Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

The Home Share Pinellas (Home Share) program was founded by the LCHC in 2006. The program has been addressing the lack of affordable housing in Pinellas County for more than a decade. Home Share staff facilitate an extensive screening, application and interviewing process prior to Home Providers and Renters being approved program participants. Home Providers are home owners who have a home, yet struggle to keep up with ownership expenses such as a mortgage, taxes, insurance, and maintenance costs. They need a trustworthy tenant that can reliably pay below market rate monthly rent. This steady income allows home owners to avoid foreclosure and have enough money to live. Many Home Providers have stated that having a long-term Renter enables them to achieve greater quality of life goals. Plus, the companionship is often a welcomed bonus. For the past 3 years, the average length of stay has been 24 months (2 years). To date, 3 matches (6 people) were successfully matched and experienced more than 6+ years home length of stay. Home Share Renters are individuals in need of housing that will allow them to pay an affordable rent, live in a comfortable environment and have long-term housing peace of mind. Renters can be students, adults, small families, or people on fixed incomes who don't qualify for assistance. Renters are working adults who can pay rent but find costly applications and deposits to be barriers to obtaining quality housing. Most Home Providers are asking a rent rate between $500-$650 a month and this rate also includes utilities. The LCHC, nonprofit organization that created and leads Home Share Pinellas, contracts with local and state government agencies to fund operational costs. Each agency requires full compliance with regulations and program performance measures. A special objective of the program model is to talk with Home Owners and Renters to understand their needs, interests and preferences. Home Share professional staff promote living arrangements that are a good fit and mutually beneficial. Home Share is not a financial assistance program and funds are not distributed to participants. Instead, Renters benefit from access to quality homes with reasonable rent. There are no application fees or deposits required for Home Share services. The program strives to provide affordable housing and empower stability. Most often, the Renter and the Home Provider are so pleased with the living arrangement that it becomes long-term housing solution. In 2017, the program experienced on average, 2 years length of stay for matched clients. This is empowering for both the Renter and the Home Provider.
