Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Education and Public Awareness- Education topics are designed to reduce infant deaths and reduce the risks associated with SIDS and other preventable sleep-related infant deaths and promote safe sleep habits and infant health, safety and survival. Education is directed to: first responders, EMT's, paramedics, firemen, police, emergency room personnel, physicians, nursing schools, high school health classes, teen parents, hospital nurses, social workers, childcare providers, health occupations teachers, university students, Department of Human Services supervisors and the general public including parents and grandparents. Provided education to all nursing staff and social work staff in the newborn nursery, post partum and NICU nursery for all birthing hospitals in Allegheny County, as well as for nurses and social workers at Children's Hospital of Pittsburgh and statewide and national nursing conferences. Approximately 10,000 professionals and individuals in the general public were educated through formal presentations, health fairs and community events.
