THIS IS NEBRASKA

The Nebraska wrestling program continues its excellence both on and off the mat. Coach Mark Manning has continued a tradition of success in his 26 years at the helm of the Huskers. With hard work and a dedication to excellence, Manning has developed a program that consistently competes with the nation's best in collegiate wrestling.

Since its inaugural season in 1910-11, Nebraska has nearly 800 dual victories, including 318 wins under Manning. Over the past 26 years, the Huskers have finished in the top 10 at the NCAA Championships 15 times and racked up 151 All-America honors, from 45 wrestlers, including seven individual national titles. In the classroom, NU wrestlers earned 93 NWCA All-Academic Team selections en route to seven CSC Academic All-America awards.

One reason NU has been able to develop such a successful program is its top-notch facilities. In the fall of 2011, the Husker wrestling program moved into the state-of-the-art Hendricks Training Complex, which provides three full-sized practice mats, office suites and areas for both strength and conditioning and athletic medicine. The Hendricks Complex is attached to the Devaney Center, which hosts the majority of Nebraska's duals this season. With a wealth of support and a history of success, Nebraska wrestling expects to contend for conference and national championships every year.

Above: The Nebraska wrestling program has been built on the strong support of coaches and wrestlers, including (from left): Coach Mark Manning, who has guided the Huskers to a 318-116-3 record since 2000; World Silver Medalist James Green, a four-time All-American from 2012-15 at 157 pounds at Nebraska; and Olympic Gold Medalist and six-time World Champion Jordan Burroughs, who won two NCAA Championships at Nebraska, first in 2009 at 157 pounds and then in 2011 at 165.

Right: The 2008-09 Nebraska wrestling squad added to the Huskers' achievements by claiming a share of the Big 12 championship and finishing fourth at the NCAA Championships. The 2009 Big 12 team championship was Nebraska's ninth in its history, while the Big Red have also had 63 individual conference champions.

SUCCESS BEYOND WRESTLING

Nebraska coaches have always guided young men toward success on the mat while also teaching them to find success in life, and Mark Manning continues that with his coaching philosophies. Manning has helped young men grow into upstanding adults by teaching athletes that the values they learn on the mat can be transferred into their personal lives. Bryan Snyder (right) earned his Ph.D. in sociology after becoming NU's first four-time All-American. Snyder is now associate head coach for the Huskers.

"Wrestling presents a lot of challenges, but also the ability to work through those challenges. Wrestling builds good character and good work ethic, and I definitely built that at Nebraska."
- Bryan Snyder, Nebraska Wrestling Associate Head Coach

The Scherr brothers were both national champions at Nebraska in 1984, before continuing their prosperity on the mat into their personal lives. Bill (above left) earned the collegiate title at 190 pounds and went on to win five medals in the Olympics and FILA World Championships before turning his attention to a professional career. He now serves as the vice president of a global investment banking and securities firm.

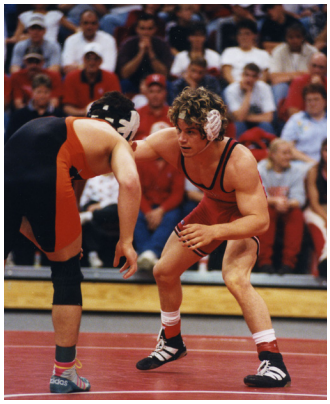

"Wrestling teaches you valuable life lessons like self-discipline and perseverance. It gives you a sense of pride and accomplishment. All of those translate into any sort of career you would want to pursue." - Bill Scherr, 1984 NCAA Champion

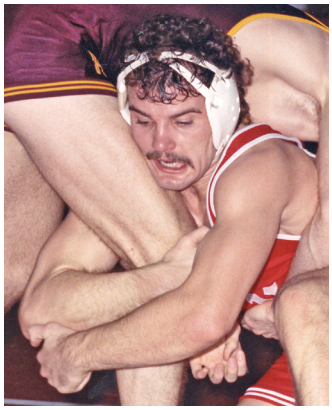

Jim (above right) won the national title at 177 pounds with a victory over Iowa's Duane Goldman and also continued his wrestling career onto the international stage. Jim claimed three medals between the Olympics and FILA World Championships and continued his involvement with the Olympics through 2008.

"[Nebraska] has a good core of dedicated faculty with great academic support in place. The sports department has tremendous personnel and resources. Nebraska was a great experience from both ends of the spectrum, athletically and academically." - Jim Scherr, 1984 NCAA Champion

Two-time letterwinner John Myers (below) wrestled for NU in the late 1980's, before becoming executive producer of his own digital design and effects studio.
"All of the greatest things in my life past and present, big and small, can be attributed to wrestling and everything that came with wrestling at Nebraska."

