

Velká Pardubická 2020

Pardubice Racecourse

Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe

About the Velká Pardubická

The Velká Pardubická is a famous cross-country steeplechase run in Pardubice, Czech Republic. The first race was run in 1874, and right from the beginning the race attracted great interest. This unique race has a rich and fascinating history and it takes place annually on the second Sunday in October. It is run over a distance of 6.9km (4.28 Miles) and has 31 obstacles, usually taking around 9-10 minutes for the horses to finish the course.

The racecourse is a wonderful green space, which breathes excitement and at the same time relaxation. It is located approximately 1.5 hours from Prague so is easily accessible whilst spending a few days in Czech Republic's Capital City.

Racing Breaks offer packages based in Prague with return transfers out to Pardubice to take in this famous event.

Traditional Folklore Dinner

What better way to experience Czech culture than heading to an evening full of folk music, songs and traditions?

Folklore Garden is a truly unique evening offering an interactive show in the romantic setting of a small castle and folklore village. This special atmosphere is created by the location: near the heart of old Prague and the romantic shores of the Vltava river.

You will never feel lonely in Folklore Garden. You can meet guests from the whole world and are seated at large rustic tables and benches where you can share this experience with other guests.

This is by no means a sit down dinner, you can also dance and sing along! The dancers and singers will involve everyone and you will learn easy Czech folk songs and dances that are cheerful, and create a fantastic mood!

Whilst enjoying the performance of musicians and dancers in folk costumes, a 4 course dinner will be served. You can also enjoy drawing and serving wine using a special pipette – glass wine-taster.

Supplement per person: £40.00 (includes return transfer)
