WILL BOLT

HEAD COACH • 7TH SEASON • NEBRASKA (2003)

One of the catalysts in Nebraska baseball's rise to national prominence in his playing days, Will Bolt returned to his alma mater as former athletic director Bill Moos named Bolt the 24th head coach of the Husker baseball program on June 14, 2019.

Bolt has 17 years of NCAA Division I coaching experience, having served in assistant coaching roles at Texas A&M and Nebraska. Bolt also spent four years as the head coach at Texarkana College.

Since taking over the Huskers, Bolt has led the Big Red to three conference titles and three NCAA Regional appearances in the last five seasons.

Nebraska made back-to-back regional appearances for the first time since 2016-17 in 2025 after Bolt led the Huskers to back-to-back Big Ten Tournament titles and six wins over ranked opponents, including No. 4 Oregon, No. 5 Oregon State (twice), No. 13 UCLA, No. 16 Vanderbilt and No. 22 Kansas last season.

In 2024, Bolt led the Huskers to their first Big Ten Tournament title in program history. With an overall record of 40-22, the Big Red reached the 40-win mark for the first time since 2014 and the 19th time in program history.

Along with the Big Ten Tournament run, Brett Sears was a unanimous Second-Team All-American and was named the Big Ten's Pitcher of the Year before getting drafted by the Atlanta Braves in the seventh round of the MLB Draft. Josh Caron was selected in the fourth round by the Seattle Mariners, becoming the highest overall selection of a Husker catcher since 1985.

In 2023, the Huskers had four players picked in the first 10 rounds of the MLB Draft for the first time since 2005. Fueled by Second-Team All-American Max Anderson and first-round draft pick Brice Matthews, the Nebraska offense belted a school-record 97 home runs. Anderson became the first Husker since 2001 to hit above .400 at the plate with a .414 batting average while hitting the fifth-most homers in program history with 21 last season. Matthews became the first player in program history and second player all-time in the Big Ten to record 20 home runs and 20 stolen bases in a season.

The 2021 Big Ten Coach of the Year, Bolt guided Nebraska to its second Big Ten regular-season championship in 2021. The Huskers compiled a 34-14 record, including a 31-12 record in Big Ten play, with NU capturing the league crown by 3.5 games. Nebraska also advanced to its first regional final since 2007 while posting a 3-2 record in the NCAA Fayetteville Regional.

In addition to Bolt's coaching accolade, NU counted the Big Ten Player of the Year in Spencer Schwellenbach, the Big Ten Freshman of the Year in Max Anderson and four first-team All-Big Ten honorees -- its most since joining the league. Schwellenbach was also tabbed the John Olerud Two-Way Player of the Year and a first-team All-American, and Anderson picked up Freshman All-America recognition.

Three NU hurlers were selected in the 2021 MLB Draft, with Schwellenbach in the second round (59th overall) by the Atlanta Braves, Cade Povich going in the third round (98th overall) by the Minnesota Twins and Cam Wynne picked in the 20th round by the Philadelphia Phillies.

Nebraska's 2020 season -- Bolt's first at the helm -- was cut short due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

Bolt spent five seasons as an assistant coach at Texas A&M in 2015-19, where the Aggies went 219-98-1 with five consecutive NCAA Regional appearances, three regional titles, an SEC Tournament title in 2016 and an appearance in the 2017 College World Series.

Bolt's primary functions on the Aggie staff included coordinating the offensive game, mentoring the infielders and serving as third base coach. The Aggies finished in the top-25 nationally in batting average twice under his tutelage and finished in the top five of the SEC in hitting or runs scored in four of his five seasons with the Aggies. He mentored 12 hitters who were selected in the MLB Draft during his tenure in College Station, including six players selected in the top-10 rounds, and seven players who earned first or second-team All-SEC accolades.

Bolt worked three seasons as associate head coach on Darin Erstad's staff (2012-14) and tutored four players to first-team All-Big Ten honors, including three two-time selections. The Husker offense ranked among the Big Ten leaders in the three-year stint, finishing eighth and 19th nationally in the 2012 and 2014 seasons, respectively. Under Bolt's watch in 2013, the Big Red concluded the year ranked second in the nation with a .981 fielding percentage.

Before joining Erstad's staff, Bolt served four years as head coach at Texarkana College (2008-11). He posted a 140-82 (.631) record and helped over 20 players sign with DI schools, while guiding the Bulldogs to back-to-back Region XIV titles during a stretch of four consecutive 30-plus win seasons.

Bolt began his coaching career with volunteer assistant roles at Texas A&M (2006-07) and Nebraska (2005). Working with infielders and hitters at both stops, he helped the Huskers sweep the Big 12 regular-season and tournament titles and aided the Aggies to a super regional and their first-ever Big 12 Tournament title with a 49-18 overall record.

A four-year starter and team captain on Nebraska's 2001 and 2002 College World Series teams, Bolt played an instrumental role in helping Nebraska to four NCAA Regionals, three Super Regionals and back-to-back CWS appearances as a member of Dave Van Horn's first recruiting class.

Bolt finished his career holding six school records, including games played (251), games started (242), at-bats (922), hits (281), doubles (56) and assists (639). Bolt remains in the program's top five in several categories, including doubles (first, 56), games played (second, 251), assists (second, 639), hits (third, 281) and runs scored (fifth, 197).

In addition to his accomplishments on the field, Bolt graduated from Nebraska in 2003 with a degree in communication studies before earning his master's degree in 2006.

Will and his wife, Lauren, were married in summer of 2005 and have two sons, Jaxon and Austin, and one daughter, Bella.
