Historic Sporting Day for Scoil Íde Naofa

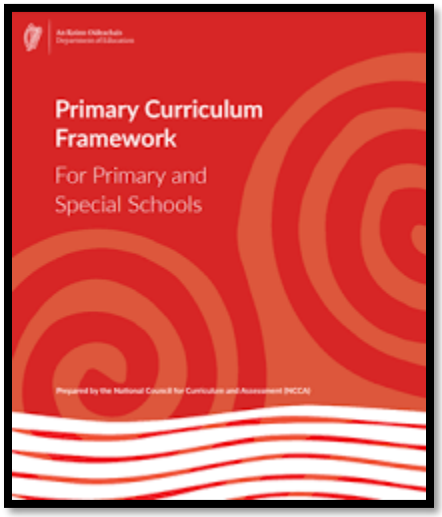

Thanks to the incredible work done by our Parents Association over the summer the school were able to play their first ever Cumann na mBunscol game at home on our school pitch this week. A huge thank you to all who helped to make this happen and to everyone who came out to see our U-11 Footballers mark the occasion with a win vs Lackagh NS!

New Primary Curriculum:

Confirmation and First Holy Communion Dates:

Confirmation and First Holy Communion dates were announced this week. Confirmation will take place on Thursday 26th March (the day before the Easter Holidays) and First Holy Communion will take place on Thursday 7th May (School is closed on Friday 8th May for teacher training on the incoming primary curriculum)

School Building Update:

- The school halla is now back in action and the new radiators are in place. Next stage is the new windows and doors followed by the air to water heat pump.
- Planning permission has been granted for our AS Class extension. A huge thank you and well done to Ms. Finnerty on all her work so far and we hope to be breaking ground in summer 2026

Voting in Presidential Election:

- The school will be used as a polling station for the upcoming Presidential Election on Friday 24th October. Therefore the Halloween midterm break will begin on Thursday 23rd October at 2.40pm.
