Common Standards

To serve you in your efforts to nurture basic skills in your students, we have applied the Common Standards indicators to our methodology of teaching students to read, write, and speak the English language. Nothing about our approach has been altered to meet the standards, and they do not change anything about who we are and what we do.

IEW's approach has always focused on helping each child achieve personal excellence, rather than trying to make children fit into categories along with others of similar age. Even when used within a single-grade classroom, this personalized approach is at the heart of IEW's success. As educational fads come and go, a time-tested approach based on careful modeling, incremental growth, and personalized learning will continue to nurture students' minds. We plan to continue our efforts to encourage excellence in writing and inspire our students to think, so that, perhaps, they will change the world.

IEWSchools.com/help-support/resources/articles/concerns-about-common-core

The indicators listed in this appendix are from the Common Core State Standards Initiative. They have been divided by grade and match the lesson plans as laid out in the pacing charts. The first section of each grade level provides the Common Standards indicators by number for each lesson.

The second section provides the details for each of the Common Standards indicators to make it easier to actually see what standard is being met in each lesson. The descriptions include the anchor standards, grade-leveled specifics, and instructional standards.

If you would like to print out each week's standards on a single page to post in your classroom, you can find them at IEWSchools.com/cs-help. (This is a password protected page. To access it, login to your account and use the password: schools.)
