OGBECHIE CLOSING IN ON BLOCK NO. 100

• Sophomore Manaia Ogbechie comes into the week one block shy of reaching the century mark for her career.

• Andi Jackson and Manaia Ogbechie have led the Big Red at the net and on offense this season in multiple stat categories.
• Jackson's hitting percentage of .469 leads the Big Ten, while Ogbechie's clip of .440 ranks her second in the league. Those percentages also rank third and eighth nationally, respectively. They remain the only pair of Power Four teammates to rank inside the top 10 in hitting percentage.
• Jackson has nine matches this season with at least a .500 hitting percentage in a minimum of 10 attacks, while Ogbechie has five. Jackson tallied a season-high 14 kills on 19 swings (14-2-19) vs. Rutgers on Sept. 25, while Ogbechie is coming off a season-best .714 hitting percentage (10-0-14) vs. No. 13 Purdue last Saturday.
• Ogbechie has at least five blocks in three straight matches, the longest streak of her career. Against No. 13 Purdue, the duo each finished with five or more blocks in the same match for the first time.
• With five or more blocks against UCLA, Ogbechie would become the first Husker since Rebekah Allick in 2023 with five-plus blocks in four straight matches in the same season.
• Both players have been named the Big Ten Player of the Week this season, as Ogbechie took home the award on Sept. 14 and Jackson won honors on Sept. 28 and Oct. 5.

DANI BUSBOOM KELLY

HEAD COACH • 2ND SEASON • NEBRASKA (2007)

Dani Busboom Kelly enters her second season as Nebraska volleyball's head coach in 2026.

The Nebraska native led the Huskers to a record-setting 2025 season, her first year coaching her alma mater. Busboom Kelly was named the AVCA West Region Coach of the Year and Big Ten Coach of the Year after guiding the Huskers to a perfect 30-0 regular season and 20-0 mark in Big Ten play, the second time in her career she's coached a team to an unbeaten regular season. NU finished the year 33-1 after a five-set loss to eventual national champion Texas A&M in the NCAA Regional Final.

The Huskers finished the regular season unbeaten for the third time in school history (1994 and 2000) and won 33 matches in a row, the second-longest win streak in school history in the NCAA era. The Huskers completed their first unbeaten conference season since 2004 in the Big 12, and Busboom Kelly became the first volleyball coach in Big Ten history to win the conference title in their first year as head coach at the school.

Nebraska set a school record for hitting percentage in a season at .351, which led the nation. The Huskers' .129 opponent hitting percentage also led the nation. Four Huskers were named AVCA All-Americans, and setter Bergen Reilly was named Big Ten Player of the Year, Big Ten Setter of the Year, AVCA Region Player of the Year and was a finalist for AVCA National Player of the Year.

Busboom Kelly was named the fourth head coach in program history on Jan. 29, 2025. She succeeded her former coach and mentor, John Cook, who announced his retirement following the 2024 season after 25 years as Nebraska's head volleyball coach.

A Husker national champion player and assistant coach, Busboom Kelly spent 2017-24 building Louisville into a national power. The Cardinals reached two NCAA Championship matches, three NCAA Semifinals, five NCAA Regional Finals and won four ACC titles.

Busboom Kelly compiled a 203-44 (.822) record in her eight seasons at Louisville, including a 120-15 (.889) mark from 2021-24, which was the second-best winning percentage in the country during that span. In her final year in 2024, the Cardinals reached the NCAA Championship match for the second time in three seasons under Busboom Kelly.

Busboom Kelly was the starting libero on Nebraska's 2006 national championship team, and she was an assistant coach when the Huskers won the 2015 national championship in Omaha. She took the helm at Louisville late in 2016 after being named AVCA National Assistant Coach of the Year in her final season as a Husker assistant, and she guided the Cardinals to heights the program had never experienced.

In her first season at Louisville in 2017, Busboom Kelly took over a program coming off a 12-18 season and led UofL to a 24-7 record, an ACC title and an NCAA Tournament appearance. Picked eighth in the ACC preseason poll, she coached two players to major conference postseason awards, ACC Setter of the Year (Wilma Rivera) and ACC Defensive Player of the Year (Molly Sauer). For her efforts, she was named the AVCA East Region Coach of the Year for the first of four times at Louisville. Following her first season, Busboom Kelly was named the head coach of the U.S. Collegiate National Team Europe Tour, leading them to the gold medal in the European Global Challenge.

The Cardinals continued to improve each season, reaching the NCAA Tournament Second Round in 2018 and the program's first-ever NCAA Regional Final in 2019. During the shortened 2020-21 season, Busboom Kelly's Cardinals went 15-3 and won the ACC Championship, and she was named ACC Coach of the Year.

Louisville broke through in a big way in 2021, winning 32 straight matches to begin the season before finishing the year in the NCAA Semifinals for the first time in program history. Busboom Kelly was again named ACC Coach of the Year as well as AVCA National Coach of the Year, as the Cardinals achieved their first No. 1 ranking in program history. She became the first woman in NCAA history to coach an undefeated regular season, and two Louisville players (Tori Dilfer and Anna Stevenson) earned the program's first-ever AVCA All-America First Team honors.

The Cardinals finished 31-3 in 2022 and reached the NCAA Final for the first time in school history, falling to top-seeded Texas. Busboom Kelly was the ACC Coach of the Year for the third year in a row, as the Cardinals won their third straight ACC title. Claire Chaussee was voted ACC Player of the Year, and Amaya Tillman won the NCAA Elite 90 Award for having the best cumulative GPA at the NCAA Championship.

After going 27-5 in 2023 with another regional final appearance and another ACC Player of the Year honor (Anna DeBeer), the Cardinals began the 2024 season with pressure to get back to the NCAA Semifinals, which were being played at the KFC Yum! Center in Louisville. Not only did the Cardinals qualify for the NCAA Semifinals in their own city, they also impressively turned aside top-seeded Pittsburgh, 3-1, despite losing their top hitter DeBeer for the tournament early in set four.

Prior to her time at Louisville, Busboom Kelly played a vital role on the Husker coaching staff, assisting with Nebraska's setters, liberos, outside hitters and recruiting. Regarded as one of the best recruiters in the nation, Busboom Kelly helped Nebraska's resurgence to the forefront of college volleyball, as the Huskers captured the 2015 NCAA Championship at the CenturyLink Center in Omaha, the same place Busboom Kelly won the national title as a player for the Huskers in 2006.

Busboom Kelly helped the Huskers to a 138-31 record and NCAA Regional Final appearances in all five seasons. Before joining the Husker staff in 2012, she was an assistant coach at Tennessee from 2009-10, and an assistant coach at Louisville in 2011.

As a captain at Nebraska, Busboom moved from setter to libero in 2006 to help Nebraska's defense and finished her career as one of only two players to rank among NU's all-time leaders in both digs (1,281) and assists (2,925). She was a four-year starter for Cook, guiding NU to a 124-10 record, three Big 12 titles, two NCAA Final appearances and a national title in 2006.

Dani and her husband, former Nebraska football player Lane Kelly, were married in the summer of 2010 and have two sons, Boone and Jett.
