This is a little friendly email from the Toy Show Team to let you know that the application form for children to take part in this year's TOY SHOW is now OPEN and we'd love your help in spreading the word!

A celebration of all children, the Late Late Toy Show 2025 will be as magical as ever and we want children from all over Ireland to be part of it.

Children are the stars of the Toy Show – so if you know of any children who you think might enjoy taking part in this year's Toy Show, we would love if you could put the word out by forwarding this e-mail to the relevant parents/guardians/teachers/SNAs etc.

All they need to do is fill in this Application Form (with guardians' permission) and upload a short VIDEO. Something simple, filmed on a phone can work really well. Please Note: Photos will not be accepted, only video.

Comhghairdeas Hannah ó rang 6.

She is the youngest swimmer to complete the Island swim, a 3.8km swim around King's Island in Limerick. Given the weather conditions and the tide, the swim was very challenging, but Hannah persevered and completed it in 1hr 34mins and 36secs.

The mayor of Limerick and Paul O'Connell were there to start the race and cheer her on.

Táimid an-bhródúil as ár trí chailíní dhéag ó Rang 2 Aoife agus Erin a thaistil chuig Comórtas Peile na mBan LIDL Passage West i gCorcaigh Dé Sathairn seo caite, mar chuid d'fhoireann peile na mban U8 Mhóin a' Lín.

Ghlac 250 foireann páirt sa chomórtas. D'imir na cailíní go hiontach i gcoinne foirne ó Fhossa, Inse, Baile Mhistéala, Cill Seanaigh agus Lios Tuathail. Móin a' Lín Abú!
