funds provide a range of services and activities to assist the needs of low-income individuals including the homeless, migrants and the elderly. Grant amounts are determined by a formula based on each State's and Indian Tribe's poverty population. Grantees receiving funds under the CSBG program are required to provide services and activities addressing employment, education, better use of available income, housing, nutrition, emergency services and/or health. Beneficianes are low-income individuals that may be unemployed or receiving public assistance, including Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF), at-risk youth, custodial and non-custodial parents, residents of public housing, persons with disabilities, persons who are homeless, and individuals transitioning from incarceration into the community The Community Action Agency of St. Louis County administers these programs throughout St. Louis County. Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 4	During fiscal year 2016 the organization amended its bylaw's as follows. Language was chang ed regarding Representatives of Public Sector. The board members of the public sector shal. Ibe St. Louis County, Missouri elected public officials holding office on the date of appointment to the board, or their duly appointed representative. If the number of elected of ficials reasonably available and willing to serve on the Board is less than 1/3 of the mem bership of the Board, membership on the Board of appointed public officials or their representatives may be counted tow and meeting such 1/3 requirement. One public sector represent ative may be appointed by the St. Louis County Executive. The representatives of the elect ed public officials shall have either general governmental responsibilities or interests in poverty-related issues. Appointment as a representative, except the appointed representative of the County Executive, is acceptable only when there are insufficient elected or appointed officials available and willing to serve on the board of Community Action Agency of St. Louis County, Inc. The board shall choose all other public sector representatives. If for some reason the St. Louis County Executive is unable or unwilling to make an appoint ment for such public sector representative the board shall seek such appointment from another level of St. Louis County government. Language was added as to tenure. Any board member that has completed a total of five consecutive terms for a total of ten years will be eligible to become a member of the CAASTLC Advisory Council and, after serving a minimum of one year as a member of the Advisory Council, will be eligible to be reconsidered as a CAA STLC board member, provided that a seat is available in the appropriate sector. The following language was added to the conflict of interest language. Pursuant to CAASTLC's Whistle blow er/Complaint Resolution Policy, in keeping with the policy of maintaining the highest standards of conduct and ethics all Board members are
