Form 990 (2016)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Our Direct Aid Program for veterans provides immediate relief for vets after they provide documentation of service and need. These services vary but the most common request are for providing shelter or rent, keeping utilities turned on, repairing a car for work, clothing/ shoes for work and food that food banks don't offer. Our Outreach Program is a work program designed for veterans that are otherwise unable to hold gainful employment due to various health and mental factors. They are able to gain work skills such as communications with both the public and co-workers, cleanliness and grooming, respect of authority, understanding simple document completion, the value of fulfilling scheduled time commitments, etc. This program creates a sense of belonging and personal worth that many have not experienced since their time in the service.