Nebraska wrestling has climbed its way into the Olympic spotlight during the past several Olympics. Former Huskers who have continued their careers on the international stage include 2012 freestyle gold medalist and 2016 Olympian Jordan Burroughs and two-time Olympic medal-winner Rulon Gardner, who won a gold medal in 2000 and a bronze in 2004 in Greco-Roman. BOB DEVANEY SPORTS CENTER

Nebraska Wrestling has hosted nearly all of its home duals at the Bob Devaney Sports Center since moving into the masterfully renovated facility from the NU Coliseum in 2013-14. The arena was again updated prior to the 2026-27 seson to increase seating by several thousands.

The Huskers ranked fifth nationally in home attendance during the 2025-26 season according to Mat Talk Daily with an average of 4,470 fans over seven home duals. The Huskers attracted a total of 35,758 fans over the course of eight duals.

Nebraska Wrestling hit a record crowd against No. 4 Iowa with 7,891 fans filling the Devaney Center on Jan. 23, 2026, making it the largest crowd in progam history. They surpassed the previous record from 2024-25 by over 100 from the dual against No. 1 Penn State.

In addition to hosting duals, the Devaney Center and Hendricks Training Complex house the wrestling offices, locker room, weight room, wrestling room and athletic areas all just steps from each other, providing an atmosphere conducive to elite training.

MARK MANNING

HEAD COACH | 27TH SEASON

With nearly 110 years of history, Nebraska wrestling is one of the most storied programs in the collegiate wrestling ranks. Head Coach Mark Manning has taken the Huskers to new heights in his tenure and has established himself as one of the top wrestling coaches in the nation.

The NU record book is a testament to Manning's accomplishments in Lincoln. In his 26 years at the helm, he has coached the 45 individuals that have earned a total of 92 All-American awards. He has led the Huskers to 10 top-eight finishes at the NCAA Championships, compared to just eight for the 14 NU coaches before him. He became the winningest coach in school history on Feb. 21, 2015 when he picked up his 200th win at Nebraska. He won back-to-back Big 12 Coach-of-the-Year awards (2008 and 2009) after guiding Nebraska to a share of the conference crown in 2009 and a runner-up finish in 2008. Manning has also guided five wrestlers to a total of six individual NCAA championships.

Manning earned one of the top coaching honors in the entire sport when he was named the 2011 FILA Freestyle Coach of the Year by USA Wrestling after helping Jordan Burroughs capture the gold medal at the World Championships in Istanbul, Turkey. In 2015, Manning received the honor for a second time, as Burroughs earned another world title and a spot on the U.S. Olympic Team. Burroughs reached the pinnacle of the sport, earning Olympic gold in 2012, while winning world titles in 2011, 2013, 2015, 2017 and 2021 with Manning in his corner. Manning has also overseen the growth of James Green, who earned world bronze in 2015 and silver in 2017. Manning and Nebraska Associate Head Coach Bryan Snyder were honored as the Terry McCann Award winners as USA Wrestling's Freestyle Co-Coaches of the Year in 2017 for their accomplishments.

Records go on paper and in books and get tucked away. More important to Manning is the fact that he has helped numerous young men grow into upstanding adults by teaching them the correct principles of life. Regarded as one of the nation's top recruiters, Manning has a keen eye for finding the athletes with the right work ethic and dedication that he can develop.

Manning's coaching philosophy is one that he began during his competitive days, developed during his time as an assistant coach and continues to modify during his time as head coach at Nebraska. It focuses on developing wrestlers to reach their potential. A wrestler who brings a positive attitude and work ethic to the room can use goal setting and responsibility to develop into an upstanding citizen who is committed to excellence. Manning works daily with the team on every detail in and out of practice, while keeping in mind the best long-term interests of his student-athletes.

Known for his fiery nature on the edge of the mat, Manning instills in his wrestlers a sense of determination and pride through his actions and demeanor. His guidance teaches his athletes to become winners in life, which translates into success in the classroom, on the mat and in their lives beyond wrestling.

In addition to their success on the mat, Husker wrestlers under Manning have earned 160 academic all-conference selections, including 126 Academic All-Big Ten awards during Nebraska's first 14 seasons in the conference. In 2012, Nebraska turned in the nation's best team grade-point average (3.46). Manning's beliefs and values in developing student-athletes are evident right outside his office, where Snyder, a former Husker All-American, is a member of the NU staff.

MANNING'S MARK AT NEBRASKA

Manning began teaching his methods immediately when he was hired at Nebraska in May of 2000. His efforts first paid dividends when he led Nebraska to back-to-back eighth-place team finishes at the NCAA Championships in 2001 and 2002. Four Huskers (Snyder, Todd Beckerman, Ati Conner and Brad Vering) claimed All-America honors in Manning's first year coaching the Huskers in 2000-01, as NU finished with an 11-6 dual record. Powell and Snyder also gave Manning his first two Big 12 Conference champions that year.

