Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Chicago Running Mates - A middle-school based running program designed to prepare students to run in a local 5k or 8k race. The program teaches the participants about teamwork, commitment, and perseverance utilizing a training program that incorporates fitness and nutrition. This program is unique because it trains participants from different schools together, thereby, breaking down racial and cultural stereotypes and forging friendships that might not otherwise be formed due to the geographic and cultural barriers that exist between neighborhoods. *Designed for children in 6th-8th grades* After-school based program that meets 3 times a week utilizing coaches to manage the program and provide a positive, active and healthy training environment. *Each hour-long session includes team-building exercises, a running workout, nutritional informational, and motivational discussion topics to promote leadership and camaraderie. *The program concludes with all prepared "Running Mates" to participate in a local 5k.
