive postseason appearances during his two seasons at Nebraska. He earned first-team All-Big Ten honors as a senior, averaging 20.4 points, 4.1 rebounds and 2.9 assists per game. He set NU's single-season scoeing record with 713 points in 2024-25, highlighted by school-record 43 point performance at Ohio State. Williams had four 30-point games and was named the MVP of the Diamond Head Classic and chosen for the College Basketball Crown all-tournament team. In his first season, he averaged 13.4 ppg in helping Nebraska to 23 wins and the school's first NCAA Tournament appearance since 2014. Williams signed an exhibit-10 contact with the Detroit Pistons in the offseason.

28. RYAN ANDERSON – 1,125 POINTS

6-4, 195, G, 2006-10, Seattle, Wash. (Rainier Beach)

One of the most versatile players in Nebraska history, the 6-4 Anderson played out of position all four years, working in the '4' spot where he made a name for himself. Anderson created mismatches on the offensive end, where his ability from 3-point range was evident. He finished his career ranked third in 3-pointers at Nebraska with 185 and was in the top 10 in Nebraska history for 3-point percentage (.394), steals (166) and games started (101), while also ranking in the top 25 for points, rebounds, assists and games played. He was named to the Big 12 All-Defense Team as a junior and the All-Underrated team as a senior, when he became the first Husker in the Big 12 era to record 1,000 points, 500 rebounds and 150 3-pointers. Anderson played in Europe, the NBA D-League and in Canada during his 10-year professional career.

29. TAI WEBSTER – 1,116 POINTS

6-4, 195, G, 2014-17, Auckland, New Zealand (Westlake Boys)

Tai Webster showed the power of persistence throughout his Husker career. A four-year letterwinner, the 6-foot-4 guard made dramatic strides during his career, becoming one of the Big Ten's best players as a senior. Webster started 30 games as a freshman, helping the Huskers to the 2014 NCAA Tournament. He averaged double figures and was one of the Big Ten's top sixth men in 2015-16 before taking over as a senior. Webster garnered second-team All-Big Ten honors from the coaches and third-team accolades from the media, averaging 17.0 points, 5.1 rebounds and 4.0 assists per game as a senior. He ranked in the top-10 of the Big Ten in scoring (third), assists (eighth) and steals (fifth) and reached double figures in 30 of 31 contests to capture first-team all-district honors by the USBWA. He represented New Zealand in the 2019 FIBA World Cup and has played professionally in Turkey, New Zealand, Australia, Lithuania and France.

30. CARY COCHRAN – 1,082 POINTS

6-1, 190, G, 1999-2002, Minden, Iowa (Tri-Center)

One of the most dangerous long-distance threats in Nebraska and Big 12 history, Cary Cochran topped the 1,000-point mark during his senior campaign. Cochran set Nebraska records for career (268), single-season (89) and single-game (8) 3-pointers during his senior season. He led the team in scoring at 14.0 points per game as a senior, and led the conference and nation in free-throw percentage by hitting 92.2 percent at the charity stripe. For his career, Cochran was an 89.6 percent shooter from the foul line, and was second in Nebraska history by hitting 42.5 percent from behind the arc. Cochran was an honorable-mention All-Big 12 pick by the coaches as a senior, and earned academic all-district and all-conference honors.

31. KEISEI TOMINAGA– 1,074 POINTS

6-2, 179, G, 2022-24, Moriyama Nagoya Aichi, Japan (Ranger College)

Keisei Tominaga was one of the best shooters in the country during his time at Nebraska, finishing seventh on NU's career 3-point list with 178. A two-time All-Big Ten honoree, he enjoyed his best season in 2023-24, averaging 15.1 points per game while posting career highs in nearly every offensive category enroute to second-team All-Big Ten honors. His 76 3-pointers in 2023-24 ranked eighth on NU's single-season chart while he was sixth in the Big Ten in 3-pointers per game. His efforts helped Nebraska to a 23-11 record in 2023-24, a third-place Big Ten finish and the school's first NCAA Tournament appearance since 2014. Tominaga is a two-time Olympian, as he was a member of Japan's 3x3 in the 2020 Tokyo Olympics and a member of the Senior National Team in 2024. He played for the Indiana Ants in the NBA G League in 2024-25 and will play in his native Japan for Levanga Hokkaido in 2025-26.