During the 2001-02 season, Manning led the Huskers to their third consecutive third-place finish at the Big 12 Championships. Justin Ruiz and Powell earned their first All-America accolades under Manning, while Snyder became Nebraska's first four-time All-American with his second-place finish at 157 pounds.

Nebraska claimed a 16-7 dual record in 2002-03, as Manning guided NU to seven victories over ranked opponents, including a 20-17 victory over fifth-ranked Illinois at the Virginia Duals. At the 2003 NCAA Championships, Manning led a young lineup that included two juniors, five sophomores and three redshirt freshmen to a 13th-place showing. The finish marked the eighth time in nine seasons that NU had claimed a spot in the top 15 in the nation.

The 2003-04 Huskers and Manning posted one of the best wrestling seasons ever at NU with a 19-3 overall record, tying the second-highest win total in NU history. The Huskers posted two team titles during the season, winning the prestigious Las Vegas Invitational behind individual titles from Powell, Travis Shufelt and Travis Pascoe and winning the Virginia Duals with a 25-13 defeat of Lehigh in the finals. Manning directed the Huskers to second at the Big 12 Championships, while qualifying eight wrestlers for the NCAA Tournament, where NU earned a fifth-place finish. Manning coached his first national champion at Nebraska, as Powell claimed the title at 125 pounds with a 17-2 technical fall in the finals.

The Huskers' success continued in 2004-05, with Nebraska winning 19 duals for the second straight year. NU's 19-2-1 dual record was the second-best mark in school history. The Huskers started the campaign with eight straight dual wins, and ended the season by winning 12 of the last 13 duals. Nebraska posted eight wins over ranked foes, including a 16-15 upset of No. 2 Iowa State to end the dual season.

Manning's 2005-06 squad was relatively inexperienced, but the Huskers earned a solid 12-5 dual record and a third-place finish at the National Duals. NU claimed third at the Big 12 Championships and two Huskers went on to finish as All-Americans. Manning's legacy continued to grow in 2006-07, as he watched his second Husker claim a national title. Paul Donahoe earned the crown at 125 pounds after helping Nebraska to a 10-7-1 dual record. The 2007-08 Husker campaign was one of the best ever under Manning. NU finished second at the Big 12 Championships with three individual champions and claimed fourth at the NCAA Championships with five Huskers finishing as All-Americans. That success would no doubt be a challenge to match, but the 2008-09 Nebraska wrestling team did just that. The Huskers won a share of the Big 12 championship for the first time in school history behind individual titles from Burroughs, Brandon Browne, Craig Brester and Vince Jones. Seven NU wrestlers qualified for the NCAA Championships, where the Huskers finished fourth with All-America accolades going to Burroughs (1st at 157), Brester (2nd at 197), Browne (4th at 174) and Jones (6th at 184). For his work with the 2009 squad, Manning was named Dan Gable Coach of the Year by WIN Magazine.

In 2010, Nebraska fought through a rash of injuries, including a season-ending setback to Burroughs. Despite the unfortunate luck, the Huskers still qualified five wrestlers for the NCAA Championships and finished 12th in the team standings, marking the seventh top-15 finish under Manning. History was made in 2011, when Manning helped Burroughs become the first two-time national champion in school history by winning the 165-pound title at the NCAA Championships in Philadelphia. After the season, Burroughs was awarded the school's first-ever Hodge Trophy, given annually to the nation's top wrestler. As a team, the Huskers qualified seven total wrestlers for the national tournament and finished in 12th place for the second consecutive season.

In 2011-12, the Huskers finished 21st at the NCAA Championships as two wrestlers (Josh Ihnen and James Green) earned All-America accolades. Senior Tucker Lane became the 20th member of Nebraska's 100-win club on Feb. 19.

In 2012-13, Robert Kokesh led Nebraska with a 38-4 record and a third-place finish at the NCAA Championships at 174 pounds. Green captured his second consecutive All-America honor at 157 pounds to help NU to a 13th-place finish. Ihnen fell one match short of All-America status but picked up his 100th collegiate win at the national tournament. He also earned CSC Academic All-America honors, and helped the Huskers to an 11-6 dual record.

Green and Kokesh repeated as All-Americans in 2014, as Green took third at 157 pounds and Kokesh earned a fourth-place finish at 174. The pair also took home Big Ten titles, becoming the first Husker champions in three seasons as members of the conference. The Huskers returned to the newly renovated Devaney Center for all of their home duals after years of wrestling at the NU Coliseum. NU finished the dual season with a 12-2 record before finishing 11th at the NCAA Championships.

In 2014-15, the Huskers notched a ninth-place finish at the NCAA Championships, marking the 19th top-10 result in school history and first since 2009. Kokesh and Green each collected third-place finishes, while TJ Dudley earned his first All-America honor with an eighth-place showing at 184 pounds. During the dual season, NU set a school record for winning percentage (.933) after a 14-1 season, which included a tie for second in the Big Ten dual standings.

