Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

In-home family services is a short-term ten to twelve week, intensive, in-home program designed to prevent imminent out of home placement and keep families together. A Consultant spends on average up to 4-6 hours a week in a familys home and community to help parents provide a safe, healthy environment for their children. The Consultant focuses on family strengths, helping the family to become self-sufficient, and improve parenting techniques. The Consultant not only provides interventions in the familys own home and community, but also links the family to community resources needed to maintain stability. Family Consultants are on call 24 hours a day 7 days a week. Care Coordination Services provide intensive case-management services for families in or approaching situations. Trained Consultants help families build and maintain family stability and access community resources and supports. Care Coordination Services provide a lifeline to family members by ensuring they receive the right care at the right time. In this intensive, family centered case management program,

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 11b	A review was performed by an external accounting firm, the organizations treasurer and president. After these reviews, an electronic copy of the final Form 990 was provided to all directors of the affiliate board before it was filed.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c	FFBH, the sole member, regularly and consistently monitors and enforces compliance with its conflict of interest policy mainly through official annual affirmations, self-reporting and observation. Directors are covered by a director conflict of interest policy, and employees are covered by a separate policy. Directors must complete a conflict of interest disclosure form and report any perceived or actual conflict. Any perceived or actual conflict of interest is reviewed by the Executive Committee, with assistance of General Counsel. If a conflict does exist, the Committee shall determine an appropriate remedy which may include, without limitation, the director to recuse him/herself from participating in certain deliberations and votes, removing the trustee from a committee or Board. Officers and employees of Boys Town complete a Conflict of Interest Disclosure annually, identifying all actual, apparent, and potential Conflicts of Interest. Staff are also required to report any situation involving a conflict of interest that may arise during the year to their supervisor and submitting a new Conflict of interest Disclosure for review by the compliance department. If a conflict of interest does exist, the Compliance department would work with the employee and supervisor to remedy the conflict of interest. Any perceived conflict of interest can also be reported for review through a confidential organizational ethics line at www.boystownethics.com.
