- The 30 combined threes by NU (20) and USD (10) were the most in school history, eclipsing the previous school record of 27 (twice). The Huskers (15) and Oregon (12) matched the second-highest total in school history with 27 (Feb. 19, 2025).
- The Huskers have hit at least one three in 564 straight games dating back to a loss at UTEP on Dec. 20, 2008. Nebraska has hit at least two threes in 443 consecutive games.

SCOUTING THE WAYNE STATE WILDCATS

• Wayne State comes to Lincoln for the first time in exhibition play since Nov. 2, 2014, when Nebraska rolled to an 84-43 win over the then-NCAA Division II No. 6 Wildcats in front of a then-Husker exhibition-record crowd of 4,948 fans at PBA.

• Coach Brian Ortmeier made the move to NCAA Division II Wayne State after leading Briar Cliff in Sioux City, Iowa, to an 80-24 record in three seasons as head coach, including 15 wins over NAIA top-25 teams. He guided the Chargers to an NAIA semifinal appearance with a 30-6 record in 2024-25. Ortmeier, a native of Dodge, Neb., is a Nebraska graduate.

• The Cats, who battled to a 10-18 record in Ortmeier's first season, will feature a new-look roster in 2026-27 that includes Eleanor Griffin (Lincoln Southwest), Stella Williams (Omaha Westview) and Avah Underwood (Council Bluffs St. Albert), along with Truman State transfer Sophia Hope and Valley City State transfer Abby Aslesen. Lena Evans (Oxford, Iowa), Ruth Dvoracek (Sioux Falls Christian), Courtney Franck (Mount Vernon, Iowa) and Jadyn Kor (Pipestone, Minn.) round out a list of nine newcomers.

• Griffin, who was a high school teammate of Nebraska's Kennadi Williams at Lincoln Southwest, was a three-time All-Heartland Athletic Conference pick. She averaged 11.6 points and 3.8 rebounds while knocking down 41 three-pointers as a senior. As a sophomore starter, she averaged 8.0 points and 3.9 rebounds to help Southwest to the state semifinals when Williams was a senior.

• Franck is a talented all-around guard who averaged 7.9 points, 7.1 rebounds, 5.2 assists and 3.1 steals as a junior while leading Mount Vernon High School to an Iowa Class 3A state title. She added 4.0 points, 8.6 rebounds and 5.6 assists as a senior to help Mount Vernon to a state runner-up finish. She was also a three-year starter as a soccer player.

• Kor scored 2,336 points in her career at Pipestone High School. She averaged 24 points, 6.6 rebounds, 3.9 assists, 2.6 blocks and 2.5 steals for the Arrows as a junior in 2024-25.

• Stella Williams helped Omaha Westview to the Class A state tournament a year ago by averaging 13.6 points and 3.8 rebounds, while knocking down 80 three-pointers in 2025-26. She finished her high school career with 1,155 points and 239 three-pointers.

• Northeast Nebraska sophomores Cassie and Sammie Allen (Crofton), and Wayne native Brooklyn Kruse bring hometown flavor to the Wildcats. The 6-3 Kruse could provide a presence inside that the Wayne State lacked a year ago.

HUSKERS PREPARE FOR SIZEMORE SPORTSMANSHIP PEP RALLY

• Nebraska's Sizemore Sportsmanship Pep Rally will be held at Pinnacle Bank Arena on Monday, Nov. 2 ahead of the Husker women's basketball season-opening game with San Jose State.

• Last season, a record 83 schools from around the state registered to participate with more than 3,900 students and accompanying adults attending the event. The overall attendance of 8,004 for a 103-46 win over Northwestern State marked the third-largest opening crowd in NU history.

• In 2024-25, the pep rally featured over 3,800 students and accompanying adults from 75 schools around Nebraska. The crowd of 8,106, which included a group from Hemingford (6-hour drive, 385 miles) watched the Huskers roll to an 88-48 win over Omaha. It was the second-largest season-opening crowd in school history.

• In 2023-24, the pep rally welcomed more than 3,300 students and accompanying adults from 62 middle grades schools from across the state of Nebraska.

• The 2022-23 rally helped the Huskers attract the fourth-largest opening-day crowd in program history with 7,065 fans on hand at PBA, which at the time trailed only the 9,750 fans on hand for the opening game in the history of the building against UCLA in 2013.

• The event, which is co-sponsored by the Nebraska High School Hall of Fame, features positive messages from Husker student-athletes, coaches and athletic administrators.

• The 2026 Sizemore Sportsmanship Pep Rally marks the eighth time since 2013 (also 2019, 2021, 2022, 2023, 2024, 2025) the event was paired with NU's season-opening women's basketball game.

• The Life Skills Sportsmanship Pep Rally, which is focused on 4th through 8th grade students across the state of Nebraska, not only includes inspiring messages from current and former Nebraska student-athletes and staff members, it also includes complimentary pizza from Nebraska Athletics through generous support from the Sizemore family and water provided by Pepsi for students and accompanying school staff members.

