Nexcom Appoints Finance Director

Copenhagen, October 26, 2026

Nexcom has appointed Camilla Sindet as Finance Director with effect from November 2, 2026. She will have overall responsibility for the company's finance function, including daily operations, financial management and reporting.

Camilla brings more than 20 years of experience in accounting, controlling and financial management from companies including Transcom, Modern Times Group, INK Group and Spilhuset. Her background covers budgeting, forecasting, cash management, management reporting and the automation of finance processes.

With Camilla's appointment, Nexcom is strengthening its finance function to support the company's continued development. She will bring a structured approach to financial planning and reporting, supporting clear financial priorities and informed decision-making.

Working closely with the management team, Camilla will oversee budgeting and forecasting, manage cash flow and deliver financial reporting. A key priority will be to develop efficient finance processes, including further automation of tasks.
