

"gram" Words

"gram" = Greek root word, meaning write, draw, describe, record

Choose which description matches each word.

- |                       |                                                                  |
|-----------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1) Autogram _____     | a) a word where every letter is used the same number of times    |
| 2) Heliogram _____    | b) sentence containing every letter of the English alphabet      |
| 3) Isogram _____      | c) a visual representation of how sound changes                  |
| 4) Monogram _____     | d) a sentence that describes itself                              |
| 5) Pangram _____      | e) two alphabetical letters                                      |
| 6) Phonogram _____    | f) a word with four letters                                      |
| 7) Telegram _____     | g) the visual image transmitted by sound waves                   |
| 8) Tetragram _____    | h) a message transmitted through mirrors and flashes of sunlight |
| 9) Sonogram _____     | i) a symbol or character that represents a sound                 |
| 10) Spectrogram _____ | j) a message transmitted over wires                              |