• The 2026 Pep Rally, which will be hosted by Jessica Coody from the Huskers Radio Network, will begin at 9:30 a.m., and include messages from Coach Amy Williams, Huskers Natalie Potts and Logan Nissley, along with Nebraska volleyball players Andi Jackson and Teraya Sigler, football players Jacory Barney Jr. and Danny Kaelin and track and field athletes Cade Moran and Axelina Johansson. The rally will conclude at 10:45 a.m., prior to Nebraska and Northwestern State taking the court for pregame warm-ups ahead of their noon tip-off.

PRINCE EARNS PRESEASON ALL-BIG TEN HONORS

• Nebraska's Britt Prince captured one of 10 spots on the Preseason All-Big Ten Women's Basketball Team announced by the conference on Thursday, Oct. 1.

• Prince, a 5-11 junior guard out of Elkhorn North High School, returns for her third season in Lincoln after leading Nebraska in scoring (17.9 ppg), assists (4.4 apg) and steals (1.5 spg) a year ago. She was a first-team All-Big Ten choice by the media and added second-team all-conference honors from the coaches as a sophomore in 2025-26.

• One of the nation's elite shooters, Prince led the Big Ten in free throw percentage (.912), while also ranking fifth in field goal percentage (.535) from her point guard position. She also owns the highest three-point field goal percentage (.457) among all returning power conference guards who attempted at least two threes per game a year ago.

• She produced two 30-point performances, 12 20-point efforts and 29 double-figure scoring games in 2025-26. She closed with 27 points against No. 21 Baylor in the NCAA First Round in Durham, N.C. (March 20). It was the second-highest scoring total by a Husker in NCAA Tournament history.

• Prince's effort against Baylor followed a 22-point, five-assist performance in an NCAA First Four win over Richmond (March 18). It came after a 20-point, eight-assist effort against Indiana in the Big Ten Tournament (March 4), which trailed her first career double-double with 14 points and career highs of 11 rebounds, eight assists and two blocks in a win over Rutgers (Feb. 28).

• Over the last five games of 2025-26, Prince averaged 21.0 points, 5.4 rebounds, 5.8 assists, 1.6 blocks and 1.4 steals, including 22 points, six rebounds, six assists and three steals while hitting the game-winning three-pointer in a 66-65 win at Washington (Feb. 22). It was her fifth 20-point scoring effort in regular-season Big Ten play.

• A 2026 Nancy Lieberman Award Midseason Top 10 choice, Prince was one of 10 selections to the preseason all-conference team by both the league coaches and media.

• USC's JuJu Watkins, who returns to the court after sitting out the 2025-26 season with a knee injury, was the preseason pick by both coaches and media as the Big Ten Player of the Year.

• Watkins was one of only two seniors on the preseason all-conference team, joining Maryland guard Oluchi Okananwa.

• Prince was one of seven juniors on the squad, including Jaloni Cambridge (Ohio State), Ava Heiden (Iowa), Olivia Olson and Sylva Swords (Michigan), Sayvia Sellers (Washington) and Berry Wallace (Illinois), while USC sophomore Jazzy Davidson rounded out the 10-player teams with identical representatives by both coaches and media.

• All 10 players on the 2026-27 Preseason All-Big Ten teams have previously earned first-team All-Big Ten accolades from either the league coaches or media, including Watkins who was the 2025 National Player of the Year (Naismith, Wooden, AP, USBWA), the Big Ten Player of the Year and the Big Ten Female Athlete of the Year across all sports.

363 teams ranked in NCAA Division I

PRINCE POISED TO JOIN NEBRASKA'S 1,000-POINT CLUB

• Britt Prince enters her junior season with 975 points, 251 rebounds, 255 assists and 98 steals over 62 games with 62 starts in her Husker career. She is poised to become the 39th 1,000-point scorer in school history.

• Exhibition game statistics do not count in career totals, so Prince's pursuit of 1,000 points will begin again in Nebraska's regular-season opener with San Jose State (Nov. 2).

• It takes 1,100 points to become one of the top 30 scorers in school history, while 1,134 points would push Prince into the top 25. A total of 1,285 points would move Prince into Nebraska's all-time top 20.

• In order to join the top 10, Prince would need 1,844, while the school record is held by 1993 Wade Trophy winner Karen Jennings with 2,405 points. Only four players in Nebraska history have totaled 2,000 or more points, including Jordan Hooper (2,357), Maurice Ivy (2,131) and Kelsey Griffin (2,033).

• Prince earned first-team All-Big Ten honors by averaging 17.9 points, 4.1 rebounds, 4.4 assists and 1.5 steals as a sophomore. A member of the Big Ten All-Freshman Team, Prince averaged 13.4 points, 4.0 rebounds, 3.8 assists and 1.7 steals in 2024-25.