Dudley repeated as an All-American in 2015-16, this time making it to the NCAA Finals at 184 pounds. His runner-up finish led the team, which produced two additional All-Americans, Eric Montoya and Austin Wilson. As a team, NU finished eighth at the NCAA Championships and fourth at the Big Ten Championships. For the first time since 1995, NU qualified all 10 wrestlers for the national tournament. The Huskers posted an 11-6 record overall, going 5-4 in Big Ten duals.

The Huskers had four All-Americans to finish ninth as a team at the 2017 NCAA Championships. Dudley finished third to capture his third All-America honor. Montoya took sixth to finish his career as a two-time All-American. Aaron Studebaker and Tyler Berger each made the podium for the first time. Nebraska finished fourth at the Big Ten Championships after going 12-4 during the dual season.

Nebraska posted another top-10 finish at the NCAA Championships in 2018, as the Huskers placed ninth with three All-Americans. Berger earned his second All-America honor, as he finished third, while Taylor Venz and Chad Red Jr. became the first pair of freshmen to earn All-America honors for NU in the same season, as Venz placed fourth and Red took seventh. The Huskers went 10-4 on the dual season and placed fifth at the Big Ten Championships after returning just two starters from the 2017 team.

The Huskers stretched their streak of Top-10 NCAA finishes to five in 2019. The Huskers placed 10th with four All-Americans. Tyler Berger earned his third All-America honor with a runner-up finish at the NCAA Championships. Chad Red Jr. earned All-America honors for the second consecutive season with an eighth-place finish while freshman Mikey Labriola capped off a stellar debut campaign by finishing sixth. Isaiah White placed fifth as a junior. The Huskers went 12-5 on the dual season and placed fifth at the Big Ten Championships.

The 2019-20 campaign featured incredible highs and difficult-to-fathom lows. The early portion of the season saw the Huskers climb as high as No. 2 in the NWCA Division I Coaches Poll, tying the highest ranking in program history. NU capped a remarkable two-day run in Las Vegas by winning its third Cliff Keen Invitational team title in program history. The team showed incredible resilience, rebounding from a three-meet losing streak (all against top-10 opponents) to defeat No. 3 Ohio State at the Devaney Center, the program's first win over a top-three opponent since 2008. The Huskers ultimately ended the regular season on a six-match winning streak and carried that positive momentum to the Big Ten Championships, where the Big Red placed second, the program's best finish as a member of the conference. NU qualified all 10 starters for the NCAA Championships but none of them had the chance to take the mat in Minneapolis, as the tournament was canceled due to concerns regarding the spread of the coronavirus. All told, the Huskers finished the season 11-3, marking Coach Manning's 10th consecutive campaign of 10 or more wins and the 18th time in 20 seasons Manning had accrued at least 10 victories.

The Huskers saw a modified spring-only 2021 season where they tallied seven victories, with their lone loss coming to Iowa. In postseason competition, NU had an impressive showing at the Big Ten Tournament as the team finished third and Ridge Lovett (149), Taylor Venz (184) and Eric Schultz (197) finished second. Nine Huskers qualified for the NCAA

"I coach to help young men prepare for life. It is my job to create a positive environment in order for each of our athletes to perform at his highest level. When the correct principles are taught, winning will take care of itself."

Tournament, led by Mikey Labriola with a third-place finish to help Nebraska earn 38 points to finish 12th.

In 2021-22, NU went 6-5 during the regular season with quality wins over North Carolina, Wisconsin and Northwestern. For the first time since joining the Big Ten Conference, the Huskers hosted the Big Ten Tournament. NU took seventh at the event, before battling to a fifth-place finish at the NCAA Championships. Lovett ended a stellar tournament with an NCAA runner-up finish.

Nebraska tallied 12 dual victories in 2022-23, which tied the most wins since 2018-19. The Huskers concluded their regular season with six-straight dual victories. At the Big Ten Championships, Silas Allred won the 197-pound title, marking the first Husker to win since Robert Kokesh in 2015, and the team finished third with 104.5 points. At the NCAA Championships, senior Mikey Labriola became the second-straight NCAA finalist as he concluded his Husker career as the first five-time All-American and the ninth-most wins (120) in Husker history. The team placed eighth overall.

In the 2023-24 season, NU recorded 12 dual wins for the second-straight season and tallied five ranked victories. Also for the second-straight year, the Huskers had a Big Ten champ as Ridge Lovett claimed the crown at 149 and the team finished third with 118 team points. Husker sophomore Brock Hardy (141) led the Huskers with a third-place finish at the 2024 NCAA Championships, and the Nebraska wrestling team scored 60.5 points to claim ninth overall, for Manning's 13th top-10 finish. Five Huskers competed in the NCAA medal round, highlighted by Hardy's upset victory and Peyton Robb's win to conclude his Husker career with his fourth All-America honor. Nebraska's five NCAA All-Americans marked the fifth time in seven years the program had four or more claim the award. Since 2012, Nebraska has had at least two wrestlers earn All-America honors, and the program has earned a total of 144 combined awards from 76 wrestlers.

