A range of services includes crisis assessment and intervention and stabilization services. -Peer & Family Navigators: Peer & Family Navigators are consumers of mental health/substance use services and are currently in recovery. They are an integral part of the Mobile Outreach team providing short term supports to help others become and stay engaged in the recovery process to promote recovery. -Mental Health/Police Liaison: Working closely with the Portland Police Department, this specially trained staff-person provides crisis intervention, assessment, and assistance in facilitating crisis services. -Broadway Crossings: a short-term therapeutic, crisis stabilization unit that is an alternative to hospitalization for adults experiencing a mental health crisis. Statewide Crisis Telephone Response: The primary entry point of access to the continuum of activities within the Crisis Intervention System and all associated services. -TOA's Opioid Health Home- (OHH) exists to support optimal service delivery to individuals living with opioid use disorder by offering office-based Medication Assisted Treatment (MAT). Medication is supplemented with individually tailored nurse care management, substance use counseling, case management, and peer support by team members who strive to adhere to harm-reduction and trauma informed principles, understanding that people with opioid use disorder are all in varied stages of their recovery process.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

Service Area 3: Family and Community Supports-The Public Health Program (PHP) engages communities to improve health and wellness for all. The program aims to prevent the onset of health problems by addressing community factors that may put people at risk for poor health outcomes-Parenting Education: provides individual coaching for parents, conducts trainings for parents and educators, and supports a variety of initiatives to improve parenting.-Parents as Partners: Parents who have navigated the state's child protective system successfully reunifying with their children, act as advocates and provide support to parents currently engaged in the system and attempting to reunify with their children.-Parent Coaching: Parent Coaches work with parents to customize a program that meets their particular parenting needs. Through individualized support, weekly group meetings, and connection to resources, we help parents define goals, reduce stress, and strengthen their relationships with their children.-STRONG Fathers: a program that helps men to become more skilled and active parents through classes, workshops, discussion groups, family activities, and individual mentoring.-Community Services Case Management: staff provides brief crisis intervention, assessment, work plan development, and information and referral.-General Assistance Administration: Through contracts with approximately nine towns in Cumberland County, we serve as the General Assistance Administrators assessing and granting funds to income-eligible individuals and linking them to additional services.-Community Partnerships for Protecting Children (CPPC): a locally driven, national initiative that aims to enhance the lives of children and their families by engaging neighbors and communities to support families before there is a need for more disruptive and costly intervention.-The Parkside Neighborhood Center: works to strengthen individuals & families living in the Parkside neighborhood of Portland by offering educational and cultural opportunities to connect diverse neighbors and promote social and physical well-being. The Center's programming adapts to emerging needs, the list of current program offerings is subject to change.-The Next Step Loan Fund: is a low interest micro loan program created to help small business owners in Cumberland County start or expand their business, offering a "next step" to a more secure, economically independent life.-Westbrook Children's Project: promotes healthy development for Westbrook children and youth in an effort to reduce the risks of equipment.- Resident-Led Community Building (RLCB) attempts to help transform target neighborhoods into communities where individuals and families know each other, care about each other and eventually take care of each other. It does not operate as a stand-alone program, but rather serves as a catalyst to empower communities to achieve what they want for their children, families and neighborhoods. RLCB gets residents better connected to existing resources and leverages the natural assets that exist in our neighborhoods.- Family Resiliency Pilot program uses a two-generation (2G) approach to working with families to increase their self-sufficiency. The Pilot program includes a cohort of families who, in partnership with Family Resiliency Advocates, identify goals and pursue pathways to achieving them. The program includes educational and socio-economic supports and opportunities for both children and parents.-The SPF-Partnerships for Success project is a community-driven effort to advance substance use prevention in the communities of Portland, South Portland, Westbrook and Bridgton, Maine. The project will impact youth who are at the greatest risk for substance use and mental health disorders, including persons aged 9-20 who have experienced trauma, are part of the immigrant and refugee community in the catchment area, and/or identify as LGBT.-TOA administers Wrap funds for Cumberland County residents only; this includes individuals moving to Cumberland County or those who are current residents. Individuals cannot apply for funding themselves, they must utilize the services of their case manager/care coordinator, clinician, etc.