32. HERSCHELL TURNER – 1,056 POINTS

G, 1958-60, Indianapolis, Ind. (Shortbridge)

The first Husker cager to top the 1,000-point mark, Herschell Turner finished his career with 1,056 points. Turner teamed with Al Maxey to provide a strong offensive punch for Coach Jerry Bush's teams in the late 1950s. A first-team All-Big Eight selection as a senior, Turner earned All-America honors as a junior. Turner was a strong rebounder and held NU's single-season rebounding record (244) for 10 seasons, until Leroy Chalk grabbed 257 rebounds in 1969. Turner finished his career with 626 rebounds, which ranks 13th on NU's all-time chart. He was a sixth-round draft choice of the NBA's Syracuse Nationals in 1960. He was inducted into the Nebraska Basketball Hall of Fame in 1990, and passed away in 2024.

HUSKERS FROM A TO Z

Academic All-Conference– NU has had 108 academic all-league picks in program history, including 55 players since joining the Big Ten in 2011-12.

Academic All-Americans– The Huskers have produced nine of Nebraska's 362 CSC Academic All-Americans across all sports entering 2024-25. Kobe Webster was Nebraska basketball's most recent honoree, as he was a third-team honoree in 2021. Shavon Shields was a two-time first-team Academic All-American in both 2015 and 2016, the only Husker basketball player to be a first-team selection.

All-Americans– Nebraska has had eight.

Armory– Home of Husker basketball until the NU Coliseum opened its doors in the mid-1920s.

Attendance– Nebraska ranked 13th nationally in attendance in 2024-25 with an average attendance of 14,964 per game. The Huskers have ranked in the top 25 nationally every season since moving into Pinnacle Bank Arena in 2013-14.

MEDIA INFORMATION

MEDIA INFORMATION AND POLICIES

The 2025-26 Nebraska media guide is designed to assist the media in its coverage of the Nebraska Cornhusker men's basketball program. Additional information, including releases, photographs and video may be obtained by contacting the Communications Office at (402) 472-2263, or in many cases can be found on Huskers.com. Below are guidelines for covering Nebraska in-season. Additions or changes to these policies can be found at Huskers.com/media.

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

All requests for press, broadcast, photo and parking credentials for Nebraska basketball home games can be e-mail to Assistant A.D/Communications Shamus McKnight (smcknight@huskers.com) at least one week before the game.

As a general rule, working space is allocated on the following basis:

1) Writers covering for same or next day publication;
2) Radio personnel for broadcast originations;
3) Press and TV working photographers
4) Sports editors/reporters of Nebraska daily newspapers;
5) Official school student daily newspaper, one seat only;
6) Approved special coverage as space allows;

Visiting freelance and amateur photographers are not eligible for media credentials, except by approval of the Nebraska Communications Office. Generally, weekly newspaper representatives, Internet news services and non-originating radio representatives cannot be accommodated because of space limitations.

MEDIA WILL CALL/MEDIA PARKING

Single-game media credentials may be picked up at the media will-call window, located at the upper level at Pinnacle Bank Arena (North side of arena). The window opens 90 minutes before tipoff and photo identification is required for pickup. For the 2025-26 season, media parking is located in the festival lot behind Pinnacle Bank Arena. Directions to the media lot are listed on page 206 of this publication.

COACH HOIBERG INTERVIEW TIME

Coach Hoiberg will hold press availability with the local media prior to each game, either at the Hendricks Training Complex or at Pinnacle Bank Arena. Typically one or two players will be available at that time, depending on class schedules. All interviews with Coach Hoiberg must be scheduled through the Communications Office.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

Nebraska's locker room is closed to the media at home and on the road. For home games, Nebraska's postgame news conference will be held following a brief cooling off period in the interview room (C-145) off the northeast corner of the court. The opposing team is housed in the visitor's locker room, located off the northwest corner of the playing floor and will be available following the cooling off period. Make requests for opposing players and coaches through the visiting SID. To access the media work room and postgame interview room, take the elevator from the main concourse behind Section 103.

On the road, Coach Hoiberg and select players will be available after the cooling off period. Check with Assistant A.D./Communications Shamus McKnight regarding where player interviews will take place.

PLAYER INTERVIEWS

All media requests for interviews with Nebraska basketball players should be directed to Sr. Associate Communications Director Shamus McKnight [office phone: (402) 472-7772, cell phone: (402) 540-0268] at least one day in advance. The best time for in-season interviews is after practices, depending on class schedules. Players are not available on game days or off days.

PRESS SEATING

Press row for writers and non-originating radio networks is located in Section 121 (northwest corner), just below the main concourse. The visiting radio network is located across from the scorer's table, along with the Huskers Radio Network spot and live television tables. Television crews broadcasting live may shoot from either floor level (northeast or southwest baselines) or the camera deck, but they may not occupy space in the upper-level video area.

