SCOUTING THE BRADLEY BRAVES

Bradley (4-3) comes to Lincoln after splitting a pair of games at the Fort Myers Tip-Off in Florida (Nov. 28-29). The Braves opened with a 73-66 loss to Missouri Friday, before notching their fourth win of the season with an 80-74 victory over Abilene Christian Saturday.
Nebraska's battle with Bradley (Peoria, Ill.) will be the first of four home games against teams from Illinois this season, joining Illinois State (Dec. 14), Illinois (Jan. 24) and Northwestern (Jan. 28).
Kate Popovec-Goss is in her fourth season rebuilding the Bradley program. The Braves managed just four wins in her first season (2022-23) after getting four wins the previous year. Last year, Bradley improved to 14-19 including 7-13 in the Missouri Valley Conference.
Kaylen Nelson leads Bradley with 20.6 points per game on 48.3 percent (29-60) three-point shooting. She has added 3.3 rebounds, 1.7 assists and 1.1 steals. Nelson is coming off a 21-point effort in the win over Abilene Christian, after putting up 25 points in a loss to Missouri. She was 9-for-20 from long range at the Fort Myers Tip-Off.
Freshman Maya Foz (12.7 ppg, 2.7 rpg) ranks second on the team with eight threes (.364), while Mya Wardle has contributed 6.7 points and a team-best 4.4 assists. Wardle, Foz and Nelson have been joined in the starting lineup for every game this season by Ellie McDermid. The 6-1 sophomore has added 6.4 points and 4.3 rebounds per game.
The Braves continue to search for a consistent fifth starter. Tamia Perryman, a 5-8 graduate, earned her first start in the win over Abilene Christian. She is averaging 5.1 points, 2.4 rebounds and 1.7 assists after scoring 14 points on 3-of-5 three-point shooting in the win over the Wildcats. Claire McDougall started in the loss to Missouri. The 5-11 junior is averaging 10.1 points and a team-best 7.0 rebounds and had 19 points and five boards in the win over Abilene Christian. Seniors Amy O'Hara and Charlie Vick have both made two starts as well.
Kali Fortson, a 6-0 freshman forward who is the daughter of former NBA forward Danny Fortson, has provided consistent contributions off the bench, averaging 6.1 points and 4.4 rebounds.

HUSKERS SHOOT FOR EIGHTH STRAIGHT WIN

Nebraska takes aim at its eighth consecutive victory to open the season while shooting for its school-record-tying eighth straight game with 80 or more points when the Huskers play host to Bradley tonight at Pinnacle Bank Arena.
The Big Red, which made its debut at No. 15 in the first NCAA NET rankings on Monday, is coming off an Emerald Coast Classic Beach Bracket title in Niceville, Fla. (Nov. 24-25). The Huskers capped a 2-0 tournament with a 91-82 victory over Virginia on the Tuesday before Thanksgiving, after powering past Purdue Fort Wayne, 80-57, last Monday.
Nancy Lieberman Award candidate Britt Prince brought home tournament MVP honors by averaging 24.0 points and 6.5 assists in two tournament games. She tied her career high with 30 points while adding six assists going head-to-head with All-American and first-team All-ACC point guard Kymora Johnson. She put up 18 points and a season-high seven assists in the win over Purdue Fort Wayne.
For the season, Prince ranks third in the Big Ten in scoring at 22.0 points per game while shooting a blistering 64.3 percent from the field, including 52.6 percent (10-19) from three-point range.
Fellow sophomore Amiah Hargrove joined Prince on the all-tournament team after producing 17 points and eight rebounds in the championship game win over Virginia. The 6-2 forward opened with 11 points and six rebounds in the victory over Purdue Fort Wayne to average 14.0 points and 7.0 boards in the tournament. She is averaging 10.4 points and 6.9 rebounds off the bench for the Big Red through seven contests this season, while hitting 58.8 percent of her shots from the field and 92.3 percent of her free throws.
Junior Jessica Petrie continues to provide reliable and consistent production in the starting lineup. The 6-2 forward from Gold Coast, Australia ranks second among the Huskers in both scoring (11.9 ppg) and rebounding (4.9 rpg) while leading the Big Red with 1.1 blocks per contest. Petrie had 11 points in Nebraska's championship game win over Virginia.
Fellow forward Eliza Maupin continues to showcase her athleticism for the Big Red as well. Maupin erupted for 13 points in last Monday's win over the Mastodons, before adding six points in the victory over Virginia. The 6-2 graduate student is averaging 9.8 points per game for the Big Red.
Callin Hake (8.9 ppg) has provided outstanding leadership and production in the backcourt through seven games. The 5-8 senior had 11 points and six assists in the win over Virginia and is averaging a team-best 4.4 assists while leading the team in charges drawn on the defensive end.

SERIES HISTORY WITH BRADLEY

- Tonight's game is just the second in school history between Nebraska and Bradley in women's basketball. The only previous meeting came in an 80-66 win by the No. 12 Huskers on Dec. 3, 1997 - exactly 28 years ago today at the Devaney Center. At the time, it was the highest national ranking in history for NU. The Huskers improved to 7-1 with the win and its lone loss came at No. 6 UConn in the 1997 Preseason WNIT.
In Coach Paul Sanderford's first season at Nebraska, Charlie Rogers led five Huskers in double figures with 17 points and eight rebounds, while Jami Kubik added 15 points and Nicole Kubik pitched in a double-double with 10 points and 11 assists. Anna DeForge and Cori McDill each contributed 11 points. As a team, Nebraska hit 61.8 percent of its shots from the field.
Current Husker Head Coach Amy Williams played in the game against Bradley.

THREE THINGS TO WATCH

- Nebraska recognizes international students across campus tonight by celebrating Global Connections. Jessica Petrie (Australia) and Petra Bozan (Croatia) are current international players on the Nebraska roster. Mini flags of Australia, Croatia and the United States were available at the entrances tonight to help fans support the Huskers.
Britt Prince has scored 30 points in two of Nebraska's last three contests, including 30 on 12-of-17 shooting in a win over NET No. 34 Virginia (Nov. 25) and 30 on 13-of-18 shooting in NU's last home appearance against Oral Roberts (Nov. 19). The last Nebraska player to get two 30-point games in a season was Jaz Shelley, who had three for the Huskers in 2022-23.
This is the final week of the Big Ten's "We Give Blood" Challenge. Husker fans are encouraged to donate at the Nebraska Community Blood Bank or the American Red Cross and then log the donation at bigten.org/abbott/nebraska or text DONATE to 222688. Nebraska is in position to win the challenge and $1 million for the second straight year, but Husker fans need to finish strong to overcome Wisconsin by Friday.

FACTS & FIGURES

- The only Husker team to score 80 or more points in eight straight games was the 1987-88 Big Eight champion Huskers (Jan. 6-27, 1988).
As a team, Nebraska ranks third nationally with a 53.7 field goal percentage. The only Husker teams to hit 50 percent or better from the field were the 1991-92 (.503) and 1987-88 (.500) teams.
The Huskers are hitting 38.5 percent from three-point range. The only two NU teams with better percentages were the 1987-88 (.413) and 1988-89 (.396) teams.
Nebraska has hit 78.8 percent of its free throws. The only Big Red team to shoot a higher percentage was the 2013-14 team (.798).
The Huskers have hit at least one three-pointer in 539 straight regular-season games dating back to a loss at UTEP on Dec. 20, 2009. Nebraska has hit at least two three-pointers in 418 consecutive games.
