| Part X FIN48 Footnote | Effective January 1, 2009, generally accepted accounting principles require the organization to evaluate the level of uncertainty related to whether tax positions taken will be sustained upon examination. Any positions taken that do not meet the more-likely-than-not threshold must be quantified and recorded as a liability for unrecognized tax benefits in the accompanying balance sheet along with any associated interest and penalties that would be payable to the taxing authorities upon examination. Interest and penalties associated with unrecognized tax benefits would be classified as additional income taxes in the statement of income. The organization believes that none of the tax positions taken would materially impact the financial statements and no such liabilities have been recorded. |

| Form 990, Part I, Organization's mission | Pathway Caring for Children is a private, non-profit social service agency. Its mission is to empower children and families to realize their potential and achieve the possibilities of their lives through innovative mental health, foster care, and adoption services. Its vision is to provide compassionate care for children and families. The staff members, volunteers, and foster parents of Pathway seek to carry out seven basic ideals with the youth who come to us. Most important, we love and care for each youth individually. We recognize them as persons and teach them to respect themselves and others, provide them with the security of knowing that we are there for them, help them find the paths of success in school, work and social relationships, encourage them in the assumption of responsibility for themselves and their actions, and become personally involved with them in their struggle for meaning and purpose in life. |
