Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

The Direct Aid Program provides veterans and their families up to 200 00 per year in states that we are registered in. Direct aid needs addressed have included, but are not limited to, shelter, rent, utilities, food, auto repairs, clothing, and relocations. We work with veterans to help them find employment if they are able, either outside employers or agencies that we are associated with or through our own Workforce Program which we call our Outreach Program. They are able to gain work skills such as communications with both the public and co workers. They are coached on cleanliness and grooming with to respect for authority. We offer free clothing and personal items to veterans through our Heroes Closet Program. Donations are received, processed, and made available to veterans to browse through at no cost. Weve dressed veterans for every occasion such as job interviews, excercising, leisure, and even funerals and weddings.
