EIN: 01-0284340

Name: Goodwill Industries of Northern NE

Form 990 (2018)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Retail with 1,204 employees the retail division collected over 61 million pounds of donated goods from communities throughout Maine, New Hampshire and northern Vermont. Those goods, along with other items, were sorted, processed, priced for sale in 30 stores and two buy-the-pound outlets. Through sustainable processes that serve the well-being of people and the environment, while generating revenue of operations and Goodwill-designed programs, the division attained a diversion rate in excess of 76% as it works toward zero waste goals. T-shirts and other textiles that were not in saleable condition were repurposed into industrial wiping cloths or baled and sold in the aftermarket. Computer donations are sorted for their highest and best use through our Good Tech initiative or responsibly recycled through our partnership in Dell Reconnect. The retail division provides job training opportunities for our Workforce Services participants as appropriate.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Healthcare with 357 employees, the healthcare division served 1,350 individuals through several programs including 24/7/365 residential services, neurorehabilitation services, community integration services for the Deaf, as well as pre-vocational and life skill programs for adults with intellectual disabilities. Staff at 23 residential programs provide safe, therapeutic housing and comfort to people with disabilities due to brain injury, adults with intellectual disabilities as well as individuals who are Deaf and live with mental illness. Services under several waiver programs allow 47 individuals with brain injuries or other related conditions to remain in their homes while receiving in-home supports for activities of daily living and community integration.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

Workforce Services 89 employees in the Workforce Services division delivered services for youth and adults whose life circumstances present significant barriers to successful employment and stability. Personalized services include Job Connection's intensive life navigation one-on-one guidance, coaching, training and career advising to help assure positive outcomes on-the-job that lead to the participant building a stable life. This aligns with our work with over 1,100 businesses in our region to help them meet their workforce development goals through our services. Our AmeriCorps programs (Goodwill VISTA, Granite State Education Corps and Multilingual Leadership Corps) build the career capacity of the AmeriCorps members and the resiliency of communities in which they serve. With more than 46,000 visits to the info centers, our Workforce Services provided services for people in our region looking for jobs, including resume creation, interview preparation, as well as overall career, training and education services including intensive on- on-one support, on-the-job training, coaching and job placement referrals.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	The Agency has conflict of interest policies that pertain to all board members and employees. Board members must disclose any conflicts at least annually or when they arise. Neither board members or employees can receive personal benefit as a result of their relationship with Goodwill NNE.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15	The current Chief Executive Officer compensation was determined during the hiring process by the Board of Directors with guidance from a professional executive search firm and data from Goodwill Industries International. On an annual basis, Human Resources gathers data from the external sources from comparable organizations to determine compensation ranges for the executive team and the Chief Executive Officer. The Chief Executive Officer then determines the compensation for the specific executive team members. An ad hoc Board of Directors compensation committee approves and captures the decision in the minutes.