The 2024-25 season featured a historic campaign. The Huskers went 11-3 (6-2 Big Ten) in the regular season and spent every week as a top-10 program. At the Big Ten Championships, NU earned the most team points ever in a conference tournament (137), while earning a runner-up finish. Brock Hardy (141) and Ridge Lovett (149) claimed conference titles, the first duo in 11 years to bring home multiple championships for the Huskers. It was Lovett's second-consecutive conference title. NU had nine qualifiers for the NCAA Championships, and eight of them garnered All-America honors. For the first time since 1984, Nebraska had three finalists as well as two individual champions. Brock Hardy (141) ended his campaign as NCAA runner-up and an All-American. Ridge Lovett (149) and Antrell Taylor (157) became NU's first champions since Jordan Burroughs in 2011. The Huskers claimed a program-best finish, taking runner-up with the most-ever points at an NCAA Championships (117 pts). The historic tournament run earned coach Mark Manning was the 2025 NCAA Tournament Coach of the Year.

Continuing his success at the national level, Manning helped the Big Red to a third-place finish at the NCAA Championships during the 2025-26 season. The back-to-back top-three finishes at the NCAA Championshis were the first the program has in its history books. The group amassed seven All-America awards, with top finishes coming from Christopher Minto (174) and Antrell Taylor (157). The duo earned a runner-up finish apiece. Throughout the season, the Huskers put together a 13-6 dual record and went 5-3 in the Big Ten. Of 14 Big Ten teams at the Big Ten Championships, Nebraska finished in third with a team score of 116.5. Five Huskers earned runner-up finishes: Brock Hardy (141), Antrell Taylor (157), Christopher Minto (174), Camden McDanel (197) and AJ Ferrari (285). The group earned All-Big Ten Second Team honors.

THE ROAD TO LINCOLN

Manning showed his ability to develop a top-notch program was universal, as he led a turnaround in the tradition-rich Northern Iowa program in his first head coaching position. Manning coached three seasons for the Panthers from 1997 to 2000 in Cedar Falls, Iowa. Under Manning, UNI compiled a 23-24-2 dual record and improved its mark in each of his seasons. His rebuilding effort with the Panthers included strong showings at the NCAA Championships. Northern Iowa tied for 30th in Manning's first year, but improved to a 17th-place showing in 1998 and added an 11th-place finish at the 2000 NCAA Tournament, which was the school's best showing in seven seasons.

Individually, several UNI wrestlers excelled on the national stage under Manning. In each of his last two seasons, the Panthers had a pair of All-

Americans, including Tony Davis. A two-time NCAA finalist, Davis was the national champion at 149 pounds in 2000 and finished second in 1999.

Manning returned the Northern Iowa program to national prominence by attracting some of the nation's top wrestling talent. His first Panther recruiting class was ranked second in the nation, while his second class was tabbed as the top class in the nation in 2000.

Before his appointment as the head coach at UNI, Manning had extensive experience as an assistant coach, including ties to the Big 12 Conference. Manning spent four seasons on Jack Spates' staff at Oklahoma from 1993 to 1997 before accepting Northern Iowa's head position. Manning helped guide the Sooners to three top-10 team finishes at the NCAA Championships during his tenure, including a seventh-place showing at the 1997 national tournament. He assisted in coaching 14 OU wrestlers to All-America accolades, and five Sooners to the NCAA finals. John Kading also claimed the 1996 190-pound title under him. Manning aided in the recruitment of three top-five national recruiting classes while in Norman.

Manning began his coaching career as an assistant at North Carolina from 1985 to 1993. While pursuing his master's degree in sports administration, Manning assisted Coach Bill Lam in guiding 15 Tar Heel wrestlers to All-America honors, including four NCAA finalists and a pair of national champions. UNC posted top-10 NCAA finishes in 1986, 1987 and 1993 with Manning on staff, and captured four Atlantic Coast Conference titles. He also helped attract the nation's top recruiting class to Chapel Hill, N.C., in the spring of 1990.

In addition to his extensive collegiate coaching experience, Manning has been selected numerous times to coach the United States in international competition. He has coached on U.S. Olympic teams as an assistant in 1996, 2000, 2012 and 2016, while also being named the head coach at U.S. Olympic Festivals in 1991, 1993 and 1995. Manning was chosen to head the U.S. freestyle team at the 2001 FILA World Championships and was an assistant on the U.S. delegation to the FILA World Championships eight times. He has also been active at the FILA Junior level, serving as the head coach twice, and traveling to the 2008 FILA Junior World Championships in Turkey as an assistant coach, where he coached Burroughs to a 10th-place finish. In 2009, Manning was a coach for the U.S. Freestyle World Team at the World Wrestling Championships in Herning, Denmark.

