GFI Software™

Secure, business-style email, calendar & collaboration without the high cost

What is GFI KerioConnect?

GFI KerioConnect is a complete secure messaging platform that consists of an Email server with instant messaging, calendars, contacts, tasks, and notes that fits any IT environment

What challenges does GFI KerioConnect help overcome?

- ✓ Affordable SMB focused email solution
- ✓ Data security issues and breaches
- ✓ Complex installations and trainings
- ✓ Privacy and security regulation compliance

How does GFI KerioConnect help?

- Purpose built for smaller businesses with SMB friendly pricing. Scales as users and storage needs grow
- Allows for full control over business communication data by enabling organizations to keep data onsite
- Access, encryption, & identity security provided in addition to built in Antivirus, Anti-Spam, & filtering
- Provides SMBs with an easy to install and easy to manage messaging platform with email & collaboration tools
- Gives SMB's a simple and secure email solution that requires fewer resources and no training
- Allows for server management by in-house staff with a fully managed hosted option

Who are GFI KerioConnect customers?

Small to medium sized businesses typically around 150 users across all industries, with a focus on Government Organizations, Healthcare, Insurance and Banking.

What are some GFI KerioConnect use cases?

"This solution is our SMB alternative to Exchange. We have installed it for more than forty SMB customers, in a Linux environment with all of the collaboration features." - IT Project Manager at a tech services company

"We are running KerioConnect as a mail server on a Windows Server system."
- IT Lead/Print Department at a marketing services firm with 11-50 employees

"An integrated solution for email, calendars and contacts."
- Senior Systems Tech/Admin at a computer software company with 1-10 employees