Return Reference	Explanation
Monitoring procedures (Part I, line 2)	Under the Food Distribution Program the organization does monitor the amounts of grants or assistance to individuals. Individuals are limited to the number of times they may utilize a food bank and are limited to the number of different food banks they may access. The food bank is open to all individuals and families. Under federal program guidelines, the organization is not required to monitor the eligibility of the individuals using the grant funds. The individuals and families should provide a self-declaration of income which the organization keeps for its records.
Additional Information for Schedule I	Under the Direct Client Payments Program the organization provides assistance to the individuals and families by paying for certain living expenses on behalf of the individuals or families. These expenses include, but are not limited to, rent and utilities. The individuals and families file a declaration of income to verify their eligibility in which the organization keeps for its records.