• In Nebraska's closed scrimmage against Kansas State at Bramlage Coliseum in Manhattan on Friday, Oct. 16, Prince pumped in 27 points on 10-of-16 shooting while adding six rebounds, five assists and three steals in an 89-87 win over the Wildcats.

POTTS FUELS BIG RED FIRE FOR FOURTH STRAIGHT NCAA BID

• Natalie Potts and the entire Husker women's basketball family are eager for her return to the court after a second straight redshirt season in 2025-26.

• Potts, the 2024 Big Ten Freshman of the Year for the Huskers, suffered a season-ending leg injury in the fifth game of her sophomore season in 2024-25. After receiving a medical redshirt in 2024-25, Potts was forced out of 2025-26 by a stalled recovery.

• Potts closed 2025-26 near full strength and was participating in Husker practices late last season. She went through full workouts starting in mid-summer and has been at full strength for the Big Red in practice throughout the preseason, showing the talent, skills and determination that earned her 1 of 20 spots on the Katrina McClain Award Preseason Watch List ahead of the 2025-26 campaign.

• In Nebraska's closed scrimmage with Kansas State at Bramlage Coliseum in Manhattan on Friday, Oct. 16, Potts produced 13 points, five rebounds, three assists and two steals in 24 minutes of action in an 89-87 win over the Wildcats.

• Potts, who suffered her injury against North Alabama (Nov. 19, 2024) underwent surgery Dec. 4, 2024.

• In 2023-24, Potts was a unanimous choice to the Big Ten All-Freshman team from the conference coaches and was an honorable-mention All-Big Ten selection by the league media. Potts started all 35 games for a Nebraska team that advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament after working its way to the Big Ten Tournament Championship Game. She averaged 10.2 points and 5.5 rebounds per game on the season.

• Through the first four games of her sophomore season, Potts averaged 17.5 points and 8.0 rebounds, before suffering her injury 10 minutes into the game with North Alabama at Pinnacle Bank Arena in Lincoln.

• In 2023-24, Potts led all Big Ten freshmen in rebounding (5.2 rpg) and field goal percentage (.489), while ranking second among league freshmen in scoring (10.2 ppg) and free throw percentage (.829) in 2023-24. She started all 35 games for the 23-12 Huskers, who advanced to the Big Ten Championship Game and the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

WEIDNER BACK FOR SEASON 6 AFTER 3 KNEE INJURIES

• One of the best all-around athletes in Nebraska high school history, Allison Weidner has proven that her tremendous talents might be overshadowed by her amazing resilience, world-class determination and her remarkable love for her teammates, the game of basketball and the University of Nebraska.

• Weidner, who was a starting guard for Nebraska as a freshman (2021-22) and sophomore (2022-23) had her third consecutive season come to a premature end when she suffered a right knee injury in practice on Jan. 11, 2025.

• The 5-10 guard from Humphrey, Neb., had played in 15 of NU's first 16 games and was coming off her best performance of the year with 11 points and six assists in Nebraska's 85-80 win over No. 20 Michigan State (Jan. 8, 2025).

• She underwent her most recent knee surgery on Jan. 28, 2025. The timing of that injury not only ended her 2024-25 campaign, it also eliminated her 2025-26 season.

• Weidner went through summer workouts and has been at full participation for the Huskers this fall as she prepares for her sixth season at Nebraska. She is also working to complete her master's degree in educational psychology from Nebraska. Weidner earned her bachelor's degree as a child, youth and family studies major from Nebraska on Dec. 21, 2024.

• In 61 career games with 25 starts, Weidner has averaged 7.0 points, 4.0 rebounds and 2.2 assists.

• She returned to competition for the Huskers in a closed scrimmage with Kansas State at Bramlage Coliseum in Manhattan on Friday, Oct. 16. Weidner hit the game-winning floater from the free throw line at the buzzer to lift the Huskers to an 89-87 win. Although it was her only bucket of the game, she added four assists and two steals in 16 minutes of work for the Huskers.

• Weidner returned to the court as a starter in Nebraska's season-opening victory over Omaha (Nov. 4, 2024) in front of the Pinnacle Bank Arena crowd after missing 55 consecutive regular-season games over two seasons (2022-23, 2023-24) because of leg injuries (first left, then right).

- Weidner made her triumphant and hard-fought return with 11 points, three rebounds, two steals and one assist in 24 minutes of Nebraska's 88-48 win over the Mavericks.
- She averaged 10.2 points and 6.2 rebounds through 13 games as a starter for the Huskers as a sophomore in 2022-23, before suffering a left leg injury early in the fourth quarter of Nebraska's triple-overtime victory over Kansas (Dec. 21).
- Weidner had started 21 consecutive games before missing the first game of her career following the injury vs. KU. She underwent successful surgery on her left leg on Jan. 10, 2023.
- She was on track to return for the Huskers ahead of the 2023-24 season before suffering a right leg injury in practice on Friday, Oct. 13, 2023. She underwent successful surgery on Oct. 25, 2023.
- Weidner, who was a member of Nebraska NCAA Tournament qualifiers in 2022, 2024, 2025 and 2026, is bidding to become the first Husker in history to be part of five NCAA Tournament teams.

