DISCUSSION

The phalashruti of tapyadi loha is given in tabular format with its action on dosha and dushya.

Vyadhi	Dosha	Dushya
Pandu	Pitta	Rakta, Mansa,
Kasa	Kapha Pradhan vata
Yakshma	Kapha, Vata	Rasa, Rakta, mansa, meda, asthi, majja shukra, Oja
Vishamjwara	Pitta	Rasa, rakta, mansa, meda, asthi, majja
Kanthalroga	Kapha	Rakta, Mansa
Meha	Tridosha	Meda, Rakta, Shukra, Majja, Rasa, Mansa, Oja
Shotha	Tridosha	Twaka, Rakta, Mansa
Shwasa	Kapha, Vata
Apasmara	Tridosha	Manovah Strotasa
Kamala	Pitta	Twaka, Rakta, Mansa
Gudaroga	Kapha, Vata	Twaka, Mansa, Meda

The rogadhikara of Tapyadi loha is Pandu. So, It can be concluded from above table that this kalpa acts predominantly on vitiated Kapha and pitta dosha but as well as balances tridosha. The tapyadi loha acts from rasa dhatu to shukra dhatu. It mainly acts on rasa, rakta and mansa dhatu. It acts on ushna, tikshna and ruksha guna of pitta dosha. The pachaka, dipaka and snigdha dravya gives prakrut gati to margavarodhjanya vata. The ushna, tikshna, dipaka and pachaka dravya acts as kleda nashaka of kapha dosha. The rest content like raupya, mandura, suvarnamakshika, shilajatu, loha, devadaru and sharkara acts as dhatuposhaka.

CONCLUSION

It is given that “Raktam jivam!” this kalpa acts mainly as rakta dhatu prasadaka and vardhaka. Improved Rakta dhatu is responsible for good quality of other dhatus. Tapyadi loha is not only pandu vyadhi nashaka but also balya, rasayana, pachaka, dipaka and apasmara nashaka.
