Part I Summary

1 Briefly describe the organization's mission or most significant activities
Chhaya CDC was founded in 2000 to advocate for the housing needs of New York City's South Asian community. Our mission is to work with New Yorkers of South Asian origin to advocate for and build economically stable, sustainable, and thriving communities. Chhaya carries out this work in several ways, including free direct services, education and outreach, community organizing, and research and policy, as well as both local and citywide coalition-building. Our work encompasses tenant rights, financial capacity building, sustainable homeownership, foreclosure prevention, energy efficiency, women's financial empowerment, workforce development, civic engagement, and broader community building and research and advocacy around community needs. By focusing on core areas of housing and economic development, the basic necessities essential to one's stability, Chhaya is able to impact a range of social outcomes, including education, employment, civic participation, community pride, and mental health and well-being.
