Keystone organizations (Keystone) provide comprehensive community-based services for children, young people, adults and families in the areas of intellectual disabilities, autism, mental health, early intervention and children and family services. Keystone accomplishes its Mission through a family of agencies and subsidiaries of Keystone Human Services (KHS). KHS sets the strategic direction for Keystone, which includes: 1. Apply Human Resource Strategies and Policies Essential to Achieve Our Mission; 2. Apply Our Expertise and Capacity Globally; 3. Continue to Acquire State of the Art Information and Communication Infrastructure to support the strategy and mission of the organization; 4. Develop, Expand, and Promote Comprehensive Systems of Care; 5. Establish a Comprehensive Fundraising, Development, Media and Grant-Writing Capacity; 6. Exercise Responsible Stewardship for the Resources and Capacities entrusted to Our Care; 7. Establish and maintain a capital base appropriate to sustain our mission and responsibilities for the long term; 8. Play a Leadership Role in the Human Services Industry. Keystone achieved the following significant accomplishments during the fiscal year ended June 30, 2016: In the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, KSS operates Intellectual Disabilities services through which individuals received services in a variety of settings ranging from their own homes to agency owned homes, family-provider homes, community supports, and adult day centers. Approximately 1,250 individuals receive services through these programs. KSS also operates Adult Mental Health services are offered in a variety of settings ranging from the homes of the individuals served to agency-owned homes, the community, employment centers, psychiatric rehabilitation programs, and drop-in centers. Approximately 1,350 individuals receive services through these programs. Key supports individuals in the State of Connecticut with intellectual disabilities in residential services. In the Individual and Family Support Services (IFS) individuals received support services in the areas of autism, individualized day support, supported homes and youth transition. KP is the fundraising organization for Keystone. Funds were raised on behalf of all of Keystone's programs. Specific efforts are directed towards those programs that are significantly dependent upon private donations to fund operations. KHSI is dedicated to advancing the Mission and Vision of KHS internationally. KHSI has an international subsidiary, Keystone Human Services International Moldova Association (KHSIMA) located in the republic of Moldova. KHSIMAs Community for All Moldova (C4A MD) initiative is assisting the Moldavian government put into effect policies and practices regarding the rights of people with disabilities, in particular, focusing on the unjust institutionalization of children and adults with intellectual disabilities. The goal of this program is the closure of a long stay residential institution in Orhei, Moldova, and the development of community based services as the alternative to institutional care. Over the long term, this initiative is focused on creating a future of full societal inclusion for all children and adults with intellectual disabilities in Moldova. To date, 130 children and adults have been moved from Orhei institution and an additional 12 individuals have been moved from the Hincesti institution with the support of the C4A MD team. Individuals have either been reunited with biological, extended or foster families, or have moved into community homes. Keystone Autism Services served 154 adults through the Adult Community Autism Program (ACAP) during the year. Keystone continued to meet established financial objectives aimed at strengthening the financial base to assure long term commitments of service can be honored while at the same time maintained high quality of services provided. KHS and all of the Keystone subsidiaries received unmodified opinions, the highest level of assurance available of their financial statements by independent international auditing firm. No significant corrections or internal control related matters were noted by the auditing firm.
