

Aubrey Anthony Hamid Joins 1% of Agents Nationwide With Prestigious "Premier Luxury Marketing Consultant" Certification

PRESS RELEASE UPDATED: MAR 1, 2017

Orlando, FL, March 1, 2017 (Newswire.com) - Aubrey Anthony Hamid, of Real Estate 360 Inc, has recently been certified as a PLMC designated agent in the state of Florida. This certification is only awarded to a small and select group of Real Estate Agents around the country who complete an intense training program learning how to market and sell luxury properties for absolute top dollar. They then must successfully pass a post training exam to become certified. Less than 1% of all agents nationwide have acquired this designation making it one of the most sought after criteria to look for in a real estate agent representing your luxury priced property.

As a Premier Luxury Marketing Consultant, Aubrey is now qualified to market luxury properties based on the unique amenities that make the property one of a kind. This target marketing approach can find the ideal, most opportune buyer for whom the property is a perfect fit. By finding that targeted buyer, the home can sell for a much higher price and net the homeowner a higher profit.

By no longer focusing on selling the property based on the standard assets (bedrooms, bathrooms, kitchens, locations, etc) Aubrey has shown that his unique marketing skills can secure buyers at a much higher rate than traditional home sales, therefore selling homes faster and for top dollar.

Aubrey focuses his time on narrowly targeting the most ideal opportune buyers and has significantly reduced the amount of time that his listings are available for sale.

"We have found that luxury properties are so unique and special that traditional real estate sales techniques just don't work in today's market. You have to embrace 'New Selling Technology', and we quickly found that when focusing efforts on targeting and finding buyers who are looking for these unique properties are much more successful,” said Greg Luther, founder of Premier Luxury Marketing Consultants™.

About Aubrey Anthony Hamid: A Florida Realtor & R. E. Broker, serving Orlando / Central Florida & parts of South Florida for over 25-Years. Qualified to market and sell luxury properties. Less than 1% of all agents nationwide have acquired this certification, an advantage for both buyers and sellers. Aubrey has earned the distinction of being a “Top Producer,” Top Listing/Top Selling Agent & numerous awards & certifications.