HARGROVE CONTINUES TO GROW FOR HUSKERS

- Junior Amiah Hargrove proved herself as one of the Big Ten's most improved players in 2025-26. The 6-2 forward from Christopher, Ill., ranked second among the Huskers in scoring (12.7 ppg) and led the Big Red in rebounding (5.5 rpg) while starting Nebraska's final 12 games of the season.
- Hargrove's 393 total points were 237 more than the 156 she scored for the Huskers over 33 games as freshman. She also more than tripled her total steals in 2025-26 (21) compared to 2024-25 (6). She put up 24 points at No. 11 Ohio State (Feb. 1), and entered the NCAA Tournament after scoring 23 points on 10-of-14 shooting against Indiana in the Big Ten Tournament.
- Hargrove averaged 13.7 points in Big Ten games-only in 2025-26.
- She pumped in 20 points while adding four rebounds, two assists and two steals in 26 minutes of action in an 89-87 win over Kansas State in a closed scrimmage at Bramlage Coliseum in Manhattan on Friday, Oct. 16. Hargrove hit 8-of-11 shots from the field including 3-of-5 three-pointers.
- Hargrove, who opened Big Ten regular-season play with a career-high 26 points on 10-of-14 shooting (4-5 3FG) at Penn State (Dec. 6, 2025), produced 22 double-figure scoring efforts on the season, including four 20-point games. She had 24 points and six rebounds in her second start in place of Jessica Petrie (illness) at Ohio State (Feb. 1). Hargrove also had 21 points on 9-of-11 shooting at No. 15 Michigan State (Jan. 15). She followed with her second double-double of the year with 13 points and 11 rebounds in her first start of the season in a win over Northwestern (Jan. 28).
- A high efficiency player, Hargrove hit 53.2 percent of her field goals, including 40.7 percent (24-59) of her threes. She missed the loss at No. 14 Iowa (Jan. 1) after suffering a mild concussion late in the loss to No. 17 USC (Dec. 29).
- Over 64 games with 14 starts, Hargrove has totaled 549 points and 292 rebounds as a Husker, while hitting 52 percent of her shots including 44.1 percent (41-93) of her threes and 80.7 percent of her free throws.

NOYAN PLANS TO PROVIDE PHYSICAL PRESENCE INSIDE

- Senior Edessa Noyan plans to provide a physical presence inside in her first season as a Husker in 2026-27. The 6-3 transfer from Indiana who spent her first two college seasons at Virginia averaged 5.8 points and 5.8 rebounds for the Hoosiers a year ago but was much stronger late in the season.
- In the Big Ten Tournament, Noyan followed a double-double of 12 points, 10 rebounds and two blocks in a win over Nebraska with six points and 11 rebounds against Ohio State. She also had six points and 15 rebounds in a win over Rutgers (Feb. 25) after getting 18 points and eight boards in a win over Oregon (Feb. 22).
- Noyan averaged 9.4 points and 9.6 rebounds over Indiana's last five games a year ago, and opened her Nebraska career with eight points and nine rebounds in 23 minutes of an 89-87 win over Kansas State in a closed scrimmage at Bramlage Coliseum in Manhattan (Oct. 16).
- Noyan, who is a member of the Swedish National Program, joined fellow transfer Arek Angui (Auburn) in solidifying Nebraska's post game after the departures of Petra Bozan (Penn State) and Jessica Petrie (Indiana) following last season. At 6-9, Angui is the tallest female athlete in the history of Nebraska Athletics.

KOUPAL BECOMES FIRST HUSKER MCDONALD'S ALL-AMERICAN

- Nebraska freshman Ashlyn Koupal became the first Husker named to the 24-player McDonald's High School All-American Game following her senior season.
- The 6-3 forward from Wagner, S.D., averaged 28.0 points, 14.6 rebounds, 4.1 assists, 4.0 blocks and 2.7 steals while shooting 63.8 percent from the field, including 46.4 percent from three-point range for Wagner Community High School. She totaled 2,610 points, 1,210 rebounds, 463 assists, 253 steals and 383 blocked shots in her career.
- Koupal, who simultaneously became the first girls McDonald's High School All-American in South Dakota history, was a two-time Gatorade and MaxPreps South Dakota Player of the Year.
- She set the Wagner High School single-game scoring record with a 42-point performance as a senior and broke the school's career scoring record previously held by her aunt, Mandy Koupal, who was a two-time NCAA Division II Player of the Year (2003, 2004) at South Dakota.
- Ashlyn Koupal was one six high school players who signed with Big Ten schools during the early period in November to earn spots in the McDonald's All-American Game, which was held at Desert Diamond Arena in Phoenix (March 31) ahead of the NCAA Women's Final Four.
- Koupal also became Nebraska's first-ever Jordan Brand All-America selection.
- In Nebraska's closed scrimmage at Kansas State (Oct. 16), Koupal managed eight point, five rebounds and three assists in 24 minutes during the Big Red's 89-87 win over the Wildcats at Bramlage Coliseum in Manhattan.

