Form 990 (2016)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Approximately 600 business and state leaders attended the 36th Annual Arizona Forward Environmental Excellence Awards. The event recognizes outstanding contributions to the physical environment of local communities. It spotlights distinguished projects throughout Arizona that demonstrate a high level of environmental commitment and contribute to overall sustainability with over 120 entries. The coveted Crescordia Award sets standards for the exceptional physical, technical and social development in Arizona. Seven broad categories include buildings and structures, livable communities, site development and landscape, art in public places, environmental technologies, environmental education, communication and environmental stewardship. The program serves as a benchmark for promoting sustainability, conserving natural resources and preserving unique desert environment for future generations.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Approximately 250 business and state leaders attended the Stewardship Summit which continued the dialogue on Building Healthy Communities for Healthier Lives Program featured a briefing from the International City/County Management Association on global efforts tying community design to public health and wellness. The Statewide Mayor and City Managers Panel discussed what cities are doing to enhance Arizona cities and towns in this area.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

Arizona Forward hosted 400 Arizona educators at the 13th Annual EarthFest Educators Night at the Phoenix Zoo. This innovative program combines entertainment and education, showcasing environmentally oriented curriculum, activities and programs the unique desert character of Arizona. Booths representing public and private sector environmental education programs, along with exhibits from the non-profit and educational communities are featured at the event. All participating teachers were gifted with a classroom size recycling bin. Seasoned experts hosted workshops on Biomimicry and Sharing a Watershed.
