Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

In-home family services is a short-term six to eight week, intensive, in-home program designed to prevent imminent out of home placement and keep families together. A Family Consultant spends on average up to 10 hours a week in a family's home and community to help parents provide a safe, healthy environment for their children. The Family Consultant focuses on family strengths, helping the family to become self-sufficient, and improve parenting techniques. The Family Consultant not only provides interventions in the family's own home and community, but also links the family to community resources needed to maintain stability. Family Consultants are on call 24 hours a day 7 days a week. Care Coordination Services provide intensive case-management services for families in or approaching situations. Trained Consultants help families build and maintain family stability, develop parenting skills to support youth independence, and access community resources. Care Coordination Services provide a lifeline to family members by ensuring they receive the right care at the right time.
