The Caldwell Thompson Companies is an Independent Real Estate Services Firm with multiple divisions;

- CTI Real Estate (Residential and Commercial)
- CTI Nationwide Relocation
- CTI Property Management

Our entire firm is committed to working together as a unified team to consistently provide superior real estate services in every division. At CTI, it is also a priority is to provide educational development opportunities to our community through our monthly real estate weekend pre-licensing classes, our homebuyer purchase strategies seminars, and the home seller short sale/foreclosure webinars we host.

The outreach initiative that is dearest to our hearts is our charitable platform; CTI Real Estate Professionals actively support four local charities each year. Each of us is committed to giving back to the communities we serve. In keeping with this theme, we annually award a scholarship to a deserving high school senior.
