Nebraska Postgame Notes vs. Ohio State

Nov. 21, 2026, Memorial Stadium, Lincoln, Neb.

- With the win, Nebraska improved to 2-10 all-time against Ohio State.
- The win was Nebraska's first victory over an AP ranked opponent since a 35-32 win over No. 22 Oregon on Sept. 17, 2016. The victory snapped the Huskers' 31-game losing streak against AP ranked opponents.
- Nebraska rushed for 176 yards, improving to 7-0 this season when rushing for at least 150 yards. The Huskers are only the second team to rush for 150 yards this season against Ohio State.
- Nebraska had two takeaways and did not turn the ball over. The Huskers have not had a turnover in their past three games, giving Nebraska three consecutive turnover-free games for the first time since 2016.
- Senior tight end Luke Lindenmeyer had five receptions for 53 yards. With his five catches, Lindenmeyer increased his receptions total to 40, setting a Nebraska record for season receptions by a tight end. The previous record was Austin Allen's 38 catches in 2021.
- Lindenmeyer increased his career receptions total to 74, eight receptions from Mike McNeill's career record of 82 receptions by a tight end.
- Lindenmeyer had an 11-yard touchdown in the first quarter for his third TD reception of the season. It marked his second straight week with a touchdown reception.
- Receiver Kwazi Gilmer had seven receptions for 73 yards. It marked Gilmer's fifth game this season with at least five receptions.
- Gilmer's touchdown reception in the second quarter was his eighth of the season, moving him into a tie for eighth place on the NU single-season list.
- Quarterback Anthony Colandrea had three passing touchdowns, pushing his season total to 21. He is just the seventh Husker to pass for 20 touchdowns in a season.
- Colandrea added a rushing touchdown in the second quarter for his sixth rushing touchdown of the season, including four in Big Ten play. Colandrea accounted for four total touchdowns for the third time this season.
- Colandrea recorded 263 yards of total offense in the game, his ninth game this season with at least 250 yards of total offense. Colandrea entered the day leading the Big Ten in total offense in conference games.
- With his 263 yards today, Colandrea increased his season total to 3,007, making him the seventh Husker with 3,000 yards of total offense in a season.
- Colandrea threw for 200 yards in the game, giving him 10,039 career passing yards. He also has 1,661 career rushing yards. He is the 21st player in FBS history with 10,000 career passing yards and 1,500 career rushing yards.
- Freshman running back Jamal Rule rushed for 23 times for 70 yards in the first half to push his season total to 705, the most by a Nebraska freshman running back since Ahman Green in 1995.

- Defensive back Donovan Jones forced and recovered a second-quarter fumble, marking his second fumble caused and second fumble recovery of the season.
- Receiver Jacory Barney Jr. had two catches for 16 yards, extending his streak to 37 straight games with a catch. That ties Johnny Rodgers for the second-longest reception streak in school history.
- With his 16 receiving yards, Barney increased his career receiving total to 1,511. He became the 11th player in school history with 1,500 career receiving yards.
- Safety Dwayne McDougle III had three tackles, increasing his career tackle total to 201.