• One of the highest ranked recruits in Husker history, Koupal was the No. 22 player in the ESPN Top 100. The 6-3 forward from Wagner, S.D., was also ranked as a five-star recruit as the No. 10 player in the 247 Sports rankings, as the No. 3 power forward in the nation. The Big Red went 16-2 at home in 2013-14, suffering their only Big Ten loss to Purdue, 77-75, on Jan. 19, 2014. NU's 16 home wins in 2013-14 tied the school record for single-season home victories.

• The Huskers played the first regular-season game in arena history against USA Today No. 25 UCLA (Nov. 8, 2013) and rolled to a 77-49 win over the Bruins. NU's first win over an AP Top 25 team came with a 76-56 win over No. 24 Michigan State on Feb. 8, 2014. The Huskers added their first-ever win over an AP Top 10 team at the arena with a 94-74 victory over No. 8 Penn State on Feb. 24, 2014.

• NU won its first Big Ten home game at Pinnacle Bank Arena with a 66-65 thriller over Northwestern Jan. 2, 2014, before an 88-85 win over Minnesota on Jan. 16, 2014, marked the first overtime game.

It marked the first time Nebraska had ever won two home games in the same postseason tournament (NCAA or WNIT). NU's only other postseason home game at PBA came with a 64-62 loss to Northern Iowa (March 17, 2016). The Huskers are 4-3 all-time in Lincoln in Postseason WNIT games, including 4-1 against Missouri Valley Conference opponents.

• The Huskers are 49-3 all-time in home season openers, following a 103-46 win over Northwestern State on Nov. 3, 2025. Nebraska has won 19 of its last 20 season openers.

• Nebraska played in the Devaney Center from 1976-77 through 2012-13, and added one appearance at Devaney against Utah on Nov. 23, 2014. The Huskers own a 389-130 record at the Devaney Center, including 146-88 (.624) mark in conference play.

HUSKERS RADIO NETWORK COVERS WORLD

• The Huskers Radio Network enters its fifth season producing and marketing the live broadcasts of Nebraska women's basketball in 2026-27, while play-by-play announcer Matt Coatney and color commentator Jeff Griesch will team up for their 26th season as the Husker broadcast team.

• The Huskers Radio Network carries every game, home and away, around the world for free on Huskers.com, marking the 26th year that all of Nebraska's women's basketball games will be free and available to fans. In addition to carrying every women's basketball game free on Huskers.com, the Huskers Radio Network flagship stations B107.3 FM-KBBK (Lincoln) and 97.3 FM and 590 AM-KIBM (Omaha) provide bandwidth for Husker women's basketball. When a network conflict occurs in Lincoln, the Huskers also can be heard on 105.3 FM KLNC. 880-AM-KRVN (Lexington) also provides a huge AM signal statewide in central Nebraska, while more than 20 stations carry the Huskers Radio Network's women's basketball coverage across the state and the Midwest.

• Inside Pinnacle Bank Arena, fans can access the direct radio call of the game at 87.7 FM.

• Nebraska's exhibition opener with Wayne State will be Coatney and Griesch's 834th women's basketball broadcast together - more than any other Husker radio team across all sports in history.

• Griesch also has called 784 consecutive Husker games dating back to Jan. 5, 2003. The last game he missed came against Penn State on Dec. 30, 2002 at the Surf & Slam in San Diego, following the birth of he and his wife Emily's first child, Hollan. A University of Nebraska-Lincoln graduate, Hollan celebrated her 23rd birthday on Dec. 10, 2025. Hollan has three younger brothers, Jackson (22), a senior at Nebraska, Brennan (17) and Isaac (13).

• Griesch's streak has continued despite undergoing open heart surgery (Sept. 28, 2022) to replace a mechanical aortic valve. Less than five weeks later, he was on air with Coatney for Nebraska's exhibition game with Washburn. Griesch also had open heart surgery as a junior in high school (May 1, 1990).

• Coatney's commitment to Nebraska women's basketball and the Husker radio network is remarkable. The voice of Nebraska football's in-game scoreboard for many years, Coatney is also the longest running host of Nebraska football's official postgame call-in show - Big Red Reaction - for the past 14 seasons.

NEBRASKA POSTS 21ST STRAIGHT PERFECT GSR

• In the eyes of the NCAA's Division I Graduation Success Rate (GSR), the Husker women's basketball program has been perfect for 21 consecutive years. Nebraska is the only program among the 18 Big Ten Conference schools to accomplish the perfect score for 21 straight seasons.

