Name: Chicago Run

Form 990 (2020)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Chicago Runners - The Chicago Runners program is designed for youth in Kindergarten through 5th grade. This program provides equitable access to physical activity breaks to promote well-being and improve concentration in the classroom. The Little Strides program is designed to provide high-quality physical activity breaks to youth in early childhood classrooms. The Little Strides curriculum uses games and activities that focus on developing vital gross motor skills that students need upon entering elementary school.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Running Mates - The Running Mates program utilizes running and physical activity to improve social and emotional well-being of young people in middle school and high school. This program provides an inclusive and non-competitive environment in which young people work towards completing a local 5k race, while developing a positive self-image, promoting goal setting, and building relationships with peers and positive mentors. The Summer Strides season of Running Mates brings youth and community members together in a safe and healthy environment to develop their physical and mental health during the summer months. Chicago Run partners with the Cook County Juvenile Temporary Detention Center (JTDC) to bring an all gender running program for participants from all living units in the facility between the ages of 12-17. Each season, participants are provided appropriate running shoes during practices while they train for a race hosted inside the facility. Chicago Run trains JTDC Recreational staff in trauma informing coaching techniques to help facilitate practices. LACE (Leadership, Action, Community, Endurance) Up! is a program designed for Chicago Run program alumni who are now in high school or college. This program provides opportunities for volunteering, career exploration, and paid peer coaching and mentoring (Junior Coaches). Participants develop leadership skills while continuing to build their physical and social and emotional well-being.

Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part X, Line 2:	FIN 48 Note from Audited Financial Statements The Organization was granted an exemption from federal income taxes by the Internal Revenue Service pursuant to the provisions of Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c)(3). The Organization qualifies for the charitable contribution deduction under Section 170(b)(1)(A)(vi) and has been classified as an organization that is not a private foundation under Section 509(a)(1). The tax-exempt purpose of the Organization and the nature in which it operates is described above. Management believes the Organization continues to operate in compliance with its tax-exempt purpose. Thus, no provision for income tax has been provided for in the financial statements. The Organization's Form 990, Return of Organization Exempt from Income Tax, are subject to examination by the IRS, generally for three years after they have been filed. The Organization has adopted the requirements for accounting for uncertain tax positions and management has determined that the Organization was not required to record a liability related to uncertain tax positions of June 30, 2021.
