As one of the Bay Area's real-estate record shatterers, Matt Zampella is on the fast track to the top end of the luxury real estate market. He has been recognized as one of the top 1,000 real estate agents by the Wall Street Journal and Real Trend's annual rankings report. No matter how hectic he is, Matt is never too busy to answer the phone and show his listings himself. Matt was personally recruited to work at The Sereno Group, which boasts the highest per agent productivity for residential real estate brokers and is ranked the #1 Best Place to Work in the Bay Area. This boutique real estate firm hand picks their agents, creating a culture unparalleled in the industry. In addition to redefining residential real estate, Sereno Group believes in giving back, and so the "1% for Good" was born: Sereno Group has pledged to give 1% of gross commissions to a local charitable group. Matt is tenacious, dedicated, and believes unequivocally that satisfied clients are a product of his hard work, creativity, and experience.