• The NCAA announced the release of its annual Graduation Success Rate report Nov. 19, 2025, and Nebraska was a national leader in women's basketball for the 21st straight season, dating back to the initial public tracking of the GSR since 2004-05.

• The Nebraska women's basketball program joins the Husker women's tennis and volleyball programs as Husker teams that have produced perfect 100 percent rates each of the last 21 years.

• Overall, the Nebraska Athletic Department produced a GSR of 92 percent.

• Nebraska continues to lead the Big Ten in Academic All-Americans across all sports (384) and NCAA Impact Award winners (19). More than 100 Huskers have also earned NCAA Postgraduate Scholarships in history.

ALLISON WEIDNER 3

5-10 Graduate/6th Year Guard Humphrey, Nebraska (Humphrey St. Francis)

She is a two-time Big Ten Distinguished Scholar and is serving on the Nebraska Student-Athlete Advisory Committee for the second straight year.

The graduate student from the small Northeast Nebraska town of Humphrey (pop. 832) earned her bachelor's degree in child, youth and family studies in December 2024.

Weidner had outstanding rehabs on both her left and right knees heading into 2024-25, before suffering a right knee injury in practice (Jan. 11, 2025) prior to Nebraska's road game at Rutgers. She underwent surgery on Jan. 28, 2025, and has had another excellent rehab.

The 5-10 guard averaged 10.2 points, 6.2 rebounds and 2.4 assists while starting Nebraska's first 13 games in 2022-23, before suffering a left ACL tear against No. 20 Kansas (Dec. 21, 2022). She was ready for the start of practice before the 2023-24 season, but suffered a right ACL tear in practice on Oct. 13, 2023.

Weidner is one of the best all-around athletes in state history as a seven-time all-state selection in basketball (4) and volleyball (3) and an eight-time state champion in track.

In 10 career Big Ten starts as a freshman (8) and sophomore (2), Weidner helped Nebraska to a 7-3 record including a pair of wins over top-20 teams (No. 10 Michigan, No. 20 Maryland) away from Pinnacle Bank Arena. In those 10 starts, Weidner averaged 10.8 points, 4.4 rebounds and 3.6 assists.

REDSHIRT (2025-26)

Weidner did not compete while rehabbing from a leg injury suffered in January 2025.

REDSHIRT JUNIOR (2024-25)

Weidner made her return to Nebraska's starting lineup with 11 points in a season-opening win over Omaha (Nov. 4). Weidner, who missed nearly two years with back-to-back knee injuries, added three rebounds, two steals and an assist in a team-high 24 minutes of action against the Mavs.

leadership role in her second season. She averaged 10.2 points, 6.2 rebounds and 2.4 assists while starting each of Nebraska's first 13 games of 2022-23. She scored in double figures in four consecutive games before suffering a season-ending leg injury early in the fourth quarter of NU's triple-overtime win over No. 20 Kansas (Dec. 21). She underwent successful surgery on Jan. 10.

Weidner had 13 points, seven rebounds and three assists in a win over Wyoming (Dec. 18). It followed her second double-double of the season with 15 points, 11 rebounds and a career-high five steals in a win over Samford (Dec. 10).

She notched her first career double-double with 13 points and a career-high 15 rebounds in Nebraska's upset of No. 20 Maryland in College Park (Dec. 4). Weidner, who added five assists against the Terps, scored all 13 of her points and grabbed eight of her rebounds in the second half alone, as NU outscored Maryland 59-31 in the second half. Weidner's effort helped the Huskers secure their first-ever win over Maryland, which went on to advance to the NCAA Elite Eight.

Weidner added 13 points, five rebounds and seven assists in an 82-54 win over Wisconsin (Dec. 7) to help the Huskers improve to 2-0 in Big Ten play despite the absence of starters Isabelle Bourne, Trinity Brady and Sam Haiby - who all missed the game with injuries.

Weidner opened the season with 19 points and a then-career-high nine rebounds in a win over Omaha (Nov. 7). She made a career-high nine field goals in just 11 attempts against the Mavs. She added her second career 20-point performance with 20 points and seven boards in a win over Houston Christian (Nov. 11).

She did return to the starting lineup three days later in NU's win over Texas A&M-Corpus Christi at the Puerto Rico Clasico (Nov. 25). She had 13 points and five rebounds against the Islanders.

Weidner joined Alexis Markowski as freshman starters in Nebraska's lineup down the stretch in 2021-22. Weidner averaged 7.2 points, 3.7 rebounds and 2.2 assists while playing in all 33 games for the 24-9 Huskers in 2021-22.

She moved into Nebraska's starting five for the final eight games of the season and started nine contests overall for the Huskers, who finished No. 23 in the NET rankings and advanced to the 2022 NCAA Tournament.

