SCOUTING THE NORTH CAROLINA A&T AGGIES

North Carolina A&T brings a 1-1 record to Lincoln to face the Huskers. The Aggies are coming off a 62-45 loss at 2026 WNIT Postseason champion Marshall on Friday night.

Head coach Tarrell Robinson has enjoyed remarkable success at North Carolina A&T. Entering his 15th season, Robinson has guided the Aggies to eight postseason tournament appearances, including three NCAA trips. Robinson also has powered the Aggies to six 20-win seasons.

Robinson will be making his second trip to Lincoln after coaching his first game as a collegiate head coach at the Devaney Center against the Huskers on Nov. 9, 2012. His Aggies suffered a 68-50 loss to the No. 18 Huskers, but he went on to lead North Carolina A&T to a 22-10 record that included a trip to the 2013 Postseason WNIT.

Preseason First-Team All-Coastal Athletic Association pick Paris Locke ranks second on the team in scoring with 10.0 points while matching teammate Anaya Karriem for the team lead with 8.5 rebounds per game. Locke, a 6-0 senior forward, also leads the Aggies with 3.0 assists. She averaged 11.2 points, 6.4 rebounds and a team-best 3.6 assists a year ago.

Karriem, a 6-2 sophomore, has added 9.5 points to rank third on the team in scoring. She averaged 5.6 points and 3.3 boards as a freshman and was one of just two Aggies to play in all 30 games a year ago.

Junior Drew Alexander leads the Aggies with 11.0 points per game, including a game-high 17 in a 70-59 season-opening win over Wingate (Nov. 2). The 5-10 guard leads the Aggies with six three-pointers. She spent her first three seasons at Temple and played 31 games with 11 starts for the Owls last season, averaging 5.3 points per game while knocking down 37 three-pointers.

Maraja Pass, a 5-4 senior guard, has contributed 8.0 points, 3.5 rebounds, 2.5 assists and a team-best 3.5 steals. A penetrator and creator, Pass spent her first three seasons at Elon, making 63 straight starts for the Phoenix. She was a CAA All-Rookie selection in 2023-24, averaging 8.6 points, 4.2 rebounds and 3.7 assists per game.

HUSKERS CLASH WITH NORTH CAROLINA A&T

No. 25 Nebraska tries to cap off a perfect three-game season-opening home stand when the Huskers battle the North Carolina A&T Aggies tonight at PBA.

The Big Red is coming off a 98-35 pounding of 2026 NCAA Tournament qualifier and Ohio Valley Conference champion Western Illinois on Saturday afternoon.

Naismith Trophy National Player-of-the-Year candidate Britt Prince led five Huskers in double figures with a game-high 19 points against the Leathernecks. Prince, a Nancy Lieberman Award candidate, set the tone from the tip, knocking down a mid-range jumper from the free throw line just seconds into the game to ignite a quick 6-0 run for the Huskers. Prince became Nebraska's 39th career 1,000th point scorer on her opening shot and finished the day at No. 38 on the Husker career scoring list with 1,017.

The Leathernecks, who returned Mid-Major and Ohio Valley Conference Player-of-the-Year Mia Nicastro from last year's team that won 26 games, never got closer than four points the rest of the way in a dominant performance by Prince and the Huskers.

Amiah Hargrove provided strong production for the second straight game with 17 points and a game-high eight rebounds. The 6-2 junior from Christopher, Ill., ranks second among the Huskers in scoring (16.0 ppg) and leads the Big Red in rebounding with 8.5 boards per contest.

Freshman Ashlyn Koupal added her best performance of the young season with 16 points, four rebounds, three assists and three steals. The McDonald's All-American from Wagner, S.D., is averaging 11.5 points and 3.5 rebounds through her first two games off the bench as a collegian.

Allison Weidner contributed 10 points, four assists and a game-high four steals in her second start. The graduate guard owns an impressive 3-to-1 assist-to-turnover ratio through two games and is tied with Prince for the team lead with five steals.

Emily Fisher added the best performance of her college career with 10 points and six rebounds to round out the five Huskers in double figures. Through two games, Fisher is averaging 8.5 points and 4.5 rebounds off the bench.

Natalie Potts has provided a menacing presence for the Huskers on the defensive end, helping set the tone for a Nebraska defense that forced more than 30 turnovers for the second straight game. Potts, who made her first start of the season on her birthday in front of a large contingent of family and friends, is averaging 11.5 points, 5.0 rebounds and 2.0 steals in her Husker return after missing nearly two full seasons of action with injury.

Nebraska fans also got their first regular-season look at 6-9 center Arek Angui, who put up six points and four rebounds in 10 solid minutes against the Leathernecks.

Freshmen Ava Miles and Maddi Stewart added strong efforts in the win.

While Nebraska's offense was explosive in the win over Western Illinois, the Husker efforts on defense and the glass have been noteworthy. The Huskers have held their first two opponents to 44.5 points per game (3rd, Big Ten) while forcing 32.5 turnovers per contest with 16.5 steals per game (2nd, Big Ten).

The Big Red leads the Big Ten in turnover margin (+19.5) and defensive rebound percentage (.842). The Huskers also rank third in the conference in opponent rebounds (27.5 rpg). Last season, Nebraska ranked 18th in the Big Ten in defensive rebounds per game (22.8).

FACTS & FIGURES

• Kennadi Williams is wreaking havoc defensively this season. The 5-4 junior has not only grabbed four total steals in her first two starts, but she carries a team-best 6-to-1 assist-to-turnover ratio. Over her last eight games dating to last season, Williams has 21 assists and just four turnovers. Perhaps even more impressively, she has snagged 15 steals, while missing just 10 total shots from the floor (7-17). In other words, Williams is a net-positive in possessions for the Huskers during that stretch, with 15 steals and just 14 empty possessions (4 steals, 10 missed field goals), while creating 21 baskets for her teammates.

• Williams (6-1), Prince (7-2) and Weidner (6-2) have combined for 19 assists and just five turnovers through two games, while also joining forces for 14 total steals.

• Nebraska hits the road to battle traditional rival Kansas at the Sanford Pentagon in Sioux Falls on Saturday. The Jayhawks (2-0) own decisive wins over Omaha and Drake before facing Oral Roberts tonight in Lawrence. KU is receiving votes in the national polls.

FIVE ON THE FLOOR

1 Nebraska junior point guard Britt Prince became the 39th 1,000-point scorer in Husker women's basketball history with the first basket of Saturday's win over Western Illinois.

2 Nebraska shoots for its seventh consecutive 3-0 start to a season tonight. Last season, Nebraska rolled to a 3-0 mark with wins over Northwestern State (103-46), Samford (80-46) and Creighton (84-50) on its way to a 12-game season-opening win streak.

3 Nebraska has hit 10 or more three-pointers 57 times in the last 175 games, including eight times in 2025-26. The Huskers hit a school-record 20-of-34 threes in a win over South Dakota at the Sanford Pentagon in Sioux Falls (Nov. 16, 2024).

4 Nebraska tied a Pinnacle Bank Arena record by hitting 16-of-32 threes in a win over Wisconsin (Jan. 20, 2025). Nebraska has produced the five highest season three-point totals in school history the past five years.

5 The Huskers have hit at least one three-pointer in 566 straight regular-season games dating back to a loss at UTEP on Dec. 20, 2009. Nebraska has hit at least two three-pointers in 445 consecutive games.