MOLDING MANNING

Manning had plenty of experience to build his coaching philosophies, as he was one of the top wrestlers in the nation during his competitive career. Manning wrestled collegiately at Nebraska for one year, before transferring to the University of Nebraska-Omaha. After redshirting a season, Manning went on to become a two-time NCAA Division II national champion and three-time All-American under Coach Mike Denney. Manning posted a 121-23 record for the Mavericks, while capturing titles at 150 pounds in 1983 and 1985. Manning helped UNO earn a third-place team finish in 1983 and runner-up honors in 1985. While competing for the Mavericks, he was the leader of UNO's chapter of Fellowship of Christian Athletes for four years. Manning was inducted into the NCAA Division II Hall of Fame for his accomplishments as a wrestler and coach in 1999.

Manning's competitive career also extended beyond the collegiate ranks. He was a member of the U.S. freestyle team from 1986 to 1989. He won a silver medal at the 1989 Pan American Games.

The Vermillion, S.D., native received his bachelor's degree in physical education from Nebraska-Omaha in 1985, with a specialization in exercise science. Manning was the recipient of an NCAA postgraduate scholarship following his graduation from UNO and earned his master's degree in sports administration from North Carolina in 1989.

Manning and his wife, Carrie, were married in August of 2006. Mark has four sons, Matthew, Connor, Ryan and Will.

NEBRASKA'S COACHING HISTORY

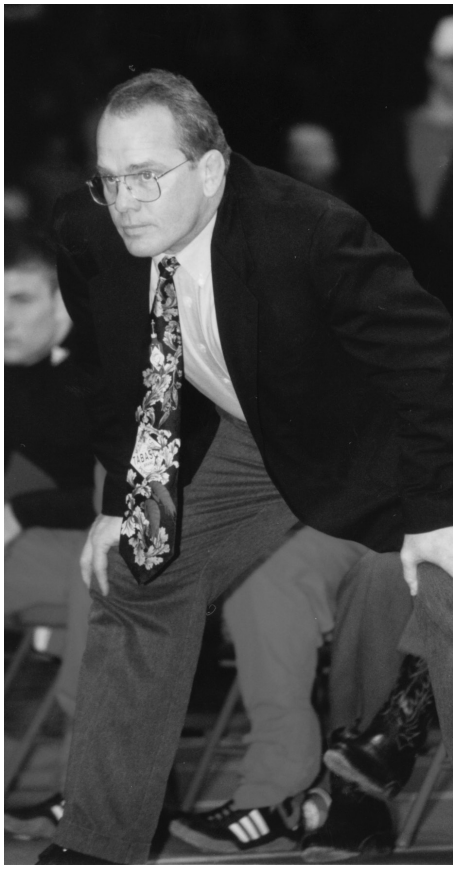

Nebraska has had only 16 head coaches in 107 years of wrestling history, including current Husker coach Mark Manning. Combining for 785 dual wins, NU coaches have always set a standard of excellence in the wrestling community. Dr. R.G. Clapp was the Huskers' first wrestling coach and led the team for 11 years before moving on to promote wrestling with the National Wrestling Coaches Association. Jerry Adam coached Nebraska for the majority of the 1930's and 1940's, before giving way to B.R. Patterson.

Orval Borgialli headed the Huskers for 14 years from 1964 to 1978, amassing 72 dual wins, and Bob Fehrs took over the team until 1985. Fehrs finished with a .648 dual-winning percentage with 95 career dual wins at Nebraska. Tim Neumann racked up 199 dual victories from 1985 to 2000 before Manning took over. Manning has amassed a 318-116-3 mark in Lincoln and is the winningest coach in program history.

Bob Fehrs patrolled the mat for the Huskers from 1978 to 1985, racking up 95 dual wins and coaching 11 Nebraska wrestlers to All-America honors.

Tim Neumann coached Nebraska from 1985 to 2000, producing five top-10 finishes at the NCAA Championships, 40 Husker All-Americans and four NU national champions.

DR. R.G CLAPP
NEBRASKA'S FIRST HEAD COACH (1911-26)

Nebraska's first wrestling coach, Dr. Raymond G. Clapp (1911-26), was more than just a mentor for the first athletes who enjoyed the sport at the university. He was a prominent figure locally and internationally in the world of wrestling.

In the 1890s, Clapp distinguished himself as an all-around athlete while a student at Williston Seminary and at Yale University, starring in football, track, gymnastics and tennis.

It was as a track athlete at Yale that he rose to national and world prominence. Clapp won the IC4A pole vault title twice, annexed the national A.A.U. championship, earned a Canadian title and in 1898, he topped all performances to set a then-world mark in the vault of nearly 12 feet.

