Form 990EZ Part II Line 26 - Beginning of Year- $19- federal payroll tax payable relating to December 2015 Payroll.

Form 990EZ Part III Organization's Primary Purpose: IMPACT's Interfaith member congregations are of diverse racial and economic backgrounds, who pledge to work together to research and conduct public education to address the root causes of poverty and injustice, through the empowerment of low to moderate income people.

Form 990EZ Part III Line 28- Achievements: Each year, through an extensive listening process, community problems are identified and selected to be the focus of the current year. Research is conducted on the issues by volunteer committees. Finally, meetings are held to educate the members and the public regarding the issues selected. This process provides leadership development and a venue for relationship building across diverse backgrounds while working to promote issues of justice in the community. The issue selected 2015/2016 relates to long term care for the elderly- affordable at home care, isolation and navigating the system for help. In addition there was follow up with the prior year issue of proposed residential treatment facility for women with substance abuse issues.
