Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Programs, Clubs, Outings, and Activities: We run after-school programs that are focused on providing an alternative to children and youth as well as teaching them the Word of God. We had 714 different kids that attend our various clubs. At the clubs, the children are given a chance to play games, do crafts, and learn about the Bible. During the year we also provide various special events for the kids that consist of special days in our building or taking kids to events. We had over 1,200 children attend the special events in our building where we informed them about how they could become involved in our programs that we run. We also had an event we took the kids to once a month where we average 50 children per event. Each of these are focused on spending time with children while providing a fun experience for them.

We had an average of 186 kids per week in Bible study/discipleship relationship with staff, 2 kids in the beginning stages of the leadership training, 3 that work as interns, 1 student we are helping to pay for college and 4 full time staff members that were partially funded through this part of our ministry.