Dr. Clapp's interest and ability in gymnastics probably were more responsible than any other one thing in creating his great interest in collegiate wrestling. In addition to his many athletic distinctions, Clapp was crowned the all-around individual gymnastics champion of the Eastern Intercollegiate Association in 1889.

As a member and eventual chairman of the NCAA Wrestling Rules Committee, Clapp was largely responsible for the efficient organization of collegiate wrestling tournaments in the 1930s and 1940s. Clapp pioneered the system that is used to run many of the meets that take place even today.

While Ed Gallagher was building wrestling popularity in the Southwest, and Charlie Mayser was doing likewise in the East and Midwest, Dr. Clapp initiated college wrestling at the University of Nebraska in the earliest days of the sport, serving as head coach from 1911 to 1926.

Known widely as a leader in the promotion of collegiate wrestling, Clapp served in the administrative branch of the National Collegiate Wrestling Association for numerous years.

In 1932 and 1936, Clapp was secretary of the American Olympic Wrestling Committee and in 1940 was elected chairman of the committee. As chairman of the USA-Pan American Wrestling Committee and the committee representative to the 1942 Pan-American Games Committee, Clapp became increasingly prominent in the wrestling community.

For over 30 years, Clapp freely and willingly gave his time and energy to popularize collegiate wrestling.

TROY DANNEN

Director of Athletics

A respected leader in collegiate athletics with deep Midwestern roots, Troy Dannen is in his third year as Nebraska's Director of Athletics. Dannen guides Nebraska's 25-sport athletic department that ranks among the nation's most successful programs both athletically and academically.

Since arriving in March of 2024, the Huskers have post three straight top-25 finishes in the Learfield Director's Cup, marking the first time Husker Athletics has accomplished that feat in more than two decades.

The Huskers enjoyed broad-based success in 2025-26, posting nine top-10 national finishes in earning a 17th-place showing in the Directors' Cup, tying their best finish since 2001. The Husker men's basketball program reached the NCAA Sweet 16 for the first time in school history, the Husker softball team reached the Women's College World Series for the first time since 2013, while the men's and women's outdoor track squads posted top-10 finishes in the same season since 2003.

Dannen has also positioned Nebraska at the forefront of the evolving collegiate athletics landscape. In January of 2026, Nebraska added its 25th sport with the addition of flag football. NU became the first Power Four Conference school to announce the addition of flag football, which plays its inaugural championship season in the spring of 2028.

In April of 2026, Dannen announced the most ambitious project undertaken in Nebraska Athletics history with the "Big Red Rebuild." The $600 million project will transform Memorial Stadium while honoring its storied legacy and usher in a new era of energy, access and year-round engagement. The redesigned stadium will offer improved access, seat comfort, enhanced sightlines, and upgraded amenities throughout the entire stadium when completed in 2028.

Nebraska has maintained its strong tradition of academic excellence, posting a 92 percent Graduation Success Rate in the most recent NCAA release. NU had 10 student-athletes earn Academic All-America honors, raising its Big Ten-leading total to 384, while 323 student-athletes earned Academic All-Big Ten honors in 2025-26.

Dannen has long been a leader in charting the course for the future of college athletics and that has continued in Lincoln. Dannen is in his second year on the College Football Playoff Selection Committee, continuing his impact on the national level, and has been active in Big Ten leadership roles.

During the 2024-25 season, five Husker teams finished in the top four nationally, as the volleyball program reached the Final Four, while the wrestling team posted its highest finish in school history with a national runner-up showing and had multiple individual national champions for the first time since 1984. The softball program won its first NCAA regional since 2014 while baseball repeated as Big Ten Tournament champions. After his arrival in Lincoln in March of 2024, Dannen's first spring featured a pair of Big Ten titles, as the Husker baseball team won the Big Ten Tournament, while the men's track team won the Big Ten Outdoor Championships. Both the Husker men's and women's track teams also posted top-15 NCAA finishes in the outdoor season.

Dannen has been a national leader during his previous stints as Athletic Director at Washington, Tulane and Northern Iowa. He served from 2021 to 2023 as a member of the NCAA Constitution Committee and the Division I Transformation Committee. He also previously served as chair of the NCAA Football Competition Committee and was an Executive Committee member of the Football Oversight Committee. In total, Dannen has served on seven NCAA committees. In 2022, Dannen was a finalist for Sports Business Journal's Athletic Director of the Year award, and he received the Distinguished American Award from the Sugar Bowl Chapter of the National Football Foundation.

Dannen came to Lincoln after serving as Director of Athletics at the University of Washington. He helped guide the Huskies' transition to the Big Ten Conference and oversaw a football program that reached the College Football Playoff National Championship Game in January of 2024.

He took over in Seattle in the fall of 2023 after eight successful years as Director of Athletics at Tulane University. While at Tulane, Green Wave student-athletes earned 49 All-America honors, a national championship, 21 conference championships and 41 postseason appearances.

