Step into adventure....Come soar through the lush green forests of the Blue Ridge Foothills and gain a new perspective for a truly unique and exciting experience in nature. The adventure park is nestled on 60 acres in the beautiful Hickory Nut Gorge, just a stone's throw from Lake Lure. Located in North Carolina's Isothermal Belt region, the pleasant weather conditions combined with the plethora of natural vegetation and sky-scraping tree lines almost mimic the feeling of sailing through a rain forest. The adventure tour consists of six (6) zip-lines that are each designed with exhilarating features including Zip Zilla which is over 1,000 feet long and engineered for speed. It's pure adrenaline!
