Part III, Line 4D	UPWARD, a residential addiction recovery program, currently operates 10 beds and allows men who commit to drug treatment to come straight off the streets and prepare for admission into a treatment program. Clear Path, a stabilization program currently operates 24 beds, for men who need stabilization and short-term housing. Maximum stay length is 90-days. Clients are referred to appropriate community programs and resources following the initial intake and assessment. In addition, assigned Gateway staff daily review resources, finding a adequate housing for clients. Each of the 20 men in this program are assigned to a case manager. Life Changers, which currently operates 20 beds, is a program started by Gateway to provide immediate housing and case management for men experiencing homelessness. Often, homeless services require a specific category issue, i.e., veteran, behavioral health, physical health, addiction, job loss, abuse, etc. The Life Changers program often is the gateway to more specific services for the client, offering a stay of up to 90-days. The Life Changers program is uniquely generalist in its design and implementation. An Individual service plan, all with a focus on accountability, strives to help the client secure a sustainable income, and permanent, stable housing. PATH teams build relationships with people living on the streets, allowing them to provide resources and guidance. PATH teams work especially with persons, with severe and persistent mental health issues, that are experiencing homelessness. Gateway works with PATH teams from partner agencies, including, Mercy Care, Community Friendship, and HOPE Atlanta. PATH is an acronym for "Projects for Assistance in Transition from Homelessness." Resident Intern Program provides an opportunity for promising men who have become role models in their gateway communities to take on more responsibility. These men have the opportunity to mentor their fellow Gateway residents, while also working closely with staff in areas tailored to their strengths. Their duties lead to specialization in different areas tailored to professional interests/aspirations in order to develop a particular skill set before leaving Gateway center. Examples include food service, maintenance support, client engagement, etc.
