Part I Summary

1 Briefly describe the organization's mission or most significant activities:
 HOPE Youth Ranch is a non-denominational, Christian-Faith-Based therapeutic and educational overlay services for boys and girls. The Ranch offers the opportunity for chronically traumatized and developmentally delayed children to learn in a structured and supportive environment while they are modeled and coached on social skills by Teachers, Therapists, and Psychiatrists. Private education to the community children with learning disabilities and developmental delays is provided through our in campus school HOPE Ranch Learning Academy. Emphasis is placed on observable self performance as well as team participation. Through Individualized Treatment Plans, each child's unique needs are quantified and tracked for improvement. As a result, over 90% of the children admitted successfully complete the program and go on to live productive lives.
