Form 990 (2018)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Our other programs involve health and fitness available for the benefit of all members and participants. We help people of all ages and abilities develop health in spirit, mind and body as this is our core in the YMCA movement. Our programs are designed to help people create realistic goals for self improvement and emphasize disease prevention through regular exercise and education. Sports programs for adults promote teamwork, interaction and development of social and physical skills. We deliver membership services to a local college, provide programs for homeschooled children and their families. We collaborate with the local senior center to provide health and wellness programs for senior citizens. We also deliver membership wellness services to local non-profit agency clients at no additional charge. Financial assistance is available to anyone unable to pay the stated fees for services or memberships.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Our YMCA provides high quality child care by providing comprehensive activities for preschool and school age children drawing on diverse members of the community. We provide both full and part time options to serve a wide range of family schedules. Through this program we accomplish our mission of strengthening families. Our child care program relieves the burden of balancing work and family and makes it possible for parents of children in our care to remain gainfully employed, knowing that their children are thriving in a safe, developmentally sound environment. We collaborate with other social service agencies to provide aid to families who need help due to family violence, abuse, ect. YMCA financial assistance policies help ensure that every child has a space in our program. Currently we provide child care to children ranging in age from infants to 13 years old.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

Aquatic programs are an integral part of the Y's purpose in building a healthy spirit, mind and body for individuals. In addition to providing specific educational water safety skills, aquatics promotes healthy lifestyles. Through aquatic safety classes children learn to swim and stay safe around water. Our aquacise classes address the need for self improvement and disease prevention through regular exercise. Our swim teams promote socialization, develops self esteem, and value education for a lifetime. Our family swim program allows children and adults to share time together and to appreciate one another and promote intergenerational relationships. Our services are offered at affordable fees for the community at large, with reasonable accommodations for those with special needs, and financial assistance is available for those who cannot afford the full fee.
