Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

The Housing counseling staff provides much needed services in the areas of pre-purchase housing counseling and mortgage default. Most services are provided to our clients at no charge. In addition to working with clients who are in danger of losing their homes or apartments, we also refer potential first time homebuyers to programs teaching purchase procedures and requirements of making their initial home purchase. In the process of working with these clients, they are educated on proper budgeting processes to help them prevent occurrences of a negative financial situation.

Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule D, Part X, Line 2	The Organization is a tax-exempt organization under Section 501(c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code. The Organization follows the accounting standard on accounting for uncertainty in income taxes, which addresses the determination of whether tax benefits claimed or expected to be claimed on a tax return should be recorded in the financial statements. Under this guidance, The Organization may recognize the tax benefits from an uncertain tax position only if it is more likely than not that the tax position will be sustained on examination by taxing authorities, based on the technical merits of the position. Examples of tax positions include the tax-exempt status of The Organization and various positions related to potential sources of unrelated business taxable income. There were no unrecognized tax benefits identified or recorded as liabilities for the reporting period presented in the financial statements. The Organization files Form 990 in the U.S. federal jurisdiction and the State of Illinois.
