

THE INSTITUTE FOR EXCELLENCE IN WRITING—IEW® presents
Structure and Style™ Writing Workshops

that are sure to inspire and equip even the most reluctant writer—or writing teacher!

Teaching Writing: Structure and Style

A Two-Day Workshop for Teachers of Grades 3–12

In this interactive seminar, educators learn IEW's structured and sequential method for developing writing and thinking skills.

- note taking and summarizing from notes
- narrative summaries
- research writing
- writing from prompts
- essay models
- vocabulary building
- sentence variety
- grammar instruction strategies
- organization and reasoning
- content collaboration
- differentiated-instruction best practices
- public speaking
- and more!

Primary Writing with Structure and Style

A Two-Day Workshop for Teachers of Grades K–2

Designed with your primary students' needs in mind, this workshop presents

- five writing structures
- three style strategies
- organization and reasoning
- content collaboration
- basic grammar
- poetry integration
- vocabulary building
- and more!

THREE LOCATIONS

- Charlotte, NC—July 17–18, 19–20
- Elmhurst, IL—July 24–25, 26–27
- Aston, PA—Aug. 7–8, 9–10

Cost for each two-day workshop: $359

Includes curricular material valued at over $250

Register early and receive a $100 IEW Gift Certificate!

FOR MORE INFO OR TO REGISTER
IEW.COM/SCHOOLS/SSWW2018

Linda Mikottis
Senior Implementation Coach

Sharon Ashford
Implementation Coach

Structure and Style is a registered trademark of the Institute for Excellence in Writing, L.L.C.