MEDIA WORK ROOM

A media work room (C-151) is available on the east side of Pinnacle Bank Arena, a short walk from the Interview room. Media can use the room prior to, during and after the game to write and send stories. Wireless Internet is available in the room, while media entities needing ethernet lines to transmit photography and video should contact Alex Malone, Technology Services Supervisor, by phone at (402) 904-5661 at least three days in advance.

PHOTOGRAPHY/VIDEO BOXES

Photography and video boxes are located along both baselines in front of the courtside seating area. Spots will be assigned on a game-by-game basis, and those boxes are the only place photographers can shoot from on the court. Once the team enters the court for pregame warmups, photographers and videographers are prohibited from being on the court.

WIRELESS INTERNET

Pinnacle Bank Arena has a secured media wireless network for working media. Instructions will be available on how to access the network in the media work room and on seating charts in press row. A member of NU's computing services staff will be on hand to assist media needing access. There are also high-speed connections in the media work room and on press row that media can plug into in both the press area and media work room.

MEDIA SERVICES

Notes and flipcards will be provided before each game. Final statistics, play-by-play sheets and quotes from each locker room will be distributed via email following the game and will be available on Huskers.com. A light pregame meal will be served in the media work room (C-151) approximately 60 minutes before tipoff.

COMMUNICATIONS OFFICE

The University of Nebraska Communications Office is located on the third floor of the Osborne Athletic Complex, which is at the north end of Memorial Stadium. The building address is 800 Stadium Drive, Lincoln, NE 68588-0123, and is located less than one mile away from Pinnacle Bank Arena.

RADIO/TELEVISION BROADCAST SPACE

Requests for live radio and television broadcast space should be made to Sr. Associate Communications Director Shamus McKnight at smcknight@huskers.com. If statisticians are needed, contact Shamus McKnight at least one week in advance.

RADIO BROADCAST RIGHTS

The University of Nebraska-Lincoln owns exclusive radio broadcast rights to all of the University's men's basketball games. Other than the Huskers Radio Network and the University of Nebraska student radio station (KRNU), the only radio stations or networks allowed to broadcast Nebraska games from Pinnacle Bank Arena are those that have rights to broadcast games played by the opposing team.

All radio stations and networks broadcasting from the Pinnacle Bank Arena must receive prior permission from the University. Any representative of a radio station or network that has not purchased such rights shall not air live game action or description of any game while it is in progress, nor shall such representatives air tape-recorded or live commentary of Nebraska coaches or players from the premises for one hour before or 30 minutes after a game.

Only stations that have purchased broadcast rights may install telephone lines on press row, or use telephone lines on press row for reporting on games. By accepting media credentials, representatives of stations and networks that have not purchased broadcast rights signify their agreement to all stipulations.

BROADCAST TELEPHONE LINES

The Huskers Radio Network installs telephone lines for visiting official broadcasts. Those interested in using the lines should contact Russ Brown of the Huskers Radio Network at (478) 457-4076. Official visiting radio stations are welcome to have their own telephone lines installed at the visiting radio position and may do so by contacting Alex Malone, Technology Manager at Pinnacle Bank Arena, by phone at (402) 904-5661.

PROFESSIONAL SCOUTING PASSES

Per Big Ten Conference rules, the University of Nebraska provides press box access to scouts of professional basketball teams based on availability. If no space is available in the press box, scouts may arrange through the Communications Office (402) 472-2263 to purchase tickets for Nebraska home games.

FACILITY USE RESTRICTIONS

The University of Nebraska-Lincoln has an interest in protecting its facilities, property and reputation associated with its intercollegiate sports. Therefore, no person shall be permitted to access or use the arenas, facilities and other University of Nebraska intercollegiate athletic venues without first securing the permission of the Athletic Director or his/her designee. In no case shall any person be permitted to use these venues for the purposes of promoting the sale or manufacture of alcohol or tobacco or the promotion of any venture associated directly or indirectly with legal or illegal gaming or gambling.