She produced the most memorable performance of her young career with a team-high 16 points, including two free throws with 5.5 seconds left to seal Nebraska's 76-73 victory over No. 10 Michigan in the Big Ten Tournament quarterfinals in Indianapolis (March 4). Weidner added three rebounds, two assists and two steals against the Wolverines to give Nebraska two wins over the eventual 2022 NCAA Elite Eight qualifiers.

Weidner put together her best game with a career-high 23 points and a career-best three threes in a 93-70 win over Minnesota (Feb. 20). She hit 8-of-10 shots from the field, including all three of her long-range attempts, while also going 4-for-4 from the free throw line against the Gophers. She added five rebounds.

She scored in double figures seven times on the season, including 11 points, eight rebounds and five assists in just 18 minutes off the bench in a win over Prairie View A&M (Nov. 11). She added 10 points, five boards and three assists in a victory over Drake (Dec. 19), before producing her first double-digit effort in Big Ten play with 14 points and five rebounds off the bench in a win over Purdue (Jan. 30). She scored all 14 points in the first half against the Boilermakers.

Weidner matched that performance with 14 points, four rebounds, two assists and two steals in a win over Penn State (Feb. 3). She scored 10 points in the fourth quarter to help the Huskers turn a one-point lead into a 15-point win. Weidner also had 11 points, four rebounds, two assists and a steal in Nebraska's 72-55 run past No. 5 Indiana (Feb. 14). She hit 5-of-7 shots from the field, including her lone three-point attempt, to help the Huskers to their largest victory margin ever against a top-five team. The win over Indiana marked Weidner's last game off the bench in 2021-22.

In nine starts on the season, Weidner averaged 9.3 points, 4.4 rebounds and 3.0 assists. She made her first career start in place of an injured Sam Haiby at Iowa (Jan. 16), in a game the Huskers also played without starting guard Jaz Shelley (COVID protocols). Weidner finished with eight points, three rebounds, five assists and a block against the Hawkeyes.

Weidner made a solid debut with nine points in a win over Maine (Nov. 9) and threatened a triple-double with eight points, eight rebounds and eight assists in just 18 minutes off the bench in a win over North Carolina Central (Nov. 20). Her eight rebounds and eight assists were both season highs.

HIGH SCHOOL

One of the top small-school players in Nebraska history, Weidner finished her four-year high school career with 2,282 points, 741 assists and 629 steals. Her career point total ranked No. 3 across all classes in Nebraska girls basketball history, while she became just the 13th player in state history to score 2,000 career points. OUTLOOK (2026-27)

One of the Big Ten's most consistent long-range shooters, Logan Nissley enters her fourth season as a Husker ranked sixth in school history with 179 career three-pointers. She needs just four more threes to move into Nebraska's career top five in that category.

The 6-0 guard led the Big Red with 65 made threes a year ago, while hitting 43.3 percent of her shots from long range.

A three-time North Dakota Player of the Year, Nissley has helped Nebraska to three consecutive NCAA Tournament bids.

Although she has been challenged by nagging foot injuries throughout her Nebraska career, her high basketball IQ and versatility make her a dangerous weapon in the Big Red arsenal.

JUNIOR (2025-26)

Nissley averaged a career-best 8.9 points to go with 2.5 rebounds and 2.3 assists while making 19 starts over 30 games.

Nissley pumped in a career-high 22 points on a career-best 6-of-12 three-point shooting against No. 22 Maryland (Feb. 7). Her previous season high came with 15 points to go with three assists in a Big Ten win over Illinois (Jan. 24), before adding 14 points, on 4-of-6 three-point shooting in a win over Northwestern (Jan. 28). She added a season-best five rebounds against the Wildcats.

Nissley added 15 points, five rebounds and five assists in a gutsy effort while battling illness at Oregon (Feb. 19).

She pitched in 14 points on 4-of-6 shooting in NU's 101-83 win at Penn State (Dec. 6). Nissley drained three three-pointers in a 2:30 span in the fourth quarter to help NU pull away down the stretch with the highest scoring period (36) in school history.

Nissley, who finished with 14 double-figure scoring efforts on the year, put up 12 points and four rebounds against Indiana in the Big Ten Tournament (March 4). She also had 12 points and four assists at Minnesota (Feb. 12).

She closed her junior season with 11 points and a career-high eight rebounds in a season-high 31 minutes against No. 21 Baylor in the first round of the NCAA Tournament in Durham, N.C. (March 20).

Nissley also contributed 11 points - all in the fourth quarter with three threes - to help Nebraska pull away in a win over Purdue Fort Wayne (Nov. 24). She followed with four assists

OUTLOOK (2026-27)

Edessa Noyan (pronounced Eh-dess-uh NO-yawn) was the first player in Nebraska's transfer class for 2026-27, officially signing with the Huskers on Friday, April 17.

