Chicago Runners - The Chicago Runners program is designed to instill the daily habit of running while promoting digital learning through our virtual marathon database that incorporates historical landmarks and lesson plans for teachers that align with the Illinois Performance Standards *Designed for elementary school children of all fitness and athletic levels*15 minutes of running/walking during the school day (during recess, lunch hour or a fitness break), 3-5 times a week*Distance run is recorded for each child at the end of every session on the virtual database*Children learn about historical landmarks and points of interest on various marathon routes throughout Chicago on the Chicago Run database Each landmark contains lesson plans for teachers that focus on physical fitness, social studies, history, and math*Children earn incentives such as hats, t-shirts, bracelets and water bottles when milestones are met, classes and schools also earn incentives based on mileage benchmarks*Managed by a designated Chicago Run Site Coordinator, with the support of Session Leaders *Session concludes with celebratory events for students, teachers, and their families

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Chicago Running Mates - A middle-school based running program designed to prepare students to run in a local 5k or 8k race. The program teaches the participants about teamwork, commitment, and perseverance utilizing a training program that incorporates fitness and nutrition. This program is unique because it trains participants from different schools together, thereby, breaking down racial and cultural stereotypes and forging friendships that might not otherwise be formed due to the geographic and cultural barriers that exist between neighborhoods. Designed for children in 6th-8th grades After-school based program that meets 3 times a week utilizing coaches to manage the program and provide a positive, active and healthy training environment. *Each hour-long session includes team-building exercises, a running workout, nutritional informational, and motivational discussion topics to promote leadership and camaraderie. *The program concludes with all prepared "Running Mates" to participate in a local 5k

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

L A C E (Leadership, Action, Community, Endurance) Up! is a program designed for Chicago Run program alumni who were previously involved in Running Mates and/or Chicago Runners and are now in high school. Participants have the opportunity to build leadership, mentoring, coaching, and career-readiness skills that will aid in their success through high school and beyond. In addition, L A C E Up! students will continue their commitment to service and fitness by participating in community volunteer projects and running in local races.
