Name: Heartland Institute of Financial
Education

Form 990 (2018)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

By offering financial wellness courses to employers all across america, the Heartland Institute of Financial Education has been able to provide financial education classes to over 800 employers, including corporations, school systems, churches, hospitals, government agencies, state agencies, colleges, high schools, and more. Our instructors have provided financial education for over 10,000 adult learners who have gained the opportunity to improve their financial situation and enjoy a more complete, financially secure life. These classes continue to provide ongoing training and guidance for adults as we consistently find new ways to positively impact adults in their everyday lives.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

By providing affordable and professional coaching to students and parents we have helped over 3,500 students not only select the best career and college, but also save millions of dollars in out-of-pocket expenses. One of the key areas of focus for the Institute is to provide personal, professional coaching services for our students. This is accomplished by finding qualified individuals who have professional experience in the college/university environment, both from an administrative or teaching perspective and from the experience of working with students. These coaches provide our students with hands-on guidance at an affordable cost.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

Empower your assets (EYA) delivers the life skills of development, confidence, capability, and accountability in a framework of practical financial literacy and college/career guidance and success. EYA is transformational by empowering the student with awareness and ability to employ his or her "entire person as an asset." We, and the student, deploy design, vision, persistence and capabilities that education can afford. Practical tools of "how-to and why" finance and personal career and college opportunity teaches the student how to engage in a "culture of opportunity." EYA advisors give individualized close attention as a caring adult, giving the guidance and strength to expect success. The program offers creative and practical lessons of math and personal finance.