BIG TEN CREDENTIAL POLICY AND RESTRICTIONS

This working credential is subject in all respects to the Media Credential Criteria and Policies set forth by The Big Ten Conference, Inc. as in effect from time to time. This working credential is issued for the sole purpose of providing facility access to an accredited agency's employee who has a legitimate working function (media or game service) in conjunction with this event. Any alteration, assignment, duplication, modification, sale, or transfer of this credential is expressly prohibited. Violation of the foregoing or any other unauthorized use of this credential subjects the bearer to ejection from the facility and prosecution for criminal trespass, in addition to all other rights or remedies available to the Big Ten Conference, Inc. By using this working credential, the bearer and accredited organization voluntarily assume any and all risks, hazards, and dangers in connection with or incidental or ancillary to this event, including, without limitation, the risk of personal injury, death, exposure to communicable disease, virus, bacteria, or illness, and lost, stolen, or damaged property, and release, waive, and agree to jointly and severally indemnify The Big Ten Conference, Inc. from and against any claim, damage, expense, liability, or loss arising out of or otherwise related to the same. Any secondary use of any picture, photograph, audio description, video, film/tape, drawing or other description of a game taken or made by the accredited organization or individual to whom this credential has been issued (including, but not limited to use in delayed editorial or non-editorial advertising, sales promotion or merchandising) is prohibited without The Big Ten Conference, Inc.'s prior explicit written approval. Nothing in these terms and conditions allows, authorizes, or grants the bearer of these credentials any right in or to the trademarks, copyright or any other proprietary rights of The Big Ten Conference, Inc. and its member institutions, each of which are expressly reserved. A maximum of two minutes (2:00) of game video footage (without audio) may be utilized during the seven (7) days following the conclusion of the game solely within regularly scheduled bona fide news programming distributed via television, and may not be distributed via the internet, wireless or other forms of media.

Longtime Play-by-Play voice Kent Pavelka begins his 39th season calling Husker basketball. He began calling Husker games in the NU Coliseum during the 1974-75 season.

The Playfly Huskers Radio Network was established on Oct. 1, 2022, and is headquartered in the production studio on the North side of Memorial Stadium. Playfly became Nebraska's exclusive multimedia rights holder, signing a 15-year agreement. Nebraska's partnership with Playfly leverages the company's multimedia rights expertise and taps into its expansive suite of marketing and media solutions to further grow the Huskers brand regionally, nationally and globally.

Together, Nebraska and Playfly work to maximize traditional MMR assets, such as in-venue signage and broadcast feature elements, in addition to leveraging Playfly's full capabilities to enhance Nebraska's digital footprint and fan experience. General Manager Jason Rathe and his staff oversee all sales and sponsorship fulfillment for the Playfly Huskers Radio Network.

Playfly handles the broadcast efforts for Husker football, volleyball, men's and women's basketball, baseball and softball. In addition, the Huskers Radio Network team produces Sports Nightly and Huskers Radio Network podcasts. Sports Nightly airs Monday-Friday evenings from 6-8 p.m. (central) year-round across the network. During the basketball season, Sports Nightly features a men's basketball show with Coach Hoiberg and Husker assistant coaches.

In the state of Nebraska, Boomer 1490 AM and 97.3 FM and KCRO (660 AM) serve as Omaha affiliates. KLIN (1400 AM) serves as the Lincoln affiliate while KRVN (880 AM) is a powerful central Nebraska affiliate that reaches around the state. In addition, the network has several dozen locally based affiliates across Nebraska. All broadcasts are streamed live for free on Huskers.com and the Huskers app. The pregame show begins one hour prior to tipoff across the network.

Kent Pavelka returns behind the microphone to handle his 39th overall season calling Husker hoops in 2025-26. Pavelka previously called Nebraska basketball for two long stints between 1974 and 1996 before returning to the Husker basketball play-by-play chair prior to the 2006-07 season. A six-time winner of the Nebraska Sportscaster-of-the-Year Award, Pavelka also handled color analyst duties on NU football broadcasts from 1974 to 1983 and was the play-by-play announcer from 1983 to 1996. Pavelka was honored in January 2009 with the Bud Cuca Special Merit Award given by the Nebraska Basketball Hall of Fame for his contributions to the NU men's basketball program. He was elected to the Nebraska Broadcasters Association Hall of Fame in 2021.

Kent Pavelka

Alongside Pavelka as color analyst will be former Husker assistant coach Jeff Smith, who begins his first season on the broadcast team. Smith has been a fixture in the Lincoln basketball community, serving on Danny Nee's coaching staff for seven seasons from 1988 until 1995 while also coaching more than two decades in the high school ranks. The Huskers made six postseason appearances during Smith's tenure, including four straight NCAA Tournament appearances from 1991-94. He also coached at Eastern Washington and Peru State. Smith was the longtime coach at Lincoln Southeast High School, leading the program to a 324-153 record with 13 state tournament berths and two state championship final appearances in 20 seasons. He also coached Pawnee City High School for three years, compiling a 41-18 mark at the school. He played collegiately at Peru State, where he was a four-year starter at point guard and played baseball at the school.