Noyan, a 6-3 forward from Botkyrka, Sweden, brings three years of top-level NCAA Division I experience to the Big Red inside game after making 21 starts over 32 games at Indiana in 2025-26. As a junior for the Hoosiers, Noyan averaged 5.8 points and 5.8 rebounds while hitting a team-best 55.1 percent of her field goals.

"We are so excited to bring Edessa to the program," Nebraska Coach Amy Williams said. "She fits perfectly into all aspects of our team. She is a gritty player with great versatility who is willing to do the dirty work on the court. Her ability to play inside and out makes her a dangerous threat. She is a great teammate with a tremendous work ethic. Husker Nation will be excited to watch her this season."

Noyan averaged 5.7 points and 4.3 rebounds over 26 games with 23 starts as a sophomore at Virginia in 2024-25. OUTLOOK (2026-27)

Natalie Potts hopes to return to the Nebraska lineup in 2026-27, after nearly two full seasons away from competition.

The 2024 Big Ten Freshman of the Year suffered a season-ended knee injury in the fifth game of her sophomore season against North Alabama (Nov. 19, 2024).

The 6-2 forward from O'Fallon, Mo., hoped to return as a junior but her full recovery hit a plateau late in the summer of 2025, delaying her return.

Now at 100 percent, Potts hopes to return to the competitive form she reached early in 2024-25, when she averaged 17.5 points and 8.0 rebounds in less than 25 minutes per game

"She has an incredible motor, and her competitive spirit matches the values we have for our team. She is versatile and a proven winner from one of the most successful high school programs in the country."

Potts redshirted in her third season at Nebraska while completing her recovery from a knee injury.

Off the court, she earned Academic All-Big Ten honors for the second time and represented the women's basketball team on the Nebraska Student-Athlete Advisory Committee.

The daughter of Eric and Sharon Potts, Natalie was born in St. Louis, Mo. She has an older brother, Kyle, and a sister, Sarah.

Natalie is a management major and earned Academic All-Big Ten recognition in 2025 and 2026. She is also a five-time Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll selection.

A three-time member of the Tom Osborne Citizenship Team, Potts is also a representative on the Nebraska Student-Athlete Advisory Committee in 2025-26 and 2026-27.

She selected Nebraska over Gonzaga.

"I chose Nebraska because I loved the community and the family feel. Everything about the campus and the town was what I wanted," Potts said. "The coaching staff and the team are just super sweet and welcoming and just a good group of people to be around."

AMIAH HARGROVE 33

6-2 Junior Forward Christopher, Illinois (Christopher)

Nebraska Coach Amy Williams said Hargrove has a ton of upside in her basketball future.

"Amiah is a high achiever in everything she pursues," Williams said. "Her size and athleticism combined with her versatile skill set make her the perfect fit for our team on the court. Her high character, work ethic and drive make her the perfect fit off the court. She has a bright, bright future."

SOPHOMORE (2025-26)

Hargrove was a significant contributor in helping Nebraska to back-to-back NCAA Tournament appearances in 2025 and 2026.

As a sophomore, Hargrove started Nebraska's final 12 games of 2026, ranking second on the team in scoring (12.7 ppg) while leading the team in rebounding (5.5 rpg) in just over 24 minutes per game. She closed the season by tying her career high with 11 rebounds for the third time on the season in a first-round NCAA Tournament loss to No. 21 Baylor in Durham, N.C. (March 20).

Hargrove, who came off the bench in Nebraska's first 20 games, made her first starts in place of Jessica Petrie, who was battling illness (Jan. 28-Feb. 4).

Hargrove averaged 13.4 points and 5.4 rebounds in 28 minutes per game as a starter, including a double-double with 13 points and a career-high 11 rebounds in her first start of the year in a win over Northwestern (Jan. 28).

She added the second-highest scoring total of her career with 24 points at No. 11 Ohio State (Feb. 1), before going for 23 points in a career-high 34 minutes against Indiana in the Big Ten Tournament (March 4). It was her fourth 20-point effort of the season.

She closed the regular season with 18 points on 7-of-9 shooting in a win over Rutgers (Feb. 28).

OUTLOOK (2026-27)

Amiah Hargrove (pronounced uh-MY-uh) returns for her junior season after a strong sophomore campaign for the Huskers. The 6-2 forward from Christopher, Ill., was Nebraska's No. 2 scorer (12.7 ppg) and top rebounder (5.5 rpg) despite splitting starting time with the departed Jessica Petrie at power forward a year ago.

Hargrove is expected to be part of a potent rotation of power forwards that could included 2024 Big Ten Freshman of the Year Natalie Potts and 2026 McDonald's High School All-American Ashlyn Koupal.

The versatility of all three players could allow them to move to either the small forward or center positions depending on Nebraska's rotations, giving the Big Red three dangerous big-bodied scorers, rebounders and shooters.

Last season, Hargrove hit more than 50 percent of her field goals and better than 40 percent of her threes while draining more than 80 percent of her free throws.
