

Is that an imposter?

---

Because so many adverbs end in -ly, we tend to think that the -ly ending always indicates an adverb. Not so! Can you guess which words below are imposters?

- |                       |          |            |
|-----------------------|----------|------------|
| 1) friendly    | imposter | -ly adverb |
| 2) importantly | imposter | -ly adverb |
| 3) ghastly     | imposter | -ly adverb |
| 4) swiftly     | imposter | -ly adverb |
| 5) skillfully  | imposter | -ly adverb |
| 6) ghostly     | imposter | -ly adverb |
| 7) holy        | imposter | -ly adverb |
| 8) rapidly     | imposter | -ly adverb |
| 9) kingly      | imposter | -ly adverb |
| 10) angrily    | imposter | -ly adverb |
| 11) lonely     | imposter | -ly adverb |
| 12) absently   | imposter | -ly adverb |
| 13) actually   | imposter | -ly adverb |
| 14) amazingly  | imposter | -ly adverb |
| 14) queenly    | imposter | -ly adverb |