In 2022-23, Tulane football won its first American Athletic Conference football championship and won the Cotton Bowl over USC, which was ranked ninth in the nation at that time. The men's basketball program won 20 regular-season games for the first time in two decades. Additionally, men's tennis advanced to its sixth NCAA Tournament in seven years, both bowling and beach volleyball finished ranked in the top 20, and baseball won the conference championship.

Tulane's football program participated in an unprecedented three consecutive bowl games from 2018 to 2020, winning back-to-back bowl games for the first time in 128 years of football at the University. In the classroom, Tulane student-athletes excelled at a high level. At the end of the 2022-23 academic year, over 68 percent of Green Wave student-athletes earned a 3.0 GPA or better, with a 93 percent Graduation Success Rate and a record-setting department Academic Progress Report of 992, with seven teams earning a perfect 1000 APR score.

Dannen spearheaded fundraising efforts and numerous capital projects at Tulane. He helped secure the largest unrestricted gift in Tulane Athletics history, an endowment gift that funded the operation of a new sport (sailing), and a $10 million lead gift for capital renovations, which was the second-largest gift in department history. In addition, marketing and licensing revenue grew four-fold, and in 2022-23, Tulane football, basketball and volleyball set ticket sales and revenue records. Under Dannen's leadership, the Green Wave Club Annual Fund grew by 40 percent in donors and 45 percent in dollars raised.

Increases in fundraising and major gift donors positively impacted capital project development and completion. A $13 million renovation to the Reilly Natatorium, home of the swimming and diving program, as well as $8 million in renovations to locker rooms and the sports medicine area inside the Wilson Center were completed in 2023. Dannen also oversaw construction of a new dining facility, weight room, basketball and volleyball locker rooms. Tulane also completed a $2.4 million academic center renovation and a $5 million television and digital production center.

Before taking over the Green Wave program, Dannen served eight years as the Director of Athletics at the University of Northern Iowa (UNI) from 2008 to 2015. During his tenure, the Panthers enjoyed success at both the conference and national levels, highlighted by an NCAA Sweet 16 appearance in 2010 by the UNI men's basketball team. During his eight-year tenure, UNI was recognized with 39 All-Americans, 13 Coaches of the Year and nine Missouri Valley Conference (MVC) Players of the Year. UNI football, men's basketball, women's basketball, volleyball and softball combined to reach 15 NCAA tournaments and 20 postseason berths during that stretch. For his efforts, Dannen was recognized as NACDA's FCS Athletic Director of the Year in 2014.

Prior to his time at UNI, Dannen served as the Iowa Girls High School Athletic Union's Executive Director for seven years, overseeing 400 high schools and 10 sports.

Dannen grew up on a farm just outside Marshalltown, Iowa, and graduated from UNI in 1989 with a degree in communications. He is married to Amy and has four children: Elizabeth, William, Emily and Holly.

KATHERINE ANKERSON

University of Nebraska-Lincoln Interim Chancellor First Season Washington State (1996)

Katherine "Kathy" Ankerson currently serves as interim chancellor of the University of Nebraska–Lincoln. Her appointment was announced Jan. 5, 2026 and she began the interim role on Jan. 12, 2026.

Ankerson previously served as UNL's executive vice chancellor from January 2022 until her retirement on Dec. 31, 2024. She was appointed to that role following an internal search in 2021. Her career in higher education spans 35 years, including 24 years at UNL.

Prior to serving as executive vice chancellor, Ankerson was dean of the College of Architecture from 2016 to 2022, where she led a comprehensive revitalization of the college. Under her leadership, the college experienced significant gains in faculty achievement and student success, including 24% of architecture faculty earning the highest academic and professional honors, an increase in the six-year graduation rate from 50.9% to 71.9%, and five-year employment rates for graduates consistently ranging between 95% and 100%.

Earlier in her career at UNL, Ankerson served as a professor and associate dean in the College of Architecture from 1996 to 2011. She has also held academic positions at Radford University and Washington State University and served as professor and head of interior architecture and product design at Kansas State University.

An award-winning author and educator, Ankerson was named the International Interior Design Association's 2020 Educator of the Year. She is a strong advocate for interdisciplinary and cross-disciplinary engagement, the value of design and making, and the integration of emerging technologies to strengthen traditional design practices. Her leadership emphasizes inclusive innovation and celebrates excellence across academic disciplines.

Among her notable initiatives, Ankerson led the 20th Anniversary Nuckolls Lighting Grant, a collaborative project involving nine educators across architecture, interior design, engineering, and lighting design from four major universities. The effort produced the award-winning, web-based resource Lighting Across the (Design) Curriculum.

An architect and designer by training, Ankerson earned a Bachelor of Science, Bachelor of Architecture, and master's degree from Washington State University.
