Our Jewelry Design and Entrepreneurial program is designed to teach participants about sustainable jewelry and ways to market their finished designs. In 2009, PWC launched its Car Wash After-school Program, including an environmental job-training program. The newly expanded SUTER (Students Using Technical Education Resources) green jobs outreach program, an alternative learning program for at-risk and high-risk youth, utilizes the resources and leadership of the Technical Education students, by bringing computer skills and environmental education relating to the green jobs industry to youth and youth adults lacking adequate job skills and educational resources needed to secure and maintain skilled jobs with which to support themselves.
