Introduction

Welcome to Structure and Style® for Students, taught by Andrew Pudewa. His humor and step-by-step clarity have yielded amazing results with thousands of formerly reluctant writers. We hope you will have an enjoyable year as you learn to write with Structure and Style!

Assembling Your Binder

Your Structure and Style for Students curriculum features a paper organization system that you will use to manage your coursework and compositions in every stage of the writing process.

To prepare for your first class, take the first eight pages from this packet and place them at the front of your binder—before the Source Texts tab. Each week, you will add the weekly Overview pages to this front section; therefore, place Week 1 Overview, page 9, on top of the pages that you just moved. When you begin Week 2, place Week 2 Overview on top of Week 1 Overview.

The remaining sheets from this student packet should be placed in the back of the binder behind the Documentation tab. You will be instructed each week by either your teacher or Mr. Pudewa where to put these additional pages.

Supplies

Every Structure and Style for Students box comes with a Teacher’s Manual, this student packet, videos containing twenty-four teaching episodes with Andrew Pudewa, and a Student Binder with eight tabs:

Fix It! Grammar

To provide an effective and delightful method of applying grammar rules to writing, consider using Fix It! Grammar in addition to this course.

Vocabulary

Vocabulary words are included in the lessons. Mr. Pudewa defines words on a weekly basis.

Beyond this, you only need a pen and several sheets of notebook paper for each week’s assignment.

Letter to the Editor

Writer's Name: _____

Dear Editor,

Congratulations on being selected to edit the rough draft of the writing assignment for the writer listed above. Every good writer has an encouraging editor. This student is enrolled in my writing course using the IEW® Structure and Style® writing program.

Because this is a school paper, it is easy to be confused about the role of an editor. In order not to inadvertently discourage students who are just learning how to write well, this program's editor has an important distinction.

The editor's job is to simply correct grammar and spelling mistakes. This course requires students to write quickly—hence the possibility of poor handwriting. Additionally, the course requires students to insert specific stylistic techniques which may at times render a sentence more awkward than is desirable. Upon practice, students will become more eloquent in their writing. For our purposes, it is better to undercorrect than overcorrect.

If you choose to accept this task, I encourage you to relax, enjoy reading what this student has written, and simply mark any obvious errors.

Thank you for your willingness to help young people become better writers.

Warmly,

Writing Teacher

The Eagle and the Jackdaw

Attributed to Aesop

A large eagle flew down from his lofty perch, seized upon a small lamb, and carried him aloft with powerful wings and talons. A jackdaw observed the eagle's prowess and was stirred with envy. He wanted to emulate the strength and skill of the eagle. Therefore, he flew around with a great whirl of his wings and settled upon a large ram, intending to carry him off. But his claws became entangled in the ram's fleece, and he was not able to release himself though he flapped his feathers as much as he could. The shepherd, seeing what had happened, ran up and caught him. He at once clipped the bird's wings and took him home that night as a gift for his children. They said to him, "Father, what kind of bird is it?" He replied, "I am certain he is a crow, but he would like you to think he is an eagle."

Source TextKomodo Dragon

The largest lizard in the world is the Komodo dragon. It is named for Komodo, one of the islands it inhabits in Indonesia. Living thirty years, a Komodo dragon can grow to more than ten feet in length and weigh up to three hundred pounds. The fierce Komodo has sharp teeth and thick scales. It has a long forked tongue similar to most snakes. It feeds on almost anything—carrion, deer, wild pigs, smaller Komodos, and even water buffalo. Unlike most lizards, its bite is venomous, decreasing its victim's blood pressure and sending its prey into shock. If the Komodo bites an animal but doesn't kill it, the animal will die a few days later. The Komodo will then find and eat the dead carcass. It can consume eighty percent of its body weight in a single feeding. Then, it can vomit up its meal if it needs to get away quickly. These dangerous reptiles can run up to thirteen miles per hour. Over the past four decades, dozens of people have been attacked by a Komodo dragon, and at least five have died.
